

The South:

PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING BY J. M. MILLS & CO., OFFICE, 192 WEST BALTIMORE STREET.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, Nov. 7

THE ELECTION.

The judges of the election as we are informed by the morning papers, have certified that the following votes were received at the several polls in this city yesterday.

We institute no comparison with former counts as the one yesterday was a unique one and bears no resemblance to previous elections, except those which occurred during the administration of Mayor Swann.

Table with 3 columns: Wards, Howard, Bradford. Lists ward numbers and corresponding vote counts for both candidates.

We think our Union friends are entitled to great credit for the moderation exercised, as there was no scuffling, beyond the expense of ticket printing, which the majority should not have been 100,000 instead of 10,000.

As items of news, we publish the following extracts from two morning contemporaries, who unquestionably have means of information not enjoyed by the bulk of the population.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the Clipper. A glorious victory has been achieved. A victory at the ballot-box instead of on the battlefield, but those who yesterday deposited their votes for the Union candidates are men who, if necessary, will defend the Union and the Constitution, and the stars and stripes, wherever and whenever assailed, from within and without, by foreign foe or by domestic traitors.

Let justice now be done throughout the land to the loyal people of Baltimore. They have wiped the brand of treason from their foreheads. They have achieved a great moral victory. They have proved the loyalty of their city. They have driven the rebels in their midst back from the high places of power and patronage to which they aspired, and have sent them away howling with rage and despair.

After assurances from such high quarters as these, that Gen. Dix's pledges of a fair and free expression of opinion were carried out, it would be folly to dispute the fact, if not rank treason. We are astonished that the American has made any remarks about the intimidation of voters, and we respectfully suggest that that paper should be taken in hand and furnished with a warning.

The result of yesterday's election is gratifying in every point of view. First it demonstrates an enormous increase of population. Twenty-one thousand votes are put down as recorded, and yet it appears that ten or eleven thousand unrecorded voters, fully satisfied of the result, did not appear in the ball-boxes to exercise the inalienable privileges of freemen. Men can scarcely find in the streets to-day a friend who can be said sufficiently in General Dix's "Explanation" to come near the polls, and the number of delinquents must be set down at the figures we have named. This does away with the false impression that we have declined in population. On the contrary we have advanced, and the reconstruction of the bridges burnt by the "rebels" has secured that valuable Northern and Western trade, which is rapidly promoting our material interests, and supplying with good Northern stock the places of "rebels" who have departed for the C. S. A.

Mr. Sumner narrows the question now dividing the North and South distinctly into a war of slavery. How he appeals to European sympathies on behalf of the Union, this is a great part true, yet it is not wholly true. Mr. Beecher Stone has already published the same opinions. We were not converts to them at the time, neither are we converts to them now.

From the Old Point and Fortress Monitor. The steamer Georganna, Captain Pearson, arrived at her wharf about half-past eleven o'clock this morning, and reports as follows: She left her wharf at Fortress Monroe at the usual hour, but encountered a very severe northeast gale about midnight, and was compelled to "lay to" for two hours.

From the American. The Upper Marlboro' Gazette of yesterday publishes the following card: The undersigned had an interview to-day with Col. Miller, in command of the Federal troops here, with regard to the election on Wednesday.

From the Clipper. A glorious victory has been achieved. A victory at the ballot-box instead of on the battlefield, but those who yesterday deposited their votes for the Union candidates are men who, if necessary, will defend the Union and the Constitution, and the stars and stripes, wherever and whenever assailed, from within and without, by foreign foe or by domestic traitors.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

HON. CHAS. SUMNER ON SCRIPTURE, CLASSICS AND ABOLITIONISM.

From the London Post, (government organ), Oct. 25. If the Federal Government are in want of an ex parte defender they will certainly find one in Mr. Charles Sumner. When he tells the Republican State Convention at Worcester that religion has never assumed such a front since Satan made war upon the Almighty, he uses first the hyperbolic language which the most ardent supporter of an absolute monarchy in the midst of an insurrection that had broken out in one of his provinces.

When leading men on either side introduce Divine sanctions in vindication of everything that they either resolve upon or actually do, the question which agitates them are obviously questions more out of the reach of the ordinary compromises of every day expediency. If the opinion of the North has been as Mr. Sumner says, it will be that there has been nothing like the secession of the Southern States since the Scriptural war of Satan against Heaven, there is not likely to be much room for terms or parleys with the enemy.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the Louisville Journal. The Confederate Designs Upon Kentucky.

Beckner has already been reinforced from Gen. Polk's army at Columbus, only six or seven thousand being left at the latter point; he has been reinforced from Arkansas, Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama and the Indian tribes, and he is expecting large reinforcements from the army in Virginia.

But will he be alone here in twenty days? We know that leading secessionists here have an undoubted faith that he will be; that he will take all things according to his own will, seize Frankfort and the State archives, and disperse the Legislature if it should be in session, and make our city the winter quarters for a portion of his army, and Cincinnati for another portion.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the London Herald. Writing on the 23d ult. says:

An event has taken place in the musical world which should not be passed unnoticed in the record of facts and opinions from this capital—the debut of a young American virtuoso, Mlle. Filippi.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the London Herald. Writing on the 23d ult. says:

An event has taken place in the musical world which should not be passed unnoticed in the record of facts and opinions from this capital—the debut of a young American virtuoso, Mlle. Filippi.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.

From the American. The election of Governor and State officers yesterday passed off quietly and peacefully, though there was quite a number of arrests made on the charge of disloyalty, which prevented a full vote being cast by the opponents of the Union candidates.