PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING By J. M. MILLS & CO., Office, 122 WEST BALTIMORE STREET.

_____

I two tros porte street, CP States, Where Subscription and Advertisements will be received.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 30.

ANONYMOUS COMMUNICATIONS. to them. We can publish nothing that does not properly belong. come to us through a responsible channel.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

We are daily under obligations to Mr. Heary Taylor, Sun Iron Building, for the latest Northern London Weekly Times and Illustrated News.

To Mr. E. F. Hazieton, No. 74 Baltimore street Evening Star.

_____ POSTING THE BOOKS.

The season of the "sere and yellow leaf" upon us—the old year is rapidly falling into his dotage, and gives unmistakeable indications of Lis speedy decay and extinction. Of all others. then, this is the most proper period for reflection | gia and South Carolina down upon them. and review of the past, before the time that is

Dropping poetical metaphor, and proceeding to | the dull lessiness of posting books, with which we erations on the field of battle, and that it is very result, we shall have to travel over the transactions of a year and add up a few figures. The war. which has rendered all this calculation ne endeavor to give our public a second opportunity. which he started to the quarters, but had hardly cessery, virtually commenced when Mr. Lincoln was elected President, last fall, though the first act of the drama was the secession of South Carolina in December of the same year. It was then proplic ied by those who assumed to be the ora- I body politic would go no further, and could easi- to have an opportunity of hearing him. ly be healed; and accordingly, the great Congress of quacks and empiries which assembled at the Capital in December proceeded to prescribe emplacers of every description for its cure. As usual as to the ingredients of the prescription, and while eral "braves" routed a body of 1,500 "country Second Infantry. We learn that he will not a they were wrangling over details, the malady goshawks," armed with flint lock rifles and squirrel delivered to the civil authorities, but will to the truth of the old latin maxim-

"Ence re-idendum est, immedicabile culnus," and to the healing virtues of the sword they all ficers were in the defeat at Springfield. Jeff. for some years. presently resorted. But let us get rid of our med- say they captured four heavy guns, 18-pounders, course of time, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mis- used on board steamboats to fire salutes from the I named Harrington. sissippii, Louisians and Texas imitated the ex- bow. ample of South Carolina, and the matter began RETIREMENT OF LIEUTENANT to look serious. Still the wiseacres pooh-poohed the thing, and after the inauguration of Mr. Lincoin, hopes of an arrangement were held out in high quarters. But the attempt to reinforce Fort ing infirmities, will retire from active service vorite character of a quech-maker-smoog other Sumter, and the reduction of that fortress by during the next ten days. This statement is things be said: General Beauregard, put a stop to negotiations. The President called for 75,000 men, and the States of Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Arkansas responded by joining the Gulf States, and the Southern Confederacy became a will now be paid. fixed and formidable fact. The armies on both sides were largely increased, and the war commenced in earnest. Let us now proceed briefly to consider the objects with which each party set out and the results so far attained.

The Government commenced with the intention of speedily teducing the seveded States to subjection, and the usual instruments for effecting such | an object. Beets and armies, were brought into [ requisition-the first to blockade and hermetically seal the ports of the South-the latter to overrun [ and compy its soil. The sequel is, that the blockade, so far, bas been but partially successed ful, and its effectiveness is now the subject of dispu'e-the army up to this time has not fulfilled. its mu sion. At Great Bethel-at Managau-at Springfield, and more recently at Leesburg, the Southern at mice drove back, the invading forces [ of the Felicians, and Missouri and Kentucky, regular monthly mail communication, and British J which were in the hands of the Government at | mail steamers carry their letters across to Engthe legiptong of the campaign, are now the stakes I and. It is quite likely that Mexican ports may for which contending armies are struggling. Western Virginia alone, of all the Southern territory, les leeb parmamently hold is the Governe bus been long the avenue through which they ment, and constitutes the only muid upon which have received arms and munitions of war, but its ormy be achieved victory. The success at that avenue is presty well closed by the blockad-Hatteres bee been the solitary aploit of the nava [ - now both, while it seriously inconvenienced the l Court brites, did not prove fatal, and was to some extent committeed by the loss and annovance cost i to the North by the privateers. The correct Social States, started out with the

the 1989) dividy of their soil-sting have so far ill weins that in a number of instances Governor l an orderd, except as regards certain portions of Morgan has disregarded the wishesand recommen- labe, there will come a reconstruction of the country income us that portions of Morgan has disregarded the wishesand recommen-Virginia, who a were pever in their military occu- dations of the regiments, who have desired the and brotherly love. For proof of this we need only dered up, for the purpose of manufacturing boards promotion of worthy non-commissioned officers, property and they have gone a little further by and has appointed persons who are either unfit for the people have not seen, and shall not see, such at Chest Mountain Pass. This report has given the people have not seen, and shall not see, such at Chest Mountain Pass. This report has given the people have not seen, and shall not see, such at Chest Mountain Pass. This report has given the people have not seen, and shall not see, such at Chest Mountain Pass. p'co. Len why will asouri in the position of de the positions, or who are entirely unknown to the civil war as has been waged on hin ash soil; yet use to a general despondency throughout the but be Sairs. So fir, then, there is obviously regiments, and do not intend to do duty except in the short space of fitteen v are after the excesses camp, and has been productive of some hard BRANDIES, GINS, WINES, a believe to beyond the Confederates, but this se officers upon some general's staff. Several in- of the Cromwe'llion Revolution, we those would exerting. We confidently predicted that our lamay be clarged by rigorous action on the part of stances have occurred in which colonels have re- were healed, in the good old mother country and bors here would be rewarded by a brilliant camthe Conversion within the next thirty days. It promotion to fill seconders. The sergeants have with notody but outsiders. [Applicase at laught 1. We are told that a portion of the secession force has been as a second day of the secession force has been as a second second second day. • his large at 1 well appointed armore in Missourit ling been assigned to the positions by their colo- ter.] So it will make no difference with what decreases in the scinity of Kontodia camp, and that Kentulky, is latery the line of the Potomac, and irel, have discharged the duties and drawn the pay gree of energy this war is carried on. Time, the later throwing up fortifications at Greenbrier, at et which hes just subed from Hampton Roads | of lieutenants and ensigns, one to find them- great healer of all though with the properties of the stands and ensigns, one to find them-The proper couples who easpect of affairs, but whatever appointed by the Governor from rival life and to go sport, for, while it night to possible that the operations are over for the section, and the to the section and the total a change the who e aspect of affilies, but whatever without experience. is to be done, must be done quickly. The public Petitions are now being prepared in several re- upon its ruins, it never can be broken up into little unless an unexpected order to strike tents and expectition fixes upon the vicinity of the Capital giments, requesting that recancies in the grades snarling, imbecile republics. [Lond and long much elsewhere prevents us. as the theatre of the next conflict, and a decided of lieutenants and ensigns may be filled by pro- continued applause. an cers there, involving the fall of Richmond, motion of non-commissioned officers upon the rewill be worth more to the Government than any Republican other achievement possible. If something of the sort, however, does not happen soon, we do not see how the recognition of the Southern Confed. ontains the following items: teracy by France and England, and an attempt on ) the part of those powers to raise the blockade as | The body of Colonel Baker, having been em- Ball's Bluff, and in conclusion says: indicated in a very interesting letter, which we balmed by Dr. Holmes, yesterday, by invitation All Tuesday night the whistle of Confederate long to all the nobler attributes of reason, that

TION.

5 A. M., and put to sea. Its destination it a presents a very natural appearance. also in receipt, by the European steamers, of the matter of mere conjecture, but is supposed to be The case will be sealed up, and sent to New Beaufort, S. C., a town situated upon an island York to-day, and thence to California. , | half way between Charleston and Savannah. It (old office of the South), we are also indebted for | is approached by what is known as Port Royal is many kind favors in the shape of valuable maps entrance, where the depth of water varies from No. 31, for repairing of the Baltimore and Ohio them, throwing up the earth on the other side for grow weary of death, and a thousand battle fields for reference, and a copy daily of the Washington sixteen to twenty-seven feet, at low and high tide. Railroad, published in nearly all the papers, was in the several channels. The occupation of Beau fort would enable the Federals to undertake one rations against Savannah or Charleston. country, however, for miles up from the coast or town. the main land is full of ewamps, and is impracticable for artillery. In about ten days after the There were no arrivals at the navy yard up to troops land they may expect to have half of Geor- six o'clock last evening.

shall be no longer, and the New Year, inexperi. ed out to the soldiers, so it is evident they do not ton. This has been deemed necessary in view of enced and indulging in all the delusive pleasures anticipate a long trip. The supply vessels which the increase of patients, which has been quite of hope, shall be with us, beguiling us with rose. | accompany the fleet carry an ample stock of procolored anticipations never, perhaps, to be real- | visions. The public look for news from this expedition with great interest.

MUSICAL.

set out, we commence by remarking that the pre- for Miss Hinkley's Concert to-morrow night gives be provust guard of Georgetown and have their sent unhalpy civil war has lasted now nearly assurance of a crowded and fashionable house-a quarters in the hall, around which they keep a nine months-that but thirty days remain for op- larger number of reserved seats having been secured than upon any previous occasion. There guard, had relieved the guard about two o'clock, desirable to know how we stand, and to whose is great desire to hear Miss Hinkley, who, on this autioning a man named Michael Lanaban on just cie lit the bilance now stands. To arrive at this occasion, makes her first appearance before a Bal- at the corner of the alles in the rear of the hall timore audience. If what we have heard of her and First street. merits prove to be true, the management must Lazahan and gave him some instructions, after baritone Signor Mancusi has arrived this season, Sergeaut Brannan immediately turned around, to and has created quite a sensation. His voice is see that was wanting, when Lanahau leveled his said to be of the purest quality and very fresh biet and fired, the ball entering the centre of the while his style and method are unexceptionable cles of fite-prominent among whom was the He is quite young, but has already achieved great of the backbone. Brannan dropped his mucket, present Secretary of State-that the disease would | success both in Europe and Cuba, and more re- and ill dead instantly. The guard immediately stop where it began-that the wound upon the cently in our Northern cities. We hope ere long arrested Lanahan, but not before he had com-

The Battle at Fredericktown, Missouri.

The following is an extract from a private letprogressed so far that all were suddenly aroused guns, they having at least 3.500 men, command- tried by a court-martial, which will be shortly of the army, assisted by Major Schofield, with his Thompson was not there at all. The "braves"

GENERAL SCOTT.

tiveness that General Scott, owing to his increas- appearance at Rexbury, Massichusetts, in his laticrossed. compled with another, that a certain old claim made upon the Treasury by General Scott, growing out of the Mexican war, which was disallowad during the administration of President Pierce.

THE EFFICIENT BLOCKADE.

An Associated Press despatch from New York transmitting Havana news of the 25th instant

Here are arrivals from four of the principal larrival of Messrs. Slidelland Mason in the Theo-dorg, is confirmed, and they had been most cordially received by the Captain General, to whom: they were presented by the British Consul.

How they Communicate and Get Supplies -

The Philadelphia Ledger says: Mexico is now the source through which the Contederates communicate with Europe and get their supplies of arms. They have established or used in the same was to get supplies of aims. and the attention of the Mexican government should be called to the nester. The Rio Grande ing fleet. We see also by Richmond papers, that their troops were tomy supplied with Enfield rifler showing that they must have received a considerable supply recently

We regret to learn that great dissatisfaction pre- knowledged, we not only will have peace but vails in some of the New York regiments now in intention of preserving their independence, and  $\{$  the field, relative to some resent appointments.  $\leftrightarrow$ commended orderly-sergeants to the Governor for they go on like a band of brothers-quested him paran bearer home.

WASHINGTON LOCAL NEWS. The Washington Republican of this morning

THE BOUT OF COL. BARES.

Bluff, Virginia, Oct. 21, 1861."

Fire soldiers died in the hospital vesterday.

never officially promulgated by the Department.

The are new in the Union Hotel Hospital, at George Poolesville. NAVY TARD.

We learn that rations for three days were serv- eites for the new hospitals in and about Washing-Iproducing billious and typhoid fevers.

DELIRERATE MURDER IN GEORGETOWN. About half-past two o'clock sesterday morning deliberate murder was perpetrated neur Forrest Sall, Georgetown. Company A. Second United | We are gratified to learn that the sale of seats Itates Infantry, Capt Lovell, are doing duty as guard, and, according to custom, the victim, Joseph Brannan, who was the sergeant of the

About half an hour later, the sergeant went to We learn from the New York papers that a new | projected ten paces, when Lanahan called him. right breast and passing obliquely through the purpose on Monday. If this were so, a higher not righteons, is it not humane, is it not thilanches, lodging between the lower ribs on the left i menced reloading his piece, to shoot one of the or rope ferry at least. sentitude. The cause of the murder is thought to . be an old grudge which exists between them. Lamban is represented to be a very quarrelsome by ter to a firm in this city, dated St. Louis, Oct. 25: I man, seing always on angry terms with some of The "Grand Battle" at Fredericktown, in Miss his conrades. He is an old soldier, having servamong physicians, there was a total disagreement | souri, is another tissue of falsehoods. The Fed. | ed in other regiments previous to his joining the

> The victim, sergeant Brannan, is about 35 years battery of four 12-pounders. Both of these of- of age, and has been connected with the army

ANOTHER MURDER. Patrick McCrosen, a teamster, was besten to ical metaphor, and return to plain facts. In due | which turn out at last to be two little swivels, | death in the 1st Ward on Monday night, by a man

BUTLER TURNS UP AGAIN. It has been so long since we heard any thing trom Major General B. F. Butler, that we were crossed The New York Tribune announces with posi- about to give him up, but he has lately made his There is one peace, I know, that the minds of some men are apprehensive of that of a military despotism arising out of this immense inilitary organization. It was a well-known favorite idea of ) our fathers to keep the army entirely in subjection . to the civil power, for fear that the army, like the injured, 30. Prætorian Guards of Rome, might at some time ! so far didactic, on this occasion, I desire to disabuse the minds of many well-meaning men whom I have met, upon that subject. Were this a stand-Several vessels have arrived at Culum ports ing army, you might reason from a premise. from Charleston, New Orleans, Mobile, and Wil- But it is an army which is obliged to lay down tits arms and retire to its homes upon the moment when this war is ended. Not only that—it de- | -with equipments. I shall make a further report | pends for its very existence upon the people at Southern ports supposed to be blackaded. The home-upon your town meeting and city councils that rote its supplies and vote renef to the families. That is an element that never existed in any other country. The little municipalities, the town ) meetings all over this country, settle the question ! forever upon the side of Demorratic institutions of orders, while I was engaged in arranging for and free government; and there can be no danger | the removal of the wounded and the burial of the from any army, however large, or from any chief. | dead.

tain, however ambitious. In time, let me say, that the whole result of all and the timid,-there can be no peace, whatever pouring out of treasure -antil the one great blood that flows in the vertice of his Southern broch ter-or enemy, as they choose to call thems ives, -- 1 until Sumter is avenged and Manages is forgotten. (Desfening applause and cheers.) And when the full equility of the North with 15, save DISSATISFACTION IN NEW YORK REGIMENTS .- | the South shall have been demonstrated and noeven if we every on this war to conficcation—to de- ; then to be being is disperied.

a great empire, a military despotism, might rise those will soon be busily engaged building huts.

"Sea of troubles."

FURTHER DETAILS OF THE BAT-

TLE OF BALL'S BLUFF. The special correspondent of the New York World gives a detailed account of the battle of

of the committee of Californians who have the trains bringing reinforcements into Leesburg was they will persist in civil strike? Are the founyesterday copied from the Washington Republican, body in charge, a number of friends of the de- distinctly heard. But on Tuesday morning Gen. tains of human sympathy sealed up that none can be avoided. This view is fully concurred in | ceased visited the rooms of Dr. Holmes, on Penn- McClellan, toviewing the ground, seemed deter- will yield and seek the pathway to surer happiby some of the leading Republican Senstors now sylvania avenue, during vesterday, to see the face mined, though greatly chagrined by the unex- ness? Is father to be arrayed against son and In Washington, who are urging an immediate ad- of their late friend for the last time. The tem- pected situation, to hold the position gained at son against father, brother against brother, friend vance of the Grand Army, and the advice, we porary coffin in which the body of Col. B. was Edward's Ferry. The Quartermaster of Col. Van against friend, in this bloody conflict, without brought from Poolesville, has been replaced by a Alen's Cavalry, who has a practical acquaintance pausing to respect the benign pleadings of peace? have reason to believe, will be followed. If it is, handsome metallic case, imitation of resewood, with canals, volunteered to get enough hoats from Has our civilized, our christianized nation fallen Persons sending us anonymous communication the result will probably be decisive, and will enal mounted with silver; a large plate of glass covertible "Chesapenke and Ohio" into the stream to act so low in the scale of virtue that it thirsts only for tions are informed that no attention will be paid ble us to assign the balance for 1861, where it may log the place, through which the features of the complish an easy and rapid transit for the main blood? Shall famine, pestilence, demoralization. deceased may be seen by his friends, below column. Bonts moving up and down were stop- the sure attendants of war, he allowed to overwhich, over the breast, is a silver-plate with the | red and passed scientifically through the "shoot." spread the land because we are too proud to ask SAILING OF THE GREAT EXPEDI- inscription: "Col. E. D. Baker, killed near Ball's But ere long such advices, relating to the forces for peace? Must we yield to the mad ambition of and intentions of the Confederates, came to the tyrants, fanatics and demagogues that they may Notwithstanding the shattered condition of the generals, as to induce a change of mind and order lead us like lamba to the slaughter? In God's The Expedition so long collecting in Hampton body, the process of embalming was very success- for the total withdrawal of our forces from the name may we be permitted to hope the angel of Roads, took its departure yesterday morning at fully performed by Dr. Holmes, and the body Virginia side of the upper Potomac. The retire- mercy has not forsaken us, but still bovers above ment was effected on Wednesday night with ad- with outstretched wings, ready to hear from heamirable silence and success. On Thursday a few | ven the glad tidings of peace. Confederate pickets came down to the ferry. On Peace for the sake of peace, looking above and Friday, the enemy advanced in greater force, seiz- beyond all minor selfish considerations, is what ed the intrenchments thrown up by Captains we most need. Years may roll on, rivers of blood

> Yesterday Gen. Banks, whole column was en and suffered, peace, for the sake of peace, will route for Seneca, eleven miles down the river, and come and must come. If it were so that our peo-A number of the wounded at the late battle General Stone was resuming his old position at ple could continue decades of years in fratracidal intended by those in charge of the movement, but war has become glutted at his auful carnival? that a large force was to be thrown over the rive Let us look through the crimson vista of civil The Sanitury Commission have selected several er, Leesburg was to be seized, a junction formed war and behold its bloody pathway. Mangled with McCall and Smith on the south, and thus bodies and bleaching bones lie at every step. The the right wing of our army placed in line with | sad chorus to all this reverberates in the wailings the central division opposite Washington, as of- | of widows, the lamentations of orphans, the sighs ten predicted heretofore. The proofs of these are: of kindred and the mounings of friends. 1st, the concerted double advance at Edward's | Who can estimate the flood of tears flowing and Contad's ferries; 2d, the order to "make a through such channels into sorrow's deep ocean" dash at Leesburg," sent to Gen. Baker; 3d, or- Amid these contemplations, will not the anxious ders issued that McCall should hold his division inquirer exclairs-give me peace, it rises paraunder arms to cut of the retrement the Confeder mount to all other considerations! Look, if you

A few deductions and queries naturally con- abandoned to give place for pacific negotiations. | clude the shore report.

> General Banks. Even the southernmost ferry behold it enshrouded with thick dark clouds -does not come within his jurisdiction, and the | Once flourishing sources of industry are paralyzed. movement was subject to General Ston's direct idleness is begotten, leading to entire social de-

was the total lack of preparation for such an are gared into starvation, becoming miserable penduous and important measure as throwing a dou- sioners, even upon poverty: the whole face of bie division across a broad and rapid river into | society is changed, as are once smiling fields, by hostile territory, and at the crisis of a year's cam- | by the destructive trend of armies; social order paign. It is almost impossible to believe that gives place to discord, and in the midst of all this only three or four treacherous old scows were the misery, prejudices rigen into embittered hatred, houts used for this attempt. It is alleged that a until friendship is known no more. In view, peremptory and unanticipated order was sent to therefore, of these calamities, with thousands of General Stone, requiring him to more with such others not now foreseen, but sure to come, is it ly the recipient of such an order, if possessed of duty as Christians to invoke the Spirit of Peace true military ability, could have made samething for deliverance from the awful consequences of of the score of canal boats Iving at hand—a bridge | civil war?

gray head which all men loved and knew."

The Massachusetts Fifteenth lost in killed wounded and missing, 322, including a lieutenant | colonel (wounded), and 14 out of 28 line officers ; who crossed. The Massachusetts Twentieth lost in all 150. j including a colonel, major, surgeon, and adjutant (prisoners,) and Bout of 17 the officers who i a colonel, and 7 out of 12 line officers who l The Californiane lost 309, including their colonel (the general commanding), hentenant col- ent to the mandates of peace, yielding to comproonel (wounded), adjouant, and 15 line officers out | mise. Let us, then, emulate their example and of 17 who crossed.

1953: field officers crossing, 11; returning uninjured, 3: line officers crossing, 74: returning un-dictate the law to the people. But it I may be ment, who occupied Harrison's Island after the may simultaneously pause in friendly armistice battle furnishes one or two interesting facts in and negotiate PEACEFOR THE SAKE OF PEACE. his official report. He says.

We have lost two howitzers and one rifled cannon belonging to Captain Vaughn's Rhode Island Batters, and a number of small arms-sas 1,500 ) of the killed that were identified before burial. I have to report that the remnant of the Tam- i I many regiment, under command of Major Bon, a I deserted its post in the entrenchments on the island at an early hour of the forenoon of the 22d. and passed to the Maryland shore, in disobedience l

our action should be at once to conquer a plorious permission to bury the dead, which was acceded menced immediately peace. For there can be no peace, whatever may to, with the stipulation that "no movement of i he the wishes of the politician.—there c n he no troops should be made from the island to the i Jeace, whatever may be the desire of the coward Maryland shore in retreat while the hurring party | B RUSSELL of Wasterston, to Misa AMELIA I FWS, of Cecil was employed," and I despatched Capt. Vaughn | county may be the loss of blood, the suffering, or the with a party of ten men for that purpose, who remidned until after dark, and succeeded in burying ! question is settled, whether the red blood which 47 bodies, which he reported to be about two- buses flows in the reins of the Northern man is as good, | third of the number lying upon the ground; but | as pure, as true, as brave as contagrous as the hight coming on he was unable to burn the re- [] S-NINTH WARD. - At a large and respectable

Cincinnate Gazette, dated Camp Elkwater, Oct I the following nominations were made restation—if we exhibit the qualities we capt to ex- The well to exentiem in his been in camp, and f

A boy not found of fun and frolic may Ed Wanted, a life-hout that will float on a possibly make a tolerable man, but he is an ini tolerable boy

PEACE FOR THE SAKE OF PEACE. Amid the dreadful notes of war likely to entail upon our people horrors surpassing human thought, is there no voice for peace? Have men been transformed into monsters and grown cal-

[Communicated.]

We were authorized to say, that general orders. Downey and Stedman, and are now completing be shed, the sword, the bayonet and the cannon conflict, weapons of destruction must finally be Hence why not improve upon the sad lessons of It is evident that no mere reconnoiseance was | past history and declare for peace ere devastating

> please, into the gloomy future that stretches out It is evident that no responsibility attaches to before us, in contemplation of continued war, and moralization, with its innumerable concomitant The astounding error which caused its failure | evils: the rich are made poor, and the root beg-

Give us peace for the sake of peace; peace that General Baker had nothing to do with the se- | the fearful tracedy of war may be averted; peace, lection of the point at which he was to cross. He | that fratracidal blood may no more be shed; was not placed in command till Monday morning. | peace, that the eyes of widows and of orphans He found that hundreds of Massachusetts troops may not be flooded with tears; peace, that kinhad preceded his battalion. He found a battle dred and friends be not summoned to bewail their waiting for him, brought on by other hands, de- | slaughtered brethren; peace, that happiness may teat insured in advance, and the one duty of sell- return to her wanted aboute; peace, that the ining his command dearly? Oh, how dearly! Let | habitants of our great nation may again be renot the shadow of censure pass by those who have stored to barmony; peace that the weapons of incurred it to darken the slumbers of that "good strife be transformed into implements of husbandry; peace, that the channels of trade and of com-The same correspondent sums up the total loss merce may again flow smoothly; peace, that the agriculturist, the merchant, the mechanic and the laboring man may go back to their several vocations; peace, that starvation and misery frown not upon the poor and the needy; peace, that art and science and Christianity shall march onward as they were wont towards the grand triumph of ci-

And, finally, give us peace that our children, our children's children, and generations after The Tanimany companies lost 163, including them, may not realize war's bloody inheritance. Yes, peace, that peace may cover the earth as the waters cover the sea. In days past, our venerated eires bowed obedicounsel peace, that the peace spirit of republican Total engaged in the fight, 1,853; total losses. | liberty, as achieved by them and handed down to i us, may be transmitted, unstained, throughout all coming time. We would, therefore, have the spirit that begets peace, so soften the obdurate hearts of men now in battle array, marching on-Colonel Hinks, of the 19th Massachusetis regi- ward to sanguinary conflict, that each and all

> THE CONFEDERATE COMMISSIONERS.—The report that Messrs. Mason and Stideil, the Confederate Commissioners to Europe, proceeded via Texas and Mexico, is confirmed by the following extract of an intercepted letter from a citizen of Richmond to a friend:

> "I have just bidden farewell to Slidell, who is about starting for Europe with Mason. They are going through Texas, and will sail from a Mexi-

The Federal Government has authorized I the construction of a line of telegraph along the I despatched Captain Vaughn, of the Rhode Obio river, from the mouth of the Miami to the Island Battery, with a flag of truce, to obtain boundary line of Indiana, the work to be com-meeting of the National Dimogratic voters. of the Ninth Ward, held pursuant to public notice. PORITION OF GEN. REYNOLDS. - A letter to the on the 29th in-tant, at "NERNAN's," South Gay et . For Ma petrate, - DAVID W. HUDSON. For Constables.

> MARRIED. the the 2M restart, at Walnut Valley, by Rev. Mr. De Will, S.

CHARLES CARROLI All is quiet here now. Immediantely after our ! THOMAS GRAVES. reconnousance on the 5th, it was predicted by the . Who are respectfully recommended to the supwe shall have brotherly love. Yes, my tryinds, knowing one that we would be ordered to ken-port of the Demogratic voters of the 5th Ward, 3th KOSTON HAZIGUT

JAMES HAZIJTT & CO.

INTORIFE OF

 $WHISKIES, \ dec$

Sec. 39 and $1 S. Gay afreet. BALTIMORE

TAOMMISSION MERCHANTS,

32 COMMERCE STREET.

BALTIMORE. oc 18 3m