A QUERULOUS COTEMPORARY.

The Chyper, after appropriating to its own use the bulk of the Southern news which we published in our Extra and regular Edition of Saturday, including the despatch relative to the Federal repulse at Port Royal Ferry, proceeds ingeniously to show that the Confederate success was really a Contederate defeat. Having accomplished this to its satisfaction, it rather illogically asks:

"What are we to do with people who rejoice in our modet over the victories of our enemies?" first because the Chipper has satisfactorily proved that there were no Confederate victories, and secondly has failed to point out the "people" "who rejoice over the victories of our enemies." as to be compalled to copy the same from our col- [ their seat at once at McCaffrey's. umns, it is not our fault and should not provoke the rage of our respected cotemporary, whose guilt I is not less than our own.

In conclusion we have only to say that it is our ! business to publish news, as we conduct this paper on the basis of a first-class news journal, and the ble production of the quasi clerical ex-member of petty tings of the Clyper will not deter us from so doing. Perhaps its incessant applications to the Legislature for the passage of a law punishing treason, may not prove more successful than some other applications made by it to the same august hody. Our friends should correct not only their logic, which is very faulty, but also their Chris- | rightcourness." manity, which is of a very heathenish pattern .-It ploated over the fires of Charleston and Rick mend in true barbarian spirit, and if a few bodies | of men, women and children could have been added to the flames, would have enjoyed, no doubt, in imagination, a delightful cannibalistic repast.
