For the Baltimore Clipper. WOMAN'S LOVE.

Of is there in this world of sorrow, Where hopes are blighted, joys decay, One charm that lasts beyond the morrow, To bid our longing spirits stay?

O! is there, when by grief and sadness, Our aching hearts are oft opprest, One friendly star of joyful gladness, That shines more brightly than the rest?

Ah! yes, there is one charm that Madeth Our youthful hearts 'round virtue's shrine; There is one star that brightly shineth, When other orbs have ceased to shine.

There is one ray of light to guide us, While through this darksome wild we rove; Whatever may on earth betide us, Tis moman's never-dying love. Georgetmen, D. C., January, 1811.

MASH FOR NEGROES. The highest cash prices will at all times be given for Negroes of both sexes, that are slaves for life, and good titles. My office is in Pratt street, between Sharp and Howard strects, and opposite to the Repository—where I or my agent can be seen at all times. All persons, having Negroes to sell, would do well to see me before they dispose of them, as I am always buying and forwarding to the New Orleans market. I will also receive and keep Negroes at twenty-five cents each, per day, and forward them to any Southern port, at the request of the owner. My establishment is large, comfortable and airy, and all above ground; and kept in complete order, with a large yard for exercise; and is the strongest and most splendid building of the kind in the United States. And as the character of my house and yard is so completely established, for strength, comfort and cleanliness, and it being a place where I keep all my own, I will not be accountable, for the future, for any escapes of any kind from my establishment. HOPE H. SLATTER.

CASH FOR NEGROES. ITTIE Subscriber is authorized to purchase, for gentlemen of the Bouth, a number of Negroes of both sexes.
