Price of Subscription. " THE CITY, Magle supy, Two Capts; served by Carriers for welve Could pur week, payable to the carriers. Our or the Crty, single copy, Thurs Crrys; one menth, Py In Cents; two months. One Deller; four months, Two Dellers; ail menths, Three Dellare; one year, Mr Dellare, payable into riably in advance

Orders for the paper, will be received at the office of Publica ilon, No. 122 W. BALTINGRE STREET, up stairs. The usual deduction in favor of Newsmen and Agraia Orders to be left with Messrs. TRREET & Co., 12 North street (basement,) where Newsboys will be supplied All communications about the addressed to the Publishers of The South,

Price of Advertisements di month. the times or less make a square. Contracts to be subject of special agreement. Marriage and Oblinary notices, 25 ornia. Advertisements will be received at the office of Publication. No. 122 W. Baitimore street, up stairs.

Advertisements should be sent in early.

VOL. I.

BALTIMORE, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1861.

NO. 44.

AMUSEMENTS.

ASSEMBLY ROOMS. Sanford's Opera Troupe, FROM SANFORD S OPERA HOUSE, PRILADELPHIA. ✓ TARD—S. S. SANFORD will appear among bis ! I curtient Friends and Patrona, exhibiting National Peculiarities, Northern Drollery, Monthern Chiraley, Eastern Acutement, Western Adventures. and Fermual Remissorates of ENGLAND, IRELAND AND SCOTLAND. Together with his Great Representation of SOUTHERS DARKIES! Who is promounted as the best Negro Performer living, and only successor to Jim Crow Rice. BANFORD AND HIS ASSOCIATES ARE THE STARS OF THE PROFESSION.

BF For particulars see bills of the day. BF Admittance 25 cents Commence at 7% MYRAY'S MELODEON. MELODEON

> PRETTY WAITER GIRLS PRETTY WAITER GIRLS PRETTY WAITER GIRLS FANNT GILMORE' FANNT GILMORE'

MELODEON.

PATNET PATNE WRAT PAYNE . KXITH' WALLACE BROTHERS!

WALLACE BROTHERY WALLACE BROTHERS! BEST ENTERTAINMENT IN THE CITY. GO AND SEE!

GO AND SEE. Price of Admission 10, 15 and 25 Cents.

GILMOR MEREDITH, FIRE AND MARINE

No. 49 Exchange Place,

BALTIMORE

MARINE-

The Neptune Insurance Company, New York.

Fire—

Philadelphia.

The Gebhard Fire Insurance Company, New York. The Enterprise Insurance Company

INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

CASH CAPITAL PAID UP...... .,$1,264.445.49 a part. ARBETS NOTEWERR SEE, 1809 ALC. MORRIS, President FTHOM LORD, Ties President. BAMUKL H. MOORK, Secretary.

The understyned respectfully solicits application for insuranin this desirable (fice HENRY M. WARPIELD, Mgent H M WARFIELD & CO.

LEONARD J. TORMEY.

STOCK AND BILL BROKER.

No. 22 SOUTH STREET.

markets bought and sold on commission. daily by telegraph. COMMERCIAL PAPER AND LOANS nogotisted.

JAMES HAZLITT.

IMPORTERS OF

BRANDIES, GINS, WINES

JAMES HAZLITT & CO.,

WHISKIES, &c. . Nos. 39 and 41 % Gay street,

THOMAS J. CARSON,

BANKER,

201 BALTIMORE STREET. TATANTED AT BEST RATES-U.S. TREASURY NOTES FOR SALE-NEW YORK EXCHANGE.

WANTED-LAND WARRANTS. BOUGHT-EASTERN and WESTERN BANK NOTES. PURCHASED AND FOR SALE-PENNSYLVANIA BANK NOTES.

BOUGHT-SOUTHERN MONEY FOR SALE-GOLD.

FLAGS.

FOR SALE BY

SISCO BROTHERS,

95 BALTIMORE STREET, OPPOSITE HOLLIDAY STREET

MERRILL, THOMAS & CO.

No 239 Baltimore Street.

ocl8 lm

LOUIS NAPOLEON AND ITALY.

[From the London Saturday Review.]

pare the present position of the Italian nation clined to do so.

nation that intends to profit by the abolition can- sia have urged as a reason Pr withholding their is destroyed by the use of sugar. not be very down-hearted. The force of circum- recognition, that Italy is not yet united, that its stances must necessarily bring about a solution of provinces are still separate, and that the South whatever difficulty may still be supposed to exist. only belongs to Victor Emmanuel in name. The CERR.—" The Austrians," says the Nationalites was introduced to him by her cousin, Lady Caro-The Emperor cannot stand still. The Pope must first step, therefore, which the Cabinet of Turin, "have just committed a revolting act line Lennox, who spoke of him in the highest lose ground daily if once his power ceases to be has taken since the receipt of Benedetti's message, treated as a matter of necessity and right. Many is to announce that the military lieutenancy of Finato, lately received orders to take two officers number of pictures at her villa near Twickenham, causes will combine to carry the Italians to Rome. Naples is at an end, the tranquility of that part to a neighboring village, and he sent his son, a and invited Collucci to see them. In the first place, there is discord in the camp of of the country being restored, and that the sepa- lad of nineteen, with a carriage to drive them. He was no doubt a good judge of the appeartheir adversaries. A large number of the poorer rate government of Tuscany is also to cease to priests of Northern Italy are known to feel as once. In this, as in every other instance, Italians rather than as servants of the Pope, and Italians show that they never neglect an opportuto long to see their king enthroned in the most nity of putting their case in the best possible for two he refused to carry them all. opinions, though there may be few to imitate the certainly do their best to deserve it. boldness, of Abbe Passaglia. Although, however, may really be the most important sign of the times in Italy, and may herald the greatest revolution of the future, jet as an immediate aid to the Italian cause, it cannot do much. The Pope is not at all likely to abandon his territory, and to take up his abode quietly and humbly on one side of the Tiber, because here and there an ecclesiastic may be found who is guilty ence to which ecclesiastics are less amenable than and on Monday last. to the counsels and warnings of one of their own be much obliged to those who hurry him forward | papers.

exceedingly pretty, but renders the population | them, they were in a better condition, in all resabsolutely desenceless against soldiers. It might pects, than half our own men in the field. Not so be convenient to drown the anxiety which this crowded as most men in tent, with as abundant discovery may awaken in the din and pump of a food, as good blankets, and more devoted medinew war. But at any rate, the Emperor would cal attention. There was nothing to complain ical aid-50,000 for wounds, and 150,000 for dis- ly changed. He adopted the most violent and like to be master of his own movements; whereas, of except the unavoidable fact that casementsits attention to Venetia, there is no saying how | ventilation, and are in no case comfortable quarsoon a general war might not break out, and the ters. QTOCKS AND SECURITIES of this and other | policy both of France and of the Italian government would be liable to be swayed at any mo- gave them ample opportunities to do so,) except Prices and Sales of New York Stocks received ment by the feverish movements of the enthusi- the loss of liberty. They spoke kindly of their asts who call themselves the party of action. no 6-1m | them, the Italians will still be dissatisfied, and It went sore with them to be sent still further pying Rome, arranging all the details of the guar- | to home. antees to be given to the Pope, creating the ma-

> I scarcely remain neutral if Italy was in danger. act of the government would increase it. If this home-sickness prevailed.

day open the telegraph of the Bourse and find for a play ground. himself within five continues of ceasing to be a) temporal Sovereign. ficulty is much more likely to have influenced the | and sluggish. The officers were perfectly com-| Emperor than might be thought probable here. | fortable for prisoners, and complained of nothing. French capitalists and speculators are proverbidly) timid, and, like all timid people, are merbidly reasonableness of the complaints made of the treat-(sensitive in moments of depression. Anything | ment of these men. I may or unexpected is apt to discourage and hard rass them, although they may not see any positive | believe that our prisoners were treated by the rebbud results to which it points. It has been said, that the withdrawal of the troops would give the Emperor fresh popularity in France, and that, as a place and bring its various mischiefs in its train, might be to strengthen his government.

Italians are ordered to wait by one whose word, ble by surprise, and to make the liberation of requires about half the usual quantity of sugar to the stolid negligence which characterize English for the moment, is law to them. But there is Rome seem the sudden act of his wisdom and be- | sweeten it. very much to encourage them in their enforced nevolence. It may also very possibly be true A very refreshing and nourishing substitute for patience, and they may find almost as much cause I that he would like to seem backed by the concur- I coffee may be made from parched corn alone.

famous city of the world. Among the higher light; and if they have commanded, and are like-tion of the Prisoners at New York. ry Commission upon the condition of the prison-] ers in the forts at New York:

"NEW YORK, Oct. 31, 1861. "Hon. W. H. Seward, Secretary of State: "Sin:-With your permission I visited the of heresy or insulvordination. There is no influ- prisoners of war and of State at Governor's Isl-

so. But, of all reasons, that which will proba- almost inhuman. Ill clothed, already sick from had no difficulty in passing it. The son was lockbly weigh the most with the Emperor is that, if the voyage and previous exposure, they were sud- ed up by Justice Brennan, and the police are in from Italy she informed him of her resolution, he withholds Rome from the Italians much ion- | denly precipitated upon a post not prepared to re- | search of the father | Some time ago the latter | ger, he must make up his mind to see a war be- ceive them, when there was neither adequate room, was arrested on a similar charge, but after being sautes | gun in which France could scarcely avoid taking | clothing nor medical force. But these unavoida- | confined four months, was discharged for want of ble deficiencies were supplied with all the expedi- | evidence. Another war might not be unwelcome to him, I tion possible; all alacrity was shown, it appears, for the inhabitants of the great French towns are by the Commandant and his Surgeon, and other IN THE CRIMEAN WAR. - Dr. G. Scrive, Surgeon- The intimacy was accordingly continued just beginning to discover that they have been officers, to meet the case. In a very short time General of the French Army in the Crimen, in in the course of the next two years he succe heavily taxed in recent years in order to arrange bedding, blankets, sufficient food and suitable his final report said that the Crimean war lasted, in extorting from the lasty, in the shape of , as, their towns on a new plan, which makes them medical attention was furnished to all. As I saw if the Italian nation, despairing of Rome, turns although here quite roomy-furnish very poor

"The men complained of nothing (although I physicians and the officers in command. The It is true that, even if Rome is handed over to climate seemed their chief objection to this region. will demand Venice as the final completion of the North. They wanted to stay where they have and perhaps a long delay, will be gained. Occu- and where they were nearer to sympathizers and tion.

chinery by which the several provinces and great posely went unannounced, and found the floors Mrs. Partington; "but how on airth they can con- He had, of course, carefully returned the etters cities of Italy are placed in communication with bright and sweet. Every man had his own bed trive to climb up there, to let the execuations go she had imprudently written to him to day. their new capital—all these things must necessari- and adequate blankets. In addition to the Gov- out, is more than I can see into. But it is such a of their early intimacy, and these were ly take a long time to carry out. Rome will keep ernment supplies, the State of North Carolina had nice intervention for keeping a house warm!" | ments be ruthlessly employed to work the Italians busy, and will make them happy and | been permitted to send some comforts to the prisproud. The Emperor, too, will be much more at | oners, and disinterested | beneficence in New York | liberty to do as he pleases in cuse of a war between | had done something more. I could really find no Italy and Austria when once he has withdrawn room to add anything from the stores of the Sani- 11, "and it is ever so much better than Professor thing more damaging to the hely's reputat his troops. He has repeatedly given the Italians | tary Commission.

Surgeon Peters. The sick men looked perfectly great accusation in cold weather." When Victor Emmanuel is installed at Rome, | comfortable in the regular hospital, and in the he must take the risk of war on himself; and the temporary hospitals as comfortable as casements | 747 A wedding party passed through Elmira a knowledge that he must do so, and the reflection permitted. Medicines of the best kinds in un- few days since, which never had its prototype in that he will then have so very much to lose, will limited quantities, and necessary stimulants in the whole train of Hymen's devotees. The folnot prevent, but it may long postpone, the strug- abundance, were supplied to the sick. Several lowing items in regard to this peculiar couple will i gle for Venetia. All this is so obvious, and it is very desperate cases of typhoid had been saved by satisfy every one that "matrimonial sweets" were so certain that the Emperor must soon withdraw | the assiduity of the physicians. The low spirits | never measured out on so small a scale before. his troops, that a little wonder may naturally be of all prisoners are of course highly unfavorable. Their respective ages are twenty-one and twenty is the real reason, the Pope must watch the fluc- "The men were usually reluctant either to wash brated General Nutt, Tom thumb's great rival. tuations of the French funds with the most ex- or to exercise. They had to be driven to both. The lady is known as the Fairy Queen, formerly traordinary interest. If things are flat, he is safe, Pains were taken to compel them to be in the open Miss Sarah Belton. The happy pair were on but a slight rise must be torture to him, and it air several hours each day. They were not con- their way to the little lady's home from their i - must be most irritating to reflect that he may any fined within narrow bounds, but had many acres bridal trip to Niagara Falls.

oThe Surgeon told me he had seen only one i tooth-brush in use among the rank and file. They But the apprehension of increased financial dif- were evidently careless in personal habits, dirty I saw, on the whole abundant evidence of the un-

"It would be a source of great consolation to els half as well. Very respectfully, yours.

"HENRY W. BELLOWS, "President of U.S. Sanitary Commission."

A LIGHT VOTE -The entire vote for Secretary

AN EXCELLENT SCRETITUTE FOR COPPER.—Stir although the ultimate effect of the Emperor's act one pint corn meal into two pints of boiling water, and let it simmer for fifteen minutes. Then He must also be influenced in a great measure remove it from the fire and when nearly cold add by a wish to do things in his own way and his two pints cold water, stirring it well; add to this is thus narrated in the London Times: own time. It would have been such a very sim- four pints of meal and one saucer coarse wheat The announcement that the French are not pre- ple and straight forward proceeding if the Italian flour, kneed all well together, and let it stand for at full length, offers many points of auggestion, pared to withdraw from Rome at present has not government had written a despatch saying that five or six hours, or until quite light. Bake in and may be moralized upon in many ways. The the time was come for the French to go, and the one loaf until well done, and when quite cold cut smooth villain, insinuating and subtle till uncaused much dismay or disappointment in Italy, French government had sent back another dest it into slices half an luch thick, and put them marked, and then ferocious and extortionate, is a because it was expected. It had become general- patch saying that the troops should go at once. again into the oven to be rebaked until they are portrait we have been taught to look for in Itally known that, in the Emperor's words, the pear This is not the way in which the Emperor likes quite brown on both sides, but not burnt. Three ian dramas. The lady, gentle, soft, sympathizing, was not thought quite ripe. Baron Ricasoli will to do business. He affects, and for his own pur- or four slices of this bread (not ground) will make and weak almost to silliness, is found everywhere. therefore have to inform the Italian Parliament, poses very wisely affects, the character of a dark a gallon of coffee, to which if one tablespoonful of The family, who seem to have been strangely rewhen it meets, that he has done his best to get | deity, an inscrutable mysterious power. He wish- real coffee he added while boiling, the flavor will | gardless in leaving such a character to be the prey hold of the national capital, and has failed. The es to take Italy and the world as much as possi- be improved. This coffee clarifies itself, and only of needy foreigners and sharpers, is an instance of

for rejoicing as for lamenting in the refusal of the rence of those of the great Powers who have not should not be parched quite so much as coffee; than sterling worth, and it may serve as a Cau-Emperor to withdraw his troops. If they com- yet recognized ltaly, but have not positively de- but ground and made in the same way. With tion not to confide in strangers, although graceplenty of cream or rich new milk, it will be found ful in manners, and however striking their stowith that which it held when first Carour bid it | If Russia or Prussia would recognize Italy, it very palatable. Like coffee the darker it is parch- ries, or their persons, may be. Vincent Collucci, demand its capital, the progress made is most con- would add greatly to the weight of authority ed the less it tastes of the grain. A dish of the the culprit, is a young Italian artist, who four which invites the Emperor to give Italy its capi- substitute well made is far better than a dish of years ago was living at Brompton, and had there. When the abolition of so extraordinary an tal. Evidently the Italian government sees this, poor coffee. It must be remembered that our it seems, acquired some reputation for his skill anomal, in the Pontifical government is allowed and great efforts are being made to remove the tastes are nearly all cultivated. Very few per- in painting ladies' portraits. He would probably on all hands to be merely a question of time, the obstacles to recognition. Both Russia and Prussia an

at Montecchia Maggiore. A postmaster, named terms. Miss Johnstone was fund of art, had a When the lad got to the place where he was to ances that indicate wealth, and lost no time in take up he found five officers who wanted to get | improving the acquaintance. During their early into the carriage, and as he had been hired but intercourse he first asked to be allowed to paint

"Thereupon one of the officers, named Count | trait. These requests were calculated to awaken order of minds there must be many to share the ly to command, an extraordinary success, they Buri, struck young Finato violently, and the late suspicion, and possibly would have done so from ter returned the blow. The officer then attempted any one but an interesting foreigner of such acto draw his sword, but Finato, more active than complished manners and so highly recommended. this new direction of thought in the Italian elergy The Sanitary Commission Upon the Condi- he, pushed the weapon back into the scabbard. The last request with regard to the portrait was, Upon this the other four rushed upon the young however, granted, and this, of course, led Miss The following is the report of the U. S. Sanita- | man; one of them wounded him mortally in the Johnstone to the artist's studio at Brompton. Here neck, another cut off one of his arms, the third Collucci seems to have commenced business at fractured a knee-cap, and all four continued to once by bringing into play the machinery of excut and thrust at him till be fell lifeless. As tortion familiar to this class of designing advenmany as thirty officers, of all ranks, looked on | turers. He assumed an air of profound melanquietly while this horrible assassination was going | choly, and heaved at intervals the most touching

COUNTERFEITING CENTS.—The police received in-"I should have extended my visit the next day formation on Sunday night that James Dougherbody who separates from them. The free speech to Fort Lafayette and Ellis' Island, where smaller ty, residing in the rear of No. 325 west 37th street, Miss Johnstone at once offered the money she of laymen will have much more effect than the dis- portions were placed, had I not learned that they was in the habit of counterfeiting cents and get- had at command, fifty pounds. This sum, howsertations of liberal priests. When the Italian pure were all to be removed to Boston barbor. I supliament debates the Roman question, and reminds | posed, however, that none of the prisoners could | pass them off. Officers Irving and Clow, of the the world how ardently and how unanimously the be badly off, if those crowded in the casemates of 20th ward, immediately proceeded to the house, him for a much larger amount. In the end Miss Italians ask and long for their capital-when the Castle William were not, and therefore a report and found both father and son, but the former French Chambers again meet and the dilatory pol- of the condition in which I found them may jumped, in his night clothes, out of the window, icy of the Emperor is criticised as frankly as it is properly serve as a sufficient reply to all the and though officer Irving fired to shots from a resure to be criticized if it is imagined that he will | complaints which have appeared in the New York | volver at him, he managed to escape. The son was arrested, and states that his father took the -there will be no answer to give on the part of "No doubt the circumstances under which these dies with him. His plan to get rid of the base those who still wash the Pope to be the sovereign men were brought to Governor's Island made coin was to put it up in 25 and 50 cent packages, of Rome, but own that he must soon cease to be their condition for a week or two very trying and with a genuine cent at each end, and thus his son

> SICKNESS AND MORTALITY IN THE FRENCH ARMY | draw upon ber resources as before. without any intermission, summer and winter, advances, and the like, about two thou and for twenty-four months. The total number of pounds. This system continued until the spanish amounted to 309,268 men, of whom 200,000 en- mined to break off the intimacy altogether. In eases of various kinds. The total mortality was | menacing language, and in the end denanded wounds. Of ordinary wounds, 2,185; gunshot sible, and he scarcely attempted to con-cal it.

MRS. PARTINGTON ON VENTILATION.—"We have without any protector, and be resol do take "The casemates were singularly clean. I pur- got a new venerator on our meeting-house," said every advantage of her defenceless situation ous to get an inkling of the old lady's philosophy. I his extortionate demands. The letter is last Epsom's because a room is kept so warm and than indiscreet expressions of triendship and sy-J. H. & Co. are sole proprietors of various brands to understand that the garrison of Rome was reals to understand the garrison of Rome was reals to understand that the garrison of Rome was reals to understand that the garrison of Rome was reals to understand that the garrison of Rome was reals to understand the garrison of Rome

cial uncasiness in France, and that any important | both larger than they would have been had not | heights, three feet five inches, and two feet eleven | sum inches. The gentleman is a brother of the cele-

> [world, is still seen through a telescope in the con- just under a small hole purposely made of the on the 28th of June it was only about a dozen nicated the fraud, and measures we its enormous tail quite close to our spere.

A RUSH FOR ROYALTY .- Amidst the mob of monarche that have lately been favoring Louis Napoleon with their society, we think there is one King whom of all others the Emperor would be the most delighted to see in France this year, and

AN EXTRAORDINARY TRIAL. A trial has just taken place in London which will take its place among the causes celebres, and

The trial of Vincent Collucci, which we print indifference to anything but practical matters.

The story is worth repeating as a warning to It ladies who are more moved by elegant manners him as an interesting foreigner, of considerable ability, great accomplishments, and engaging FRIGHTFUL MURDER IN ITALY BY AUSTRIAN OFF!- | manners. Miss Frederica Johnstone, his victim.

> her hand as a model of beauty, and then her porsighs. On his visitor inquiring the cause of his grief, he explained that his mother, to whom he was devotedly attached, was on her death-hed, and he was unable to go to her for want of means. pose, as an exacting creditor was about to arrest Johnstone supplied £250, and he started for Italy. Collucci, as may easily be imagined, had been extremely assiduous in his attentions, and Miss Johnstone had so far received them that a correspondence had taken place, in which marriage was talked of. Nothing, however, had been settled, and soon after Miss Johnstone had a severe illness, during which she determined to give up all thought of an engagement. On Collucci's return which does not appear to have distressed him much. All he asked was that they mi continue intimate friends as before—or other words, as the event proved, that he might still.

French troops sent to the East at different times of the present year, when Miss Johnstone de ertered the ambulances and hospitals to receive med- | learning this Collucci's tone and manner sudder -69,229, or 224 per cent.; of these 16,320 died of money—large sums of money—accompany by its wounds, and nearly 53,000 from diseases-more | demands by cowardly and atrocious threat . It is than three times as many by diseases as from sole object evidently was to extort as much as passes wounds, 22.891; frostbitten, 3.472; typhus fever, The mask of accomplished manner was entirely 3,840; cholera, 3,196; scurvy, 17,576; feverish. I thrown off; the reptile mearness and course bru-63,124; venereal, 241; itch, 124. The mortality I tality of his nature appeared with out decline. from scurvy was fearful; also from frostbites. He strove to alarm and territy Miss Johns's at to I the uttermost, and as he fancied he had to a his The gin-shops of London have invented a power, he shrunk from no threats like a cacwork of Italian liberation. But at least a delay, made friends, knew their prison and their keepers, drink called "Bull Run"-from Russell's inven- complish his purpose. She was alone, a raterrified comparatively helpless, and, as l. in ved,

"What sort of rentilator is it?" asked we, anxi- cited feelings, and territy her into comp-"It is one of the Emissary's," replied she, sage- have been really harmless enough, con a tagof choice Old Monongabela Rye Whiskies, o29-6m | ly a protection to Italy, and he could therefore administered by Surgeon Swain and Assistant cold from draughts of too fresh air. It will be a correspondent's simulated musty an despit. But Collucci's threats of exposure were not confined to the letters. He indulged in other instituations of the most disturdly nature, that were as cowardly and trutal as they were take. He I menaced stalk at her reputation, more cruck than any assaults on her life could have been. At last the persecuted lady, driven to ber wits' ends, lasked him plainly what he wanted sein other words, for how much money be would restore the telt at his thinking it worth white to delay at all. to convalescence, and doubtless the eick list and vears. Their respective weights are about sixty- letters. He named 2 cond., and seemed pledged The reason assigned is that there is much finan- the bill of mortality (seventeen had died) were five and thirty three pounds. Their respective himself to deliver them all into her hands for that

> Miss Johnstone agreed to pay the money and is free. At much inconvenience she obtained to sum from her bankers, not Collined by appoint ment at the Pantheon Bazaar, and gave it to f in excl. nge for a parcel which he solemnly serted all her letter. On openi it. The Comet, whose sudden appearance in however the parcel was found to be falled other the Northern heavens last summer startled the old neverpapers, excepting a sin le letter a seed stellation of Hercules. According to Prof. Tuttle's wrapper. For once, however the craven uncalculations, it is now more than two bundred and , dref had reckoned without his hest. Missisherforty-seven millions of miles from the earth, while stone had a brother, to whom she at last and a millions of miles distant from us, and brandished | promptly taken to bring the criminal to ustice. (All the facts were clearly proved against irm, and the was righteously, although very much to his surprise, sentenced to three years' potal servi-

A pero mulicion was complaining of a Clarge sum of mon. that triend, when the communities. cas, mounted if thetic ears he v . 111 I be still retained heartend. Upon tem; answerted in the affirmative, the philosophicart, was, this would strengthen the funds and give conficertainly his presence would be the most weldence, the fear of financial difficulties must only of State, in New York, less one district, is 55.031 comed by the manufacturing classes in that counthe a pretence. It is protably true that the step The vote last fall at the Presidential election was try-and that is, King Cotton, from America. i might be popular, but this could only be known ; 91,922. A falling off of nearly one-half. FREMONT'S MOST BRILLIANT CHARGES .- His | "Then be content, my dear feet : you - "." ! exafter a time and the frequenters of the French Why do women like stars? Because they charges against the Government .- N. Y. Leader. pect to have both your money are executed. Bourse cannot afford to wait. They pray to be BALTIMORE. I delivered from a panic and a panic might take | feel solaced by them.