BALTIMORE CLIPPER.

MARYLAND LEGISLATURE.

ANNAPOLIS, Jan. 9, 1841.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES. In the House, Mr. Prestman presented the memorial of the president, directors and company of the Farmers and Planters' Bank of Baltimore, praying that the capital stock of said bank may be limited to the amount now subscribed, and be released from the loans on the amount which has not been subscribed: referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Lecompte obtained leave to bring in a bill for the better promotion of the purity of elections.

On motion of Mr. Nesbit

Leave was granted the Committee of Ways and Means to prepare and report a bill to recharter the Hagerstown Bank with an increase of its capital.

Mr. Nesbit reported a bill to reduce and establish a uniform system of charges by Notaries Public on all protested notes, drafts, and bills of exchange.

The House then resumed the discussion of the resolution in favor of limiting Presidential service to one term. The debate was participated in by Messrs. Legrand, Lynch and Gallagher.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES,
January 5, 1841.

A BILL, entitled, an act to abolish the law of imprisonment for debt, in the State of Maryland.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of May next, following the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful to imprison, or to hold to bail, any resident of this State, for, on account of any debt or debts, or money claimed on contract or otherwise, except only in cases of fraud or intention to avoid the payment of debt by a removal out of the State, as hereinafter mentioned.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That no resident of the State of Maryland shall be held to bail on a capias ad respondendum or warrant, if he shall make oath before some justice of the peace, or other person authorized by the laws of Maryland to administer an oath "that it is not his, her or their intention to remove from the State of Maryland," unless the plaintiff, or plaintiffs, or some person in his, her, or their behalf, in case of said plaintiffs' absence from the county in which the capias or warrant may be issued, shall make oath "that he, or she has good reason for believing, and does solemnly and sincerely believe, that the defendant or defendants, intend or intends, and is, or are about to remove from this State," or unless an affidavit be made by or on the part of the plaintiff or plaintiffs, and filed with the sheriff or justice, as the case may be, stating that such defendant or defendants is, or are in possession of, or entitled to some property, money, effects, right or claim, which, or the value thereof, ought justly to be applied to the payment of a debt (or satisfaction of damages) as the case may be, to which the plaintiff is entitled; and upon the said affidavit being so filed as aforesaid, the sheriff, or proper officer, shall in such case hold the defendant to bail for the amount for which the capias or warrant, as the case, may be, may be issued.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That in all cases where a capias or warrant shall be returned on oath personally served in the particular case, and the defendant shall fail to appear, the county court, or equity court, if the writ be returnable there, shall order an appearance to be entered for the defendant, and the case shall go on to trial, as if the defendant or defendants had appeared at the return of said writ; and if the writ or warrant be returnable to a justice of the peace or district court, the justice or district court shall proceed to try the case exparte.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That any person or persons who may be imprisoned or in custody for debt at the time when this act shall take effect, or who may be arrested or held to bail under any of the provisions of this act for any sum whatever, may apply to a judge of the county court of the county in which such person shall be so imprisoned or held in custody, or if no such judge shall be in the county, then to any justice of the orphans court of such county for habeas corpus, and the judge, chancellor, or justice, granting the same, may discharge the party if upon hearing it appear that the said party does not intend to remove from the State, and has not been guilty of fraud in reference to said debt; and any person arrested or held to bail as aforesaid, for debt within the jurisdiction of the magistrate's courts may apply to any justice of the magistrate's court in the district in which he has last resided in the county, or in the district in which he is confined for a writ or order in the nature of a habeas corpus, directed to the sheriff or to a constable to bring the said person before the said justice, and the said justice may discharge the party if upon hearing it appear that the said party does not intend to remove from the State, and has not been guilty of fraud in reference to said debt, and the persons conducting the hearing or inquiry provided for by this section, shall hereby have authority to summon and compel the attendance of witnesses, and shall observe the course of proceeding, and have and exercise the powers and duties which are prescribed in the act entitled an "act relating to bail in civil actions," passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty-six, chapter two hundred and twenty one, so far as the same be not inconsistent with anything contained in this act.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That no capias ad satisfaciendum, or warrant in the nature thereof, shall issue on any judgment or decree, unless the plaintiffs or some person in the plaintiff's behalf, in case of the plaintiff's absence from the county, shall make affidavit that he or she has good reason for believing, and does sincerely believe, that the defendant or defendants, intends, or intend and is or are about to remove from the State, and that the defendant, or defendants, has or have committed fraud in contracting the debt, or has or have fraudulently conveyed or concealed his or their property for the purpose of preventing its being taken in execution; and upon the filing of the affidavits aforesaid, a capias ad satisfaciendum or warrant in the nature thereof may issue.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That in all actions, which shall be instituted after this act shall take effect, for the recovery of damages for slander, libel, assault and battery, breach of promise of marriage, in which the plaintiff is a female, seducing plaintiff's wife or daughter, trespass in forcibly entering a house, and taking away or injuring property, or for moneys collected by any public officer, or for any misconduct in office, if the plaintiff, or any credible persons on his or their behalf, shall file an affidavit on oath or affirmation, stating the cause of action and the amount of damages believed to be sustained, such amount shall be endorsed on the writ, and the defendant or defendants shall not be discharged from arrest or imprisonment without giving bail for that amount, unless upon application to a judge or justice, as provided in the fourth section of this act such judge or justice shall decide that the amount be reduced.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall prevent any person from applying for and obtaining the benefit of the insolvent laws of this state as heretofore; and in any application for the benefit of the insolvent laws, it shall not be necessary for said applicant to state in his or her petition, that the said applicant is insolvent: and if the judge or justice, or proper authority, to whom the said application may be made, shall be of opinion that the applicant does not intend to remove out of the state, the said judge, justice, or proper authority, may grant to said applicant the benefit of the insolvent laws without requiring a bond for his personal appearance; and upon the debtor's petition therefor being duly filed, he shall thereby be divested of all his estate, property, effects, claims and rights of action (except such as the insolvent laws reserve to him) for the benefit of his creditors generally, as fully and effectually as if he had actually executed a good and sufficient deed or assignment to a trustee.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That if during the pending of any suit in which the defendant has given bail, an affidavit as prescribed in the fifth section of this act, shall be filed, the plaintiff shall thereupon be at liberty to issue a new writ, and have the defendant arrested and held to bail as aforesaid; and upon the filing of an affidavit as prescribed in the section of this act pending any application for the benefit of the insolvent laws, any creditor may have the applicant arrested, in the same manner as a plaintiff may cause a defendant to be arrested under the provisions of the second section of this act.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That any person or party causing another to be committed to jail as a debtor, or under the provisions of this act, shall be liable in the first instance for the jail fees, and shall pay to the jailor for keeping such debtor in custody, such fees weekly in advance, and at the rate of forty-four cents per day to be expended for the board and comfort of such imprisoned debtor, until it shall have been finally adjudged that such debtor be not entitled to the benefit of this act.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect on the first day of May next; and in the meantime the Governor of this state shall cause a printed copy of it, in pamphlet form, to be transmitted to every person entitled to a copy of the act of Assembly.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

The ship Garrick, which was announced as having got on shore at the Woodlands, below New York, brought news four days later from Europe. The third mate of the Garrick reached New York by land on Friday afternoon. The whole number of persons on board was 62. Her cargo is valued at $400,000. The items of foreign intelligence yet obtained are of course incomplete, owing to the difficulty of landing. London papers to Dec. 12 have been received. Nothing of great importance is contained in them.

The state of the money and cotton markets will be found below. In the former there was some depression, owing to the continued agitation of the war question in France. The sales of cotton were animated, and the prices a shade better. The queen and princess were doing well.

The London Times of the 12th says that the French war expenses of 1840 cannot amount to less than £11,000,000 sterling.

The remains of Napoleon had not reached Paris at last advices, but were at Rouen. It was found that the floating chapel would have to be dispensed with on the Seine on account of its bulk.

Immense excitement was felt in Paris; and among the populace a renewal of the war feeling against England.

BANK OF ENGLAND. The liabilities of this institution, on the 8th Dec'r, were £22,783,000. The assets £25,589,000.

LONDON, Dec. 11. The Tea market is very flat. Company's Congous 2s. 1d., money.

The holydays in the markets commence 24th Dec. and 4th Jan.

LONDON, 12th, evening. The British funds still continue to decline. Consols, 89 1-8, with little doing.

Little news of any kind from Spain. Dates are to the 3d Dec.

The Spanish Cabinet was daily losing ground in public favor, and Espartero was so much afraid of his troops that he changed the Madrid garrison once a month.

FRANCE. Paris, Dec. 10.—The French journals contain no interesting news save details of the removal of the remains of Napoleon.

It is affirmed that the Ministry has received detailed accounts of the circumstances which induced the Pacha of Egypt to make his submission.

If we may give credit to some letters from the Levant, it would seem that Ibrahim Pacha is inclined not to obey the orders to retreat sent to him from Alexandria. But this information is dated at a time when he could not foresee the submission of Mehemet Ali; yet it cannot be denied that the events which have just passed, in consequence of the intervention of the European powers, may create serious discontent among the old Mussulmen. Ibrahim, by placing himself at the head of the discontented, might cause unexpected embarrassment, for the English power can do nothing beyond the coast, and the Turks behold with grief what is passing. A letter from Constantinople of the 7th November, says that the population of that city, and of all Turkey, are in a state of fermentation, and look with displeasure on the events of Syria. It is even said that four regiments have mutinied in Asia Minor, one of them cantoned at Kutagh, assassinated all its officers on receiving orders to march.

London Money Market, Dec. 12. The British Funds are rather lower this morning. Consols, which left off yesterday 89¼ 3-8 for the opening, may be quoted at present 89 1-8 to 1-4 for the account, with little doing to the present time, the speculators being afraid to act while the foreign loans are on the tapis; this causes a dampness in the market. Reduced 80¼; Exchequer Bills 1-3 prem., Bank Stock, 156½ 157½; India Stock for the opening, 237 239.

The foreign exchanges yesterday afternoon were lower and heavy.

The British funds still continue to decline.—Consols are a shade lower than in the early part of the morning, and may be quoted at 89a89¼ for the opening, with little doing to the present time. Reduced 89¼; Exchequer bills 13 prem; Bank Stock 157½; for the account 158½.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET, Dec. 12. We have experienced a regular and steady demand throughout the week, and the sales, which embrace the transactions of 7 days (including those of Friday last) are large; prices have been fully supported, and for qualities of American ranging at fair, under almost 7-8d advance may be quoted. Egyptian had been offered more fully at rather easier rates, but in other long stapled sorts no change, nor in Surat; the latter are now attracting the attention of speculators, who have taken 1000 bales. and 2000 bales of American. The sales to-day were 5000 bales of all kinds, of which abou 1500 bales Surat, the market closing with a healthy appearance. 350 bales Sea Island are declared for auction.

CHILDREN TEETHING.

AT this important period, LITTLE CHILDREN suffer very much, and should not be neglected. Mothers and Nurses, who have the care of them, should be cautious and apply such means as will relieve them. Dr. PARIS' SOOTHING SYRUP, for CHILDREN CUTTING THEIR TEETH, is pronounced by Thousands to be the most efficacious medicine yet discovered; it gives immediate relief to those little ones, (if used according to directions,) thus preventing FEVER, CONVULSIONS, and other dangerous symptoms, which often prove fatal. It is highly important to be very careful of whom you purchase this medicine, and not mistake the spelling in the name of PARIS, as there are several individuals representing themselves as Agents, who palm on the unwary a different article, which is not only useless, but a Dangerous Poison to Infants. ☞ Remember, all genuine has the signature of Dr. PARIS blown in the bottles, and the labels and envelope contain an entry, "According to an act of Congress," with the fac simile of the proprietor on the envelope. Unless it contains as aforesaid, touch it not. Price 50 cents. For sale by

MACHINE PRINTING.

BULL & TUTTLE, BOOK & JOB PRINTERS, No. 7 N. GAY STREET, take this method of informing the public, and Printers generally, that they have now in operation, in their office, THE BELPER DOUBLE ACTION PRINTING MACHINE, recently imported by them from England, and that they are prepared to execute PRESS WORK thereon at lower rates of charge, and with greater despatch than can possibly be attained by any other Printing Press now in use. As the machine is at present used principally in the publication of the Clipper at night, they would be enabled to execute the press work of an afternoon daily paper, as well as any other work that may offer. Printers, having long numbers on a form, would find it to their advantage to have the work done on the above machine, and are respectfully invited to call. n6-tf
