THE EMANCIPATIONISTS AT WORK.

The proceedings of Congress yesterday will at-) tract general attention, as indicating that the emancipationists throwing off all disguise are p about to press their netarious schemes to a suc-) cessful result, if possible. The last vote upon the] proposition to lay Mr. Eliot's infamous resolutions on the table, by which the House refused to do so !.. by yeas 56, nays 70, is omnious, and if a fair exbibition of the tone of the body, utely pressiges ; the total overthrow of an institution tole-1 rated and legalized by the Constitution, and I inseperably interwoven with the social status of the Southern people. The authors of this i scheme, so thoroughly tent on the demoniacal] project, must either be ignorant of the terrible re- 1 sults which must flow from its success, or, animated by the blood-thirsty sentiments which governed the worst men who rose to the surface in the l French Revolution of 1789, are entirely reckless of censequences, and indifferent to a repetition of a the herrors which betell the white inhabitants of a San Dominge, when the liberation of the slaves on that island was decreed. The movements yester- ; day, both in the Senate and the House, were purposely jut forth to elicit from the President; a declaration of policy on this subject in a his message, which we are now momenta-) rily expecting. The scienade given last night, to Leveloy, who made such fast time from Bull I Run, and to Lane, the leader of the negro thieves i and Jay Hawkers of Kansas, was also gotten up i as a part of the same programme, and can be accepted as showing that the extreme Abolitionists ! have determined to rule the proceedings of this) Congress by terrorism and compulsion. Love , joy, on being serenaded by the Marine Bund, o made the following remarks:

we must strike at its head. Lam called a radical out thking a man from Manassas, to meet General with the flag-ship Minnesota, sailed immediately;) man and an at obtionist. I am radical. 4 . "I have seen Jim Lane's soldiers in Musouri and in Kansas, and they are as the a set of men as we have in the army, but why do you honor him? Because he is a brave soldier; because you approve the policy he has carried the war on with; because over his path the flag never waved over a single bondman. (Loud cheering.)
