APPROXIMATE A STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PRO .. Price of Subscription. sangle copy, Two Carre; served by Carriers for or week, payable to the carriers. Crry, single copy, TERES CESTS; one much, PA. seaths, One Duller; four mouths, two Dollars; ree Dellare; and year, Six Dellars, payable tornthe paper, will be received at the office of Publicadeduction in favor of Newsmen and Agents.

District with Mesors, TEXLEY & Co., 12 Yorth street. There Freshrys will be surjusted.

Interestings should be addressed to the Publishers of Mis lines or less make a pre-No. 122 W. Rakimoresis

OL. IX

BAITIMORE, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1861.

AT A MEETING OF THE NATIC DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION FOR F BALTIMORE, beld at the Law Built THURSDAY, the 24th day of October, hat this Convention is satisfied that the and they are therefore earnestly requested at the election on the 6th day of November brothers against brothers.--American proper That this Conveniton respectfully submits as idates for election, on the 6th of November

[From the Landon Ours w Work.]

CIVILE BELLUM.

"Rifleman, short me a fancy shot

King me a tall in the gittering spot

Straight at the heart of you prowling vidette,

"Ab. Captain! here goes for a fine drawn brad,

There's music around when my barrel's in tupe "

And dead from his home fell the ringing dragoun.

"Now, Riseman, steal through the bushes, and spatch

That gleams in the toron like a diamond stud?"

"Ch! Captain, I staggered, and sunk on my track,

When I gazed on the face of the fallen vidette.

For he looked so like you, as he lay on his back,

That my heart time their me, and masters me vet

An inch from the centre my lead broke its was,

Source graving the picture so fair to behold,

"Ha" Riffernan, fling me the locket '-'The she.

"But, bark ! the far bugles their warning unite."

There's a lurking and loping around us to night.

Tread age in Rideman, keep your hand in ?"

night is sued the following order:

crown our efforts and sacrifices.

and loved so well.

a life so grand.

Ot a beautiful lady in bridal array

War is a virtue-weeksees a sin .

States.

But I snatched off the trinket-this looket of gold-

My breather's young bride—and the fallen dragma

Was ber husband-Husb' mildler, 'twas Heaven's decree erder of Maj. Gen. McClettan in Assuming

Command of the Armies of the United WARITINGTON, NOV. 1 .- Maj. Gen. McClellan to-

General Order No. 19 .- In accordance with

A HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, discipline and courage of our troops, and fect of increasing infirmities contracted and in-birth, and clings still to the cause of truth and

GEO. B. MCCLELLAN,

Major General Commanding U.S.A.

. Wilson, or as he is more familiarly known,

Wilson, has made an official report of t

possibly it is so because he has had greater expe-

He teils Gen. Arthur that his "new clothes were all destroyed," that the enemy's war-cry was

"Death to Wilson " and that "five thousand dollars reward" was offered for his own head; but he congratulates himself on two facts-namely.

that "his commission is safe," and that his "men have smelt gunpowder, and now they are all thre which I nailed to a flagstaff on the Fourth of

* Your obedient servant.

Medical assistance should at once be furnished.

"WM. WILKOS,

"Colonel Commanding "

a Confederate chess-club in the Confederate capital. | ruary, 1862.

the reward is already claimed; also an old rience in the former line than in the latter.

Then he makes this little statement to be put in a cage and exhibited."

for he is evidently in a bad way.

Col. Wilson's Report.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 1. /

PROS THE OSCH UNITED STATES

We must harr him, there, by the light of the most "

From your victim some trinket to handsel first blood

That skines on his broast like an amulet?"

Crack! went the rifle, the messenger sped.

& button, a loop, or that luminous patch

the following persons:

For Governor, BENJAMIN C. HOWARD. For Comptroller, BENJAMIN C. PHESSTMAN. For Judge of the Court of Common Plans, For Judge of the Orininal Court, RGE H. BRICE For State's Attorney, BERNARD CARTER. or Clerk of the Circuit Court.

ROBERT J. KERR.

WEN BOULDIN. DALL BOLLMAN. tas sappington, ITTINGS.

k of the Court of Common Pleas, general order No 94 from the War Department. e of each coun- and divide the nation, hesitation and self-distrust three distinct conflicts. The firing of musketry red Thousand may well accompany the assumption of so vast a responsibility; but confiding, as I do, in the loy-of them; every believing as I do that Providence will favor ours own. Mountain as the just cause, I cannot doubt that success will nd Shoals, Fort, regret that the weight of many years and the efthe distances are tensified in his country's service, should just now gire South, from Delaware to Mexico. All the Montexumas—whose whole life has been devoted to information in the Departments at Washington in the service of his country, whose whole efforts had regard to the last Coast Surveys was used in per- been directed to uphold our honor at the smallest fecting this Map. Price.—Bucet edities, 50 cents; can be sent by mail anywhere in America for 2 centa-Cloth Pocket edition, for the of Army Officers and Travellers, $1.

Also, LLUYD'S OFFICIAL MAP OF THE STATE OF MISSOURL. Price 25 cents. AGENTS WANTED in every county. can sell 50 copies per day. Sample copies sold at the delight of the nation to honor, both as a man Sole Agent for the State of Maryland, for Lloyd's Military Maps,

No. 74 West Baltimore street, near Gay,

CHARLES L. SPIES' ANCING ACADEMIES are now open. AT CENTRAL HALL, On WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY AFTERNOOMS for Ladies, Misses and Masters, and TURSDAY and FRIDAY NIGHTS. for Gentlemen. ALSO, AT POWHATTAN HALL.

MONDAY and THURSDAY AFTERN: ONS for Ladies and J.niors. Gentlemen's Class the same night. For particulars, call sa above.

COAL, WOOD,

COKE

FULL SUPPLIES NOW ON HAND AND FOR SALE AT VERY LOW PRICES,

FOR CASH ONLY.

W. F. H. ONION, corner Canal and Lombard streets, and 26 South Eden st. CYOAL AT $4 AND $5 PER TON. SOFT COAL, HARD COAL, MEDIUM COAL. These Coals I can recommend. Hickory, Oak and Pine WOOD.

Blacksmith's COAL, COKE, CHARCOAL COAL for Steam purposes.
Sawed and Split WOOD. Cash when ordered. C. W. FORD, 32 Light et., near Lomboard.

FLAGS.

FOR SALE BY

SISCO BROTHERS,

95 VALTIMORE STREET, OPPOSITE HOLLIDAY STREET

T. THOMAS & CO.,

Baltimore Street,

LTIMORE.

LATEST FROM THE SOUTH.

We find the following extracts from the Richmond Enquirer, of the 26th of October, in our Northern exchanges: A lady thus writes to the Enquirer:

LEESSURG, Oct. 21, 1861. You do not know what we have passed through since yesterday-a fearful buttle. Virginia Regiment was cut to pieces. Oh, what and body, with the appliances of surgery vantage, and soon the cheers of victory shouted were coming in, and though we knew the sorrow that would be shed abroad, vet our hearts went up in thankfulness to God who giveth the vic-

It was a glorious victory, gloriously won. Many a noble spirit was sacrificed on our part; but we are the conquerors! We have about five hundred wounded in the thigh-not mortally. Dr. Mar- verance. in, of Mississippi, was shot through the lungsapposed to be mortally wounded. Lieut. B. G. and. Lieut. Flem (?) had his leg shot off, and Dr. Brock his arm. Young Baltard, of Rich-Our court-house was full of Yankee prisoners last night, who were sent off at four o'clock this morning, and it is now full again. They do not think the attack will be renewed again to-day, as into consideration. It was decided that General sion that Price will make a stand only when he is their loss is so heavy. We did not fire a piece of artillery, owing to he thicket on the Leesburg side of the lattle clined. I hereby assume command of the armies of the ground, by Jackson's house.

on our side (for we had nothing else) was ter-GEN. ANDRESON'S BROTHER IN DURESS. Charles Anderson, brother of General Robert Anderson, of Sumter notoriety, who lives in Texas lately concluded to sell out and remove to Inlet and The army will unite with me in the feeling of Kentucky. He started from San Antonio, and Col. H. E. McCulloctt. Mr. Anderson is a United States, Myhout reduction in his curn primate has he comily started for Obio last pay, subsistention allowances. PROVISIONS FOR ROTatemoras. An arrangement has been made between American skill and valor could repeat, if not Confederate government and the State of No. Carolina, by which the latter contracts to supall the North Carolina soldiers with winter cloth- tant public services rendered by him to his cou ing, blankets, &c. Agents of the government try during his long and brilliant career, amo will be appointed in every county of the State, which will ever be gratefully distinguished ascrifice of life. A warrior who scorned the sel- authorized to purchase and pay for all the cloths, faithful devotion to the Constitution, the Unit fish glories of the battle-field, when his great blankets, hats, shoes, socks, &c., required for the and the flag, when assailed by paracidal rebellic profitably for his country. A citizen whose de- This arrangement will be carried out by the War clining years has given to the world most shin- Department, and payment will be made at the ing instances of loyalty in disregarding all ties of commutation rate of twenty-five dollars for every follows: six months of their service, &c. - Enq. ITTER FROM PINEY WOODS CAMP ON THE PUTUMAC. October 19th .- A correspondent of the Enquirer writes as follows:

While we regret his loss there is one thing we cannot regret-the bright example he has left for at Evansport were "unmasked." ur emulation. Let us all hope and pray that his From "Possum's Nose" we could hear steamers terest in this trying crisis in safe keeping. Their declining years may be passed in peace and happiness, and that they may be cheered by the success of the country and the cause he has fought for iect on the shore, over and around us. The bat ters in this trying crisis in safe keeping. Their counsels are wise. Their labors are untiring, as they are loyal, and their course is the right one.

they are loyal, and their course is the right one.

The President ron rount exercise me Lam unteries let it pass for the largest in sight. At length shie to stand longer to give utterance to the feel-Beyond all this, let us do nothing that can she cleared for action (the Pawnete) steamed up ings of gratitude which oppress me. In n cause him to blush for us. Let no defeat of the and came gallantly down. Our batteries present- retirement I shall offer up my prayers to God army he has long commanded embitter his last ed the appearance of a fine thicket on the Point; this administration and for my country. I shall years, but let our victories illuminate the close of but as the Pawnee came into range, the thicket pray for it with confidence in its success over all tumbled into the river as if by magic, the Confed- enemies, and that speedily, erate flag ran up defiantly from three batteries, and our shots saluted the astonished Yankees. giving him his hand, and saying he hoped soon She answered boldly, and fired splendid shots. to write him a private letter expressive of his She was hit tour or five times, but soon got out of gratitude and affection. range, and made Bull Run speed. No one was The President added: "General, you will natuhurt on our side, nor were the batteries affected rally feel solicitude about the gentlemen of your by the heavy cannonade. From appearances the ship was injured serious- such faithful service. I have taken that subject tude uncivil; and he thrust his head within Ir, and was glad to leave. . Since then our into consideration. I understand that they go open door, with "The foreman" out o' eq vantages of a West Point education; he has had batteries have kept up a fire on everything that with you to New York. I shall desire them at he says he wents some more! few opportunities of learning either the graces or has passed, and no sailing craft has passed except their earliest convenience after their return to der, the foreman wanted "more." the rules of literary composition; he is as rough in the fog, or at night. * This morning be- make their wishes known to me. I desire you "local" had already walked about till near the tugs let loose one of the largest ships and de- render their situation as agreeable hereafter as it had examined store and cellar, and had to door erted her. The others escape I, but not without has been heretofore." Nelson's company, from Dumtries, and men from the batteries, rowed out in long boats, and, amid the shouts of our regiments on shore, brought in he ship and schooner. Both are heavily laden, and are now unloading, under the guns of the morrow by the early train. Evansport batteries. The cargoes are valuable, 6 They are exhibiting my hair and head in Penand the ships worth no small amount. THE CONFEDERATE STATES ELECTION. July, which has been hanging there ever since: The election for members of Congress is to be a large quantity of hair, plenty of swords and uni- have not provided by law for such election, the pressing my deep regret that your health, shatter- devil, never sitting, still is flavor gestive sentences, which sound very oddly in an the United States.

Vice President. open the certificates, and the votes for President ; the last six months. It is reported in a Richmond paper that, and Vice President shall then be counted.

RETIRACY OF LIEUT. GEN. SCOTT. Major Gen. McClellan placed in command of the Federal Armies.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1 .- The following letter from Lieutenant General Scott was received by the President on Thursday afternoon: HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,

It is under such circumstances, made doubl perous and happy Union, that I am compelled to in the Southwest. His advanced guards in several request that my name be placed on the list of army officers retired from active service. As this request is founded on an absolute granted by a recent act of Congress, I am entirely latest advices, was precipitately going on. The draw myself in these momentous times from the orders of a President who has treated me with distinguished kindness and courtesy; whom I know, upon much personal intercourse, to be patriotic, without sectional partialities or prejudices; he does not seem to have directed his steps towards ginia, was elightly wounded-a graze on the to be highly conscientious in the performance of every duty, and of unrivalled activity and perse-

> And to you, Mr. Secretary, whom I now officially address for the last time, I beg to acknowledge my many obligations for the uniform high considerations I have received at your hands. have the bonor to remain, Sir, with high respect, your obedient servant, WINNELD SCOTT. A special Cabinet council was convened on Fri-

Major General McClellan was thereupon, with It really was an awful battle. We saw the the unanimous agreement of the Cabinet, slature of that In the midst of the difficulties which encompass first of it from our garret window. There were notified that the command of the army would be At four o'clock in the afternoon the Cabinet again waited upon the President, and attended him to the residence of Gen. Scott. Being seated, the President road to the General the following order: Undered.-Un the 1st day of November, A. D. 1861, upon his own application to the Presiden Scott is ordered to be placed, and bereby is placed

> President and a unanimous Cabinet express their own and the nation's sympathy in his persons ly affliction, and their profound sense of the im-General Scott thereupon rose and addressed the President and cabinet, who had also risen, as

Mr. President-This honor overwhelms me. I overpays all services I have attempted to render to If I had any claims before, they are all obliterated by this expression of approval by On the morning the 14th instant the batteries Cabinet. I know the President and this Cabinet well. I know that the country has placed its in-Mr. President, you must excuse me I am un-The President then took leave of General Scott, staff who have rendered you and their country score. 'Twas the form of "our devil." in an ng very foggy, a schooner tried to slip by, but now, however, to be satisfied that, except the un- he had sauntered through the city till he batteries were opened-there came along two which they have so long enjoyed, the provision called Market, and the by-ways running, Each member of the administration then gave his hand to the veteran, and retired in protound

The Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of War accompany General Scott to New York to-The following is the response of the Secretary of War to the letter of General Scott: WAR DEPARTMENT, nothing left, however, but the stars. The ladies held on the first Wednesday in November, which GENERAL -It was my duty to lay before the was lying on the floor in take have cut it up in pieces, and have it pinned on election shall be conducted according to the per- President your letter of yesterday, asking to be your pockets, and leave the san their bosoms as a trophy. Every one in Pensaco- manent constitution and the laws of the several relieved under the recent act of Congress. In foreman there's no copy, you la has my sword and uniform. I must have had. States in force for that purpose. In States which separating from you I cannot refrain from ex- Qouth the devil. "Send him of the forms. They say if I was to be taken alive I was same will be held according to the I was heretofore ed by long service and repeated wounds received I lack and forth upon the backens existing in States for the election of incubers of in your country's service, should render it necess sanctum door. Trais down! The report concludes with these jerky and sug- the House of Representatives in the Congress of sary for you to retire from your high position at ling-strange light from but or this momentous period of our history. official paper. but nevertheless tell the whole. The appointment of electors for President and Although you are not to remain in active ser- wants some more? Vice President is also made on the day of the vice, I yet hope that while I continue in charge of that screaming, is awake "We lay upon our arms every might. I have Congressional election-the first Wednesday in the Department over which I now preside, I shall, and has lest the perceislept but very little this week. I don't feel well; November. The electors are to meet in their re- at times, be permitted to avail myself of the bene- will come o'er us, that each reader's face before have got the distribut. We will want 800 spective States on the first Wednesday in Decem- fits of your wise counsel and sage experience. It us, bears the horrid words—"We want a little her, 1861, and proceed to rote for President and I has been my good fortune to enjoy a personal ac- more!" quaintance with you for thirty years, and the plea-Congress is to assemble in regular session, at suct relations of that long time have been greatly the seat of government, on the 18th day of Februs strengthened by your cordial and entire co-operationes by rail and so ary, 1862. On the 19th day of February, it is tion mall the great questions which have occupied side of New Engl provided that the President of the Senete shall the Department, and convulsed the country for amounted, according In parting from you, I can only express the hope to New York, Per it

Mr. Paul Morphy, the famous chess player. "has The President of the Confederate States shall that a merciful Providence, which has protected cluding 10s to the Brooklyn Navy Yard, 3,698 to kindly consented to be present" at the meeting of the inaugurated on the twenty-second day of Feb. you amidst so many trials, will improve your the Western States, 752 to the border slave States, health and continue your life long after the people and 53 cases to of the country shall have been former happiness and prosperity General, very sincerely, y

Price o

three times. and party. T

dee year

4 1 2 2 2

ING MORES....

Lieut, Gen. Winfield Scott. [From the St. Louis Republican of Tuesda THE CAMPAIGN. General Fremont may now be said to be in beart of what was lately the enemy's country. Sin: For more than three years I have been un- On Saturday night he was encamped at Boliva in Polk county. His advance was expected t occupy Springfield Sunday might. The forces under Generals Hunter, Pope and McKinstry were rapidly moving ahead, and were beyond Warsaw a terrible hour we then spent! About five o'clock there exeme in news that we had gained the ad-General Fremont reaches Springfield, where we will be dated .

Secretary of Little is known of the movements of the enemy week withdrawn to the last named place and concentrated there to cover the removal of stores and munitions further South, which removal, at our putlet at the extreme Southwest corner of the State through Newton and McDonald counties. not, it is believed, vet taken place up to Wednesday or Thursday last, though General Price was in diligent search of that warrior. We have heard so much of the Confederates making a stand, with so many subsequent contra-dictions of their intention of doing so, that t appears useless to speculate upon a subject of advanced age and infirmities, could not be dedid not halt on the south bank of the Osage and dispute the pussage of that streum. It may be hills of McDonald county and endeavor to hold Fremont in check, as the natural defenses of that afford to depart the State without abandoning the war in Missouri entirely. CAMP HARRELL, HICKORY COUNTY,

Friday, October 25, 1861. GEN. PREMONT AND HIS REPECTATIONS. We are again encamped on a very pleasant prairie, but will continue our march South in a few minutes, expecting to make some twenty miles General Pope is now in command at Warsaw.

"MORE COPY." Once in autumn, wet and dreary, sat this writhem in hot and sultry weather, using up much But the form that stood before us, cause

"feller" whom he met, from d not published heretofore—and he he felt a no success; he would rather kinder g 11000 ittle wicked at that ugly little bore age from the foreman that he wante camp!" cried we, apstarting, into vour office—office where ve or the words that you have spor ads out of

Boots and Shors. - The shipments of boots and mile and a half from here on the eastern side ours to-day, and henceforth we shall probably reand Generals Hunter and McKinstry are moving South, and I presume the latter has reached that place before the present time. In a few days, no doubt, we shall all be in one solid body. Another report received here is, that Sterling Price is not far from Carthage, still retreating South with his forces. Whether he has or has ers, is not stated, but it is generally supposed he ime and leather)-pondered we those times o'er. While we conned them, slowly rocking (through our mind queer ideas flocking), came a quick and nervous knocking—knocking at the sanctum door. "Sure, that must be Jinks," we muttered-"Jinks that's knocking at our door; Jinks, the everlasting a trembling to come o'er us, and memory quick bore us back again to days of yore-days who items were in plenty, and where'er this wri went to, he picked up interesting items Providence favored our batteries, &c. * All avoidable privations of your counsel and society were very sore—and wolked through the into ugs, towing four large merchant ships. One of which will be made for them will be such as to the portions of the city, both public and estioned if anything was stirring -any am iden met with more." "Now, its time you write Washington, Nov. 1, 1861. All broken," (and we seized a cu-