I am very happy, notwithstanding "war, pestilence and famine" which I suppose you ( judging ] from the Northern accounts of things in Dixio's land) think is the lot of the "rebels." But enough of all this. You will want to hear from home, and particularly the war news. Now, my dear, me tell you that you need give yourself no trouble about the issues of this war. The Lord is our strength; of whom shall we be afraid? In every battle we have had thus far, the Lord of Hosts has I as decidedly manifested Himself on our side as He has ever done since the days of Joshua, and so will. it be unto the end. The hated power of the North may gain over us victories by sea, for their navy is powerful, and we have no ships to send out to meet them; but whenever they meet us by land we will put them to rout, even though they outnum- ) ber us ten to one. That fight at Leesburg was a second Bull Run. God seems to spread a panic over their army whenever they oppose us. Leesburg, Wm. Berkeley, with 40 men, who had marched to miles in the morning, fought all day and then at night went down to the river, captured and drove before him 340 prisoners, who begged for life, and grounded arms before they had l fired a gun; and so it will be whenever they put their feet on Southern soil. We were in Charleston when the Federal fleet i took possession of Port Royal. All they accomthere to meet them, and will thrash them beyond | doubt whenever they put their feet upon dry land. We can send into the field more men than the North can, nothwithstanding their boast of 20,cursed invaders, and the women here are ready to take up arms in this holy cause.
