The South:

PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING By J. M. MILLS & CO., Office, 122 WEST BALTIMORE STREET. I DINOR S ROM DOETM STREET, UP STAIRS.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, Drc. 4.

occupation of Anandale yesterday by the Confedcompany will be most favorably received, as Miss corrected, no such doctrine appears, the whole look very summery, although the night was very erates is an insult to General McClellan which we Patti made a very excellent impression on her modification to the mode in a brief paragraph, so company were excellent impression on her modification to the mode in a brief paragraph, so company were excellent impression on her modification to the mode in a brief paragraph, so company were excellent impression on her modification to the mode in a brief paragraph, so company were excellent impression on her modification to the mode and the mode are the mode and the mode are the mode and the mode are the mode are the mode and the mode are the mode a cannot suppose will be passed over quietly. first appearance before a Baltimore audience. Anandale is at the junction of roads which lead !

From the West we hear nothing beyond the fact that the "releds" are on "the rampage," and are in full possession of about one-third of Missouri. They are bad boys thus to contradict Mr. Camer-) on, who, in his report, informs the world that I they had been driven into an adjoining State.

band, and carry matters as they piezze. Comissions but to two chapters, and it contains the fall of the free training of the pretended prephecy:

| man and woman should shudger to contempose. | Miss Carlotta Patti (1 suppose her reat name is Fancy Go and the fall of the fall of the free training of the pretended prephecy:

| man and woman should shudger to contempose. | Miss Carlotta Patti (1 suppose her reat name is Fancy Go and the fall of the of the day, and obtain a special reference to comtion over other business. The refusal yesterday Boston Christian Advertiser, was pointed out of the House to re-affirm the Crittenden resolutions | us lately by an eminent Baptist divine. It ocof the last ression is a lad omen.

We published yesterday the message of Gov.] reproduction to-day. The Governor is careful not shall awaken the land, and the nations be astonteproduction to-day. And to speak of his complicity with the bridge-burners and to, behold, because of the sin of the den convert to secession on or about the 19th of Lord, and her dominions shall be broken." April last remains undetermined.

We publish elsewhere a remarkable statement i as to the difficulty in the Cabinet about Mr. Cam-] eron's report. Mr. Seward, who in Washington a physician of Provence, France, known as an asof a radical with equal grace and skill, was shock- composed "Seven Centuries of Prophecies" in of Daniel Webster, will help keep in sight the old plays the role of a conservative and at home that | trologer, in the time of Catharine de Medici. He ed at the bluntness and open arowals of Cameron to have been most exactly fulfilled. Among other to have been most exactly fulfilled. Among other to have been most exactly fulfilled. on seeing the proof-sheets of the document, and ers, his prophecy (one hundred years before its insisted upon its suppression; whereupon a very occurrence) of the execution of Charles I, of Engpretty quarrel ensued, which has not yet been land; and, still more surprising, of the exact date composed. Mr. Cameron refused to consent to of the French Republic, in 1792. He died A. D. any modifications, and the report has been pullished in both forms to suit the taste of custom- des Elats Unis & combinant: Mr. Cameron proposes to accomplish his purpose by direct and positive means, while Mr. Seward, tion of 1609,) we find the following, which would who is an imitator of Talleyrand on a small scale. is horrified at the idea of telling the truth, and of his constitutional powers, the netarious schemes of the revolutionists. THE TONE OF CONGRESS.

Houses of Congress, and doubt for one recement publish the following reply: that the vilest radicalism reigns supreme. It is who carry their points. A conciliatory resolution. body of Commissioners, of some of the most reclown and court pesser, Mr. Hale, and then contempthously thrown uside. Resolutions look-The hore take faithfur interpreters of the Constitutheir disgrace and expulsion. In the House the Horized and spurious. proceedings are not less unpromising. A resoludata asole until Tuesday next as falsely stated in 1 men of the United States. this morning a American, a clear indication that the House is unwilling to stand by the pledges p which it solemnly made less that six months ago 1 On the motion to lay on the table we elsewhere it publish the year and mays.

WHAT THE NORTH MEANS. The following ribald paragraph from the New York correspondence of the Pariadelphia Inquis

rer, in licates the purposes of the Abolition thieves. who are most comprous for the war. for service, as carp more, black-maths, broklay- water elsewhere. ers, hod-carriers, itel, upon the sacred soil of The British West India ports have also been Port Royat - The Eark Fanny Elar has been chartered to convey them turther, and the expectation is that they will be able to sail by Saturday | plies which must prove a serious annoyance Now, it was I of chough for Maine, Massachusetts wretches have no respect for aristocracy in any shape or form, and the very thought of bricklaysers, carpenters and hod-carriers coming in contact with the first families, is enough to drive the tact with the first families, is enough to drive the cotton lords to distraction. But, it can't be to expurente, but which, in he official document, ers and music, as it may serve to enlighten you as helped. The roughs are housed to see and make it helped. The roughs are bound to go-and what is were erased by order of the President. The to the ideas of the country people on these topics: more, the most of them have made arrangements for Philadelphia Inquirer save upon this point : their families to follow them, as soon as their resome ten days ago, and will very shortly visit us which we publish this morning in our news cole and there was a good many pretty women there with an admirable corps of assistants, among slaves in the insurgent States, and distinctly Pools Island, as I told all the people when I came We get another rumor to-day that the Grand Army has advanced in the direction of Centre-Army has advanced in th ville. How correct this is we cannot say, but the Piccolimini concerts. We cannot doubt that the draft of the report; but in the document as finally nets, some had white cloaks, which made things

Petty Malice.

Rather small potato business, this.

From the Buffalo Courier. A COUPLE OF NEWSPAPER PROPHE. CIES EXPLODED.

We cut the annexed pretended prophecy from the Buffalo Commercial of Saturday. Can it be We elsewhere refer to the proceedings of Con- possible that a Christian minister and religious gress, where the radicals evidently have the whip- paper could be guilty of so barefaced a falsehood?

SINGULAR PROPRECY .- One of the most striking \ mittees which secures to them an early considers- instances of the fulfillment of prophecy, mays the "Behold, there shall be a rebellion in the South.) Hicks in an abridged form, and a perusal of the a rebellion of strong men and archers, of chariots entire document satisfies us that it is not worth and bright shields; and the blast of the trumpet lextensively, and without contradiction:

SINGULAR PROPERCY .- Michael Nostradamus was 1

The second of the second was been completely verified, they are generally discredited in our times. But in the Prophetics et Vaticinations of that great man, vol. 2. (ediseem to deserve some attention:

"About that time (1861) a great quarrel and very properly takes his condintor to task for he. | contest will arise in a country beyond the seas | ing so improdent. Mr. Lincoln shrugs his shoul- (America.) Many poor devils will be hung, and h many poor wretches killed by a punishment other ders, says that "sufficient unto the day is evil than a cord. Upon my faith you may believe me. thereof," and declines to take any position on The war will not cease for four years, at which the subject. It is to be hoped that when the rad- | none should be astonished or surprised, for there icals force the issue upon him, he will have the will be no want of hatred or obstinancy in it. At nerve and the henesty to defeat, by the exercise | the end of that time, prostrate and almost ruined, the people will embrace each other in great joy

New York, Nov. 26, 1861. offered by Mr. Sautsbury, of Delaware, in the Sen- | rations leads me to believe that the prophecy at- | cause of emancipation may be promoted. ate yesterday, cooking to the appointment, as a tributed to Nostradamus, is of recent manufacture. "The True Prophecies and Prognostications of to such an end. I confess, my dear Sir, that in ling, and whistling, as there is when we have speciable ment if the United States to confer with Michael Nostradamus. Physician to Henry II., my judgment confusion, conflict, embittered con-shows down here. This pleased me very much, Considerate Commissioners for the purpose, if Francis II., and Charles IV. of France, and one troversy, violence, bloodshed and civil war, and I told some of the men as they went out I was possible, of restoring the Union and putting an of the best astronomers, that even were so well behaved. I also their new and elegant Marble Front Store, have end to the war, was first ridiculed by the chief full of Curiosity and learning, translated by strongly.

College, Lond. London, 1672." ing to the atohshment of slavery in the Dis- only one known in this country, and found notract of Colons is and to an entite change in the thing approaching the character of the prophecy. constitution of the Supreme Court were on the you enclose. You will observe that the edition in rules, to dissolve the front letters by which man is likes music. She told me Friday night that medium qualities and beautiful styles, of the most other hand adopted asmost without opposition. The Astor House Library is of the date 1672, and as that edition, in no portion of the work, mentions or refers in any way to the edition of 1609. tion, now sitting on the Supreme Bench, stand in | quoted in the extract from the Courrier des Bats |

the way of the radicals and they accordingly plot | Unit | Lam inclined to consider the extracter unau-Nostradamus was a prophet without doubt, as l the "Prophecies and Prognostications" prover endeavored to detend and uphold the Union of in town on purpose and had my tavern bill to Miso, Son DOFN COLLEGY KILL HALF HONE. tion singly to reaffirm the moderate resolutions but I sm confident his prophecies had no relation of Mr. Critter den adopted at the special session, [to, or bearing upon America, or the terrible civil.]

. If I can give you any further assistance in this] matter, I shall be very happy to be commanded. With the highest consideration,

I remain, yours truly, FRANK MOORE. Foreign Governments Not Remarkably

Friendly, The New York Express of last evening says: to-that the Dutch Geverement have concluded | tion and strife | Have no communion with such) Oh, horror! Letter Tell it not at Beautori! coaling. This explairs why the frequency did not to exist in Virginia, then a Virginian has to say will sing again shortly. I shall come to hear her, Shout it not in the streets of Charleston!- onter Curacoa, some weeks since, when looking that slavery ought to exist in New Humpshire, Captain Subson, of the United States Quartermas- after the Sumter. The commander, rather than This is a question left to every State to decide for their respects. ters begarinent, has just engaged a body of submit to what he deemed an affront, would not bitself, and it we mean to keep the State together, strong-hered mechanics. Verified a "midealle" enter the port at all, but would seek coult and we must leave to every State to a power or decis-closed to ressels of this Government seeking sup- Augusta Chronicle, of a late late, -115: The leave to-morrow for Annayolis, where she will

The third Stone Fleet is about to sail from and Vermont Yankers to be prostituting with New York. It carries upwards of six thousand their presence the land of the Quattlebunis-but | tons of stone, which will be souk in the channel this visitation of "greasy mechanics" from New | between Morris and Sullivan Islands, in Charles-York, is intolerable, and not to be endured. The ton harbor, and in the Stone Breach and other Yankee southers can be driven off, it may be-but inlets running into the harbor. Twenty vessels, these mudsills are very likely, when they "vote ships and barks, will be sunk in that harbor.

themselves a farm" down there, to freeze fast to SECRETARY CAMBION'S REPORT. OUR MUSICAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Through an unwarranted publication in the New York Tribune, yesterday, it is now very well known that the report of the Secretary of War, as We are reliable informed that Mayor Brown has been conditionally released from Fort Warren for thirty days, during which time he is not to go beyond the limits of the State of Massachusetts.

We are glad to learn that Miss Carlotta Patti which we not to go has recovered from the indisposition which present the direction of the President, was materially different from the draft first submitted. The portion the draft first submitted to the president, and a little after, and the concert commenced at eight o'clock or the president of the President, and a little after, and the concert announced was given toy miss care.

New York Tribuna, vesterday, it is now very went. All the portion that the report of the Secretary of War, as known that the report of the Secretary of War, as known that the report of the Secretary of War, as known that the report of the Secretary of War, as known that the report of the Secretary of War, as known that the report of the Secretary of War, as known that the report of the Secretary of War, as known that the report of the Secretary of War, as known that the report of the Secretary of War, as known that the report of the Secretary of War, as the concert I attended was given toy miss care.

New York Tribuna, vesterday, it is now very went.

duce into a war that is now humane and holy a want to have a fusa with high-tempered people, I savage ferocity and brutality that every Christian let him keep it. linction, all of the dominant race.

The following paragraph has been published seeks to hide its purposes. They both mean the n same thing, and will accomplish it if possible. ----

DANIEL WEBSTER ON EMANCIPATION. The following extracts from the correspondence

MR. WEBSTER TO MR. PECK. tion of the House of Representatives, passed as together. It is very common for musical people early as March, 1790, at a calm and dispassionate to quarrel. We sometimes have fights in our choir policy may require."

transmelled, I hold to be of the very autotance and | choir out. When these things occur, I generally of his took, which he offers at very low prices for essence of civil liberty. I can have no conception lock up the music book for a month, which brings | cash, in quantities to suit buyers. of a free government, where the people, respectful- | 'em into traces again. The men never make a by approaching those who are elected to make laws | fure; we have twenty in our choir, but none of for them, and offering for their consideration peti- | them sing as well as Mr. Centemiri - I am digrestions respecting any subject over which their con- sing, however. stitutional power of legislation extends, may be repelled, and their petitions rejected, without consideration and even without hearing.

MR. WESSTER TO REV. MR. FURNERS.

Washington, February 15, 1850. A gentleman of this city, who is curious in such [me, who only act a part in political life, and who | called to see the singers at their hotel, which t sion. But I cannot disregard the oracles which appeared to be on better terms with the piano, and instruct me not to do evil that good may come. I played quite serenely. I am told be is very good Dear Se :-- I received your note of inquiry on | cannot co-operate in breaking up social and on the instrument, and when I meet him again I Lovejoy in the House, and Summer in the Senate, the 20th, but have been unable to consutt the li- political systems, on the warmth, rather than the will invite him to come down to Pool's Island, braries until yesterday. The result of my explosivength, of a hope that, in such convulsions, the where we have two pianos, and he can take his

In the Astor Library 1 find a work entitled | confess I do not see the relevancy of such means | very quiet, and there was no whooping, and how-

Theophilus de Garenciures. Doctor in Physick | In my opinion, it is the mild influences of Chris- on Saturday evening. timity, the softening and melting of the Sun of | The next day I went to Mr. McCaffrey's music I examined thoroughly this work, which is the | rightcourness, and not the storms and temperts of | store, on Baltimore street, and bought two reheated controversy, that are, in the course of served seats for the concert, intending to take a those events which an all-wise Providence over- lady triend of mine, who lives on the Point and Of which we have a splendid assortment of fine and made the slave of man.

MR. WEERIER TO MESSRS, RICHARDS AND OTHERS, Washington March 21, 1851. security for general prosperity and national glory. stand together; if they fall, they must full together, : MR. WEBSIER TO JOHN TAYLOR, and there are some man who delight in heat, be pleased to see me there. I promised to come, smoke, combustion, and even general conflagra- | and when it takes place you may expect to bear | The Aspinwall steamer of to-day brings us con- I tion. They do not follow the things which make I from me again, if the concert suits me. firmation of what has only been a rumor, hither- for peace. They enjoy only controversy, contento allow United States war veesels to remain only | persons, either as neighbors or politicians. You ! forty eight hours in their ports for the purpose of | have no more right to say that sharery ought not a ding for itself

> Corros Takes by theoreta Factors -- The E.R., is now ready for sea, and will probably a Augusta, Georgia, cotton statement shows that take in troops. She is one of the first of Gen. COAL for Steam purposes, twelve hundred bales of cott in were taken by the Burnside's expedition. factories in the neighborhood of Augusta, for . The 75th Regiment N. V. S. V. embarked on . ger-Cash when of leved, the followed. There is abundance of capital in our Governor's Island. midst. Let it be brought out and employed in I running our cotton and other factories.

a gentleman at the door, who said he was Mr. That such a change was effected in the War Re- wish to see that accombation who was very polite, and appeared to part is a authors for port is a subject for congratulation in two ways. supplied with a ticket. I saw some gentlemen first, because it proves that the Chief Executive come in however, who he only howed to, and nave occupied the place in force. Onless there is a fixed determination to conduct the war on peace principles, we do not see how two great armies principles, we do not see how two great armies can thus face each other without shortly coming to serious collision.

Trom the West we hear nothing beyond the face. not our purpose to go into the argument at any length at present. The subject was ably treated and bounded on the floor length at present. The subject was ably treated and bounded on the floor length at present. The subject was ably treated and bounded on the floor length at present. length at present. The subject was ably treated and benches most violently—at which Mr. Strain some of its aspects in the trenchant article from kosch did not say anything at all, as I thought the Louisville Journal, which we published a few he would. I did see him whisper to one of them, days ago. Such a policy would alciniate many after which he pounded harder. I was able to loyal men in the Border States. It would make these observations, the seat which I had dispirit and possibly demoralize a large portion of taken having been reserved by another man who the army. But worse than this, it would intro- had a red-headed lady with him, and as I did not

Miss Carlotta Patti (1 suppose her real name is Fancy Goods of all kinds. civilized warfate. Their savage passions are in- lighter than her sister's, who is very dark and capable of any such restraints, and if once let mysterious looking, and who also sings. On exloose they would not discriminate between armed amining my music book when I got home, I found Confederates and unresisting men, women, and Carlotta's voice ranges from Do to La "sharp," what quality of voice this is, it is sixteen notes THE MARYLAND INSTITUTE children; but massacre and outrage, without dis- and in case any of your readers should not know Such warfare as they would wage can be found and an eighth, which is a great deal. Her La Will be commenced on TUESDAY EVENING, in the early history of the late rebellion in India. sharp, as we say in music, was particularly fine. Decrease 10th, and continue weekly the realter It should redound to the everlasting honor of the After she had sung several pieces, she brought out (excepting Christmas week) until the Course of President that he has resolutely set his face against her sister, Mrs. Strakosch, who, I suppose, is the twelve lectures are through. mother of the gentleman at the door; she sang a | The First Lecture of the Course will be delivered This reveals, unmistakeably, a serious disagree. piece which must have pleased the people, as they by the assigns a very ingenious reason for calling the operation of the latting of the operation of the latting of the operation of the latting of the operation of th assigns a very ingranous reason for eating the very ingranous reason for eating the very much like an atter-thought. The great questions whether or not the Governor became a sudtion whether or not the Governor became a sudshall lay waste her habitations. Yea, saith the overthrow of slavery—one of which openly avows

| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| Appened a long time ago, as a man told me he | Season Tickets for a gentleman and 2 ladies, $2.00
| A Barritone, so the list said. This is a very queer Tickets may be obtained at the Actuary's kind of voice, and had its origin with a gentle- Other, at the Institute Hall.

man named Barry, who was remarkable for his) Utone, which consisted of one tone-Centemiri has) the advantage of Barry, having more than one i tone; he has several-and sung well, although in a t one of the pieces be appeared to be very angry with a Patti, and scolded her a good deal. They made the quarrel up though before they got through, as) In the first place I concur entirely in the resolu-The following is a translation from the Congress of the contract of the resolution is That Congress have no authority to the oldest isn't over-twenty-six, but they are all the oldest isn't over-twenty-six, but they are all the oldest isn't over-twenty-six, but they are all don't give each of them a chance at it sometimes from distillers of high reputation. The right of petition, free, unqualified and un- | they stay away from rehearsals, which throws the

> There were two gentlemen who played on the piano. One of them, whose name was Sanderson. appeared to be very vindictive, and beat the piano terribly. I never saw such pounding, and expected all the time to see either the keys or his fingers | THE PATENT AUTONOMIC AND BAROME. fly off. He got through without any serious acci-But now, my dear Sir, what can be done by | dent, although I was told the next day when I

And even if the end would justify the meaus, I After the concert was over the people went out promised Mr. Strakosch to attend his next concert

Saturday was her day to stand in market, where recent importations, she sells potatoes, so she could not go, as she had to be there fall day. I was sorry, but I remem-If I have attempted to expound the Constitu- bered "the course of true love never runs smooth." tion, I have attempted to expound that which I | On Saturday Miss Patti was taken suddenly ill. have studied with diligence and veneration from | and the concert was put off. I thought at first my early manhood to the present day. If I have this was a swindle, and was mad, as I had stayed ! the States, it is because my fixed judgment and pay, besides paying for the tickets; but when I my unalterable affections have impelied me, and went to see Mr. McCaffrey, he treated me very Shawls. Wooden Under Shirts and Drawers. was laid on the table by a majority of six, and not war that is now engaging the good as well as evil still impel me, to regard that Union as the only polite, and paid me back the money, which was kind, and said Miss Patti would be sorry when And Notions of all kinds suitable to the trade, Yes, gentlemen, the Constitution and the Union it I she heard how disappointed I was. I think Mr. I place them together. If they stand, they must | McCaffrey is very clever, and he sells a good | deal of music. I have recommended to the Pool's | Island people to deal with him. He also told me | Washington, March 17, 1852 . I there was to be a grand charity concert soon, for There are some animals that have best in the fire: | the tenefit of the orphans, and said they would P. Jones, Yours, truly,

Leader of the Methodist Church Choir, Pool's Island. P. S. -I hear that Miss Patti has got well, and has she has sent me a complimentary ticket, with - home use, where there was not a bide taken last. board the steamboat Thomas Hunt, at the toot of year. This looks suspicious, Let the example. Whitehall street this morning, and proceeded to in 14-1m. . The men numbered 850, all told, -N/T, $Jour_{r+1}$ nal of Commerce.

SAMING OF THE FIRST SHIP OF BURNSHOLD EXPEinggos, ... The U. S. steam transport J. Davies, Capt Crocker, lying at the foot of Eight street,

DISMISSED THE SERVICE .- Assistant Surgeon J. C. Herndon, of Virginia, has been dismissed by direction of the President from the army, for deserting his post. Also, Major Lynde, for a simihave mustered regiments, to the Adjutant Gene-I ral's office, Washington.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS GENTLEMEN'

A beautiful accortionat of CENTINY. MEERSCHAUM PIPES, With rich Silver mountings, Tine and elegant.

Elaborately Carved TURKISH WATER PIPES

WEICHSELL STEWS. TOBACCO POTCHES CIGAR CASES.

All of the celebrated

CHOICE HAVANA CIGARS. Cabation, Figuros, Espain las, &r . SUTRO'S POPULAR STORE, 109 Baltimore attect.

BONNEY'S

GREAT CENTRAL

opposite St. Paul.

No. 147 HALTIMORE STREET.

(Uuden Cannoth Hale) WILL OPEN THIS DAY my NEW WINTER USKIRT-something entirely new. Also, a full line of Ladies' and Misses' Steel Skirts, from 4 to 100 springs; with a full assortment of Corsets and E. BONNEY.

FOURTEENTH ANNUAL

COURSE OF LECTURES

Rev. J. McKENDRYS REILLY. Gentlemen joining the Institute will be entitled

> S. SANDS MILLS. S. MORRIS COCHRAN. S. E. RICE. D. L. BARTLETT.

OFORGE H. RODGERS.

Committee on Lectures. ESTABLISHED IN 1837.

TO CASH PURCHASERS.

\BRANDIES, GIN, WINES, &c.

The undersigned respectfully invites examination THOS. THOMPSON.

29 South Gay street. NEW STYLE

INESTANDS

THE BEST YET INVESTED.

TER INKSTANDS:

Self-acting and without springs, screws or mamatters, took the trouble to write to the Astor have no power over the subject of slavery, as it was advised to do, that his fingers were full of chinery of any kind to get out of order. They are Library for information in regard to the correct- exists in the States of the Union? I do what I blisters, so I think the piano got the advantage of always ready for use, protected from dust and No one can read the daily proceedings of both | ness of this statement, and kindly permits us to can to restrain it; to prevent its spread and diffu- him. Mr. Scriner, another gentleman who played, | exaporation, giving a constant supply of clear ink. SAMUEL E. TURNER. 3 South Charles street.

WHOLESALE GOODS HOUSE. NEW STOCK

Fall and Winter Dry Goods. The undersigned having just taken possession of with great care selected a large and desirable stock of all kinds of Dry Goods, to which they respectfully invite the attention of purchasers and the tradel in general to our stock of

DRESS GOODS.

Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinets and Vestings, at I fator. Have just received a large for ex-FULLED LINSAYS AND BLANKETS. Fine and Medium qualities of Blankers.

Some of a Marcon and House keeping WE HAVE A SELECT ASSORTABNE OF Eurwishing Goods in great variety,

DEVRIES, STEPHENS & Co. No. 312 Baltimore Street. Between Howard and Liberty,

PINE, OAK AND HICKORY WOOD, CAWED AND SPECT, READY FOR USE, OR WITHOUT BEING SAWED AND SPLAT.

AT WHARE PRICES W. F. H. ONION,

corner Canal and Lomburd ster, and and 26 Eden st., near Lombard. COM at $5.25 and $5.75 PER TON. SOFI, HARD AND MEDIUM

COAL. These Coals I can recommend. Hickory, Oak and Pine WOOD. Blacksmith's COAL, COKE, CHARCOAL,

Sewed and Selft WOOD, C. W. FORD. 32 Light et., to ar Lomboard,

JNO 8 GITTINGS & CO.

29 Mouth Meret,

ATISSOURI 65 WANTED BY