The South.

-OUR LEFT." From dawn to dark they stood, That long midsummer's day! While Serce and fast The battle-blast Swept rank on rank away!

From dawn to dark, they fought With legions swept and eleft, While black and wide, The battle tide Poured ever on our "Left!"

They closed each ghastly gap? They dressed each shattered rank: They knew, how well! That Freedom fell With that exhausted flank!

"()b!" for a thousand men, Like these that melt away? And down they came, With steel and fame, Four thousand to the fray!

Ther left the laggard train; The panting steam might say; And down they came, With steel and flame.

Head-foremost to the fray !" Right through the blackest cloud Their lightning path they cleft! Freedom and Fame

To our immortal Left. Ye! of your living, sure! Yet of your dead, bereft! Honor the brave Who died to save

Year all, upon our left.

With triumph came_

Marshall Hall was a very early riser, be was not the Virginia Convention, June 4, 1788. rising does not suit my constitution." He was The King, in his reply, pledged himself speedily bearer be a match for a disciplined regiment? In not, however, idle in the early morning hours. and effectually to enforce conclience to the laws and About seven n'clock a cup of coffee was brought the authority of the supreme legislature." His heart Speech in Virginia Convention, June 4th, 1788. to him, after which he wrote or read for an hour was hardened. Having just heard of the seizure of or more before rising. After a second cup of colfee and the flightest of breakfast, he received patients at home from half-past nine till half-past
to his faltering minister, "it must set every delito his faltering ministe twelve o'clock. He then took a luncheon of coffee, cate man at liberty to avow the propriety of the ed the meeting, loud in complaint and accusation, The wife of Colonel Pinckney is distinguished as with abundance of milk and cream, eating some measures. "The New England goe- but guarded and cautious on every point which one of those betoic and self-sacrificing women of the bread and butter. During many years after our eraments are now in a state of rebellion. Blows must might look like an approach towards treasonable revolution, "whose intrepidity and fortitude lent so marriage he ate a meat luncheon, but afterwards decide whether they are to be subject to this country expressions, or direct exhortations to resistance. able a support to the cause of their country." An returned to the former spare meal; latterly he left or to be independent." -- Rancroft's U. N., vol. 7, p. Adams placed himself in the pulpit, and sat quietly incident in her life is recorded in Garden's interest. off even the bread and butter and took nothing 177-277. on even the oresid and total and the congress of 1774, there was not one member of the ladies but coffee. About half-past twelve or one o'clock but coffee. About half-past twelve or one o'clock ber, except Patrick Henry, who appeared to me but coffee on the grass, was suddenly be not to admire the intrepid firmness of the ladies following pithy apologue: "A Grecian philosopher of your country. Had your men but half their sensible of the precipice, or rather the pinnacle on the pinnacle on the palm of resolution, we might give up the contest. American floquence, Vol. 1. writing or reading in his carriage. His dinner enough to acknowledge it. America is in total ig- his hand. He closed his hand quickly as he awoke, would be invincible. "-American Eloquence, Vol. 1. generally consisted of roast mutton and a rice norance, or under infinite deception concerning that and found he had caught in it a small field mouse. pudding, with bitter beer, and only one glass of assembly. To draw the characters of them all As he was examining the little animal which had They rushed on with headlong indiscretion, port in the form of negus after dinner. ()t this would require a volume, and would now be con- dated to attack him, it bit him unexpectedly a se- thinking not to involve the empire in a civil war, simple meal he partook with an almost invariable sidered as a caricatured print. One-third Torics, cond time: he dropped it, and it escaped. Now, but to subdue the Americans by fear. The first appetite, though sparingly, for he was an ex- another Whigs, and the rest mongrels. tremely small enter. Sometimes a short nap suc-tremely small enter. Sometimes a short nap suc-creded to this moderate and wholesome repast; and he possessed the faculty attributed to Napo-leon and Wellington of falling asleep at conve-leon and Wellington of falling asleep at convenient spare moments, and waking, when requisite, renovated and ready for fresh exertions. During It was a maxim of the Roman people, which emithe long period when he was pursuing his experi- nently conduced to the greatness of that State, never ments, aided by Mr. Henry Smith, if the latter to despair of the commonwealth. The maxim nav it the King of Great Britain should be allowed to did not dive with us, which he often did, seven PROVE AS RALUTARY TO US NOW, AS IT DID TO THEM. | hold our forte and cannon, or to have authority o'clock was the hour for his arrival. While the Short-sighted mortals see not the numerous links of over a single regiment in America or a single ship ; clock was yet striking, Mr. Smith's peculiar rap small and great events which form the chain on of war in her ports. For if he holds our torts he clock was yet striking, Mr. Smith a peculiar rap at the door was heard. Such was his punctuality, that if three minutes had passed beyond the hour we need to say. "Mr. Smith is sure not to hour, we used to say, "Mr. Smith is sure not to Hardships and dangers, though we for ever strive come now." After a short conversation on the to show have frequently called forth such sharkles will be fixed upon us—witness Ireland and cups of tea were speedily sent into them, and the brave. Perhaps, (all gracious heaven avert it.) mations are not to be depended upon, witness the refreshing beverage doubtless sped the work. Dur- perhaps the power of Britain, a nation great in disappointments of the inhabitants of Quebec and St. by his side night and day .- Memoirs of Marshall

NOT DEEP EXOCGHYST FOR PRATING.—We beard, \ a night or two since, a tolerable good story of a couple of raftsmen. The event occurred during his pole: "he aisy, now what's the use of praying when a tellow can tech bottom with a pole?" Mike is a pretty good specimen of a large class of Christians, who prefer to omit prayer as long as they can "tech the bottom."

some fifty times in the course of each century, Peter demanded permission to enter the royal navy, and was at once appointed to the command worst of mischiefs should they be had men. their glasses, vociferously returned by the delighted British sailors. The Ararat Adverturer (shade of Noah!) of] a trustworthy and efficient servant in the family onely tried and punished, powerfully excite him to prepared for the bold advice, they were published of a neighboring squatter.

tive of these ends, it is the right of the people to ment, laying its foundation on such principles, and be peculiar, perhaps singular. What do we mean Resistance. organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall by the Revolution? The war? That was no part seem most likely to effect their safety and happi- of the Revolution. It was only an effect and conners. Prudance, indeed, will dictate that govern. sequence of it. The Revolution was in the minds hundred and fifty-three still remained in the town, ments long established, should not be changed for of the people, and this was effected from 1760 to 1775; pining of sortow; deprived of wholesome food; conlight and transient causes; and, accordingly, all in the course of fifteen years, before a drop of blood | fined to their houses after ten o'clock in the evenexperience bath shown, that mankind are more die | wee drawn at Lexington. The records of thirteen | ing; liable to be robbed without redress; ever exposed to saffer, while evils are safferable, than to Legislatures, the pamphlete, newspapers, in all the powed to the malice of the soldiers, and children for h right themselves by abolishing the forms to which colonies, should be consulted during that period, tears as proofs of disloyalty.—Beacreft's U. S., they are accestomed. But, when a long train of to ascertain the steps by which the public opinion | vol. 8, p. 42, year 1775. abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the was calightened and informed concerning the ausame object, evinces a design to reduce them under | thority of l'arliament over the colonies. The Conabsolute desportism, it is their duty, to throw off grees of 1774 resembled, in some respects, though I such government, and to provide new guards for hope not in many, the Council of Nice in Ecclesian their tuture security."-Declaration of Indepen- tical history. It amembled the priests, from the

Yes, sir, we wish for peace, but how is that blessing to be preserved? I shall repeat here a sentiment I have often had occasion to express. In my opinion there is nothing worth tighting for but national honor: for, in the national honor is invol-Feb. 24, 1803.

Guard with jealous attention the public liberty. Buspect every one who approaches that jewel. fortunately, nothing will preserve it but downright) Dough in youth, while pursuing his studies, Lan innumber actually detect the pursuing his studies, Lan innumber actually detect the learn, Speech in come now. After a short conversation on the to shun them, have frequently called forth such shackles will be fixed upon us—witness Ireland and topics of the day, they prepared for their evening's virtues as have commanded the applause and rever- her national army. The most express act of Parwork, my husband's words, as I left the room, ence of an admiring world. Our country loudly liament cannot give us security, for acts of l'arliabeing, "Let us have ten soon." Accordingly calls you to be circumspect, vigilant, active and ment are as easily repealed as made. Royal proclacourage you. Her arms, 'tis true, have filled the cession of ministers, for which the British Court RIFLE AND LIGHT INFANTET TACTICE, including this even till the next morning. Hence the ex- world with terror; her troops have reaped the has been famous during the present reign, yet the traordinary accuracy of his works. His usual laurels of the field; her fleets have rode triumphant oams ruinous policy over continued to preced against HANDY BOOK FOR THE UNITED STATES SOLDING hour of retiring to rest was about eleven, or rather on the sea; and when, or where, did you, my coun. America. In short, I think it my duty to declare, later. He generally slept well, but if not, he oc- trymen, depart inglorious from the field of fight? in the awful seat of justice and before Almighty RIVLE AND LIGHT INFARTRY TACTICS, illustrated cupied himself in reading and writing in bed; for You, too, can show the trophies of your forefathers' God, that in my opinion the Americans can have books, papers, and writing materials were always victories and your own; can name the fortresses no safety but by the Divine favor, their own virtue, and battles you have won; and many of you count and their being so prudent as NOT TO LEAVE IT IN the honorable scars of wounds received, whilst the power of the British Rulers to injure fighting for your king and country . -- Joseph | THEM. Indeed the ruinous and dendly injuries re-Warren, Boston, March 6th, 1775.

and misrepresentation. In such case no man, who least given to reflection apon the rise and full of omis worthy of life, liberty or property, will or can reso many rafts were swamped and so many steam- fuse to join with you in defending them to the last Britain and America, the latter being in subboats lost their sky riggings. A raft was just extremity, disdaining every sorded view, and the jection to the former.—Chief Justice Drayton, Charge emerging from Lake Pepin as the squall came. mean, paltry considerations of private interest and to the Grand Jury, Charleston, April 23, 1776. In an instant the raft was pitching and writhing present emolument, when placed in competion with as if suddenly dropped into Charyledis, while the | the liberties of millions; and, seeing that there is no | waves broke over with tremendous uproar, and alternative but absolute, unconditional submission, left without hope but in a miracle, said desponding expecting instant destruction, the raftsman drop- and the most abject slavery, or a defence becoming patriots. 'I confess,' said Samuel Adams, 'we have, ped on his knees and commenced praying with a choice. Although superior force may, by the per- many flatter themselves that their pusillanimity vim equal to the emergency. Happening to open mission of Heaven, lay waste our towns and ravage is true prudence; but in persons times lake these, I his eyes an instant, he observed his companion our country, it can never eradicate from the breasts councile of prudence without fortitude." not engaged in prayer, but pushing a pole into of freemen, those principles which are ingrafted in persevered; but John Adams retired from the serthe water at the side of the raft. "What's that their very nature. Such men WILL DO THEIR vice of the people, and devoting himself to his prover doin', Mike?" said be; "set down on yer DUTY, KEITHER ENOWING NOR REGARDING CONSE- fession, for a time ceased even to employ his pen in knees, now, for there isn't a minit between us quances; but submitting them, with humble confi. their defence. Otis who had returned to the Legisand Purgatory!" "Be aisy, Pat," said the other, dence, to the omniscient and omnipotent Arbiter lature, disordered in mind, and jealous of his deas he coolly continued to punch the water with and Director of the fate of empires, and trusting clining influence, did but impede the public cause. that his Almighty arm, which has been so signally In Hancock, also, vanity so mingled with patriotstretched out for our desence, will deliver them in | ism, that the Government hoped to separate him a righteous cause. - John Rutledge, in the South from its uncompromising opponents." - Bancroft's Carolina Assembly, April 11th, 1776.

Your strongholds will be in the hands of your enetween Dennistk and Sweden, as it invariably did mies. It is on the supposition that your American world-here, there are many who see the right, Hovernors shall be konest that all its good qualities | are founded, but its defective and imperfect con-Atruction puts it in their power to perpetrate the of a vessel called the Worm, bearing four guns. Fir, would not all the world, from the Eastern to Endless are the anecdotes related of his daring. the Western bemisphere, blame our distracted folly On one occasion be met with an English priva- in resting our rights upon the contingency of our teer. "If that frigate were Swedish," he ex- rulers being good or bad? Show me that age and claimed. "I should take it; but the English have country where the rights and liberties of the peotoo much practice, and fight too well for me to ple were placed on the sole chance of their ruler. hope for an easy conquest." The vessels engaged, being good men without a consequent loss of liband a hard fought battle ensued, such as always has ever followed, with absolute certainty, any takes place, and will take place when Danes and such mad attempt. If your American chief be a English meet in warfare. "I have no more pow- man of ambition and abilities, how easy will it be der," cried Torkenskiold: so he sends a flag of for him to render himself absolute! The army is in truce on board, requesting the English captain to his hands, and, if he be a man of address, it will be them bondage in Virginia was not a lower condilend him some that he might continue the battle attached to him; and it will be the subject of long "tion of being than their former one; they had no or, if he would not, begging him to come on meditation with him to seize the first angicious regreta for ancient privileges lost; their memoboard and receive the respect due to so gallant an moment to accomplish his design. And, sir, will "ries prompted no demand for political changes; enemy. The Englishman declined, so they drank to each other from their respective vessels and the American spirit solely relieve you when this to each other from their respective vessels and their spirit solely relieve you when this the American spirit solely relieve you when this the American spirit solely relieve you when this the American spirit solely relieve you when this the fundamental of their to each other from their respective vessels and their spirit solely relieve you when this the fundamental of their to each other from their respective vessels and their spirit solely relieve you when this the fundamental of their to each other from their respective vessels and their spirit solely relieve you when this the fundamental of their to each other from their respective vessels and their spirit solely relieve you when this the fundamental of their to each other from their respective vessels and their spirit solely relieve you when this the fundamental of their to each other from their respective vessels and their spirit solely relieve you when this the fundamental of their properties are the fundamental of their spirit solely relieve you when this the fundamental of their spirit solely relieve you when this the fundamental of their spirit solely relieve you when this the fundamental of their spirit solely relieve you when this the fundamental of their spirit solely relieve you when this the fundamental of their spirit solely relieve you when this the fundamental of their spirit solely relieve you when this the fundamental of their spirit solely relieve you when this the fundamental of their spirit solely relieve you when the spirit solely relieve you when the spirit solely relieve you when this properties in the fundamental of their spirit solely relieve you when the spirit solely relieve you when th cheers rose from the Danes, as the captains raised have a king, loted and commons, than a govern-I ment so replete with such insupportable crils. I we make a king, we may prescribe the rules by which he shall rule his people, and interpose such [" to outrun the convictions and sympathies of their] checks as shall prevent him from intringing them: ["constituents, and pleasing themselves by confiding] a late date announces that an interesting ceremony, witnessed by a large congregation, took army, can prescribe the terms on which he shall a made no adequate preparations for resistance, but place at the Church of England Schoolroom, Ara- reign master so far that it will passle any American a would not even consent to relieve the states from rat—the marriage of two aboriginals. Charles ever to get his neck from under the galling yoke. I "anarchy by sanctioning the institution of Govern-Gambier and Fangy Moorel, by the Rev. P. Ho- cannot, with patience, think of this idea. If ever coments in the several colonies. The hesitancy of man. Both have been members of the Church of he violates the laws, one of two things will happen: "so many members, especially of Dickinson, in-England for years. The bridegroom, a fine look- he will come at the head of his army to carry "censed John Adams, who maintained that the ing aboriginal, was a native of Mount Gambier, and has been brought up in civilized life from his childhood. The bride has received some educa-tion, is very intelligent, and has been a teacher in tion, is very intelligent, and has been a teacher in throne? Will not the immense difference between "New England, avowing these opinions, were ina Sunday-School, and from childhood has been being master of every thing, and being ignomini- "tercepted; and so little were the central colonies make this bold push? But, sir, where is the exist- | "by the royalists as the surest way of destroying | sell

OLD FOGY DOCTRINES.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalignable rights; that their Creator with certain unalignable rights; that they are endowed by among these, are life, liberty, and the pursuit of among these, are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That, to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just will associate paracotics universe. Patrick Henus affectionate coefficients coefficients.

As to the history of the Bevolution, my ideas may I compared notes, engaged in discussions and debates, and formed results by one role and by two coles which went out to the world ne unanimous. -John Adams, Letter to Jefferson, August 14, 1815.

The honorable gentleman who presided, told us,] red the national independence. I know that a State | that to prevent abuses in our government we will may find itself in such unpropitious circumstances, assemble in convention, recall our delegated pow. their new member, Jefferson: These Colonies now that produce may force a wise government to concont ers, and punish the servants for abusing the trust feel the complicated calamities of fire, sword and Used by Wooles, Chuan, Sup and Paper Manufacturers. Tan the sense of indignity. But the small should be en- reputed in them. Oh, sir, we should have fine famine. We are reduced to the alternative of graves on tablete of brave, with a penril of steel, times, indeed, if to punish tyrants it were only suffice choosing an unconditional submission to irritated AND WHER THAT TIME AND CHANCE, WRICH HAPPEN cient to assemble the people. Four arms wherewith ministers, or resistance by force. The latter is our TO ALL, SHALL BRIEG FORWARD THE PAYORABLE HO- you could defend yoursciers are gone; and you have choice. We have counted the cost of this contest' MENT, THEN LET THE AVENGING ARM STRIKE HOME. It me longer on aristocratical, no longer a democratical and find nothing so dreadful as roluntary slavery." is only by avowing and maintaining this stern princi- spirit. Did you ever read of any revolution in any -Bancroft's U.S. col. 8, p. 36, year 1773. ple of honor, that peace can be preserved .- Gour- | nation brought about by the punishment of those erneur Morrie, Speech in the Senate of the U.S., in power, inflicted by those who had no power at all? You read of a riot act in a country which is portionably great; and the gloom in the quarters called one of the freest in the world, where a few of the British was deepened by the reflection that neighborn cannot assemble without the risk of being | they had fought not against an enemy, but against short by a hired soldiery, the engines of despotism. | their fellow-subjects and kindred; not for the pro-We may see such an act in America. A standing motion of civil or religious freedom, but for the suarmy we shall have also, to excente the executive premary of one part of the empire gree another."commands of tyranny, and how are you to punish | Bancroft's U. S., val. 8, pp. 25-26, Battle of Bunthem? Will you order them to be punished !- ker Hill. Who shall obey those orders? Will your mace-

There was a little aristocracy among us of talents which this trifling circumstance gave birth to, in sachusetts in a state of rebellion, and to pledge the

Our liberties and safety cannot be depended upon l

ceived on our side, and the jealousies entertained, and which in the nature of things must daily increase Truth, being known, will prevail over artifice against us, on the other, demonstrate to a mind the

"The glorious spirit of liberty is vanquished and) U. S., vol. 6, page 402, year 1771.

" 'Here,' said Mayhew, as he lamented the cold ad- \ Where are your checks in this government? - heeion of the timid good, and for himself, trod the thorny path of resistance to the grandeurs of the and yet the wrong pursue. But it is my fixed rese-Untion, notwithstanding many discouragements, in my little ephere, to do all I can for the service of my country, that neither the republic nor the l churches of New England may sustain any injury. And every where men began to enter into a solemn | agreement not to use a single article of British manufacture; not even to wear black clothes for mourning. To encourage the growth and manufacture of wool, nearly all Boston signed a covenant to est no lamb." -- Bancroft's U. S., col. 5, p. 206.

> . But in truth the cry of Dunmote did not rouse , " among the Africans a passion for freedom. To 17. S., col. 8, p. 225-year 1775.

. " Yet the majority of Congress, scrupulous not \ powers from the consent of the government becomes destrucwhenever any form of government becomes destrucwith not associate neutring of the people, Congress of the people, Bancroft U. S., vol. 8, p. . 24, "Not Prepared for

"Of the inhabitants of Boston, six thousand seven

"When Washington learned the fate of the rich "emporium of his own 'country,' for so he called "Virginia, his breast beaved with waves of anger "and grief; 'I hope,' said he, 'this and the threat-"ened derastation of other places will unite the "whole country in one indissoluble bond against a 'anation which seems lost to every sense of virtue i " and those feelings which distinguish a civilized terpeople from the most barbarous savages."-Bancroft U. S., 8 col., 232—Burning of Norfolk.

"They closed their statement in the words of "The loss of officers was observed to be dispro-

"A town meeting of Boston had been called avihe | he subservient to their commerce, our real interest |

In the Congress of 1774, there was not one mem- and made a few remarks, which he closed with the of rank once said to Mrs. Pinckney-'It is impossi-call out the savages on the rear of the Colonies; the next, to the next, to exciten service insurrection.—Bancroff's U. S., col. 7, p. 322.

FOR SALE BY

SUN IRON BUILDING.

COLDIER'S GUIDE TO HEALTH $.25 HARDER'S RIPLE AND LIGHT INFANTRY . MILITARY TREE BOOK, by L. D. Williams, illustrated. . A the Articles of War and Dictionary of Military Terms 1.25 containing instructions for the Recruit....... GROSS MILITARY SURGERY APPLETON'S MAP OF THE SEAT OF WAR...... HENRY TATLOR, Rus from Building.

No. 52 Centre Market Space,

BALTIMORE Offers to could buyers a strick of

in the city, at prices to suit the times.

VTABLE AND POCKET CUTLERY. PERFUMERY, HOSIERY,

STATIONERY, COMBS, BRUSHES, MERRILL'S MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

PISTOLS,

GENTS FURNISHING GOODS,

UMBRELLAS AND PARASOLS,

PORTE MONAIES AND PURSES. SKELETON SKIRTS,

WARWICK, FRICK & BALL,

TRIMMINGS, &c. &c.

AGENTS FOR THE NALE OF MANUFACTURED AND LEAF

TOBACCO, No. 60 SOUTH STREET, BALTIMORE.

1.MOUR ... FLOUR. ... A choice assortment of supe-To roo FLOTE, someble for Bakers and Family purposes, t FRUILS -"Web h " Euleka" "Pine Hill," "Monrovia," } SUPER - "Walnut Best in " "Newark, " Millerite," etc. RYE FLOUR-Wade of pure Virginia Witte Rye.

For male by manufacturates agettle, C. D. HINKS & CO., No. 41 youth Howard street, near Locatord.

HUGH SISSON,

STEAM MARBLE WORKS,

Cor. North and Monument Sts.. BALTIMORE.

(Monuments, Grave Stones, Mantles, Table Tops, Tiles for Floors, Garden Statuary, &c.

Foreign and Domestic MARBLE foreighed the trade at law

R. J. BAKER,

Importer and Manufacturer of

DYE WOODS.

CHEMICALS, &c.

36 S. Charles Street BALTIMORE

CHARLES H. MYERS & BRO. INFORTERS OF

Brandies, Rum, Gin;

Upon the whole it has been the policy of the Port, Madeira, Sherry, Lisbon Claret and White Wines,

> Cordials, &c. WITH STEAT DEPCEIPTION OF

FOREIGN LIQUORS, SALAD OILS Scotch Ale, London Stout, Cigars,

Corner South and Exchange Place, BAITINGRE.

SAMUEL S. MILLS,

BOOK AND

ESTABLISHMENT,

No. 122 BALTIMORE STREET,

(I door from North Street, Up Stairs,) BALTIMORK

BJ Kvery description of JOB PRINTING executed on reason

J. J. & F. TURNER,

No: 42 Pratt Street, Baltimore,

IMPORTERS AND DEALERS IN EVERY DESCRIPTION OF

GUANO.

FILEWORTH'S EQUAYE DELL. by Col. Batter, Hoursed ... EXCELSIOR, "?

(No. 1 PERUTIAN GUARO

HOLUBLE PROSPHATES.)

DEALERS IF

GRAIN AND FIELD SEEDS

WILLIAM HARRIS. GUN, RIFLE & PISTOL

MANUFACTURER,

No. 116 Pratt Street,

1 door from South Street, Baltimore.

MERRILL, THOMAS & CO.,

No. 239 Baltimore Street,

BALTIMORE.

CORTLAN & Co.

BRONZES, ALBATA WARES,

INPORTERS OF

DINNER, TEA AND DESSERT SERVICES, Family and Fancy Hardware,

HOUSE FURNISHING ARTICLES OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

216 & 218 BALTIMORE STREET,

MARBLE BUILDING. A CARD.-E. SZEMELEMYI, PROFESSOR OF 2% MUSIC, will return to this City from Europe on the lat-OF SEPTEMBER, and will resume his nexal matructions -

Communications left at the music stores of Mesers. Willig, and Millier and Beackam, on Charles street, or at the Plano Ware better of Wm. Kanbe & Co, will reach him and receive due at