sbbs bas. These are the brief details of an outrage which | must be promptly resented by the British Govern: ment. The absurd pretence that the Commissioners were "contraband of war" will not for a moment be listened to; for, although military or are not protected by the flag under which they When you can have a Beautiful Head of Hair, sail, it cannot be contended that the commissioners who were arrested were military or neval officers, and they certainly were not sailing to or) from a blockaded port. Even if they bore com- 1 missions from the Government of the Confederate States, it would be a question whether they would] come under the description of contraband of war, for the Federal Government does not acknowledge, the Southerns as a belligerent Power. But the fact is clear that the San Jacinto has committed an outrage as illegal as it was insolent, and that the ingredients used in the most popular HAIR RESTORA the Federal Government must either atone for it) promptly and humbly, or be prepared to justify its conduct by the issue of war.

Of course, the law officers will be consulted. but more as a matter of form than with any ideath it their opinion will be in favor of the Federal tionernment. It will then become our duty to send a equadron to reinforce the fleeet on the American faction as the facts seem to require. Should the EVERYBODY, EVERYBODY, EVERYBODY, Washington Government stand over the acts of) their officer, war must be at once declared; and, autuated as the Northern States now are, there could be luttle doubt of the result.

CAPTURE OF THE BRITISH SHIP CHE-) SHIRE WITH A VALUABLE CARGO. The British ship Cheshire, Captain Craig, arrived at New York yesterday morning in charge] of a prize crew from the United States steamer Augusta. The particulars of her capture are as)

The otheers of the Augusta, on boarding her, found that she had been cleared for Nassau, New Providence, but that her cargo was of a very suspicious character, consisting of army blankets, salt, coffee, crockery and medicines. Her captain, in reply to questious, accounted for his arrival off] Tytee by saying that "he had received orders ; at Liverpool to speak the blockading squadron, but for what purpose he did not state. This reply was unsatisfactory, and the ship was taken in charge by the Augusta, and sent to Charleston, whence she was despatched to New York as a ;

OLD FOGY DOCTRINES. "We nold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain andiemable sighte; that smong there, are life, liberty, and the pursuit of of happiness. That, to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that, whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established, should not be changed for light and transient causes; and, accordingly, all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which , they are accustomed. But, when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their duty, to throw of such government, and to provide new guards for their luture security."-Declaration of Indepen-

Old South Church, in consequence of some new aggression upon the rights of the people. The different orators of the patriot party had in turn address. ed the meeting, loud in complaint and accusation, but guarded and cautious on every point which might look like an approach towards treasonable, expressions, or direct exhortations to resistance. Adams placed himself in the pulpit, and sat quietly listening to all their harangues; at length he rose . and made a few remarks, which he closed with the following pithy apologue: "A Grecian philosopher | who was lying asleep on the grass, was suddenly roused by the bite of some animal on the palm of his hand. He closed his hand quickly as he awoke, and found he had caught in it a small field mouse. As he was examining the little animal which had, dared to attack him, it bit him unexpectedly a see-| cond time: he dropped it, and it escaped. Now, | J. T.
