CONSUMPTION.

☞ Consumption, that fell Destroyer! More Proofs of the efficacy of Doctor SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY, in relieving afflicted Man. To Dr. SWAYNE.

Dear Sir—The time has been, when I would not recommend a medicine advertised in the public prints over my own signature; I now feel different—I feel it my duty to inform the afflicted where they may find relief. I was reduced, by a protracted COUGH for six months, to a mere skeleton; no rest at night; soreness and pain in my breast, side, &c. Suffice it to say, I used your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, which in a few weeks relieved me effectually. I am certain, had it not been for your medicine (as life frequently depends on early attention to proper medicines,) I should now be in the silent grave. Let no person delay, but procure your Syrup and be relieved of their COUGHS and COLDS, as they are dangerous companions, and often lead to dangerous consequences

Your friend, ABRAHAM SKINNER,
Crawford county, Pa.

A Beautiful and Suitable Present for Ladies.

THE LADY'S BOOK. We have scarcely penned a paragraph of praise to this paragon of periodicals, and another deserving still more is required. People may talk of puffing as much as they please, but we can say to the most heretical, let him but see the beautiful engraving prepared by Godey for the January number of his Lady's Book, and if he does not say that it surpasses exceilence, then are we willing to knock under. The plate is called "Neapolitan Peasants going to the Festa of the Pic di Grotta," and a more life-like piece of art it has never been our fortune to see. There you have, as natural as life itself, a group of half a dozen peasants, on their way to the city, each carrying the fruits of their industry. In the fore ground are a small boy and girl, bearing on their shoulders a pole, on which are slung all sorts of viands; then comes a good looking matron, carrying on her head a basket, and holding by the hand a chubby-looking girl, who, like the rest, is carrying a bunch of grapes; and behind comes three or four others, following in the trail, while in the distance are several busily employed in preparing articles for market. Altogether, it is one of the very handsomest things ever gotten up for a periodical of any country, and is alone worth twice the subscription price to the Book. Subscriptions received at VALLIER'S FRENCH PILL, FOR THE CURE OF SECRET DISEASES. One box of these inestimable Pills is worth all the Quack Medicines in the world.

CAUTION. If we examine the nature of the above diseases, and the situation of the parts affected, we must consider it a very important object to be able to obtain a remedy at once certain in its action, and at the same time composed of such ingredients as will prevent the possibility of discovery while using it. It is a fact well known to many, that most of the remedies offered for these diseases are composed of such nauseous drugs, as to render it almost impossible to continue their use without creating a sickness at the stomach or other unpleasant consequences. Such being the case there can be no doubt but such a remedy as Vallier's French Pills, will meet the universal approbation, being entirely free from those objections; pleasant in their operation, and prompt in removing the disease. The proprietor would here remark, that the efficacy of these Pills in the disorders alluded to, are not based upon supposition; on the contrary, it is founded upon rational experience, having used them in a successful practice for upwards of two years, he feels confident of their superiority over the remedies hitherto employed.

Opinion of the New York Press:

We have been favored with a copy of a steel engraving of the Light House near Caldwell's Landing, intended to illustrate the January number of the Ladies' Companion, published by Mr. Snowden, 109 Fulton-st. It is indeed a fine specimen of the art, and reflects no ordinary credit upon the enterprize of the conductor of that Magazine. The number will contain articles from the following writers:

Mrs. Lydia H. Sigourney, Mrs. E. F. Ellet, Mrs. Annan, Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, Mrs. Frances L. Oswood, Mrs. E. R. Steele, Mrs. Caroline Orne; Professors Longfellow & Ingraham; Mr. H. Herbert, Francis W. Thoman, Greenville Mellen; Rev. J. H. Clinch; Mr. Rufus Dawes, Wm. Gilmore Simms, Epes Sargent, Park Benjamin, George P. Morris, Robert Hamilton, C. F. Daniels, H. T. Tuckerman, Henry B. Hunt, (of Philadelphia,) Wm. G. Howard, (of Ohio); Mrs. E. C. Embury; Mrs. Hofland, (of London,) and many others. Also, an original piece of Music, composed by J. G. Meder, expressly for the occasion ja5

HANCE'S Compound Syrup of Horehound.

CERTIFICATE. Mrs. WILLIAMS, of Petersburg, Va. caught a very severe cold last fall, and thinking it would wear off in the course of time itself, neglected it to a very great extent. Finding, however, it did not leave her, she then tried various remedies, some of which subdued the cough in a measure, but none effectually cured it.

About a month ago, her husband thought she had better try a change of air, so she came to Baltimore, where she first became acquainted with the COMPOUND SYRUP OF HOREHOUND—the first bottle produced such relief, that before she had finished it she determined to purchase two bottles and return home. Price 56 cents per bottle.
