The idea of blocking up channels is not a fea- | jensly, that they shall report to the Appel Tax Court alt their sible one. The currents in these Southern streams are very rapid, a wreck thus sunk would be washed out in very little time. Were the stone with which the thirty old whalers were laden devoted to the erection of batteries, then indeed might we expect some return for the investment; but to continue to sink ressels which cost from $4,000 to $3,000, seems to be a policy which \ should be inquired into. Let it be understood that at Hatteras, within the last eight years, a new mich has been formed.
