

FRIDAY MORNING, FEB. 6, 1841.

[O-Some of our carriers have requested us to hint to their subscribers the absolute necessity of promptly paying them for the paper at the stipulated time. They are obliged to pay the proprietors cash-and they must have the cash to do demand is only six and a quarter cents.

BRITISH AGURESSION*. Most of the civilized ... nations of the world have admitted the justice and humanity of abolishing the slave trade; and to carry into effect this philmthropic sentiment, certain powers are receptory given to search, . and, if circumstances and in for adjudiscation such vessels ing disrespect. The frequent repetition of this conduct forbids the inference that it is the mowould not be permitted to pass unchastised.

lence before their eyes, our members of Congress continue to sleep on in security-er, when they time. As long as members receive eight dellars | tion. per day for abu-ing public confidence, we may expect to have long sessions with little done.

Representatives for several sessions have been the ladies must still kiss their hands to the mem- isight. unworthy and degrading; and, unless some me- | bers of the legislature for the privilege of exchanthod be adopted to abate the evil, we may antici- | ging | husbands until they get one to their liking. pate its increase. In the first place, the people | We are sorry for this, as we wish to see our legisshould be more particular in their selection of lators differently employed. members. Empty headed babblers should be displacted and business men substituted; but this will hardly be done so long as attachment to party forms the only criterion of merit.

"Crook the pregnant hinges of the knee Where the 1st may follow fawning."

ers so as to get a shake of the old hero's hand; but no matter-we had rather not present him our palm, than to ask him to grease it.

In Washington city preparations are also going forward to receive general Harrison with becoming respect; and we heard some time ago, that he had been invited by Mr. Van Buren to on the authorities of New York not only to order take up his residence in the white house. We his release, but to protect him four injury. hope this may prove true-for, although rival candidates, we cannot see why they should deny | Philadelphia paper which contains the following themselves the social intercourse and friendly particulars: feeling of American citizens and gentlemen .--Pigmy politicians may intermingle personal with slip from the office of the Rochester Democrat, political feeling, but exalted minds should despise | containing the following particulars co-dirming the the littleness.

Annual Report of the Geologist of Ma-MYLAND. A copy of this work has been laid on the following letter from his friend, a respectable our table, but we have not had time to give much | gentleman of Lockport, which he has obligingly attention to its contents. The examinations for can only be conjectured. the year have been confined to Alleghany, Washcontains a geological profile of the Cumberland bail this afternoon, and Capt. Wm. Buel had beand National Roads, and a sectional profile of the come bail. Ore Beds worked at Lonsconing.

A. Howard, was of Col. John Howard of Mobile, Jail died in that city on the 24th ult. from wounds while 40 or 50 guarded the door below, some with amount of $5000. This will not cover the loss and he appears likely to speak for an hour longer. received by the accidental discharge of a gun.

cations made by some of the stockholders of this lowed to see the Sheriff or any one clae. institution, it appears to be their determination to effect a change is the direction of the bank so as to have a thorough overhauling of its concerns. There can be so them in that, for, if its affairs much against him if he does not do so. have been judicionaly managed, (about which we know nothing,) scrutiny need not be scared. We private damages, &c., should the authorities inthink that the stockholders of every bank would do sist on his liberation. The excitement is very well to change the directors occasionally; it would | great. Brotherson signed the bail bond wit make men more diligent and vigilant in the discharge of their duties, if they knew that they Bowen for admitting him to bail, and also at the arexpense and loss of time. were to have successors who would detect and bail. If they let him go, I mistake the men it. "Call to-morrow" sounds harsh when the expose neglect. In some, probably most of the left at the court house. banks, so many of the directors go out annually by the charter-but this is so adroitly managed that the same active members of the board are continued in office. Those designed to be removed are taken from the country, and changed to my, will remain at the jail till morning. suit the occasion; and thus the control of the bank is left in the same hands.

suspected of being generally chosen by the presidents or cashiers, to von. What must have been McLeod's feelings, him. engaged in this later thank. This authority, whom proxies are given. A motion to abolish fed for legitimate purposes this practice, (by abolishing proxy votes,) has been much abused by been introduced into the legislature of Maryland, the cruit pass. There have been great only seized. Merican vessels without sufficient errors in our banking system-at least in the pretext, buffred the occasion to treat American practical execution of the system, which should citizens and the national flag with the most insult- be rectified, if necessary, by the legislature. In mentary ebullitien of passion, or that it arises the exclusion of business paper of undoubted sefrom the domineering disposition of certain Bri- curity. A bank so administered is not only preif it go unreproved by the British government, those of the community, for it encourages a spirit the consequences may be easily forescen: there of monopoly and speculation to the injury of the ceded by a systematic course of insult and aggres- ful, they pocket the profits-if ruined, stockhold. mob. sion by the British cruizers, the efficers of which, ers and the community suffer. In no event can claiming the right to search our vessels for En- they sustain injury-they are not even disgraced glish subjects, seldom failed to exercise their by the failure of their schemes-for, unfortunately John Braham and Charles E. Horn, will visit power in the mest arbitrary and disgraceful man- the moral feeling has changed with the times, this city in a few days for the purpose of giving a ner. The experience of that war should have and words bear not the same signification as furtaught them, however, that future transgressions merly. It is as difficult to punish great offenders as for little ones to escape. Old fashioned hones-With these repeated instances of British inso- ty is outfaced by modern impudence.

RAIL ROAD NOTES. The city councils having awake, it is only to seize each other by the unanimously resolved that these notes shall be rethroat for some political difference. They can ceived in payment of taxes, the people await, with purposely or ignorantly close their eyes to coming | them. They wish to see whether there is a desire events, and consequently fail to make the neces. | on the part of any bank to discredit these issues and sary preparations to meet them. Like dogs compel them to be stocked to the public injury; wrangling over a worthless careass, they are because it is justly supposed, that the banks have fighting over an empty treasury, instead of com- as much right to confide in the faith of the people, bining in their efforts to replenish it. Their pa- | as the latter have in that of the banks. The bank, triotism is dead, or they would not look without | therefore, which refuses to take the people's notes, emotion upon the national flag trailed in the dust. | must expect to redeem its own. If necessary to We can scarcely repress our indignation within attain the object in view, there will be such a the limits of moderation, when we see the insen- | movement in the business as cannot be mistaken. the interests of the country. What have they have the rail road notes continued in circulation, Money must be had-steam frigates should be the notes of any bank in the state. With this gratification of the public. built-our scaports put in a state of security-but, | feeling and this conviction they ask the co-operaalas, these objects are insignificant when com- | tion of the banks-if it be denied, the responsibipared with the more important matter of deliver. | lity will be taken with a knowledge of the coning a scurrilous political harrangue for the twelfib sequences. We shall pause for the determina-

Divorces. The house of delegates has rejected the senate bill giving the chancellor and coun-We say that the proceedings of the House of ty courts jurisdiction in cases of disorce, so that

McLeon. From appearances this man stands in a critical situation. After having been released from prison on bail, he was seized by a large body of armed men and reconducted to jail, with RECEPTION. The preparatory bustle for the the view, as it is alleged, of affording the owner reception of the president elect has commenced, of the Caroline the opportunity to proceed against and a day or two more will present him in our him for the destruction of that vessel. This is midst. He ought to receive a hearty, republican | decidedly wrong. Whatever may be the indigwelcome, and we trust that it will be given: but | nation at the outrage supposed to have been comlet us have no Deilication from sycophants, who | mitted by this man, violence should not be resorted to. He has given bail in compliance with the requirements of law, and is as much entitled to And above all, let him be fairly decked in his have his person protected from assault as any high honors before the mail bags are emptied at other individual. His being a foreigner and a his feet. We know that it will be difficult for a supposed transgressor of our laws, cannot diminish plain citizen to penetrate the mass of office-seek- his claim to be dealt with according to law-his h illegal arrest, therefore, by armed men is to be severely condemned. It has been intimated that he shall be punished in a summary manner-that is, by Lynch law; but we hope this abominable mode of proceeding will not be tolerated. As he is now illegally confined, we think it incombent

After the above was in type we received a

THE McLEOD AFFAIR. We have received a account of the outrage at Lockport: McLeod Bailed .-- Popular Commotion at Lockport!- A gentleman of this city has just received

Lockport, Thursday, 12 o'clock, night.-I have ington and Frederick counties, which contain im- | just returned from the court house and jail, where mense mineral resources, which are treated of, as there is, or was a short time since, assembled 250 or 300 citizens, who say McLeod shall not be libwell as their agricultural condition. The report crated, although Judge Bowen admitted him to

The Judge gave the order to his (McLeod's). attorney about 7 this evening, and in 40 minutes | tronage. FATAL ACCIDENT. Toung man named Wm. 200 men were in and about the court house and muskets; while the drums and bagles outside must | by any means.

WESTERN BANK OF BALTIMORE. By publi- have made McLood feel gloomy.-He was not al-

A committee was appointed to see Judge Bowen and ask him to surrender him, or rather withdraw his name from the bond. The committee saving them expense, we will state that the had not returned when I left. I fear it will be State's Attorney gave notice that he intended

A messenger has gone to Buffalo, that the owner of the Caroline may be here to prosecute for each and every witness who had been regularly

Most of our best citizens are indignant at Judge

Half-past 12 .- I am going to the jail again. Two o'clock, morning .- I found Indge Bowen I] addressing the meeting, and attempting to exonerate himself. Beel did not arrive, but I understand he will surrender him in the morning, to which time the meeting Mjourned, although ma-

. The cannon was brought in the front of the he could not obtain a fair and impartial trial in vana about 25th ut. with house about 12 o'clock, and commenced Tring, and made the glass fly in the court house, Heretosore the directors of our banks have been to the amusement of the Patriots, I will assure not knowing what was going on during the seven was much to be pitied, if innocent. A more involent spirit than that manifested by matters. He plead guilty. the mcb, in the proceedings above detailed, we themselves against the laws, and demanding of a public officer, sworn to see them faithfully executed, that he should reverse a decision he had some banks, as we have heard, the directors and I made; and, for fear of their vengeance, send a special favorites monopolize the whole funds, to prisoner whem he had released back to confine. ment. The conduct of the Judge was precisely such as tended to encourage the spirit of disorder and violence; instead of asserting the majesty of tish officers. But, viewed in its mildest aspect, judicial to the interests of stockholders, but to the laws, and his determination to support it at the Jailor. all hazards, he is found truckling to their inso-Hence and expnerating himself for the act he had done. Such an imbecile magistrate is unworthy will be collision and bloodshed; and then the fair trader. Men thus linked together, having to be entrusted with authority, and his criminal postponed. quarrel will become national. The last war be- the use of other people's money, are playing the weakness almost as much deserves punishment as tween England and the United States was pre- game "heads I win-tails you lose." If success- the daring and high-handed proceedings of the

REUS ABOUT TOWN. BRAHAN & HORN. The joint composers of the granted. "Devil's Bridge" and other old English operas, series of cencerts. Both gentlemen have for mamy years enjoyed a reputation which seems not to fade although they are in "the scar and yellow. leas." Mr. Braham's concerts in this country, in the jail. thus far, if we are to believe the papers, have been highly successful, though his theatrical performances have proved abortive. He has pleased rant upon indifferent subjects and spend whole some little impatience, the final determination of the Bostonians, particularly in Sacred music, and days in the discussion of paints of order-but they | those banks which have not consented to receive | they, in all probability, possess more critical acumen in musical affairs than any community in this pretty evident she had not been inappropriately country. If it were possible, hundreds besides ourselves would be pleased to hear of an arrangement between this celebrated vocalist and the Musical Association of this city. The oraterio of "David," we understand, is now under rehearsal by the Association; why not engage Braham street, was entered a few nights since, and six and insure us a rich treat? It is our opinion that cloaks, together with the same number of bonthe receipts would justify the additional expense, I nets, as well as some other articles, were stolen. and from our personal knowledge of the public- | The property had been left in the passage. The sibility of members of Congress to the honor and We know that the citizens of Baltimore desire to spirited officers of the Association, we have read thief has not yet been caught. son for believing that they would even run the WATCH RETURNS. Eastern District, Feb. 4. Company's SMALL NOTES-Virginia. North Caro-Alone? What will they do? Nothing-nothing, and that they consider them at least as good as risk of a sacrifice if they knew it was for the Henry Duesman, being drunk and disorderly, was ther permitting," the earth will blacken the face | of the moon, and if any of the good people of this

h. m. s. The eclipse will begin at be total at The moon will begin to re-appear at 9 The celipse will end EXCHANGE HOTEL. An additional wing has recently been added to this extensive establishment, and it has now assumed the form of the letter H, as was originally contemplated. The addition has been erected on Se and street. The American of yesterday morning notices another improvement—the apartment lately eccupied by the Merchants' Reading Room has been added to the hotel, and is now used as the public dining room, for which purpose it has been apprepriately fitted up, and adds greatly to the comfort and convenience of the guests of the establishment, which now presents more than ordinary inducements to travellers.

े शुद्ध-We feel a strong desire to puff Pease's Candy, and shall do it whenever it cures the influenza which is now racking our brains and causing some allusions to Mr. 3Vise, as the assumed leadus to cough ourselves inside out. Pease's Candy er of the House in the coming administration .is a wonderful affair, if we are to believe what Mr A. then adverted to the duelling law, and to ciety, are requested to attend the meeting on Monday the papers say, which we don't intend to do.—If the views of Mr. Wise on that subject. He then you have no fuel, put it into a cold stove, and it will be cured instanter. At the North they are as a reason why he, Mr. A., could not submit to using it for the purpose of breaking up the rivers and canals; and it is said that whenever lovers find their mistresser cold hearted, they give them a dose and its O. K.

zens see bank presidents and bank directors quarrelling in the public streets, shaking their fists in | tears over him. He could not be led by any man each others' faces, and calling hard names, they are very apt to think that "there is something keep cool, or you will most assuredly expose yourselves-if you stir the dull ashes, the embers beneath will blaze out.

the advertisement of C. T. Hinckley, a young | would correspond with his words. artiste who has recently located himself in our | During the debate, the affair between Messrs. immediate neighborhood. We have seen a num- W. C. Johnson and Duncan was brought up. ber of his specimens of wood engraving, and they do him infinite credit. He is a Baltimorean, and the exception of Messes. Duncan and Adams, no as such, we trust he will receive a portion of pa- | man in the House, whether Whig or not Whig,

(2)-There was, we understand, an insurance on | to him, without being called to account. the property of Joseph Share & Sons to the Mr. Adams then went on with his remarks,

CITY COURT, Feb. 4, 1841 .- Present, Judges Brice, Worthington and Nesbit. For the information of witnesses, as well as for the purpose of having attachments immediately issued against summoned to attend the court, if absent when his or her name was called to give testimony in the case pending. We hope that this rule will be enforced. It will prevent much trouble as wel

State vs. George Turner, who was indicted for stealing an overcoat from Jonathan Young. The prisoner confessed himself guilty of the offence.

A fellow named George Cordery was brought before court upon the charge of having stolen from John W. Croney money and brots to the amount of $250. The prisoner made affidavit that this court, and asked liberty to remove his trial to Harford county, which liberty was granted

John Spicer was arraigued at the bar, indicted hours the court house was full? I must say he for stealing two pair of shoes and some other small

John Fields, a colored man, was put upon trial, have seldom heard of. A band of men arming | charged with stealing two boxes of raisins, the | There will be a meeting of the Fourth Ward Tippecaproperty of Mr. D. Thomas. The jury pronounced the prisoner guilty.

> Thomas Tilman, another colored man, was put upon trial, charged with stealing an amount of money from Mr. Maulsby. Not being ready for every Whig of the Ward will attend Ry order, trial the prisoner was remanded to the custody of > John Williams, alias Lucky Wood, was brought] up, charged with stealing a horse, but his trial was rangements for the reception of Gen. HARRI-OK.

Also, Charles Norris, for stealing a saddle from Jacob Taylor. His counsel, F. Lovegrove, Esq. asked for a postponement of his trial, which was

State vs. John Watson, negro, who was indicted for stealing a pair of boots from Mr. John O'Harra. On this charge the prisoner was cleared. He was also tried for an assault and battery on Miss O'Harra, who it was proven be had knocked down on the street. For this the prisoner was sentenced to one day's imprisonment Harriet Robwell, alias Dempsey, yellow girl, was placed upon trial, charged with stealing a tion, will take place in the Fell's Point Institute. (lower piece of calico from a gentleman in Marsh Market space. The jury found her guilty, as it was "The Bee." Tickets for the season, admitting two named. She was up to her profession, and did be had on application to rob well.

At the close of this case, the court adjourned until tó-morrow at 10 o'clock.

ROBBERY. The house of Mr. Placide, in Pratt locked up. Negro Bob Guise was charged with THE ECLIPSE. This evening, "wind and wea. | drawing a sword upon another negro. Michael Beatty was arrested for riotous conduct.

Middle District. John F. Segan was arrested, city intend using burnt glasses, let those who charged with breaking the windows of Henry for the purpose of orginizing a Jenior Temperance have long noses take care that they do not eclipse | Rabernager. Released. Eliza Jane Skinner, the tip with lamp-black. The moon is now in John Jury, Conrad Hunterman, Henry Bowling under twenty one years of age, are respectful y lowked her full, and should there be a clear sky, the Lewis Whitelock, Richard Blake, Ann Blake, to attend. veiling of "chaste Luna" will be a beautiful Bob Chew, and Bob Williams, negroes, were all brought in by the police and left for their dispo-

> Western District. John Morehaad, Jacob Eckel, Clem Waters, John Cook and his wife Susan were arrested for disturbing the peace.

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Clipper.] Washington, Feb. 4, 1841.

the treasury note bill was again taken up in committee of the whele. Mr. Shepard, of N. C., having the floor, spoke for some time in defence of the En, and in answer to the arguments in favor of a direct loan. Mr. Garland, of Virginia, followed, and launch

Mr. Adams followed, and expressed himself in all Brethren friendly to the cause are respectfully infavor of the bill, b cause he considered the honor of the nation ought to be maintained by the payment of its just debts. In the course of his remarks, Mr. A. made EVENING, in Mr John NEELY's School Foom, cor-assigned the opinions of Mr. Wise on that subject act under such a leader.

A long and unpleasant altercation arose between these gentlemen, which my limits will not permit me to give. Mr. Adams said he could never attend. KESP COOL. When calm and reflecting citi- submit to the lead of any man who would shoot his fellow man through the heart, and then shed who thirsted for blood.

Mr. Wise said if the gentleman referred to rotten in the state of Denmark." Gentlemen, him, he took the epportunity to say that he abhorred duelling, and considered a professed duellist as one of the most despicable characters in | 75 numbers-12 drawn ballitie. existence.

Wood Engraving. We refer the regier to Mr. Adams hoped the gentleman's actions

Mr. Johnson took the occasion to say, that with should make any improper or indelicate allusion

Mr. Wise will of course reply.

MARRIED. At Philadelphia, on Wednesday marning. 3d inst. by the Rev. Mr. Udenbeimer. ALEXARBER WALKER, of Baltimore, to ARRE C. LEMMAR, daughter of Wm. E.

DIED. On the 25th ult. after a sh rt illness of consumption. ECREET Hours z, in the 19th year of his age. On Wednesday, 3d inst Anna Jenuins, relict of the tate Edward Jenkins, in the 55th year of the rage. At Washington, on the 2d inst Mr. PRANCIS C. DYER.

in the 40-h y- ar of his age. MARINE LIST-PORT OF HALTIMORE.

CLEARED. Echt Hope, Galt, Havang.

Echr Bon Juan, Pepper, New York. Bear Henrietta, Tode, Norfolk and Petersburg. "

Fehr Naumkese, Cole, Il days from Cape Haytien, coffer, kides, logwood and mabbyany. The Naguiters has made the vuyage out and back in 38 days. Batten-Bergie John A. Robb, Walker, Rio; beige Montezama, Kally, do.; Margaret, Buikh, Matsazzs. MEMORANDA.

Brig Neptune, Moore, for Baltimore, sailed from Ha-Brig Ogletton p. Sanner, of Baltimore, arrived at Havana from Bavannah lett uit. Brig Angola, Binney, of Bultimore, from Bordenun, arrived at Charleston 20th ult. Brig Eleanor, Jones, for Baltimore, and softe F. A. Tupper, Morgan, for Havana, cl'd at Pavann, h 30th ult. Schr W. A. Calew. H. Huches, for Bal imore, went to sea from Pavanrah Sist ujt.

FOURTH WARD WHOS. 90-ATTENTION. TIPPECAPOR CLES, No. 4. noe Club, and the Whige generally of the Ward, on THIS (Friday) EVENING, 5th instant, at 7 o'clock, at the House of Mr. Daniel Sterver, corner of Hill m and Potter streets, for the purpose of making the necessary arrangements for the reception of Gen. Win-Henry Hair son, the President elect. It is hoped that JOSEPH C. BOYD, Pec. Sec.

FIFTH WARD. M3-TIPPECANOR CLUB. Meet at Coath & Sargrant's THIS EVENING, at 7 o'clock, to make ar-JOHN HENDERSON, Prest.

EIGHTH WARD. 0G-TIPPECANOE CLUB. An adjourned meeting of this Club will be held at Gid. Brown's THIA (Friday) LVENING, at 70'clock. Members will please be punctual in their attendance, as arrangements will, just be made to receive the President elect, and to receive the banner from the ladies of the ward. Br order. THOS. W JAY. V. Priet. -

ELEVENTH WARD. 0G-TIPPECANOE CLUB. The Fleventh Ward Tippecanos Club will meet at Goddard's Tarers, 7 H18 RVENING, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of making the necessary arrangements for the reception of General J K. STAPLETON, Prept.

DEPTFORD LIBRARY ASSOCIATION. 00-The First Regular Lecture before this Associamom) Ann street, on MONDAY EVENING NEXT, 8th inct. Lecture by Rev. J. G. Mozzis. Pubjectladies and one gentleman, $1. Tickets for a single lecture, admitting a gentleman and lady, 25 cents—can James Hoopen, E-q. No. 112 Baltimore street.

Gen. Robert Durior, Bond street. Capt. WILLIAM WALLACE, Prait street. Cipt. John Button, E. Baltimore near Caroline st. JOHN W. WILLIAMS, at T. Monmonier's, Wilk at.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION 23-Dr. AIKEN'S Lecture, postponed from lact week, will be delivered THIS EVENING, 5th Febry, at half past 7 o'clock. Eubject-"The Philosophy of the Ancients, as applicable to modern pursuits." fe5

JOSHUA M. HALL, Market st. (P.P.)

80-WANTED. Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road lina and Georgia BANK BILLS, at the lowest rates of E. W. ROMNSON. Exchange Broker, 80 Baltimore at.

TEMPERANCE NOTICE. OG-There will be a meeting on MATURDAY EVE-NINGNEXT, at 7 o'c'ock, at the Temperatice Hall, adjoining the Independent Er, ine House, Ensorstreet, Society, styled the "MARION JUNIOR," Anxillary, No I, to the Marion Total Abstinance. At persons, TEMPRICANCE NOTICE. 03-An adjourned meeting of the North Baltimore Total Abstin nea Society, will be held on MONDAY FVENING NEXT, 8th ingl. in the New School House, Exster street, near Pitt, & To'clock. Gentlemen desirous of joining, are respectfully requested to attend. NICHOLAS BREWER, Progr., Ww. Rondarys, Rec. Sec.

TEMPERANCE MEETING. 23- The Ba timere Female Temperance Association No. 1, will hold a Public Meeting on THIS EVEN-ING, 5th instant, at half past 6 o'ctock, in the Wilk-st. In the House of Representatives, this morning. Church The meeting will be addressed by Jour S. Tyrox, of the Baltimore Bar. 65-

TEMPERANCE NOTICE. 27-The members of the CHRYSTAL FOUNT Temperance society of Baltimore, are requested to meet at Union Hall, corner of Tripolett's alley and Baltimore storet, on FRIDAT EVENING 5 h inst. at 7 o'clock precisely. Punetual attendance of the members is requested, as business of importance will be ed into a long dessertation on the tariff and other | faid before the meeting. By order of the President, J. H. T. JEROME, Sec'y. As this Society is composed of Odd Fellows only,

> vited to attend. NOTICE. 20-Hereafter the Washington Temperance Society > with hold their regular meetings EVERY MONDAY ner of Lombard and Hanover streets, at half past six o'clock-er trains on Hannver street. N.B. Our fellow-citizens, desirous of joining the Soevening next. By order of the President, JOHN P. 11088, Secw.

> Washington Junior Temperance Society. 207-The members of this Society are requested to meet at Union Hall, corner of Market street and Tripoleti's alley, on SATURDAY EVENING NEXT, at 7 o'clock precisely. Young men, under the age of 21 vears, designing of joining this dociety, are invited to

> AVM GEORGE HECKROTTE, Sec. (23-Dr T. L. MURPHY has resumed the Practice > of Medicine. Office No 69 BOND STREET, a few doors S. of Allisanna street.

ROBINSON'S OFFICE, 80 BALTIMORE STREET, BRLOW FRANKLIN BANK. N BALTIMORE, THIS DAY, will be drawn the Consolidated Lottery of Maryland, class No. 3. RICH SCHEME: $10 000 | 10 Prizes of $1900 2 Prizes of

&c. &c. &c. Whole tickets $5-Halves $2.50-Quarters $1.25. For certificate of regular package of 23 wholes, $74.00 25 halves. 37.00

25 quarters, 18.50 BG-Orders from the country, invariably meet the most prompt attention, when addressed to E W. ROBINSON. 80 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md.

TTARD-WARE AND CLOTH PAPER. 100 Reams Ironmongers Paper Kentish Cap do. For sale by Cloth TURNER, WHEELWRIGHT & MUDGE,

No. 2 South Charles st.

the second of the second