> LAST WORDS OF EMMETT. I have but few more words to say: I'm going to the silent grave:

Soon e'er my tomb the cypress bough fire broad and drooping leaves will wave! My lamp of life is near burnt out-My tace w run; pronounced my doom;

The cold damp curtifies of the temb. On leaving this ungrateful world, I make but only one request— I sak its silence; in the grave

One after one around me falls

Let me and mine together rest. TM other times and other men Can justice to my memory do, Till ages chall have slumbered by, And reason can my acts review.

Till then no monumental stab May mark the place where rests my head; No lettered marble to the world Tell that he lived—that he is dead.

But when among the powers of earth My country shall assume her stand Proudly erect—her flag unfuried. Acknowledged free by every land-

Then may my epitaph be traced Upon the marble's snow white face, And it may stand above my head, To mark a patriot's resting place. The stranger as he passes by, May pense to think of other years,

And as he calls to mind my fate, May pay the tribute of his tears. And now threwell! I'm going where My fathers have before me gone;

My deathless spirit takes his flight To regions yet untried, unknown; I give my body to the earth, Tis all that it can justly claim; And dearer than the lue I yield, Bequeath posterity my fame.

HENRY N. WILLIS, Agent. AASH FOR NEGROES. The highest cark prices will at all times be given for Negroes of both sexes, that are slaves for life, and good titles. My office is in Pratt street, between Sharp and Howard streets, and opposite to the Repository—where I or my agent can be seen at all times. All persons, havi f Negroes to sell, would do well to see me before the y dispose of them, as I am always buying and forwarding to the New Orleans market. I will also receive and keep Negroes at twenty-five cents each, per day, and forward them to any Southern port, at the request of the owner. My cetablishment is large, comfortable and airy, and all above ground; and kept in complete order, with a large yard for exercise; and is the stronglest and most splendid building of the kind in the Un:ted States. And as the character of my house and TIATESTICE yard is so completely established, for strength, comfort, Wearers of Hate, this is no humbur or puff, the fact and cleanliness, and it being a place where I keep all my own, I will not be accountable, for the future, for mh3-dtf HOPE H.
