esquisite tenderness and pathos were recalled to our whenever any form of government becomes destrucand at the sight of those little ones, twice orphaned whose futurity had brought "sometimes smiles and the sight of those futurity had brought "sometimes smiles and the sight of those futurity had brought "sometimes smiles and sight of the sight of those futurity had brought "sometimes smiles and sight of the sight mind while visiting the home thus consecrated by tive of these ends, it is the right of the people to whose futurity had brought "sometimes smiles and new. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that govern-

SATURDAY NIGHT.

& DOMESTIC REVERIE.

Saurday night! Alone I sit In musing mood before the fire-A pleasant book !-- the burner lit-What more could studious man desire? A moment since, my metry girls Went bounding forth in childish glee-Those laughing eyes, those reguish curls-Oh, they are worth the world to me!

They climbed and clamored for the kiss-The good-night kiss that all must share. The signet seal of bousehold bliss, Before the whispered evening prayer-(The "new I lay me down to sleep.") So softly and so meekly said--May angels guardian watches keep Around my durlings peaceful bed.

Life, with my pets, is sunny morn-For them each day new glories glow-For them new bads of blim are born, Blue skies, for them, arch all below; They wake with gladness in their eyes-They feel no care—they knew no ill-Fach morning brings some sweet surprise, Which dreams, at night, make sweeter still.

My prayers are with them while they sleep-My prayers go with them when they wake: They are the jewels which I keep And cherish for my Mary's sake! Yes, doubly dear they seem to me, Now motherless in tender years, And thoughts of their futurity Bring sometimes smiles and sometimes tears.

Nor less beloved the form that stood, In pensive silence near my chair, Just blushing into womanhood, My eldest daughter, grave and fair; Her wave of life with softest glide, Was sublit, till one cloud of wee, With spreading margin, far and wide, O'ershadowed all that lay below.

And be-the boy that bears my name, So full of pranks and mirthful lore-I see so much to praise—to blame— I know not which he needs the more: His scorn of study, love of fun, His reckless, roring, wayward will, Leaves patience sometimes quite outdone. And yet I-love the youngster still!

----TABLE OF DISTANCES IN MISSOURI. Below we give as accurate a table of distances 1813. between the several points of interest in Missourie, trom bositive a	diffectness warm

to be few:		106
Se Louis	to Jeffermon City	123
_	A. I. A. B. M. W. I. M.
_		***
	AA 8'81FA BIWL INILL P 8 1795797	,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,, ta Phiat Kotba	(79
	Ark Birkliff
	to Springfield	231
do	Transmission	37
ington	to Warrensburg	3.
Sedalia	to Warrensburg	3)
•	**
	10 W 2722 W
1	to Independency	*****
	to Kansai Cilit
471:	to Osceola
•	### #*################################
43 1.	ter bart Multhannerseres	, •
-
40	to Springfield	3
Bolivar	Carthage
 Springfield 	THE CALLED CO.	7
		•
do	to Faretteville (Ark)	.,,,,,,,,
do	to Rolls
	to Lebanon
43. Januari 1954 a K	way to Cairo
d.,	to Charkston	•••••
than the sect	ean to Pilot Knob	,,,,,,, a speech of Hon. Joseph Holt, four years since : prace, and that she might be allowed to sit 'under alternative but absolute, unconditional submission, left without hope but in a miracle, said desponding her own vine and fig tree' and enjoy those bless- and the most abject slavery, or a defence becoming patriots. I confess, said Samuel Adams, 'we have, ings which the institutions of the country promise men born to freedom, he will not heritate about the as Wolfe expressed it, a choice of difficulties. Too alike to all. Standing with unsandled feet upon the baying her hand upon its altar, she calls upon the laying her hand upon its altar, she calls upon the of freemen, those principles which are ingrafted in persevered; but John Adams retired from the sermen of the North to respect her position, to for- their very nature. Such men WILL DO THEIR vice of the people, and devoting himself to his prothe wall amid that ever-ringing cry of self-right- quesces; but submitting them, with humble conficousness with which her cars have been stunned." dence, to the omniscient and omnipotent Arbiter lature, disordered in mind, and jealous of his de-Hon. Edward Everett's letter of acceptance for the Vice Presidency in 1860. can be maintained by the numerical predomi- Carolina Assembly, April 11th, 1776. nance and military prowess of one section, exerted to coerce the other into submission is, in my tion in its organic functions."

N EW BOO	OKS-NEW BOOKS-NEW BOOKS
1	ow reads and for sale by
.,	HENRY TATLOR,
	Sun from Building.
SILAS WARN	ER, OF THE WEAVER OF RATELOE,

By the author of Adam Bede, . AFTER ICEBERGS, WITH A PAINTER. A summer voyage to labrator. By L. L. Noble$1 10 CURRENTS AND COUNTER CURRENTS. By Oliver Wendell Holmes. LIFE AND CAREER OF MAJOR ANDRE.

WACAULAY S HISTORY OF ENGLAND. SETEMAL EDITIONS. Cheap edition-5 vols , complete in one ... do. do 5 vols, 12mo Large edition, him paper and large type, 5 rols .

By Mrs Young THE ALCHETMIST, TRUMPS. By Curus, author of Potaphar Papers ... STALL THE POPULAR MAGAZINES AND NEWSPA

HOPES AND FEARS,

PERS ON HAND. HENRY TATLOR. Sun Iron Building, Baltimore. REPRYAD BRIFE Marset, F. Alberti.

F. ALBERTI & CO., IMPORTERS OF GERMAN, FRENCH & ENGLISH

FARCY GOODS.

nometimes tears" to a father's loving heart.—J. B. W.] ments long established, should not be changed for the people, and this was effected from 1760 to 1775, pining of sorrow; deprived of wholesome food; con-same object, evinces a design to reduce them under grees of 1774 resembled, in some respects, though / "emporium of his own country," for so he called absolute despotism, it is their duty, to throw off hand not in many. the Countril of Nice in Realistic Countril of Nice in Re absolute despotism, it is their duty, to throw on sope not in many, the Council of Nice in Erclesian- "Virginia, his breast heaved with waves of anger such government, and to provide new guards for himilaisance. It assembled the rejects from the their tuture security."—Declaration of Independent the most the north and the most label "and grief; "I hope, said be, "this and the threat their tuture security."—Declaration of Independent the most the north and the most label. Yes, sir, we wish for peace, but how is that blesslag to be preserved? I shall repeat here a sentilag to be preserved? I shall repeat here a sentilag to be preserved? I shall repeat here a sentilag to be preserved? I shall repeat here a sentilag to be preserved? I shall repeat here a sentilag to be preserved? I shall repeat here a sentilag to be preserved? ment I have often had occasion to express. In my opinion there is nothing worth fighting for but ved the national independence. I know that a State | that to prevent abuses in our government we will HENT, THEN LET THE AVENUING AND STRIKE HOME. It molecular the country of the coun is only by arowing and maintaining this stern principle of honor, that peace can be preserved. -- Gous- nation brought about by the punishment of those erneur Morris, Speech in the Senate of the U. S., all S. Son and of a risk and in a manufacture of the U. S., all S. Son and of the U. S. S., all S. Son and of the U. S. S., all S. Son and of the U. S. S., all S. Son and of the U. S. S., all S. Son and S. So Feb. 24, 1803.

fortunately, nothing will preserve it but downright Guard with jealous attention the public liberty. ARE IMEVITABLY BUINER.—Patrick Henry, Speech in them? Will con order them to be amaiched. The Virginia Convention, June 4, 1788.

the authority of the supreme legislature." His heart Speech in Virginia Convention, June 4th, 1788, the deluded Americans." "If it does not," said he gression upon the rights of the people. The different bury, Charleston, May 13, to his faltering minister, "it must set every deligned on the patriot party had in turn addressed to his faltering minister, "it must set every deligned on the patriot party had in turn addressed to his faltering minister, the must set every deligned on the propriety of the light of the meeting, loud in complaint and accusation. The wife of the first transfer of the question.—Chief Justice Dray, Charleston, May 13, the party of the light of the meeting of the meeting, loud in complaint and accusation.

The wife of the question.—Chief Justice Dray, Charleston, May 13, the party of the light of the meeting of the meeting of the meeting of the meeting. The wife of the party of the meeting of the cate man at liberty to arow the propriety of the ed the meeting, loud in complaint and accusation, The wife of Colonel Pinckney is distinguished as most coercies measures. "The New England gos- but guarded and cautious on every point which one of those heroic and self-sacrificing women of the ornments are now in a state of rebellion. Blows must might look like an approach towards treasonable revolution, "whose intrepidity and fortitude lent so decide whether they are to be subject to this country expressions, or direct exhortations to resistance. able a support to the cause of their country." An sensible of the precipice, or rather the pinnacle on who was lying asleep on the grass, was suddenly of your country. Had your men but half their which we stood, and had candor and courage roused by the bite of some animal on the palm of resolution, we might give up the contest. America enough to acknowledge it. America is in total ig- his hand. He closed his hand quickly as he awoke, would be invincible." - American Moquence, Vol. 1. norance, or under infinite deception concerning that and found he had caught in it a small field mouse. assembly. To draw the characters of them all As he was examining the little animal which had They rushed on with headlong indiscretion, would require a volume, and would now be con- dared to attack him, it bit him unexpectedly a re- thinking not to involve the empire in a civil war, sidered as a caricatured print. One-third Tories, cond time: he dropped it, and it escaped. Now, but to subdue the Americans by fear. The first another Whigs, and the rest mongrels.

There was a little aristocracy among us of talents which this trilling circumstance gave birth to, in sachusetts in a state of rebellion, and to pledge the and letters. Mr. Dickinson was primus inter pures, the mind of the philosopher? It was this: That parliament and the whole force of Great Britain to the bell-wether, the leader of the aristocratical there is no animal, however work and contemptible, its reduction; the next, by prohibiting the Ameri-Bock. - John Adams, Letter to Jefferson, Nov. 12, which cannot defend its non liberty, if it will only can fisheries, to starte New England; the next, to

It was a maxim of the Roman people, which eminently conduced to the greatness of that State, never from positive correctness will, we think, be found to despair of the commonwealth. The waxin may if the King of Great Britain should be allowed to PROTE AS SALUTARY TO UN NOW, AN IT DID TO THEM. | hold our forts and cannon, or to have authority | Short-sighted mortals see not the numerous links of over a single regiment in America or a single ship small and great events which form the chain on of war in her ports. Fog if he holds our forts he which the fate of kings and nations is suspended .- | way turn them against be, as he did Boston against } Ease and prosperity, though pleasing for a day, her proprietors; if he acquires our cannon he will have often sunk a people into effeminacy and sloth. | effectually disarm the colony; if he has a command Hardships and dangers, though we for ever strive of troops among us, even if we raise and pay them, to shun them, have frequently called forth such shackles will be bred ugen us-witness Ireland and virtues as have commanded the applause and rever- her national army. The most express act of Par-? ence of an admiring world. Our country loudly liament cannot give us security, for acts of Parliacalls you to be circumspect, rigilant, active and ment are as easily repealed as made. Royal procla-38 brave. Perhaps, (all gracious heaven avert it,) mations are not to be depended upon, witness the 's perhaps the power of Britain, a nation great in disappoid sents of the intabilants of Queber and St. war, by some malignant influence, may be em- Augustine. Even a change of ministry will not ployed to enslave you; but let not even this dis- avail us, because, notwithstanding the rapid suc 'n courage you. Her arme, 'tis true, have filled the cession of ministers, for which the British Court world with terror; her troops have reaped the has been famous during the present reign, yet the 6 laureland the field; her fleets have rude triumphant some ruinous pedicy ever untinned to prevent against HANDY BONG FOR THE UNITED STATES SOLDIER on the sea; and when, or where, did you, my counton the sea; and when, or where, did you, my counton the sea; and when, or where, did you, my counton the sea; and when, or where, did you, my counton the sea; and when, or where, did you, my counton the sea; and when, or where, did you, my counton the sea; and when, or where, did you, my counton the sea; and when, or where, did you You, too, can show the trophies of your forefathers' God, that in my opinion the Americans can have O victories and your own; can name the fortresses no safety but by the Divine favor, their own virtue, THE MOLDIER'S GUIDE, a Manual and Drill for the and battles you have won; and many of you count and their being so prudent as not to LEAVE IT IN the honorable scars of wounds received, whilst THE POWER OF THE BRITISH RULERAS TO INJURE O fighting for your king and country . - Joseph THEN. Indeed the reseased and deadly injuries re-Warren, Buenn, March 6th, 1775.

is worthy of life, liberty or property, will or can re- pires, that true reconcilement can never exist between Now AND THEX.—The following extract is from fuse to join with you in defending them to the last Great Britain and America, the latter being in submean, paltry considerations of private interest and to the Grand Jury, Charleston, April 23, 1776. "The South has ever deprecated agitation. - present emolument, when placed in competion with and Director of the fate of empires, and trusting clining influence, did but impede the public cause. stretched out for our defence, will deliver them in ism, that the Government hoped to separate him "The suggestion," said be, "that the Union a righteous cause .- John Rutledge, in the South from its uncompromising opponents." -- Bancroft's

Where are your checks in this government?-- 1 Your strongholds will be in the hands of your ene-) It comes loaded with the death-smell from fields mies. It is on the supposition that your American of all Republican Governments is the consent of struction puts it in their power to perpetrate the my little sphere to do all I can for the service of the governed, much more does a union of co-equal provet of mischiefs should they be had men. And, States require as its basis the voluntary co-opera- sir, would not all the world, from the Eastern to the Western hemisphere, blame our distracted folly [rulers being good or bad? Show me that age and agreement not to use a single article of British] country where the rights and liberties of the peobeing good men without a consequent loss of lib. ture of wool, near all Boston signed a covenant erty. I say that the loss of that dearest privilege to eat no lamb."— encroft's U. S., vol. 5, p. 206,) has ever followed, with absolute certainty, any year 1771. such mad attempt, If your American chief be a man of ambition and abilities, how easy will it he ! for him to render himself absolute! The army is in "among the Airi ans a passion for freedom. To bis hands, and, if he be a man of address, it will be "them bondage in Virginia was not a lower condi-) attached to him; and it will be the subject of long "tion of being then their former one; they had no meditation with him to seize the first auspicious "regrets for ancent privileges lost; their memomoment to accomplish his design. And, sir, will "ries prompted in demand for political changes; the American spirit solely relieve you when this "no struggling a irations of their own had invited, happened I would rather, infinitely, and I am sure "Dunmore's into position; no memorial of their most of this convention are of the same opinion, "grievances had receded his offices." Buseroft's have a king, lords and commons, than a govern | 17. S., col. 8, p. 2 n - year 1775. I ment so replete with such insupportable evils. If we make a king, we may prescribe the rules by which he shall rule his people, and interpose such "to outrun the enviction- and sympathies of their checks as shall prevent him from infringing them: "constituents, i, pleasing themselves by confiding) but the president in the field, at the head of his "ing in the spirity restoration of peace, not only a nemy, can prescribe the terms on which he shall "made no adec to preparations for resistance, but) reign master so far that it will puzzle any American " would not ev aconsent to relieve the states from) ever to get his neck from under the galling yoke. I "anarchy by w "tioning the institution of Govern cannot, with patience, think of this idea. It ever "ments in the veral colonies. The hesitancy of hewiolates the laws, one of two things will happen: "so many melders, especially of Dickinson, in he will come at the head of his army to carry "censed John dame, who maintained that the every thing before him; or, he will give bail, or do "fifty or sixty" on composing Congress should at what Mr. Chief Justice will order him. If he be "once form ag stitution for a great empire, proguilty will not the recollection of his crimes teach "ride for its fence, and, in that safe attitude, him to make one hold push for the American "await the of sion of the King. His letters to throne? Will not the immense difference between "New Englage avewing these opinions, were in being master of every thing, and being ignomini- "tercepted; i, and little were the central colonies) ously tried and punished, powerfully excite him to "prepared for the bold advice, they were published ; Wes Sand S NOUTH LIBERTY ST., near MALTIMORE ST | make this bold push? But, sir, where is the exist. "by the roys as the surcet way of destroying

ing force to punish him? Can be not, at the head "his influence, and heaping obloquy on his name."

of his army, best down every opposition?

Baseroft U. S., 8 vol., 56—year 1775.

As to the history of the Revolution, my ideas may Beneroft U. S., vol. 8, p. 24, "Not Prepared for wents long established, should not be changed for the course of fifteen years, before a drop of blood and the course after ten o'clock in the even-light and transient causes; and, accordingly, all experience hath shown, that mankind are more distanced the nameholds. Remarks to the course of fifteen years, before a drop of blood and to their houses after ten o'clock in the even-light and transient causes; and, accordingly, all was drawn at Laxington. The records of thirteen ing; liable to be robbed without redress; ever exexperience hath shown, that manking are more que beginning the pamphlets, newspapers, in all the posed to the malice of the soldiers, and chidden for posed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to colonies, should be consulted during that period, tears as proofs of disloyalty.—Benereft's U. S., right themselves by abolishing the forms to which the media middle middle of the model of disloyalty.—Benereft's U. S., they are accustomed. But, when a long train of the ascertain the steps by which the public opinion | ed. 8, p. 42, year 1775. they are accustomed. But, when a long train of was enlightened and informed concerning the anabuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the thority of Parliament over the colonies. The Conthority of Parliament over the colonies.

The honorable gentleman who presided, told us. Who shall obey these orders? Will your mace-The King, in his reply, pledged himself speedily bearer be a match for a disciplined regiment? In) or to be independent,"- Bancroft's U. S., col. 7, p. Adams placed himself in the pulpit, and sat quietly incident in her life is recorded in Garden's interestlistening to all their harangues; at length he rose | ing Americaes of the Revolution. "A British officer In the Congress of 1774, there was not one mem- and made a few remarks, which he closed with the of rank once said to Mrs. Pinckney-'It is impossiber, except Patrick Henry, who appeared to me following pithy apologue: "A Grecian philosopher ble not to admire the intrepid firmness of the ladies Lerican Elequence, Vol. 1.

Our liberties and asfety cannot be depended upon \ I reived on our side, and the jenlousies entertained, and which in the nature of things must daily increase Truth, being known, will prevail over artifice against us, on the other, demonstrate to a mind the

"The glorious spirit of liberty is vanquished and hesion of the timid good, and for himself, trod the STATIONERY, COMBS, BRUSHES, thorny path of resistance to the grandeurs of the world- bere, there are many who see the right, and yet the wrong pursue. But it is my fixed resochurches of New England may sustain any injury. And every where men began to enter into a solemn mourning. To encourage the growth and manufac-

"But in truth the cry of Dunmore did not rouse a o Yet the madrity of Congress, scrupulous not

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all Avay with your president, we shall have a king; and the pursuit of among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of the lamented Dr. E. Yestes Recese, and published in the Methodist Presistant a few months since. Their constituted among mea, deriving their just ments are instituted among mea, deriving their just ments are instituted among mea, deriving their just ments and protected and published in the Methodist Presistant a few months since. Their powers from the consent of the governed; that, powers from the consent of the governed; that all avery oppose thing the arising th

"Of the inhabitants of Boston, six thousand seven compared notes, engaged in discussions and de- "whole country in one indissoluble bond against a bates, and formed results by one sole and by two "nation which seems last to every sense of virtue " and those feelings which distinguish a civilized ""people from the most barbarous savages.""-Bancroft U. S., 8 rol., 232-Burning of Norfolk.

"They closed their statement in the words of a may find itself in such unproprisons circumstances, assemble in convention, recall our delegated pow- their new member, Jefferson: 'These Colonies now) may find wear an anex unproposed everyment to concess ers, and punish the servants for abusing the trust feel the complicated calamities of fire, sword and that prudence may force a wise government to concess ers, and punish the servants for Abusing the trust feel the complicated calamities of fire, sword and the sense of indignity. But the smoult should be ongraven on tablets of brass, with a pencil of steel. | times, indeed, if to punish tyrants it were only suffice choosing an unconditional submission to irritated | AND WHEN THAT TIME AND CHANCE, WHICH HAPPEN CIENT to anemble the people. Four arms observed ministers, or resistance by force. The latter is our

> all? You read of a riot act in a country which is | portionably great; and the gloom in the quarters called one of the freest in the world, where a few of the British was deepened by the reflection that neighbors cannot assemble without the risk of being | they had fought not against an enemy, but against | shot by a hired middiery, the engines of despotism. their fellow-subjects and kindred; not for the pro-

Upon the whole it has been the policy of the and effectually to enforce "obedience to the laws and Rosesh in Vicanuia Concention June 4th 1700 world, and to cramp and confine our trade to at to "A town meeting of Boston had been called at the be subservient to their commerce, our real interest fellow-citizens, what think you was the reflection step towards inspiring terror was, to declare Mas-FIGHT you it."- Samuel Adams, Hemoir in Am | call out the savages on the rear of the Colonies; the next, to excite a servile insurrection. - Bancroft's \ II. S., onl. 7, p. 322.

FOR SALE BY

HENRY TAYLOR. SUN IRON BUILDING.

COLDIER'S GUIDE TO HEALTH 35 } HARDER'S RIPLE AND LIGHT INFAKTRY TACTICE, 2 vole., Highrand 1.50 } WILLITARY TEXT BINIK, by L. D. Williams, Blustrated. 75 RIPLE AND LIGHT INPANTET TAUTICS, including the Arteries of War and Distancer of Military Terms 1 25

TOLUNTERES MANUAL, by 134, Bathe, illustrated containing instructions for the Recruit...... GROSS MILITARY SUBGERY APPLETON'S MAD OF THE SEAT OF WAR..... HENRY TAYLOR.

No. 52 Centre Market Space,

Has Iros Balking.

BALTIMORE Offers to mak bayers a surck of

PERFUMERY, HOSIERY,

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS. PISTOLS,

UMBRELLAS AND PARASOLS.

PORTE MONAIES AND PURSES. SKELETON SKIRTS, TRIMMINGS, &c. &c.

WARWICK, FRICK & BALL, AGENTS FOR THE SALE OF

MANUFACTURED AND LEAF

No. 60 SOUTH STREET, BALTIMORE.

DANA J WARWER FRASE PRICE. PRILIP A. BALL.

Ther FLOCR, annually for Bakers and Family purposes, every description, and respectfully sobstructe in his friends and ULOUR-FLOUR. - A choice assortment of supecomprising the following relebrated brands --FAMILY-" Welch" "Eureka," "Pine Hill." Mourovia," the public generally, a above of their patronage EXTRA-- 'C L. Word," "Monitoria" "Ingleshie" "New]

* London,* and "Newark." SUPPR Walten Bottom " Newark," Milita v. etc. RYR PLOUR-Made of pure Virginia White Rye For sale by manufacturers agents, "e D BINKS & CO. No 41 outh Howard street, near Lumbard. Tention.

HUGH SISSON,

Monuments, Grave Stones, Mantles, Table Tops, Tiles for Floors, Garden Statuary, &c.

Foreign and Dissinatic MAKBLE furnished the trade at line

CHARLES H. MYERS & BRO.

INTORTERS OF

Brandies, Rum, Gin; | Port, Madeira, Sherry, Lisbon Claret and White Wines, Cordials, &c.

WITH STREET DESCRIPTION OF

Corner South and Exchange Place, RALTINORF

Ar. Ar

SAMUEL S. MILLS.

BOOK AND

No. 122 BALTIMORE STREET.

(I door from North Rigors, Up binits, RALTIMORK EF Kresy description of JOB PRINTING operated on France able terms, neat and expeditions J. J. & F. TURNER,

No. 42 Pratt Street, Baltimore.

IMPORTERS AND DEALERS IN EVERY DESCRIPTION OF GUANO.

HARRYACTCRERS OF

"EXCELSIOR,"

(No. 1 PERUTIAN GUANO

SOLUBLE PHEATHATER '

DEALERS IF

GRAIN AND FIELD SEEDS

WILLIAM HARRIS, GUN, RIFLE & PISTOL

MANUFACTURER, . No. 116 Pratt Street,

1 door from South Street, Baltimore

JOHN T. WATKINS, MANUFACTURER AND DEALER IN

CABINET FURNITURE, No. 47 SOUTH STREET,

Has always on hand, Notas, Chairs, Beds, Bedding, and in me-

BALTIMORE,

Tevery article relating to house keeping, for sale low for cash CORTLAN & Co.

IMPORTERS OF

BRONZES, ALBATA WARES, DIRNER, TEA AND DESSERT SERVICES, Family and Fancy Hardware,

GENTS FURNISHING GOODS, HOUSE FURNISHING ARTICLES

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION. 216 & 218 BALTIMORE STREET, MARBLE BUILDING.

DODEWALD & SINDALL, COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

IMDIGO, SODA ASB, CAUSTIC SODA, SPICES, SOAY STARCH, SAL SODA FICARN SODA. ARP GROUPER PRESS GERTRALLY.

SE RECITANCE PLACE BALLINGS CARD. A.C. MATTHEWS.

GENERAL CUCTION COMMISSION MERCHANT NO 20 SOUTH CHARLES ST., Willigite his remains at attention as Auctionses, to sales of

A CARD.-E. SZEMELEMYI, PROFESSOR OF MUSIC, will return to this City from Europe on the 197 OF SEPTEMBER, and will resume his usual instructions -Communications left at the music ofores of Mesers Willig, and Millier and Beacham, ou Charles atreet, or at the Plane Ware boster of Wim Acute & Co., will resch blun and receive due at