The South.

Had Willis Gaylor Clark written no better thing) than the following, he would have ranked we one of a our sweetest poets. Read it. You read it last year? you can see, and the Autumns return.

OCTOBER.

Solemn, yet beautiful to view, Month of my beart! then dawnest here, With sad and faded leaves to strew The stimmer's melancholy bier. The modning of the winds I hear, As the red sunset dies afar, And bars of purple clouds appear, Obscuring every western star.

Thou solemn month! I hear thy voice, It tells my soul of other days, When but to live was to rejoice, When carth was lovely to my gaze! Oh visions bright-oh blessed hours, Where are these living raptures now? lask my spirit's wearied powerslack my pale and fevered brow!

I look to Nature, and behold My life's dim emblems, rustling round, In hues of crimson and of gold-The year's dead honors on the ground: And sighing with the winds, I feel, While their low plaious murmur by. How much their sweeping tones reveal Of life and human deeting.

When Spring's delightsome moments shone, They came in zephyrs from the West; They bore the wood-lark's melting tone, They stirred the blue lake's glassy breast, Through Soumer, tainting in the heat. They lingeredin the forest shade; But changed and strengthened now, they beat In storm, o'er mountain, glen and glade.

How like these transports of the breast When life is freeh and joy is new; Soft as the halevon's downy nest, And transient all as they are true! Ther stir the leaves in that bright wreath, Which Hope about her forehead twines, Till Grief's hot sighs around it breathe, Then Pleasure's lip its smile resigns.

Alas for Time, and Death and Care, What gloom around our way they fling! Like clouds in Autumn's gusty air, The burial pageant of the Spring. The dreams that each successive year Secured bathed in huse of brighter pride, At last like withered leaves appear, And sleep in darkness, side by side.

TABLE OF DISTANCES IN MISSOURL Below we give as accurate a table of distances from positive correctness will, we think, be found } at the bush

to be fer	₩ :
St. Loui	isto Jefferson City	125
do	to Sedalia	163
do	to Lexington	239
do	to Cape Girardeau	150
do	to Cairo and Bird's Point	200
do	to Pilot Knob	H7
do	to Kolla	113
do do	to Springfield	233
	onto Warrensburg	32
S. A.E.	to Warrensburg	35
_	An Window	2H
do	to Clinton	76
ដូច	to Warsaw	•••• •••
do	to Independence	34 144
do	to Kansa City
	to Usceola
do j	to Papinaville
Orceofa	to Fort Scott	56
do	to Bolivar	33
Bolivar	·to Springfield	3(
Springt	fieldto Carthage
do	to Neosho	Tl
43.5	to Fayetteville (Ark)	10
do	to Rolla	127
4.	to Lebanon	50
_	ous (Ky.) to Cairo	×
da	to Charleston	20
	grand au to Pilot Knob nob to Pocahontas (Ark.)

a speech of Hon. Joseph Holt, four years since: "The South has ever deprecated agitation.— From her inmost soul her yearnings have been for the honorable scars of wounds received, whilst the rower of the British Ruleus to INJURE peace, and that she might be allowed to sit 'under | tighting for your king and country . - Joseph | THEM. Indeed the rainous and deadly injuries reher own vine and fig tree' and enjoy those blessings which the institutions of the country promise the bellowed ground of the Constitution, and and misrepresentation. In such case no man, scho least given to reflection apon the rise and fall of emlaving her hand upon its alter, she calls upon the men of the North to respect her position, to forbear their rude onshught, and press her not to the wall amid that ever-ringing cry of self-right present emolument, when placed in competion with conness with which her ears have been stunned." Hon. Edward Everett's letter of acceptance for the Vice Presidency in 1860.

can be manutained by the numerical predomi- mission of Heaven, lay waste our towns and ravage is true prudence; but in persons times like these, I nance and military prowess of one section, exert- our country, it can never eradicate from the breasts | cannot conceive of prudence without fortitude.' I ed to coerce the other into submission is, in my judgment, as self-contradictory as it is dangerous. It comes loaded with the death-smell from fields . wet with brothers blood. If the vital principle dence, to the omniscient and omnipotent Arbiter lature, disordered in mind, and jealous of his deof all Republican Governments is the consent of and Director of the fate of empires, and trusting clining influence, did but impede the public cause. the governed, much more does a union of co-equal | that his Almighty arm, which has been so signally | In Hancock, also, vanity so mingled with patriot-States require as its basis the voluntary co-opera- stretched out for our desence, will deliver them in siem, that the Government hoped to separate him tion in its organic functions."

X EW BOOKS-NEW BOOKS-NEW BOOKS Now ready and for sale by

HENRY TAYLOR, Sun Iron Building. BILLAN WARNER, or THE WEAVER OF RAVELOR. AFTER ICEBERGS, WITH A PAINTER CURRENTS AND COUNTER CURRENTS, By Oliver Wendell Holmes 125 LIFE AND CARREN OF MAJOR ANDRE, Re Will throp Sargeaut 1 80

MACAULAYS HISTORY OF ENGLAND. BETERAL ROSTIONS, Complete in one. (1) d) Stole, i2mo..... to rge ed. ion, fine paper and large type, 5 vote....... 5 @ HOPES AND FRARS, By Mrs. Young.,..

THE ALCHEVERT,

By Bulzer, author of Petty Annorances. TRUBES, B) Curtie, author of Poughar Papers ... PERS ON HAND. BEKRY TATLOR.

Se 24 17 Aun Iron Building, Baltimore. LEONARD PASSANO.

INFORTER ASP BRALER IS

GERMAN ENGLISH AND DOMESTIC FANCY GOODS

AND

NOTIONS,

32 Centre Market Space, Betriwore, Martiage.

OLD FOGY DOCTRINES. "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are presented equal; that they are endowed by their Orestor with certain unalienable rights; that among these, are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That, to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just So you did, and should read it every year while powers from the consent of the governed; that,

tive of these ends, it is the tight of the people to ment, laying im foundation on such petariples, and be peculiar, perhaps singular. What do we mean Recidence. alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new governorganizing its powers in such form, as to them shall by the Revolution! The war? That was no part seem most likely to effect their safety and happi-Hem. Pradence, indeed, will dictate that govern- sequence of it. The Revolution was in the minds hundred and fifty-three still remained in the town. ments long established, should not be changed for of the people, and this was effected from 1760 to 1776, pining of surrow; deprived of wholesome food; conlight and transient causes; and, accordingly, all in the course of Affect years, before a drop of blood inod to their botter after ten o'clock in the evenexperience bath shown, that mankind are more dis was drawn at Lexington. The records of thirteen ing liable to be robbed without redram; ever exposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to Legislatures, the pamphlets, newspapers, in all the posed to the malice of the soldiers, and childen for tight themselves by abolishing the forms to which colonies, should be consulted during that period, tears as proofs of disloyalty. -- Bancroff's U. &., ther are accustomed. But, when a long train of to accertain the steps by which the public opinion | eed. 8, p. 43, year 1775. abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the was enlightened and informed concerning the ausame object, erinces a design to reduce them under therity of Parliament over the colonies. The Conabsolute despotism, it is their duty, to throw off grees of life resembled, in some respects, though I temporium of his own country, for so he called such government, and to provide new guards for hope not in many, the Council of Nice in Beckesia- "Virginia, his breast heaved with waves of anger their lature security."—Declaration of Independant tical history. It assembled the priests, from the "and grief; I hope, said he, this and the threat-

Yes, sir, we wish for pea e, but how is that blesslag to be preserved? I shall repeat here a sentiment I have often had occasion to express. In my opinion there is nothing worth tighting for but national bonor: for, in the national honor is involred the national independence. I know that a Mate | that to prevent abuses in our government we will may find itself in such unpropitious circumstances, assemble in convention, recall our delegated powthat prudence may force a wise government to conceal eru, and punish the servants for abusing the trust the sense of indignity. But the angult should be em reprosed in them. Uh, sir, we should have fine fathine. We are reduced to the alternative of Feb. 24, 1893.

Suspect every one who approaches that jewel. Um shot by a hired soldiery, the engines of despotism. | their fellow-subjects and kindred; not for the profortunately, nothing will preserve it but downright We may see such an act in America. A anading motion of civil or religious freedom, but for the suforce. WHENEVER TOU GIVE UP TELT FORCE, TOU Grmy we shall have also, to execute the execute premary of one part of the empire over another."-ARE INEVITABLY RUINTO. - Petrick Henry, Speech in commands of tyranny, and how are you to punish Bancroft's U. S., vol. 8, pp. 25-26, Battle of Bunthe Virginia Convention, June 4,, 1788.

the authority of the supreme legislature." His heart | Speech in Virginia Convention, June 4th, 1788. was hardened. Having just heard of the seizure of tended that his language anomic "open the eyes of the control of the people of some new age the deluded Americans." "If it does not," said he gression upon the rights of the people. The difference of the difference of the question,—Chief Justice Dray the deluded Americans." "If it does not," said he gression upon the rights of the people. The difference of the difference of the Grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, to his faltering minister, "it must set every deli-ent or ators of the patriot party had in turn address-like Grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, to his faltering minister, "it must set every deli-ent or ators of the patriot party had in turn address-like Grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, to his faltering minister, "it must set every deli-ent or ators of the patriot party had in turn address-like Grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, to his faltering minister, "it must set every deli-ent or ators of the patriot party had in turn address-like Grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, to his faltering minister, "it must set every deli-ent or ators of the patriot party had in turn address-like Grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, to his faltering minister, "it must set every deli-ent or ators of the patriot party had in turn address-like Grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, to his faltering minister, "it must set every deli-ent or ators of the patriot party had in turn address-like Grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, to his falter for the grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, to his falter for the grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, to his falter for the grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, to his falter for the grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, to his falter for the grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, to his falter for the grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, to his falter for the grand Jury, Charleston, May 23, to his falter for the grand Jury, Charleston, May 24, to his falter for the grand Jury, Charleston, May 24, to his falter for the grand Jury, Charleston, May 25, to his falter for the grand Jury, Charleston, May 25, to his falter for the grand Jury, Charleston, cate man at liberty to arow the propriety of the ed the meeting, loud in complaint and accusation, The wife of Colonel Pinckney is distinguished as most coercive measures. " "The New England gov- but guarded and cautious on every point which one of those beroic and self-sacrificing women of the ornments are now in a state of rebellion. Blows must | might look like an approach towards treasonable | revolution, "whose intrepidity and fortitude lent so decide whether they are to be subject to this country expressions, or direct exhortations to resistance. able a support to the cause of their country." An or to be independent."-Banerojt's U. S., ed. 7, p. | Adams placed himself in the pulpit, and sat quietly | incident in her life is recorded in Garden's interest-

ber, except Patrick Henry, who appeared to me following pithy apologue: "A Grecian philosopher ble not to admire the intrepid firmness of the ladies sensible of the precipice, or rather the pinnacle on | who was lying asleep on the grass, was suddenly of your country. Had your men but half their which we stood, and had candor and courage roused by the bite of some animal on the palm of resolution, we might give up the contest. America between the several points of interest in Missouri, enough to acknowledge it. America is in total ig- his hand. He closed his hand quickly as he awoke, would be invincible."-American Moquence, Vol. 1. as we have been able to prepare. The variations | norance, or under infinite deception concerning that | and found he had caught in it a small field mouse. assembly. To draw the characters of them all As he was examining the little animal which had | They rushed on with headlong indiscretion, would require a volume, and would now be con- dared to attack him, it bit him unexpectedly a see thinking not to involve the empire in a civil war, sidered as a caricatured print. Une-third Tories, | cond time: he dropped it, and it escaped. Now. but to subdue the Americans by fear. The first another Whigs, and the rest mongreis.

and letters. Mr. Dickinson was primus inter pures, the mind of the philosopher? It was this: That parliament and the whole force of Great Britain to the bell-wether, the leader of the aristocratical there is no animat, however weak and contemptible, its reduction; the next, by probibiting the Ameri-Bock. John Adame, Letter to Jefferson, Nov. 12, which cannot defend its men liberty, if it will only can beheries, to starre New England; the next, to

It was a maxim of the Roman people, which emineatly conduced to the greatness of that State, never to despair of the commonwoolth. The maxim may it the King of Great Britain should be allowed to PROTE AS SALUTARY TO US NOW, AS IT DID TO THEM. | hold our forts and campon, or to have authority Short-sighted mortals see not the numerous links of over a single regiment ih America or a single ship small and great events which form the chain on of war in her ports. For if he holds our forts he which the fate of kings and nations is suspended .- | may turn them against ud, as he did Roston against Base and prosperity, though pleasing for a day, her proprietors; if he acquires our cannon he will have often sunk a people into effeminacy and sloth. Leffectually disarm the colony; if he has a command Hardships and dangers, though we for ever strive of troups among us, even if we raise and pay them, to shun them, have frequently called forth such | shackles will be fixed upon us-witness frefand and | I rirtues as have commanded the applause and rever- her national army. The most express act of Parence of an admiring world. Our country loudly | liament cannot give us security, for acts of l'arlia-O calls you to be circumspect, rigilant, active and ment are as easily repealed as made. Royal proclabrave. Perhaps, (all gracious heaven avert it.) mations are not to be depended upon, witness the I perhaps the power of Britain, a nation great in disappointments of the inhabitants of Unclass and St. war, by some malignant influence, may be cm- Augustine. Even a change of ministry will not ployed to enslave your but let not even this dis- avail us, because, notwithstanding the rapid suc- MILITARY TEXT BOOK, by L. D. Williams, illostrated. 75 courage you. Her arms, 'tis true, have filled the cession of ministers, for which the British Court | RIFLE AND LIGHT INPANTET TACTICS, Including o world with terror; her troops have reaped the has been famous during the present reign, yet the laurels of the field; her fleets have rode triumphant | same ruinous policy ever continued to prevail against | li on the sen; and whon, or where, did you, my evan- | America. In short, I think it my duty to declare, Now and Then .- The following extract is from trymen, depart inglorious from the field of fight? in the awful seat of justice and before Almighty RIVLE AND LIGHT INFANTET TACTICE, illestrated You, too, can show the trophics of your forefathers' | God, that in my opinion the Americans can have victories and your own; can name the fortresses | no safety but by the Divine favor, their own virtue, and battles you have won; and many of you count | and their being so prudent as NOT TO LEAVE IT IN Warren, Bueton, March 6th, 1776.

is worthy of life, liberty or property, will or can re- pires, that true reconcilement can never exist between fame to foin with you in defending them to the last Great Britain and America, the latter being in subextremity, disdaining every sordid view, and the jection to the former. - Chief Justice Brayton, l'harge mean, paltry considerations of private interest and to the Grand Jury, Charleston, April 23, 1776. the liberties of millions; and, seeing that there is no ! alternative but absolute, unconditional submission, left without hope but in a miracle,' said desponding and the most abject slavery, or a defence becoming patriots. 'I confess,' said Samuel Adams, 'we have, men born to freedom, he will not hoeftate about the as Wolfe expressed it, a choice of difficulties. Too "The suggestion," said he, "that the Union choice. Although superior force may, by the per- many flatter themselves that their pusillanimity of freemen, those principles which are ingrafted in | persevered; but John Adams retired from the sertheir very nature. Such men WILL DO THEIR vice of the people, and devoting himself to his pro-DUTY, NEITHER KNOWING NOR REGARDING CONER- fession, for a time ceased even to employ his pen in QUANCES; but submitting them, with humble confi- their defence. Otis who had returned to the Legisa righteous cause. - John Rutledge, in the South from its uncompromising opponents." - Bancroft's \ Carolina Assembly, April 11th, 1776.

Where are your checks in this government?-Your strongholds will be in the hands of your ene l mier. It is on the supposition that your American Covernors shall be honest that all its good qualities are founded, but its defective and imperfect con-By the author of Adam Bede, 60 etruction pute it in their power to perpetrate the worst of mischiefe should they be bad men. And, A summer topage to Labrador. By L. L. Noble......$1 50 sir, would not all the world, from the Eastern to akaraka of Nam Parland and an initial or the RRENTS AND COUNTRY OF BENEFIT the Western hemisphere, blame our distracted folly [In resting our rights upon the contingency of our rulers being good or bad? Show me that age and agreement not to use a single article of British country where the rights and liberties of the people were placed on the sole chance of their rulers being good men without a consequent loss of liberty. I say that the loss of that dearest privilege has ever followed, with absolute certainty, any year 1771. such mad attempt, If your American chief be a man of ambition and abilities, how easy will it be for him to render himself absolute! The army is in i "among the Africans a passion for freedom. To oo his hands, and, if he be a man of address, it will be attached to him; and it will be the subject of long meditation with him to seize the first auspicious HATALL THE POPULAR MAGAZINES AND NEWSPA moment to accomplish his design. And, sir, will the American spirit solely relieve you when this bappens? I would eather, infinitely, and I am sure must of this convention are of the same opinion, have a king, lords and commons, than a government so replete with such insupportable evils. 1. we make a king, we may prescribe the rules by h which he shall rule his people, and interpose such [" to outrun the convictions and sympathies of their checks as shall prevent him from infringing them: but the president in the field, at the head of his "ing in the speedy restoration of peace, not only army, can prescribe the terms on which he shall "made no adequate preparations for resistance, but reign master on far that it well pusse any American "would not even consent to relieve the states from ever to get his neck from under the galling yoke. I | "anarchy by sanctioning the institution of Governcannot, with patience, think of this idea. If ever | "ments in the several colonies. The hesitancy of he violates the laws, one of two things will happen: I "so many members, especially of Dickin-on, in he will come at the head of his army to carry "censed John Adams, who maintained that the every thing before him; or, he will give bail, or do I "hity or sixty men composing Congress should at what Mr. Chief Justice will order him. If he be "once form a constitution for a great empire, proguilty will not the recollection of his crimes teach | him to make one bold push for the American throne? Will not the immense difference between being master of every thing, and being ignominiously tried and punished, powerfully excite him to ["prepared for the hold advice, they were published make this bold push? But, sir, where is the exist. Why the royalists as the surest way of destroying | w21

A mer with compressions we stall any dating;

will assist in making him king, and light against resistance had been deferred; so more than four What will then become of you and your rights !- Washington was borne toward Cambridge on the will not institute vertorish exact!-Patrick Hen- affectionate, confidence of the people, Congress ry, in the Firginia Convention, June, 1788.

of the Revolution. It was only an effect and coneast and the west, the north and the south, who | " ened devastation of other places will unite the compared notes, engaged in discussions and debates, and formed results by one rote and by two votes which went out to the world as unanimous,-John Adams, Letter to Jefferson, August 14, 1815.

The honorable gentleman who presided, told us, graves on tablete of brass, with a pencil of steel. | times, indeed, if to punish tyrants it were only suffi- | choosing an unconditional submission to irritated AND WEEN THAT THE AND CHANCE, WHICH HAPPEN | cient to assemble the people. Your arms wherewild | ministers, or resistance by force. The latter is our TO ALL, SHALL BRING FORWARD THE PATORABLE NO. | you cauld defend yourselves are gone; and you have | choice. We have counted the cost of this contest' MENT, THEN LET THE AVENCING ARM STRIED MOME. It | no longer an aristocratical, no longer a democratical and find nothing so dreadful as voluntary slavery." is only by avowing and maintaining this stern princh spirit. Did you ever read of any revolution in any -Bancroft's U. & col. 8, p. 36, year 1773. ple of honor, that peace can be preserved .- Gour- nation brought about by the punishment of those erneur Morrie, Sprock in the Senate of the U. S., In power, inflicted by those who had no power at "The loss of officers was observed to be disproall! You read of a riot act in a country which is portionably great; and the gloom in the quarters called one of the freest in the world, where a few of the British was deepened by the reflection that Guard with jealous attention the public liberty. | neighbors cannot assemble without the risk of being | they had fought not against an enemy, but against them? Will you order them to be punished?- ber Hill. Who shall obey these orders? Will your mace-The King, in his reply, pledged himself speedilg | bearer be a match for a disciplined regiment? In and effectually to enforce concilence to the laws and what situation are we to be !- Patrick Henry, British authority to oblige us to supply our wants erican Bloquence, Vol. I.

Our liberties and safety cannot be depended upon ceived on our side, and the jealousies entertained, and which in the nature of things must daily increase Truth, being known, will prevail over artifice against us, on the other, demonstrate to a mind the

> "" "The glorious spirit of liberty is vanquished and U. S., col. 6, page 402, year 1771.

"'Here,' said Maybew, as he lamented the cold adbesion of the timid good, and for himself, trod the thorny path of resistance to the grandeurs of the world-here, there are many who see the right and yet the wrong pursue. But it is my fixed resolution, notwithstanding many discouragements, in my little ephere, to do all I can for the service of And every where men began to enter into a solemn manufacture; not even to wear black clothes for mourning. To encourage the growth and manufacture of wool, nearly all Boston signed a corchant to eat no lamb." - Bancroft's U. S., vol. 5, p. 206,

"But in truth the cry of Dunmore did not rouse "them bondage in Virginia was not a lower condi-"tion of being than their former one; they had no "regrets for uncient privileges lost; their memo-"ries prompted no demand for political changes; " no struggling aspirations of their own had invited: "Dunmore's interposition; no memorial of their "grievances had preceded his offices."- Bancroft's U. S., vol. 8, p. 225-year 1775.

"Yet the majority of Congress, scrapulous not "constituents, and pleasing themselves by confiding "vide for its defence, and, in that safe attitude. "await the decision of the King. His letters to "New England, arowing these opinions, were in-"tercepted; and so little were the central colonies.

bed bis influence, and beaping obloquy on his name."

Benered? U. X., Seel., by-year 1775.

"Here too, as every where else, preparations for you; and what have you to oppose this force ?- | barrels of powder could be found in the city. While which had as yet supported its commander-in-chief with nothing beyond a commission," Ac., &u.-As to the history of the Kevolution, my ideas may Beneroft U.S., sol. 8, p. 24, "Not Propered for

"Uf the inhabitants of Boston, six thousand seven

"When Washington learned the fate of the rich " whole country in one indiscoluble bond against a 'nation which seems lost to every sense of virtue 'and those feelings which distinguish a civilized 'people from the most barbarous savages." --Bancroft U. S., 8 col., 232-Burning of Norfolk.

"They closed their statement in the words of their new member, Jefferson: 'These Colonies now feel the complicated calamities of fire, sword and

Upon the whole it has been the policy of the at their market, which is the dearest in the known world, and to cramp and confine our trade so as to ammunition at the fort in New Hampshire, he in- "A town meeting of Boston had been called at the be subservient to their commerce, our real interest tended that his language should "open the eyes of | Old South Church, in consequence of some new ag- | being ever out of the question. - Chief Justice Dray-

listening to all their harangues; at length he rise | ing Anecdotes of the Revolution. "A British officer In the Congress of 1774, there was not one mem- | and made a few remarks, which he closed with the | of rank once said to Mrs. Pinckney-'It is impossi-

fellow-citizens, what think you was the reflection | step towards Inspiring terror was, to declare Mas-There was a little aristocracy among us of talents | which this tritling circumstance gave birth to, in | sachuetts in a state of rebellion, and to pledge the PIGHT ron 11."-Samuel Adams, Memoir in Am. call out the savages on the rear of the Colonies; the next, to excite a servile insurrection. - linner off's U. S., vol. 7, p. 322.

MILITARY BOOKS.

FOR SALE BY

HENRY TAYLOR, SUN IRON BUILDING.

JOLDIER'S GUIDE TO HEALTH............$.75 HARDER'S RIFLE AND LIGHT INVANTET the Articles of War and Dictionary of Military Terms 1.25

HANDY BOOK FOR THE UNITED STATES SOLDIES. compar into corrier, tilustrated ... THE SOLDIER'S GUIDE, a Manual and Drill for the VOLUNTEER'S MANUAL, by Cot Batter, Musicated containing instructions for the Recent. GROSS MILITARY SURGERY APPLETON'S MAP OF THE SEAT OF WAR.. HENRY TATION, Bus from Building.

LEONARD PASSANO,

No. 52 Centre Market Space,

BALTIMORE Offers to each buyers a speck of

in the city, at prices to suit the times. TABLE AND POCKET CUTLERY.

PERFUMERY, HOSIERY, STATIONERY, COMBS, BRUSHES, MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

PISTOLS,

YMBRELLAS AND PARASOLS. PORTE MONAIES AND PURSES, SKELETON SKIRTS, TRIMMINGS, &c. &c.

WARWICK, FRICK & BALL, AGENTS FOR THE SALE OF

MANUFACTURED AND LEAF

No. (4) SOUTH STREET, B.H. FIMORE.

DAN L. J. WARWICK FRANK FRICE. PRILIP & BALL

INLOUR-FLOUR.-A choice assortment of supecomprising the following celebrated brands -- : "FAULLY - Welch " Enreka," "Pine Hill, " "Menrevia," EXTRACTOR L. Whist. "Mourovie" "Ingledite." "New) and of the Control of New Color STEER - Wallout Battom, ""New ack, " Million "e, "ebb. RAR FLOUR-Mode of price Virginia White Rive There were the meanified fitters was filled C. D. HINKS A CO.

No. 41 outh Howard servet, near Lombard. Tention.

HUGH SISSON

Cor. North and Monument Str.,

BALTIMONE. Monuments, Grave Stones, Mantles, Table Tops, Tiles for Floore.

Garden Statuary, &c.

Foreign and Demontic MARBLE furnished the trade a man

A.J WTEBS

CHARLES H. MYERS & BRO.

Brandies, Rum, Gin; Port, Madeira. Sherry, Lisbon Claret and White Wines.

> Cordials, &c. WITH STEET DESCRIPTION OF FOREIGN LIQUORS, SALAD OILS Scotch Ale, London Stout, Cigars.

Corner South and Exchange Place. MAETINORE

SAMUEL S. MILLS, BOOK AND

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 122 BALTIMORE STREET

door from North Street, f. p. States, 5. BALTIMORE

EFERST description of JOS PRINTING executed nate-able terms, west and expeditions J. J. & F. TURNER,

No. 42 Pratt Street, Baltimore,

IMPORTERS AND DEALERS IN AVERY DESCRIPTION OF GUANO.

HAMFFACTURERS OF

EXCELSIOR,"

(No. 1 PERUVIAN GUANO

MODUBLE PHOSPHATES DEALERS IF

- GRAIN AND PIZED SERDS

WILLIAM HARRIS,

GUN, RIFLE & PISTOL MANUFACTURER,

No. 116 Pratt Street,

1 door from South Street, Baltimore.

JOHN T. WATKINS,

MANUPACTURER AND DEALER IN CABINET FURNITURE.

> No. 47 SOUTH STREET, BALTIMORE,

Has always on hand, hofes, Chairs, Seds, Bedding, and in 'ac

every article relating to home beering. for sale is wifer cash

CORTLAN & Co.

IMPORTERS OF CUTLERY, PLATED GOODS,

BRONZES, ALBATA WARES, DINNER, TEA AND DESSERT SERVICES,

GENTS FURNISHING GOODS, HOUSE FURNISHING ARTICLES

Family and Fancy Hardware,

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION. 216 & 218 BALTIMORE STREET,

MARBLE BUILDING. 1) ODEWALD & SINDALL,

COMMISSION MERCHAPTS.

THEORYS HOUSE PRAIRES IN INDIGO, SODA ASH, CAUSTIC SODA, BRICKS, SUAF STARCH, SAL SODA BICARB SODA

APP GROCERS DRUGS GENERAL'S AS PROPERSON DE LON BALTINES A CARD. A.C. MATTHEWA, GENERAL ACCTION COMMISSION MERCHANI. No 20 South Charles by .

· 實引 gire big remains at attents of the Attentioners, to said to I' nor FLOUR, surable for Bakers and Panito purposes, every description, and respectfully solution to be friends and

The graph is governor all as a abarmon the me govern taken 4 CARD.—E. SZEMELEMYI, PROFESSOR OF All's It's at 1 retain to this City from bars pe on the lar-OF SELECTIONS OF A WILL COME TO SELECT THE TOTAL AND SELECTION OF THE PARTY OF THE A on monimum of it at the noise stores of Mesers. Willie, and Millier and Beacham, on Char on atreet, or at the Piano Marehouse of Wim. Radio & Co., will result fine and receive due at: