Of for Dizie's Land .- The brig Frances Jane, Captain Kirch, which cleared from this port on the 20th December, for St. John's P. R., returned to Aunapolis on Wednaulay last in charge of the first officer, who reports that by order of the captain, the brig was turned up the Potomac, and when off Smith's Point on the Virginia shore, the captain, a portion of the erew, and six or eight roung men who had been secreted on board the ressel, took to the small boat and landed safely on the Virginia shore. It is also reported that they succeeded in taking with them a large quantity of medicines and sundry other articles of incalculable value to the Confederates. Messrs. Kirkland, Chase & Co., of this city, who are the owners of the resect, disclaim any knowledge of the transaction or designs of the captain, and are consequently free from any complicity in the mat- | [71] ter. The brig is still at Annapolis in charge of the first officer, but will no doub proceed on her

Contemplated Reception. - We understand that the prominent Union leaders of this city have it in contemplation to give a grand reception to the Federal prisoners, captured at Manassas Plains, who have been exchanged, and are expected to arrive by the Norfolk boat to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock. I a good condition for a fight, will not yield until Government there, is running strongly against the Union, and in favor of the South, who are to be found with ready tongues, and tongues that lie, in all the coffee-houses, hotels and saloons, misrepresenting the North, and perverting every item of news to the prejudice of the North. As a further exemplification of this feeling, it may be mentioned that, at a banquet given to the Spanish General Prim, the Confederate flag was placed at the head of the table, between the French and English colors-the Star Spangled Banner being omitted. These are little matters in themselves, but they may point to momentous consequences. The new City Government will not organize until next Monday.
