Price of Subscription, IN THE CITY, single copy, Two Casts; served by Carriers for I make Create per week, payable to the eneriors. OUT OF THE CITY, single copy, THERE CREEK, one month, J. to Conto; two months, One Doller; four months, five Dollars; gill months, Three Deliver; one year, St.s Deliver, payable intorially in advance.

Orders for the paper, will be received at the office of Publimthen, No. 123 W. BALTINGES STREET, up stairs. The usual defluction in farms of Newstoon and Azente. Orders to be left with Mesers. Tuntay & Co., 12 North street, (basement,) where Newsburg will be aupplied.
All communications about he addressed to the Publishers of The South.

FITO. the second of th

Price of Advertisements A Otto Settaro—otto Intéritété... special agreement. Marriage and Obstuary notices, 25 cents. Advertisements will be received at the office of Publicative, VOL. I.

BALTIMORE, MONDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1861.

NO. 33.

The South.

THE CROSS OF THE SOUTH.

BY MRS. PELICIA MEMANA.

[The beautiful constellation of the Cross is seen only in the southern bemisphere. The following have been received: lines are supposed to be addressed to it by a Spanish traveller in South America.]

In the stience and grandeur of midnight I tread, Where savant ahe in boundless magnificence spread, And bearing antilimely their anon wreaths on high, The far Cordilleras unite with the sky.

The fir tree waves o'er me, the fire fly's sed light With its sub h glancing splendor illumines the night; And I read in each tint of the skies and the earth. How distant my steps from the land of my birth.

In their clear depths of blue, with devotion I turn, Bright Cross of the South ' and beholding thee shine, Scarce regret the loved land of the offre and vine. Thou recallest the ages when first o'er the main

But to thee, as thy livie stars resplendently burn

My fathers unfolded the ensign of Spain, And planted their faith in the regions that are Its unperfahing as mind emblasioned in thee How oft in their course over the oreone unknown.

Where all was mix-terious, and awful, and hone,

Hath their marit been cheered by thy light, when the deep Reflected its brilliance in tremulous sleep." As the Tieless that rome to the lord of the world "

When first his bright banner of faith was unfurled -Even such, to the heries of Spain, when their prow Made the billows the path of their giver, wert thou

And to me, as I traversed the world of the West, Through describe of beauty in attliness that rest. By forests and rivers untained in their profe-The hum have a language, the course is a guide.

Shine on "-nip own land to a far distant ages, And the stars of the sphere can entighten it mic. And the even that I have, though e'en now they may be Over the firmament wandering, can gaze not on thee!

But thou to my thoughts art a pure blazing shrine, A fount of bright hopes and a issons divine, And my woul, as an eagle exhiting and free, more high over the Andre to mingle with thee.

*Constantine

a latron.

and overtook our friends with their sledges, num- I three hundred killed and wounded." bering probably a hundred, in a long line on the | The Richmond Whig makes the following comone solitary track, it became necessary to puts | ments: them if we would not be kept at a'snail's pace for [ many hours. But the passing was not easy. The whole line must draw close to one side, and in some cases into the soft snow, and this the men for a long time refused to do, as it was a difficult job, involving risks to some, and the road was theirs as well as ours. The Russian Baron, who was one of us, at length lost all temper and began to swear as only a Russian can. Being cold and "I have to report the capture of 600 prisoners around us, but only five took effect—wounding Granada, a short time ago, perturbators of public COALL, hungry, exhausted and much shaken, he was anxinow closing. Oaths having no effect, he lost the Tartar that he was. Dragging the cudgel from the men and horses, dealing blows right and left, lery was fired by us." and compelling the men to draw up to one side as you pigs! I am a Baron; don't you see? submitted to all this; grumbled, but cowed; they

After he had recovered his seat and his breath. turned to me and asked, with an air of national has sent them staggering and shricking back from Confederate (who by-the-by was the New York cup of consolation from our lips, and we now pride, "What do you say to that, me lord?" say that, had you struck the poorest of my countrymen in that manner, they would either have bored you into a jelly, or they would have tied and then given you up to a magistrate for an assault." "Oh, as to that, I should soon get away that." "Indeed! I can tell you that your whole! estate, with a dozen like it, would not buy one of our magistrates." This assertion only caused an incredulous laugh, and a remark from the baron that he could buy any country magistrate in Rus- are bereft. Let this be their consolation. sia for 50 kopecks (1s. 6d.)—All the Year Round.

20 A letter from Venice says that a professionpaused to rest in a country inn. Suddenly, in an | men. They beat them wherever they come in coladjacent roop, he heard a splendid bass voice sing | lision with them, let the oilds be what they may Silva's aris, out of "Ernani." That at an end, a against them. ment occupied only by one young man, who de- party who is weakest in men or discipline. tiful chest-notes

Mr. Seward Gives a Colored Man a Certific CATE OF CITIZENSHIP .-- Mr. Gerald Ralston, the noted colemizationist, writes to Lord Brougham a letter, in which he says: "I have great pleasure in informing your lordship, that the decision of the Federal Court in the Dred Scot case is practically annulled by the present government of Washington. I have before me the passport granted to Rev. Henry H. Garnet, a black man of note, and of great distinction among the negroes of New A ork, given by Wm. H. Seward, the Secretary of Independence of the United States."

Southern Version of the Battle

THE LATEST FROM THE SOUTH.

of Ball's Bluff.

Richmond papers of the 23d and 24th instant from General J. P. Johnston, dated, "lleadquar- Run speed. ters, Centreville, Oct. 22, 1861," and addressed "to General Cooper, Richmond," stated as

They had crossed under cover of artillery fire .- | sunk. He drove them back with a heavy loss in killed, two hundred prisoners, and six field pieces taken.

He had four regiments and five guns." Baker, and the capture of Colonel Cogswell and erecting new batteries and putting everything in but it is equally nectseary that no false pru- for his investigation. ten other officers, not naming them. It further order for the reception of the enemy. We learn dence should lead us to enter into a compact | Heatiquarters Mas. Gen. Banes Division, ) states that Colonel Evans' command were from | that our sounds will be covered with armed ves- | with impiety. In the accomplishment of duty | Mississippi and Virginia, the three Mississippi sels to meet the foe at every point. We observe there is often, it is true, persecutions and great stone, Burt and Barksdale. tains the following in addition:

> OFFICIAL. HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF POTOMAC.

CENTREVILLE, Oct. 22-10:30 P. M. In addition concerning the victory of General Evans, I have to report the capture of nearly six hundred prisoners and twelve hundred stand of amount to between one thousand and twelve hunwere the Eighth Virginia and Seventeenth and regiment. Eighteenth Mississippi regiments, the Thirteenth Mississippi being held in reserve. No artillery THOS. JORDON, was fired by us.

Assistant Adjutant General. A telegraphic despatch to the Richmond Dis- killed and wounded on their side. patch, from Manassas, dated the afternoon of the 22d, says :- 'The fight near Leesburg was more perious than first reported. Five bundred and twenty Federals were brought to Sudley Church | shout five hundred and fifty in the hospital of the this evening. Between four and five hundred of Rockbridge Alum Springs. PRICE OF JUSTICE IN RUSSIA -It was some time the enemy were killed, and three hundred drownbefore we were so far righted as to be able to go ed in the Potomac. The prisoners will be bere ANOTHER AFFAIR AT NEW OR- have (setting an example never before seen) not China, was in that city recently, and has gone to on, and then, when we were making up lost time, | to-morrow morning. Our loss is also heavy, eay

> The victory of Colonel (now General) Evans at Leesburg on Monday, was even more complete l and glorious than we yesterday reported it. In addition to the despatches we then published, one was received by the President Tuesday night, from and 1,200 stand of arms. Their killed and woun- three, but killing none, thank Heaven! To ex- order, after having possessed themselves of the ous to get some shelter, especially as night was ded amount to between 1,000 and 1,200. The rout plain: At one o'clock a Confederate steamer was supreme authority, promulgated a criminal dewas total. The fight was an infantry engagement | discovered up the river. An hour afterwards- | cree, forbidding the ecclesiastical power to exercise last glimmer of Polish, and came out the born exclusively. The forces were the 8th Virginia greatly to our astonishment, I can assure you— its authority without the permission and consent and the 17th and 18th Mississippi regiments—the she very pluckily opened fire upon us. At first, of the civil government. They have dispersed the my hand, he began belaboring with all his might 13th Mississippi being held in reserve. No artil- we laughed at what we called her impudence; but members of the celebrated Company of Jesus, fast as we came up. For an hour this lasted, he. achieved by 2,500 men, fighting against 10,000. looked disagreeable. I will confess, and frankly Legate of the Holy See to leave their territory fore we had passed the sledges. There, you ca- with five batteries of artillery on their side, and tell you, that the first five or six shots that came within the space of three days. naille!" he cried, as he struck. "Take that! none, in use, on ours. One man to four, with a whizzing through our rigging made me tremble Give the road, you lary vermin! Make room, etrong artillery force belping the four. History all over; my knees knocked together, my mouth shows few feats of arms so splendid. Henceforth | was bound-I could hardly speak, hardly breathe: friend of the Governor's! Sons of dogs! Defile- the name of Gen. Evans will take its place on the I was frightened. ment of the carth ! Your mothers are heasts!" roll of heroes, and his unconquerable troops have | But as soon as we "beat to quarters" and I reported despatch of General McClellan, which we and so forth. This was his gentlest style, while achieved a deed that will make their memories was ordered to my division, all fear left me. The had at the moment lying before us, we presented the blows fell in a shower. Forty or fifty men glorious for generations to come. To have been shell still whizzed, but I neither heard nor cared editorially the only point of consolation that with Evans at Leesburg, will be for each one of for them. I was intent upon my duty; and as my could be extracted from the disaster at Ball's took the blows and insults of this one man as dogs them, hereafter, an indisputable proof of daunt- division had all the fighting to do-being the Bluff on Monday last, viz.: the advantage of potake their masters' kicks; they were seris; he was less valor, and will constitute for each a title and only one bearing upon the enemy-I was too sition that had been gained by our army. The With forces cruelly disproportioned, they have of anything else; and I can assure you I felt as | ter intelligence, however, received just as we were and had wiped the perspiration from his head, he stricken the presumptuous invaders a blow that happy and unconcerned as ever in my life. The going to press on Friday morning, dashed this der through all its frame. you to a sledge until they reached the first town. | the brave men who have fallen on our side, mar- fired, and yet I do not think a single one of our eye, and are patent to the plainest understanding tyrs in the sacred struggle for imperilled liberty | shot hit the enemy. and a beleaguered land. We sympathise in the from a magi-trate. A little money would soon do anxious solicitude of those whose friends met the again in sight, and we are preparing for action. were thrown into the enemy's country, without fortunes of this memorable fight, and some of I wish it was all over, for I am exceedingly doubt- any adequate knowledge of either his numbers of whom now sleep beneath the soil their self-devo- ful of the result. tion has consecrated. They have fallen nobly, as The Richmond Dispatch thus concludes an editorial on the battle: The splendid success of Gen. Evans against a al musician of that place has discovered a prodigy | force four times as numerous as his own, clearly for which there is probably no precedent—a singer indicates the policy which ought to have been the excitement greatly subsided, to I will con- while the Confederates had an unobstructed coun- Lanvale streets, and running thence bounding on who is at once a basso, a baritone and a tenor. - pursued by the Confederate forces from the be-The professor was on his way to Rovigo, when he | gipning. The Yankees cannot stand before our sonorous barnone struck up the well-known "Lo Is it not, then, the height of folly to treat them We are in a rather critical position.—first, our many long hours against eight or nine thousand. redriduo reglio audice." The listeners was still as though they were veterans-to halt before lost in admiration of the beauty of these two equal numbers and commence throwing up dirt, voices, when a high tinging tenor made itself instead of rushing upon them at once with the heard, and sang with great range of voice Edgar's havonet, and driving them off from our soil? closer air in Lucia. The delighted professor | What is the end of war? Is it not peace as soon could not recrein his enthusiasm, and hurried as it can be obtained on favorable terms? And into the allocation to thank the gifted trio, how can it be obtained so soon as by beating the dore, who said, "I thoroughly appreciate your them was now a thousand times intensified, and Taxes paid up to day of sale, as the dore, who said, "I thoroughly appreciate your them was now a thousand times intensified, and Taxes paid up to day of sale, as the second dore, who said, "I thoroughly appreciate your them was now a thousand times intensified, and Taxes paid up to day of sale, as the second dore, who said, "I thoroughly appreciate your them was now a thousand times intensified, and Taxes paid up to day of sale. when, to his astonishment, he found the apart- | enemy? Defensive war is always adopted by the | clared that he himself had sung all three airs .- have been at least equal to the enemy in both Put to the test, it proved that he spoke the truth, throughout this campaign, and yet we have taken we can defy all Secessiondom. and that the singer possessed the extraordinary advantage of neither. The slow protracting range from low D to the high C, all full and I can- movements adopted by our generals have torne Roan. -As the train from Baltimore to Washing- ing against overwhelming odds, find their exalted very hardly on Virginia. A large portion of her territory is in possession of the enemy, and it is of the atmost importance to get him out of it. This cannot be done by letting him alone and waiting for him to come after us. The people of Virginia think the more hardly of it because they i. are that the enemy never stands before our forces.

they cannot be made to believe anything else. The Richmond Wary of Thursday says: All yesterday afternoon firing was going on at | pened to be on the train and rendered such assist-State dated Washington, August 26, 1861, in Fransport, and last night and this morning at ance as could be tendered in the case. On the arwhich the Secretary requests all whom it may Aquia Creek. We hope they have sunk somed rival of the train in Washington the injured man concern to permit safely and freely to pass Henry | thing. On Saturday two schooners were being | was transferred to the Army Infirmity near the farce of electing a member of Congress from the Pose-H. Garnet, a citizen of the United States, and in towed up the river by a steam tug. When within City Hall. On examination he was found to have sth district of Virginia, of which Alexandria forms case of need to give him all lawful aid and pro- range of our betteries, the redees of war" were received a serious fracture of the pelvis, and other part. The whole vote in Alexan leia was 149, out a tection. This passport is impressed by the seal loosed, and so warm was the greeting, that the injuries, from which he died in the course of two lof a voting population last year of 1,734. At the of the Department of State, and signed by the steam tog quickly let go ber hold on the echoon- hours. Papers found in his possession indicated Presidential election Lincoln and Douglas received. Secretary of State, in the eighty-sixth year of the ers, and ignobly described them to their fate. The it to be W. R. Ross, First Lieut. in Anderson's logether 157 votes, which about represented the tug retreated down the river, and the schooners Zouaves.

Ope of the schooners was loaded with wood, and the other had on board 432 bales of hay, from gotten out of the bales of hay after she had been us endeavor to preserve ourselves from it, let us his negro, came here to stay all night, and, by "Colonel Evans reports that he was engaged brought ashore. The tug is believed to have not suffer ourselves to be poisoned by the false chance, heard of the commitment of the boy, most of the day resterday with twelve regiments | been seriously injured, as she drew off to the Mary- | doctrines which destroy everything under pretence | which proved to be his. The negro had in his and five batteries of the enemy near the Potomac. land shore, and some are of the opinion that she of saving everything. Just as conciliation is not possession a pass, and the names of places in his

THE COAST OF NORTH CAROLINA. emergency.

DEATH OF PRINCHERS.

OFFICAL REPORT. Brig. Gen. Evans, in his official report of the engagement near Leesburg, published in the Rich- and preserve it from the poison of error and im- in favor of their wives, stating that they have semond papers, gives three hundred as the number | piety. INTALID SOLDIERA

There are more than a thousand invalid soldiers at this time in the hospital of Staunton, Va., and

LEANS.

The Washing wu Star has seen a private letter which thus describes the attack made upon the property, despoiled the altars, persecuted members waters, if not to look after the California treasure Federal fleet on the 9th, three days before the gen- of the clergy and of religious orders, driven away | ships on the Pacific side of the Isthmus. Numbers eral assault by Com. Hollins:

U. S. S. Rickmond, Head of the Passes, \ Mississippi River, Oct. 11, 1861. Day before yesterday our ship had a sharp ena passport to the gratitude of his countrymen. much absorbed in the working of my gun to think New York Herald presented the same point. 11 the soil their footsteps polluted, and that must jugboat Wm. H. Webb, armed with four broad- have nothing left, as the result of Gen. Stone's make the giant usurpation at Washington shud- sides and two heavy 32-pound rifles) was our movement, but the appaling disaster itself, naked superior, inasmich as her guns ranged quite a half and alone. The mind sickens over the contempla-We are, as yet, without the names of any of mile beyond ours. About one hundred shots were tion of it. Blunders more or less vital meet the true men, and the country mourns with those who we have given the enemy eight or ten shots but and rapid river between them and their reserves. she does not return them. She is evidently "play- and no means of transportation but two or three ing us some trick," but we will never "give up rickety scows of the capacity of about fifty men the ship," and if we only get our rifle 42's, apiece. (which are expected daily,) New Orleans will be ours before Christmas. obtain some rifle cannons " When these arrive, I ties published in our columns this morning.

ficient time to enable him to stop the engine be- sible chiefs. fore the unfortunate man was struck by the cowcatcher, thrown from the track, and severely injured. The train was stopped as soon as possible, They believe that they could have been driven out and the man was picked up in a state of insensimonths ago if our generals had tried to do it, and bility and placed in as comfortable a position on the train as circumstances would allow.

Dr. Jones, Assistant Surgeon, U.S. A., hap-

were brought ashore under one of our batteries. THE POPE'S ALLOCUTION ON THE PO-SITION OF THE CHURCH.

ers, and most likely struck the tng, which was on | tare to see certain Christians-certain Catholics-| county. On Tuesday last the negro was taken the leeward, keeping out of as much danger as there are some of them even among the secular up by George T. Pope, Esq., near Laytonsville, possible. It was probably this shot that induced | clergy and in convents-who have ever on their | in this county, dreseed in Zouave costume, and The Exeminer contains an official despatch | the tug to cast loose and show her heels at Bull lips the words middle-term, conciliation, compro- pretending to be free, and on his way to his home mise. Well, I do not besitate to declare these in Pennsylvania. He was lodged in Jail as a run-We have since ascertained that one of the men are mistaken, and I do not regard them as away, and, on Wednesday last, Mr. Kimmel, afschoopers was struck no less than eight times, the least dangerous enemies of the Church. We ter having made inquiries all through the camp, and that three or four of the cannon balls were live in a corrupt and pestilential atmosphere; let without getting the dightest information about possible between God and Belial, so it is not pos- | coute to Pennsylvania, copies of which we pubsible between the just and unjust, between the lish, for the information of the public as to one of We are glad to learn, says the Richmond Dis- Church and those who would compass ber de the ways and modes by which our negroes are patch, that Brig. Gen. Hill is putting everything struction. Undoubtedly, it is necessary that enabled to escape to the North. Col. Kimmel in-The Examiner announces the death of General in motion in his department on our coast. He is our firmness should be blended with prudence; tends to lay the matter fully before General Banks regiments being commanded by Colonels Feather- that Gen. Hill makes a requisition upon the peo- evils to be apprehended, but when persecution pickets, a discharged servant of an officer in this ple of Graven for one-fourth of their slave force | comes, none but the sinner is confounded, and | service, to Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. The Richmond Disputch of the 23d instant con. for two weeks to aid in the construction of the seeks to arrange everything in accordance with hatteries. He also proposes to accept a regiment his fears and interests. The just man, on the or battalion of volunteers for the "local defense" | contrary, profits by it to fortify himself and to from the counties of Hyde, Beaufort, Craven, find fresh energy in the accomplishment of duty. Cartaret, Jones, Onslow and Lenlor, to serve in | Therefore, let us stand firm; no conciliation, no the counties where they belong, except in an compromise with the ungodly, no forbidden and impossible compromise. I commend this to all pondent of the London Globe, in his last letter, Catholics, but especially to the members of the savs: The following Federal prisoners died at the Con- | clergy who may be inclined to be misled by perarms. Their killed and wounded and prisoners federate States hospital, in Richmond, on Wed- verse doctrines, contrary to the interests and just reign of terror which exists at Baltimore, Philanesday, viz: G. M. Chirly, company H. Second | rights of this Holy See and of the Church. (At | delphia and New York. Respectable citizens are dred. The rout was total. The fight was an infan- Maine regiment; F. Slack, Connecticut regiment, these words the Holy Father rose from his seat, secretly arrested and consigned to prison without try engagement exclusively. The forces engaged and E. L. Read, company II, Second Wisconsin and stretching out his hands towards heaven, con- their names being published, an order to that eftinued.) Let us pray Almighty God to display feet having been issued to the police. Letters His merciful arm to protect my beloved Rome. have been received by merchants on this side from

Holliness said : To all these misfortunes, which we deplore, a new affliction has been added. In the States of Mexico, some men not less criminal, and animated by a similar hatred against the Catholic Church, ele says Mr. Ward, late American Minister to feared to promulgate laws the most unjust and | England. The Chronicle adds: It is conjectured the most bostile to the power, rights and doctrines | here that Mr. Ward took letters of marque with of the Church. They have pillaged ecclesiastical him to be given to privateers to cruise in China the virgins consecrated to God, and after out- of other Southerners have come and gone this raging bishops have dragged them from their summer by our steamers, and many more have flocks and sent them into exile. Almost all these | been staying in Toronto, Montreal, and even here. victims have come into our city, and have given | The United States passport system is not only a us great consolation by the display of the virtues | nuisance, but a useless one. the chief of Gen. Beauregard's staff, Col. Jordon, gagement with the enemy—a naval action. For which they possess in a high degree. And that is as heresbell began to fall around us, and as we which has rendered such great services to religion These great results, be it remembered, were found our heaviest guns fuiled to reach her, things and society; and, moreover, they compelled the

> From the Philadelphia Inquirer. A Calamity Without a Consolation. Yesterday, upon the assurance of a copy of a from the beginning to the end of the fatal more-Half-past 12 P. M., Oct. 11 .- The Webb is ment. Troops feeble in force and unsupported. his whereabouts. These troops were almost whol-Two o'clock P. M.—The ship is cleared, and I ly unsupported, because there was a deep, broad

In this condition of affairs many hours were consumed in throwing reinforcements to the Property-that is to say: Beginning for the same Fire o'clock.—The Webb is out of sight, and anount of a few hundred across the river. Meantinue my account of the first engagement: After | try and a line of railroad to assist them in bring- | the North-ast side of Ross atrect 20 feet, thence firing from half-past one o'clock until four, the ling up their reserves, by which means they over- Northeasterly, parallel to Lanvale street, 107 feet enemy retired, leaving us as bewildered as we whelmed our brave little band with their swarmwere relieved. Besides three shots in our hull, ling multitudes. Twelve hundred to fifteen hunour mizen topmast backstays were shot away. I dred men were thus compelled to struggle for draft has been increased by six additional guns- and when at last, with all their field officers struck | the water on the bar is low, we cannot cross: down, and human courage could no longer resist second, the enemy can steam two knots to our such olds they gave way only to find the remorse- annual ground rent of $72.50, and will be sold subone—we cannot run; third, the enemy's guns less river in their rear, and no means by which to ject to a mostgage of $1.660, due 1st January, 1-62. range further than ourse we cannot fight. These | get across. This lack of transportation, the blun- The improvements consist of a newly built THREE circums ances were communicated to the Commo- | der which prevented reinforcements from teaching | STORY HOUSE, with a large back building, &c. position, and will leave myself for Pickens, to we have the result in the chocking list of casual-

And all this without any beneficial result we have remarked, the heart sickens over such a FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT ON THE WASHINGTON | catastrophe, wherein so many brave men, fightton, due here at half-past 5 o'clock, on Friday | courage, their lofty heroism, and their indomitaevening, was approaching the city, a man was ble efforts, all paralyzed and themselves sacriseen on the track by the engineer, but not in sut- | ficed by the blundering incapacity of their respon-

> FUNERAL OF COL. BAKER -- While Lord Lyons and Ornamental. was prevented by an accidental circumstance from receiving the invitation to attend the funeral of Juring the Exhibition. Cot. Baker in time to avail himself of it, the French of State, and the Envoy from Prussia says his ab- tickets for one dollar. sence on that occasion was caused by indisposition, for which he expresses his regret.

A FARCE -- They have been going through the to call at the Office of the Actuary for that pur-"unconditional" Union strength of the city.

ARREST OF A SLAVE .- On last Sunday, say the Montgomery Sentinel, a negro buy belonging The Paris Union, of October 6, publishes the to A. Z. Kimmel, Esq., son of Col. A. Kimmel, Maine, 350 barrels of cement, an elegant piano, following as being, if not the exact text of the living near the Mount Airy Railroad station, in six or eight casks, supposed to be filled with ba- Pope's allocution in the late Consistory, at least Frederick county, was carried, by teamsters of con, and other small stores. One of our shots very nearly the ipissime verbe of his Holiness:- | the Federal army, from Mount Airy to the camp had gone through and through one of the schoon- In these times of confusion and disorder it is not of Major General Banks, near Darnestown, in this

No 123 W. Baltimore street, up stairs.

Advertisements should be sent in early.

DARXISTOWN, MD., Oct. 13, 1861. Pass Charles Johnson through all sentinels and

MAJ. GEN. BANKS. By order, R. Morris Corklin. A. A. A. G. Rockville, Cooksville, Unionville, Westminster. Gettysburg, Chambersburg, Philadelphia.

FREEDOM IN AMERICA.-The New York corres-

"Few in England have any idea of the complete (here the Pope's voice was broken by a sob,) correspondents on the other side, placing credits cret information that they were about to be de-Glancing towards the American continent, his | nounced from malice, and that no man of property is safe; no opportunity is afforded of proving his innocence, or of knowing what the charge is on which he is imprisoned."

SOUTHERNERS IN CANADA.—The Quebec Chroni-

WOOD,

COKE

T. C. S. PERGESOF.

FULL SUPPLIES NOW ON HAND AND FOR SALE AT VERY LOW PRICES,

FOR CASH ONLY.

W. F. H. ONION,

corner Canal and Lombard streets,

and 26 South Eden st.

CLAIBORNE & FERGUSON,

ACRETS FOR THE BALK OF

VIRGINIA MANUFACTURED

TOBACCO,

No 20 SOUTH CALVERT STREET ATTIMORP, MD

TOY VIRTUE OF A DECREE OF THE CIR-D cuit Court for Baltimore City, the undersigned, as Trustees, will sell by public auction, on the eighth day of November, Isol, at four o'clock. on the premises, the following described Leasehold at the Eastern corner or intersection of Ross and I 6 inches to the centre of a 15 foot alley, with the use and privilege of the same in common with othlers, thence. Northwesterly along the centre of said alley 20 feet to Lanvale street, and thence Southwesterly binding on Lanvale street 107 teet 6 inches I to the place of beginning.

The above described Property is subject to an Terms of sale as prescribed by the decree are.

one half Cash, and the balance in six months, with interest, secured to the satisfaction of the Trustees. R. U. HARDESTY, } Trustees. P. COLSTON,

S. J. SOPER, Auctiono r. TARYLAND INSTITUTE

THE ANNUAL PAIR OF THE MARYLAND INSTITUTE is you open, and will be continued until the 4th November preximo. It presents an excellent collection of Articles, combining the Artistic, Useful. The Band of the Independent Blues is engaged Single admission tickets for adults, 25 cents; Minister similarly excused himself to the Secretary | children under ten years, half prize. Six adult The term of nembership of the Institute expired I on the 1st of September. Those who have not renewed their subscription are respectfully solicited.

> EZRA WHITMAN. Chairman Com. on Exhibition. THE UNDERSIONED has a desirable assortment. ■ of COGNAC wid BORDENUN by ANDIES to Police Store Branch -W. Morning to Medicina & Co. ALSO, 200 Basketa CHAMPAGNE

300 do Prime OLIVE OIL For sale by C MORTON STEWART, No 82 S. Gay atrees.