PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING_ By J. M. MILLS & CO., Office, 124 WEST BALTIMORE STREET, I nook from porth street, up stairs.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, JAM. 31.

George N. Saunders. Price 5 cents.

Price 5 cents.

The two pamphlets published together, under a l neat cover, can also be had. Price 10 cents. Orders received through the mail promptly exe-

THE NEWS.

extracts from the prominent English journals upon matters relating to the American War, and would ) especially direct attention to an article from the Saturday Review, with the heading, "Abolition i and the Civil War," in which the Emancipation | policy is warmly denounced, and the folly of abo. ) lition fally exposed.

The Old Point boat this morning brought us no further intelligence from the Burnside Expe- Mesers. Editors of the South : dition. Late Southern papers contain some information concerning it, but as the observations | the brilliant actress Miss Maggie Mitchell in her | of the Confederates are necessarily made at a dis- great character of Fanchon, the Cricket, it being tance, particulars are of course out of the question. I the first time we have even her for nearly five years.

and the city. This has been for some time antici- remark a decided improvement, both in her man. pated. The fort is provisioned for six months, ner and articulation, although her voice, always it is quite possible for an "involuntary servant" erate Government deemed the preparations made of their attraction. In our attimation Nim W mud, sickness and inaction, and interminable de- audience during the whole performance her exact when he is more than usually idle, Quashee on a bates in Congress upon the everlasting "nigger," 1 as the phrase goes.

Church, an ardent Abolitionist, and Hon. Hamil- ported by the whole stock company. Mr. Melton Fish, formerly a Whig and lately a conserva- drum as Landry Barbeaud fully sustained his tive, are the Committee selected to proceed to growing reputation and popularity, while Mr. Richmond to look after the wants of the Federal Father Bardeaud, has no superior. One favorite prisoners. It is supposed that Mr. Fish will be we missed, whose attractions have frequently inreceived, but not Bishop Ames, who, it is suspect- | duced us to wade to the Theatre through slush ed, has been sent rather in the capacity of an and mud, (which by the way has opposed every) ed, has been sent rather in the capacity of an step we have taken during our stay in your city). Thus, then, there seem but slight and untenastant his advanced age and infirmities pre- we allude to Miss Effic Germon, who is well calcu- ble grounds for supposing that, without strong, which was the Havesa Cigar. cluding the possibility of his engaging in the lated to play higher characters than we have yet active duties of a most laborious mission.

of the Potomac, have prevented General Thomas Many thanks to the enterprising Kunkel for bringfrom following up his success over Zollicoffer, and ing us such an excellent company. will give the Confederates time to rally and con- ) solidate their forces. The Cincinnati Gazette inindulges in the belief that the Confederates will . be compelled to abandon Bowling Green, in consequence of General Thomas' victory, but we'll don t see it." learn that there was a fight across the Potomac at licitations upon the more friendly relations be- as yet. We doubt whether we ever shall see Berlin, day before yesterday, in which seven tween the two countries consequent upon the sur- them. But supposing (for the sake of supposition Fedcials were wounded. It is not known when render of the Confederate Commissioners, is not alone) that the Northern generals could fined ther any one was injured on the other side. It would seem from the advices which we publish from Missouri that the Federals have resolved Seward to tell our naval commanders that they that which sickens the heart at once with horror to attack General Price, at Springfield, and to ] "must not do so again," and still less necessity and indignation. The negro, naturally a gentle 🖂 whip him or compel him to retire into Arkansas. It is further reported that he has been created a General in the Confederate army and that as soon i as he receives his commission 30,000 men in Ar- for, and as the time for such a tilt is not very op- wild and unrelenting ferocity. The love of miskansas are ready to reinforce him. We may look for bot work in that quarter shortly. The Legislature yesterday did nothing of importance. A bill providing for a new apportionment of representatives was reported, by which | Baltimore city and county each gain one member. In the House the bill for the relief of the families ! of volunteers was discussed at length.

EMANCIPATION.

its greatest foes and have done their utmost to ef- when the Breoklyn bauled to the northward giving fect its destruction, can no longer be concealed; in fact they do not seek concealment, but openly Havana in safety during the past two weeks .reveal their intentions. The Government, with The name of the steamer, or where she is from, its army and navy and all its machinery, are but of course not known. She, in all probability, esthe agents which these politicians seek to employ caped from Berwick's Bay. to a france their schemes of abolition, and an im- i mense pressure is daily being brought to bear upon a the administration to force it into their measures. and argument, are at once used. We have it is impossible to contemplate with indifference. would be the state of the emancipated negro) tine and its condjutors—their attacks upon the civilized world. We speak of the wholesale him. On the one hand, he may sit down as the the unity of the Cabinet, and their underhand emancipation of Southern slaves projected by some solitary owner of those vast regions from which Advances made on Stocks, Real Estate, Notes Assaults upon the Generals in command, all of the politicians of the North. On the possibility his former master has been summarily and for and other Collaterals. ten ling to a common end. Superadded to the ef- of the contemplated achievement it is not for us to ever ejected, lounging away day after day and gress of such men as Stevens, Lovejoy, Gurley, of Southern sentiment, except what we gather to supply. Of the amount and value of this we et al, who omit no opportunity of railing at the from the historians of the Northern prees; and it can form some idea, when we consider what has mactivity of the army, and who boldly proclaim is hardly too much to say that their statements are been done by the squatters on the unappropriathat the war can only be terminated successfully for the North, by the emancipation and arming little that occasionally gleams out through the of the slaves. Then we have the outside declara- pages of a Southern correspondent or a European Isles; and proportionate to their respective areas the army as Lane, Butler, Pierce & Co., who to these Northern compositions, that we are left Next, let us take the alternative result. The all desire to free the slaves as they advance, and city on the part of the North, or of the blindest of all that he surveyed, but a co-ordinate and co-their masters. ing when a definite policy, in respect of the slaves, agree in saying that, excepts exciptends -- with of the worst kind of Southern planter is courtesy because in the southern planter in the southern planter is courtesy because in the southern planter in the southern planter is courtesy because in the southern planter in the southern planter is courtesy because in the southern planter in the southern planter is courtesy because in the southern planter in the southern planter is courtesy because in the southern planter in the southern planter is courtesy because in the southern planter in the southern planter is courtesy because in the southern planter in the southern planter is courtesy because in the southern planter in the southern planter is courtesy because in the southern planter in the southern planter is courtesy because in the southern planter in the southern planter in the southern planter in the southern planter is courtesy because in the southern planter in the southe must be determined upon, and we trust that com- such diductions as any one fully conversant with itself? Could four million newly extrauchised pard for the Constitution and the Laws will gov- able to assign to the general proposition—the with men who will not sit at the same table, nor ern the hour and not the suggestions of passion slaves have no idea of rising against their masters kneel in the same aisle, nor ride in the same and fanaticism.

means let him read the horrors of the slave insur- as they do, many men of hybrid race, some of the Puritans and philosophers of Boston, by the rection in St. Domingo, as depicted by Thiers. | whom are hardly distinguishable from white mild-and comfortable denizens of the City of

THE CONCERT-, LAST NIGHT. Hooms tast night was an exceedingly brilliant atfair, the room being crowded in every part with with success, under the powerful protection of litical ennuch.

The room being crowded in every part with success, under the powerful protection of litical ennuch. an audience at once large and discriminating .- Northern guns and the continuous guidance of But we had searly forgotten the benerolent pro-The performance was exceedingly creditable to Northern leaders. And if such a rising were set ject of the President. The negro may be, it seems, all engaged, and appeared to give the liveliest on foot, its effects might be felt in the interior at | put out of the land. He may be bought wholesale satisfaction. All the performers, with a solitary and very acceptable exception were of this city and very acceptable exception, were of this city, the Northern forces only hold the belt and margin ism! He is given over as incurable; and Africa and their general execution of the parts severally of the slave States. That any emissary from the is the meet hospital for such incurables. The We have just issued and have for sale at this ofwe have just issued and have nor sair at this infice, No. 122 Baltimore street, a pamphlet containof musical states. fice, No. 122 Baltimore street, a pamphlet contain-ing the message of Jefferson Davis and Governor ble of accomplishing creat results. The accomplishing creat results. The accomplishing creat results. ing the message of well-result and the letters of Ex Governor Lowe and ble of accomplishing great results. The exception of circumstances, his personal safety could be —all have been found useless and fruitless to revolt—or, it by any miraculous combination civilization, the sympathics of the letters of Ex Governor Lowe and ble of accomplishing great results. The exception of circumstances, his personal safety could be —all have been found useless and fruitless to revolt—or, it by any miraculous combination civilization, the sympathics of the professed tries of the circumstances. referred to was a gentleman from the North, who guaranteed, that he could succeed in rousing any training the mind of this poor half-child, half-Also for sale the pamphlet containing the letters kindly consented to assist, and whose artistic ren- number of slaves on different estates to one gener- savage. He is to go back to the land whence his secrement brama of of Hon. John C. Breckinridge and Lieut. Maury. dering, correct method and charming voice at al and combined effort to free themselves—is reonce established him as a favorite, as was manifold as an illusion of the most transcendental which unites the fantastic mimicry of a misunderkind. The planters—the men that have lived all stood civilization with the conceit, the pretenfest in the warm applause with which he was their days among slaves—have not a particle of thousness, the laziness, and the stagnation of bargreeted. We are happy to add, that the result of fear on this head. They scout the notion, not baric life. All the sermons, pamphlets, tracts, the Concert has been the realization of no incon- conly as destitute of substantial foundation, but as associations, and predictions of Northern Abolisiderable sum for the benefit of the suffering poor. actually puerile and ridiculous. And those Eng- tionists are to be consummated by a perpetual We are gratified further to learn, that the charitable efforts of our musical community are not ters. is in contemplation shortly to get up, upon a still which are sufficiently intelligible even to Europe- The case which we have put is only one of sup- Cartwright & Warner's celebrated English Merino We continue to give in our columns, copious likely to stop with the late endeavors, and that it larger scale, a Concert which will embrace or- ans. The negro is not given to abstract reasoning position. We believe it to be incapable of realizachestral as well as vocal effects. The plan has or sentimental musings. He has not had those tion. But we cannot forget that it embodies the not yet been fully matured, but doubtless will be ly showered upon his liberated kinsmen in the lical party in the North. What a notion it gives at an early day, when the public will be duly ad- British West Indies. He does not read tracts one of the wisdom and principle by which parties by our improved pattern, and warranted to fit. vised' thereof.

COMMUNICATED.

appreciation and personification of the character. Southern plantation has not much cause for comhouse was but a sincere attestation of her deserved Bishop Ames, of the Methodist Episcopal success and sterling acting. She was ably suphad the pleasure of seeing her in, and certainly i From Kentucky there is nothing new. The we are in no danger of forfeiting our claims t impassable roads, which have paralyzed the army of the Potomac, have prevented General Thomas many steps up the ladder of her profession.— to its degradation—the composite of the degradation and the degradation—the composite of the degradation and the degradation Balto. Jan. 31st. 1862.

The European Advices. The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says: The European advices by the Anglo-Saxon are | rior, urging and goading him on. not considered entirely satisfactory. Lord John From a private and reliable correspondent, we Russell's reply to Mr. Seward, apart from its fe- power is to us inscrutable. We see no signs of it generally liked, exhibiting, as some think it does, Georgia, South Carolina, Mississippi, and Louisia latent desire to keep the door open for future and with an overwhelming force Abolitionist soltrouble. There was no necessity for asking Mr. diers, what would follow? First would ensue for withholding the despatch to Mr. Adams that and rather affectionate harharian-but still a barwent out in advance of the surrender of the Com- | barian, and even more of a child than a barba- | missioners. A diplomatic controversy between risn-would of a sudden feel all the savage, Downing street and Washington is now looked though latent, instincts of his nature kindled into portune, nor the temper of the controversialists chief which characterizes the child, and the letch any the sweetest, new complications are contem- for blood which characterizes the savage, would. plated as among the troubles of the future.

By the arrival this morning of the fishing smack Grover King, from Havana, we learn that when the was leaving the harbor resterday, a Confederate steamer, with the secession flag flying, was going in, and that the United States steamer The purposes of certain men, who now shout Brooklyn was in chase of her. The steamer sucloudly for the Union, but in times past have been | ceeded in reaching the harbor of Havana in safety This makes the third steemer that has reached

From the London Saturday Review. ABOLITIONISM AND CIVIL WAR. | bloody graves of their "rebellious" countrymen. There is one phase of the American conflict which | And what would be the upshot of it all? What | mon sense, ordinary humanity and a decent re- clavery, clave districts, and the negro character is negroes live in the same. States as fellow-citizens is or of combining in a servile war. It is possible "car" with free negroes whose liberty dates two that in New Orleans, Mobile, and other populous generations back? Let the answer be given by If any one wants to know what emancipation depots of Southern trade, the slaves-containing, the Irishry and the commonalty of New York, by

Nor are they without reasons for this belief Haytien Republic. advantages of education which have been profuse- | designs and hopes of an active and energetic politwritten either for his consolation or for his in- are actuated in that Republic, when the Union is struction. He is too degraded to measure bis own | convulsed by civil war and menaced by a terrible | REEF AND MUTTON humiliation; and, let us add, he is generally too debt, in order that the South may become one happy to care for a change in his condition. He sterile solitude, and the "everlasting negro" re-Last night we were fortunate enough to witness | does not much luxuriate in the idea of being a lapse into congenial barbarism amid the stagnaman and a brother; but he does very much take to | tion of Libetia? beart a stinting of pork and Indian corn, and a curtailment of his recognized saturnalia. He has I From Savannah we learn that the Federal fleet (and then in Richmond, where she is, if possible, does not know that he is set down by Mr. Olmsted has cut off communication between Fort Pulaski more popular than here). We could not fail to and political economists as a most unprofitable degree. sermons, he has somehow imbibed the notion that and is well armed and garrisoned. The Confed- rich, and face and figure always fascinating, need- to get a great deal out of a master without giving | Harraman, Work Lungs, and for New Threst, they are like a of their attraction. In our estimation Miss M. rather egotistical theory with equal satisfaction Prepared and sold by Geo. Pagason. No. 5 % Liberty street. for the desence of Savannah, ample to secure its has no superior in her profession. Throughout and impunity. On the whole, what with extra the whole play she fully sustained her high repu- hours of work for himself, and desultory hours of From Washington we have the old story of tation, and she could not fail to impress upon her recreation with Phillis, and occasional egretals

> The applause which she drew from a well filled plaint, and very little reason for revolt. Indeed, he knows that, were he so demented, rebellion would be the worst speculation in which he could lengage. For, putting aside the exceptional cases. of magisterial brutality which render a slave's condition one livelong burden and curse, his life | is tolerably well supplied with material comforts; and as for moral aspirations, he is usually content to forego them in his normal existence, reserving h them for his occasional appearance on the stage of

Thus, then, there seem but slight and untensdirect, and constant aid from the North, the lalaves of the Southern States have any disposttion to rise against their masters. The pressure cile them to its duration. Harsh and wantonly cruel masters are very rare, because harshness ther, will be held, (D. V.) on TUESDAY EVENING, 4th of and cruelty paralyse such powers as the negro February, at 80 click, in 87. Para's Curacu. I slave possesses, and make him dull, stupid, and h useless to his owner. The slave has no motive ! for rebellion, except that which made and keeps him a slave-the irresistible power of some supe-

Now, whether the North ever will attain such a under the promptings and goadings of superior . power, find rapid development in his untutored

ANOTHER CONFEDERATE STEAMER RUNS THE Soul. Hitherto known only as humane, affec-BLOCKADE.—A letter from Key West, dated Jan. I tionate, tender, vain, garrulous, and sensual, he would of a sudden burst into the frenzy of a young tiger which now for the first time smells Coalhuman blood. Neither habit, nor association. nor gratitude, nor the sight of kindly faces, would restrain him from gratifying the fell impulses of the new demon which possessed him. Neither the master who had awed him, nor the master's wife h who had soothed him in sickness, nor the mas- | Wood--ter's children who had played with his children, and whom his wife had nursed with more than a mother's fondness, would stay his uplifted arm, or calm the swelling fury of his breast. Pillage the i most indiscriminate, havor the most insatiate. carnage the most ruthless, would at once become the idols and the symbols of the new freeman's creed. The Abolitionists would have achieved their work, and have perpetrated its remembrance in the smoking ruins of desolated homes and the WOOD-YARD, 26 S. Eden street.

It has the least bearing upon our own interests whose liberation had been bought by desolation, and fortunce, but it is of inexpressible moment to tears, and blood? One of two fates would await tions and acts of such abolition enthusiasts in sojourner in the South is so diametrically opposed would be the magnitude of the mischief wrought. put weapons in their hands to be used against and most obstinate self-delusion on the part of the equal possessor with the white man of the North STOCKS OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS BOUGHT South. We confess that we find it easier to be- or the South, on terms of nominal parity and and sold by Up to this time, the Administration while re- lieve that the North errs in the divergence from fellowship. Does this seem likely? Would the cognizing the "contraband" theory of Butler, common seuse. It is more probable that Northern Southerners, who had known the negro as a slave, and allowing Lane and Montgomery in the west writers should falsify that of which they have no tolerate him as an equal? Could the negro himto attirctty much as they please, has declined to terest in misrepresenting than that the South toward the new trees in misrepresenting than that the South trees in misrepresenting than that the South trees in misrepresenting than that the South trees in the self-tree in the se a log t authoritatively the views of the ultras and should indulge an infatuated reliance upon a bro- the Yankee-who now, living out of the atmosher left the management of affairs pretty much to ken reed, and that the foreigners living among phere and domain of slavery, spurns the negro the discretion of the Commandants of the several them should share their intatuation and propagate face and the negro mien, and everything apperbe artments. The time however is fast approach. their errors. Now, Englishmen living in the taining to the negro in the most remote degree, their errors are their errors. The time however is fast approach. South, and writing to their friends in England do with a loathing compared to which the insolence men, and most of whom are remarkable for that Brotherly Love. They will all reply, that the turbulent disposition with which a special caste negro may exist among them and without bonds, is inspired by the consciousness of union, num- but also without citizenship, without real equali-caricature of a self-governed community, the

FOUND GUILTY .- Yesterday, Merritt, on trial i New York for the murder of Swain, a Secession-

To our PRIREDS who are suffering from Colds, | bonds and wearity to be furnished for the fatthful full'ment of We recommend a trial of PRANSON'S MEDICATED TAR DROPS. They are auterior to any other remedy bir Colds, Chughs, 1 and can be had at the Drug Stores, at 10 cents per pechage. FOR GROCERIES OF ALL EIRDS, Including OLD SCOTCH WHISKEY. CALL OF WMIH. MCLEAN. Jamby Gracer. THE AND WINE DESCRIE. 22 NORTH CHARLES STREET. M'ZA & JIAD Chesapeake PINE CUT

CHEWING TOBACCO. Unsurpassed by any other produced in the country Smyrna Smoking Tobacco, An Oriental Luxury. The hest article in the market, and

For sale Wholesale and Retail at 123 Battimore street

Opposite American Office.

THE MISSIONARY MEETING on behalf of the P. E. CITT MISSION, which was adjourned

> CHESAPEAKE! CHESAPEAKE!! THE VERY BEST FINE CUT CHEWING TOBACCO

G. W. GALE & AX'S CHESAPEAKE. PURE, FINE AND RICH.

OF DELICIOUS PLATOR AND TASTE

G. H. BOLKNICS, corner Charles and Pratt MORSE & MARTIN, corner Charles and Baltimore J. C. HMITH, 153 le Baltimore evert RUTRO BROS., 139 Baltimore street E S SUTRO 123 Baltimore street. J. F. REQUARDT, corner Calvert and Baltimore, AND OTHER PRINCIPAL TOBACCO AND CIGAR STORES in this city.

PURE, FINE AND RICH.

HARD, SOFT ARE MEDIUM COAL. Prepared Expressly for FAMILY USE.

SAWED AND SPLIT, Any Size and Length desired. Orders promptly filled. Prices Very Low. CASH WHEN ORDERED. Full Weight and Measure Guarantied. . W. F. H. ONION,

JOHN S. GITTINGS & CO.,

Cor. Lombard-st. and Central Avenue.

BANKERS AND STOCK BROKERS, No. 29 South Street, DUY AND SELL ON COMMISSION, Stock and Securities, in this and other markets. Receive and allow interest on deposits.

A O. R. R. BONDS, 1867, WANTED BY * 29 South street. 29 South street 29 Kouth direct COMMERCIAL & FARMERS' BANK STOCK

INO 8 GITTINGS & CO. 29 Nouth etreet. A LERCHANTS BANK STOCK FOR SALE BY INO 8 GITTINGS A CO.

29 South street

*Best $1.50 Shirts. GOOD SHIRTS $1.25. COLLARS $2 per doz. SCARFS, TIES. GLOVES, &c.,

LOWEST PRICES.

GEORGE A. PETERS. No. 214 Baltimore street. Net door to Cortlan's.

AMUSEMENTS. TORONT STREET THEATRE.

First appearance (for this creates only) of WISH KNINA MITCHELLS In a double Iruh Jig, with Mr. J. M. Wann

MISS MAGGIE MITCHELLS IN POUR CHARACTERS. THIR (Friday) EVENING, January 31. To commence with a Comic Drame, in 3 acts, entitled THE WILD INISH GIRL

Complete Transle, assuming the characters of The Wild Irish Girl, with the song of "The Groves of Blarney," and Teddy O'Neal. May MAGGIE MITCHELL. Double Irish Jig by Miss E. Mitchell and Mr. J. M. Ward To conclude with the Comedictic of . A RUSBAND AT SIGRT.

Due notice will be given of the next representation of the FANCHON, THE CRICKET Apprisation-Dress Circle and Parquette 35 etc.; Family Cirele 25 cts . Gallery 15 cts.; Private Boues (Octs.; Secured Seats Do cla. Brata can be occuped two days in advance.

WILLIAM F. OWENS, 203 Baltimere Street. TAS JUST RECEIVED A NEW, CHOICE and COMPLETE assortment of FALL AND WINTER FURNISHING GOODS

FOR GENTLEMEN. Scotch Wool, Red and Shaker Flannel Goods of every size and quality. SHIRTS MADE TO ORDER

MARTLAND PRNITESTIART. REALED PROPOSALS will be received by the Warden of the Peniteutiary, until PRIDAY, 7th February, for furnishing daily during the term of twelve months from the 8th day of February, 1-62 about THREE RUNDERD POUNDS FRESH BREF AND MUTTON, ex follows - (Buck Ribs and phoulders, thick ended the Plate and Bricket ... but round and reint places; Shins entirely excluded. The whole deliverers of Reef to be substituted by an equal quantity of Mutto cone day in each week throughout the summer was son, or parily by Matton at may time, it required, and the delivery of either to be omitted on any day of the week, and in tremed or diminished at any time, as may be bereafter directed. The Beef to be of the best quality, according to its kinds, and

CHITY COLLECTOR'S OFFICE, BALTIMORE, January 28th, 1-62 - NOTICE. - The tax paying commission Inter are respectfully bulermed that on and after SATTRICAN. the let day of February, interest of the half per cent, will be I chargeable on all oven accounts, and further, that the Ballin's I teen upon all levies made by them surveding the third data potter, as prescribed by law, will accrue. These persons wishing to steld any additional extense, would do well to make Their tal ments from to the expiration of the present month

PERUVIAN We are now prepared to supply orders for PERUVIAN GUANO

MEXICAN,

P MALCOLM & CO. Bo eley's what A. J. HAMPSON. FAMILY GROCER.

HI N. Charles street, Invites Families to his Fine Suck of GROCERIER which he in selling at Low Prices FINE SHERRY WINES; Medium and Low Priced. Also, his IMPERIAL PHILADELHHIA ALE. Neatly put up in Some Juga, folled and labeled, at 75 etc. per des

A. J. HAMPSON, 81 N. Charles st., near Pleasant. LUMBER-LUMBER-LUMBER

The attention of Carpenters, Wheelwrights, Coach, Cabinet, and if balt makers, is called to our large, well selected, and well seasoned assortment of LUMBER, consisting of White Pine Pannel, for ove Cullings, Picks, Cullings, Joint, Shirgles, Latha and Firkers Mahogany, Walnut, Cherry, Ask, Maple, Bickery, Oak, Pepler, that Fellows, and Shafts Persons from the country desiring to purchase are requested

THOMAS & PRICE, No. 56 East Fall's Avenue. TYOR RENT.-A DESIRABLE DWELLING. No 21 EXETER ST., (at the bend,) with Gas and Water is a good tenant, the rent will be made low. Also, Two House on President street, bear Eastern avenue, suita ble for hores, with Gas and Water. Rent low. THOMAS & PRICE, Lumber Dealers,

No. 56 East Fall's Avenue. LOOR SALE -One PORTABLE GRIST MILL. 1 26 inch Cologue Stone, (made by Charles H. Drury,) will THUMAN & PRICE. be sold low. Apply to Lumber Dealers

HAMS! HAMS!! BEST SUGAR CURED HAMS. 10 Cents per lb.

Every One Warranted. Choice super FLOUR, $4.50; extra, $7.25 and $7.50. Pataparo Family FLOUR $875. All Goods Delicered Free. E. T. LAWRENCE & BRO., Cor. Baltimore and Green streets.

A MERICAN GOLD BOUGHT L. J. TORNET, 22 Nouth street. T OANS ON STOCKS AND BONDS NEGO-L. J. TORMKY. I I TIATED By 22 Nouth street. TAIRST CLASS COMMERCIAL PAPER L J TORMET Wanted by

D 1867, WANTED by 11 ATCHES, JEWELRY, &c.,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

The STOCE of the late frm of HAM & CUSHING. Is offered to the public, at cost prices, at No. 274 WEST BALTIMORE STREET. The Suck consists, in part, of GOLD and SH VER WATCHES, JEWELRY. CHAINS

PLATED and SILVER WARE. MR CHARLES C NUITZ, an experienced Walchmaker, has charge of the Watch Reputing. JOHN H. HAM,

No. 278 West Baltimore street.

LEONARD PASSANO,

52 Centre Market Space,

BALTIMORE, MARTLAPD, Importer and Jobber of FANCY GOODS, HOSIERY. CUTLERY, &c.,

Offers to cash buyers a large and well relected stock of FANCT GOODS, of Foreign and Domestic Manufactures, COAL at $5.25, $5.50 and $5.75 PER TON. The very best in Market. CUMBERLAND COAL $8.50. BLACKSMITH'S COAL $6.75. WOOD at $5.00 and $5.50 per cord.

SAWED and SPLIT WOOD $7.00 per cord, delivered. Cash when ordered. C. W. FORD.

32 Light street, near Lombard.