FRIDAY MORNING, FEB. 12, 1841.

priety of making se more appropriations to the is the course dictated by common sense and the tent right of the "safety valve" invented by Ma- nal cases to adjoining counties, is lamentably imcanal under present circumstances. He states public interest—for, if the banks were compelled jor Raub. After some debate of a desultory cha- perfect. Every loafer and common secondrel althe cost already incurred in its construction to be to wind up their concerns under the law of last racter, the further consideration of the bill was most, who sees fit, upon being asked whether $10,000,000, and that $3,000,000 additional will year, it would be reinous to the community. postponed to Monday sext. of forty miles from its present termination. The litical capital might be made out of a clamor tion pending being on the amendment appropriat- here. We were forcibly struck with a case in Seances of the state are certainly at a low ebb, against the banks, neither party has embraced ing $100,000 for the benefit of such Indians in point which came up to-day. A colored girl, and we are indebted to a large amount—it may be well, therefore, for the legislature to passe before it incurs an additional responsibility of $3,000,000. An onerous tax must be imposed efft to result from the completion of the canal to after those in Philadelphia had suspended. Thus unconditional submission. He thought it beneath to a serious expense and loss of time, for the sole the people to discharge the interest upon been made to unite the work with the waters of and, instead of denouncing our banks for doing favor of the amendment, Mr. Thompson modified ride in the country. If an impartial trial cannot be Comberland would compensate for the expenses the Patapeco. Without this cross-cut it seems to us that the advantages of the canal would be confined almost exclusively to the District of Columbia and to a few counties of this state through ests of our city. complete the canal and make the cross-cut at the Philadelphia made the effort, in good faith, to amended, and the House having concurred in it, sion to remove a criminal case than the mere affisame time, we should be glad to see the works continue specie payments; but, from uncontrol- the bill was read a third time and passed. proceed; but, under present embarrassment, the able causes; those of the latter city were placed The House then went into committee of the solemnity of an oath about as much as an elephant policy of plunging further into debt, and increasing the burthens of the people, may well be doubted. We have too many heavy works on hand at the same time, and we must breathe over some of them unless we would exhaust our strength.-There is no work over which we can pause with greater propriety than the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, masmuch as it is likely to be the most unproductive until it can be extended to the city of that the suspension in Baltimore was called for etc. Baltimore. We are not hostile to the work-by by a prudent regard for the interests of the banks no means that the state should not venture be and of the community at large. youd its ability; and, as the canal has been abandoned to its fate by the general government, and appears the worst imaginable policy to starve one in the project, it is evident that Maryland alone is relied on for its completion. Before she is pledged to this, let us see that the bill now before congress, relinquishing the government (includlaw. This is just and reasonable.

private individuals, and no one can doubt the de- moss. cision. ... We should be glad to see the banks pay good to issues of one dollar and upwards. If we must have small notes, which we think ineritable, let them be of the best quality.

There are doubts of the constitutional power of sthe legislature to prohibit individual issues—and of the authority does not exist, their circulation can only be prevented by the action of the people. We believe that the resolution is general) not to tolerate individual shinplasters, and hence the demand for an emission of small notes from the rail road company.

went the possibility of having the electoral vote brothers. controlled by illegal voters, we would have the elections held on the same day in every state. We Forrest appears in his favorite character of Spardo not see that any valid objection can be urged tacus, in the Gladiator, to-night. Those who 8100 for his appearance at the City Court. against the passage of such a law by congress, for are food of the terrific will be gratified with the Poisoning. In the parish of St. Helena, Louelections in their utmost purity.

The legislature of Rhode Island has memorial. dued congress on this subject, and we hope that it will be acted upon, if not at the present session, dions of the Land Office.

PHILAPHIPHIA BAREL . The citizens of Philadelphia are acting pradently in regard to their Banking institutions. They now see and acknowledge the impropriety of the law which compelled the banks to ferume specie payments in an unprepared state; butthey most the evil comequences of that hav with the most praiseworthy spirit. This motion was withdrawn, and after some relastead of increasing emberrassments by ill-timed marks from Mr. Davis, the Senate went into am of no particular interest. Their trials being eiconsure, they have applied to the legislature to executive session. in yesterday's American over the signature of relieve the banks from their critical position by In the House of Representatives the first basi-"A Tax Payer," urges in strong terms the pro-This is not it party movement; for, however po- The pension bill was then taken up, the ques- giving as a reason that justice cannot be obtained premote the common good. We like this spirit, Mr. Davis, of Indians, having the floor, spoke wretch, was put upon trial, charged with stealing the opportunity, but have united their efforts to Florida as may surrender themselves.

could not, with safety, continue to pay specie hostilities until the Indians should be brought to Belle Air, thus putting both state and witnesses situated, we should endeavor to act with the the dignity of government to buy them out. same prodence which characterizes our neighbors; After some brief remarks from Mr. Briggs, in caping just punishment or perhaps of getting a what they could not prevent, and inflaming the it by prohibiting the farnishing of any arms, etc. given to such a creature in this court, where unminds of people against them, we should unite to the Indians until they should have arrived on der heaven can she get it? An innocent man will to sustain their credit, and to advance the inter- the western bank of the Mississippi river. The never shrink from justice, while the guilty inva-in the power of eastern brokers, who used their whole, and took up the bill making appropriation does the life of a grasshopper. advantage to crush them. Their notes were de- for the civil and diplomatic expenses of governhad no right to expect to escape the assaults of the House and Senate. Some astounding disclocombinations than those of Philadelphia, though, sures were made of imposition practised upon the making the requisite affidavit, was granted. It perhaps, to a less extent. We say, therefore, House, in relation to lithographing, coloring maps,

CORN LAWS OF ENGLAND. To our minds it by most of those who originally took an interest portion of the community that another may thrive; and yet such is the effects of the corn laws of England. No importation of bread stuffs is permitted unices wheat averages a price at which it cannot possibly be purchased by the laboring class of ing the District) subscription, be passed into a people. In a document quoted by the Philadelphia Inquirer it is stated, "that the weavers of SMALL NOTES. Mr. Graves has obtained leave | Glasgow, Norwich, Carlisle, and other places, to bring in a bill to prohibit the issue or cir- gain by the hardest and most continuous labor, the property holder looks for safety—should the culation of small notes within the state of Mary- only from seven to nine shillings per week, which land. This would seem to be a work of supereroga- is not enough to support their families. And yet, forbid that they should, how would the laws and tion so far as concerns the banks, a law being alrea. It is added, these very men must pay, in order to dy in existence prohibiting such issues by them; eat a morsel of bread, the sum of 26s. 8d. per nor do we know that they have asked for its re- quarter on wheat." This is a sad picture, but it ble portion of the community strong, and intimipeal. An act was passed during the present ses- affords but a faint idea of the distress which must dates the evil-disposed. The aspect of affairs resion authorising them to receive and pay out the exist in consequence of the great disproportion motes or orders of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail between the prices of labor and bread. It cannot Road Company below five dollars. Is it the de- | be surprising that, under such oppressive circumsign of Mr. Graves to repeal this act? He surely stances, there should be manifestations of disconcannot intend to annul an act that was demanded | tent and convulsion; indeed it would be marvelby the almost unanimous voice of his constituents. loss if it were otherwise, for we cannot conceive What then is his object? Perhaps he only de- of any situation more oppressive to the spirits, signs to prohibit the issue and circulation of notes and more likely to beget a recklessness of consefor the fractional parts of a dollar. If this be his quences, than to be unable, by the hardest labor, h intention, and he can draft a bill that will be ef- to afford food to those who are dependent upon sectual, we shall be content. But this is a matter | us for support. Various efforts have been made more easily suggested than accomplished. Were to procure a repeal or modification of the corn not all the recent shinplaster issues in direct vio- laws, but in vain-it is adhered to amidst the lation of law? and yet who was punished for the groans of an copressed people, and the cries of gransgression? Not an individual. And is it no starvation. It enables the wealthy landholder to likely that there will be imitators in defiance of "put money in his purse," though it is extorted any law which may be passed? If there be, thenf from the hard earnings of the poor, whom it sends the community will have to choose between the supperless to bed. Such are the blessings which small notes of the rail road company and those of result from being ruled by kings, lords and com-

THE RIGHT SPIRIT. It is stated that the pre- city. The sudden change from comparatively course of the Sun? Precisely what it is now out small change in specie; but if this cannot be, sident elect, General Harrison, visited Mr. Van mild weather to bitterly cold, caused noses in asserting, and repeating the assertion, "that there o'clock, for the purpose of attending the funeral of the Let us have no law which might confine the rail road to issues of one dollar and upwards. If we and was contially received. He accented an inand was cordially received. He accepted an in- joints and rheumatic twitches became suddenly what was the consequence? Why, this kind ef vitation to ding with the president yesterday, fashionable, and the keen Nor-wester had no clamor, together with party spirit mingling itself when a number of gentlemen of both parties were more mercy on us poor miserable sinners, than if with the question, (with which it had nothing to 43 BALTIMORE STREET, BALLIMORE. expected to be present. This is the right spirit, we had been withered blades of grass upon a do,) threw open the door to a flood of worthless and spirit, we had been withered blades of grass upon a do,) threw open the door to a flood of worthless and spirit, we had been withered blades of grass upon a do,) threw open the door to a flood of worthless and spirit, we had been withered blades of grass upon a do,) threw open the door to a flood of worthless and spirit, we had been withered blades of grass upon a do,) threw open the door to a flood of worthless and spirit, we had been withered blades of grass upon a do,) threw open the door to a flood of worthless and spirit, we had been withered blades of grass upon a do,) threw open the door to a flood of worthless and spirit, we had been withered blades of grass upon a do,) threw open the door to a flood of worthless and spirit, we had been withered blades of grass upon a do,) threw open the door to a flood of worthless and spirit, we had been withered blades of grass upon a do,) threw open the door to a flood of worthless and spirit, we had been withered blades of grass upon a do,) threw open the door to a flood of worthless and the door to a flood of worthless an and as long as it is preserved our country will be mountain heath. Our friends at a distance may ny an innocent and unwary sufferer—and no one FAHE UNPRECEDENTED LUCK which safe. How different is this from the intolerance depend on our giving them the earliest informa- appeared to be more horror struck at these things of minor partizant, who permit their political tion of the breaking up of winter in this quarter, than the editor of that paper, if we may judge differences to interfere with their social relations. at present we have nothing more to say on the We hope that this interchange of courtesy and subject. civility between the president and president elect may moderate party rancor, and teach men the dis-PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS. We should be tinction between political and personal hostilities glad to see uniformity in the time and mode of Mr. Van Buren and General Harrison, although electing the electors of president and vice-presi- opposing candidates, have met as gentlemen and dent of the United States established, but parti- patriots should meet; not with a scowl upon their cularly in the former. The elections should be countenances or a hand upon their daggers, but held on the same day throughout the whole on terms of amity and sociability; the one inviting, state, under the present system, influences that partake of hospitality. We heave men who can ted to jail by Justice Gorsuch. Jacob Foos was the losses which have been incurred by worthless. in another—but there is another and a greater thus act—who can thus rise above the narrow, brought in for being drunk and riotous. Otho issues, and in contempt of the city authorities, By way of commencement, I yesterday sold, in class evil which would be removed by designating the contracted sphere of party, and despise the little. Barron was admitted to lodgings, and in the morn- this editor persists in his attempt to defeat the No. 3. the splendid Prize of $1000-containing the same day for the choice of electors in each state; ness which would keep them aloof from each ing left for the police to send to the Alms-house. Strelly he does not want to show ticket will niesse call and sensite the manual control of the choice of electors in each state; ness which would keep them aloof from each ingleft for the police to send to the Alms-house. Strelly he does not want to show ticket will niesse call and sensite the manual control of the choice of electors in each state; ness which would keep them aloof from each ingleft for the police to send to the Alms-house. state to another. Whether this has been done ent sides. This is the spirit which should aniwe will not undertake to say-but it can be done, mate every man; and which, if more generally were placed on extra duty, at the 'Seminary.' we will not undertake to say—out it can be use, mate every man; and which, if more generally and has been charged by each party against the diffused, would soften party asperity, and make to take the diffused, would soften party asperity, and make to take to take about that matter—the public have been guiled long enough about yellow boys shinother. If then, for no other cause than to pre- our political disputes the friendly discussions of was on Wednesday arrested by officer Campbell, ing through their purses—they know at this time eharge of the custom house stores in New York, Mrs. West has since died from the effects of the have lately been arrested on a charge of purioin- poison, and a negro woman is not expected to eity-or the irresponsible issues of self constituting goods from the buildings under their care. recover. The object of the villain, who is said ed bankers, some of whom can hardly sign their By- We are indebted to the polite attention of two negroes immed Brown and Barly were takto be a connexion, was, that he might inherit the favor of the rail road, the arguments of the Sun of the Sourctary of the Treasury on the opera-The matter is now undergoing an investigation. jail.

Buren on Wednesday last, at the White House,

NATIONAL THEATRE, WARHINGTON. Mr. E. find acting too.

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Cupper.] WASHINGTON, Feb. 11, 1841. In the Schate, this morning, the consideration | prenounced by the court in the case motion of Mr. Hubbard to lay it on the table.— $5 and costs each in the two others.

amendment thus modified was agreed to.

MEWS ABOUT TOWN.

VOLUNTEER CORPS. A meeting of the officers | gine could not be found. of the Fifth Regiment Maryland Volunteers took place on Wednesday evening at the quarters of Col. Hickman, and a number of resolutions were passed which, it is to be hoped, will have a tendency to infuse a proper spirit into the other rewhich at one time placed our military on a footing assault and battery upon the person of John Wi- All nersons. with the best in the country. The fact is, there | nett. The particulars of the matter gave no ex- | will be required to have takets. Members can obtain is too much apathy existing among the young men of this city—they should remember that it is to the military, as well as the fire department, that scenes of 1834 be acted over again, and Heaven the people be protected? It is the consciousness with an assault upon the person of Jacob Keilholtz. EVERY TUESDAY EVENING, at 7 o'clock, until of an existing safe-guard that makes the peacea- The former was acquitted, and the latter fined further notice. By order, quires that every city should possess a sufficiency an assault made upon the person of Samuel Mer. NING, until further notice. of well drilled and disciplined corps—should there ritt. Eccleston, for this offence, was sentenced be an outbreak on the Canada frontier, a thing by no means improbable, our government must come | nal named Butler, for which, together with the in direct collision with that of Great Britain, and above offence, he was fined $50 and six months for the purpose of national desence, we have a imprisonment. slanding army of 6 or 7000! It is obvious that the militia will prove the almost entire dependance of the government, and even they will present a seeble resistance to the well-disciplined ing's Sun in relation to small notes is in perfect troops of England, if the corps are made up of raw harmony and strict consistency with the course of and inexperienced men. The officers of the Fifth Regiment, we understand, have formed themselves into a company, theory—and such a reckless contempt for public for the purpose of studying tactics practically .--This is right—and we now hope to see full ranks and well drilled companies.

made his appearance yesterday and placed his which the public had unlimited confidence, and icy signet on all the gutters and puddles of the which had served, during the former suspension, ket, to-morrow.

WATCH REPORTS. Fastern District, Feb. 10. 1

A clean bill of morality. Middle District-Godfrey Newbury was ar-) ner, a white woman. He was taken before Jus-it is an object of the first importance to preserve play; there are some fine scenes in it, and some islans, a secondrel, name not mentioned, lately metallic or a paper currency—no doubt if we had play; there are some fine scenes in it, and some attempted to poison a Mr. West and his whole our choice we would all prefer the former-but

CITY COURT, Feb. 11, 1841 .- Present, Judges Brice, Worthington and Nisbet. Bentence was of the bill establishing a general benkrupt law. Coyle, which we reported yesterday. The trawas resemed, the question pending being on the verser was fined $10 and écets in one case, and

A number of petty cases were brought up, but

We would merely remark that the law as it mond, do; schre J. Brown, Mayagues, P. E. A. S. about 16, a most miserable, filthy, idiotic looking and should be glad to see it adopted every where. at some length against the amendment. As the a few articles to the amount, probably, of 40 cents. The suspension in Baltimore was the inevitable war had hitherto been carried on by force of arms, On being asked if ready for trial, she answered consequence of that in Philadelphia: our banks he thought it the duty of government to continue no, and stated her intention to remove her case to The banks of Baltimore as well as those of The committee then rose, reported the bill as substantial reasons should be required for permis-charged with stealing. He could not speak the movement against them made. "There is no A long debate arose on the item appropriating English language. J. Storm, Esq. was called as (friendship in trade;" and the banks of Baltimore an extra $25,000 for the contingent expenses of interpreter. Through him he signified his desire this case was manifested the imperious necessity of having a German interpreter for our courts of justice, and a better one than Mr. Storm we ima-

William Downs was placed at the bar, indicted for stealing sundry tools, the property of F. Mitchell, butcher, from a stall in Lexington Market. The evidence not being sufficient, Downs was declared not guilty.

William Ives was arraigned, charged with an

by the state with stealing four bank notes, the property of William Harding. His case was re-

Assault and battery. William Gross, and a 103-The Regular Meetings of the Marien Total Abfellow named Eccleston, were brought up, charged stinence Society will be held at their Hall in Ensor-st. 820 and sentenced to three mouths imprisonment. Eccleston, in company with a person named Bender, were likewise tried and found guilty for to three months more imprisonment. Bender was also found guilty for an assault on an individ-

The court adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

For the Baltimore Clipper. SMALL NOTES. The article in yesterday mornthat paper for some years past, and evinces such a total ignorance of the best interests of this community-such an obstinate adherence to a favorite opinion, that it cannot be passed over in silence. When the suspension took place in October, 1839 and petitions from all quarters were presented to the City Council, praying that honorable 12 h inst at 12 o'clock, in St. John's Church, Liberty THE WEATHER. At it again! Old blue-nose body to issue small notes of the corporation, in succes, (Basement story.) as a wholesome currency, what then was the quested to meet at the Oliver Hibernian Free School

Ho talks now about "sub-treasuries." He had speculators—to favor us with their custom and we 80-Don't forget the fat mutton to be sold at the one of these himself—and when he wanted to submit to their attention the following Scheme stalls of Messrs. Thomas & Turner, Centre Mar. eary his point against the corporation notes, he his office. But how long did this sub-treasury hold out? Not one week-for a friend of mine $3000, 2000, 18581. 25 prizes of $1000, &c. (who took the Sun requested the collector that when he called the next Saturday for the week's | pay, to bring the change, (not in silver, but in rested on Wednesday night charged with assault- small notes,) and when he presented himself he ing and beating his wife; in the morning commit- had not as much, nor could not get it. And yet the losses which have been incurred by worthless Prize Selling Emporium of the Town Hall Lottery. had $100,000 of small change in his sub-treasury, and put it in circulation, it would find its way before forty-eight hours into the hands of the money-changers, and would be no permanent relief the City of Monuments.

to the community. The question is not whether we will have a

On Wednesday evening last, after a linguing illness, - hich he have with Christian fortitude and resignation. of Charles Mr. David Fowlan, in the 56th year of his age. 00- His friends and acquaintance are requested to attend his funeral this (Friday) marriag, at 9 o'clock, from his late residence, E. Balumore street, without further invitation. In Washington, on the 24 last. WILLIAM HENEY HARRISON, intent son of William and Charlotte Ann Knowles, seed five months and three cays. On Funday, 7th tast. in the 23d year of his age, Jours.

YDIND,

W. RAY, son of Richard D. Ray, of Talbot county. On the 6th inst. Atwitte Porter aged $ 1 cers and 4 months, daughter of Rubert and Mary Ann Porter.

MARINE LIST-PORT OF BALTIMORE. CLEARED. Echt Chief, Lambard, New York.

Rarque Allioth, Todd, Havana. Brig Alcentes, Skottield, King-ton, (Jam.) BELANW-A bergar and a brite. SAILEU-Barque Mary, New Orleans; brig B

vens, New York, Equator, Portsmouth, NH; Perd Putland, and others. Ship Alexander, Leeds, for Liverpool; brig Chathaus, Ryder, for Boston; und sehr Burbarn Fquires, for New York, from Baltimore, were in Hampton Boads oth. Brig Ariel, Greeg from Matanzas fur Baltimore, was in Hampton Roade Sib inst.—her ietters having reached.

the city via Old Point Comfort. gehr Cenelusion, Davison, for Baltimore, sailed fin Gloucester. (Mass.) 3d inst. Behr Charine, Freeman, from Providence for Baltimore, arrived at Newport 7th inst THEATRE-HOLLIDAY STREET.

BETERIT OF MR. LENNOX. AND LAST NIGHT OF THE SEASON. MONDAY EVENING, Petruary 15, 1811, Will be acted, Kotzbue's celebrated Play of

THE STRANGER. Mr. LENNOX. The Stranger, Baron, (first appearance since Mr. WAPD. his tate indisposition,) Mr. PERCIVAL. Francis, Mr. WILLIAMS, Peter,

From the New York The attes. Mrs. RICHARDSON. Mrs. Hallet, Song-"My Highland Home"-Captain ATKINSON, having kindly volunteered.

Bong-"Joy, Joy, Joy"-Mr. LENNOX. To conclude with the admired Scotch Drama of THE WARLOCK OF THE GLAN. OR, THE FRATRACIDE.

Andrew Mucklestane, a Scotch Mr. LENNOX. Pleberman, Mr. GEO. TEAL. Mathew of the Glen, Mr. PERCIVAL. Clantonald, Miss SHAW. Countess, 00-Come one, come all.

BALTIMORE LYCEUM. 00- At the request of a number of the members of the Lyceum, the Board of Curators have prevailed upon Mr. Pience to repeat his very interesting Lecture on "Electro Magnetiem," on THIS EVENING, 12th instant, as he intends sending the aparatus out of the city in a few days. In the course of the Lecture be will exhibit the model of a loct motive engine on a rail road, and propel it by the newly discovered power. After the delivery of the Lecture, the following query will be discussed: "Do Public Charities increase

All persons, for the future, visiting the Institution, Abraham Howard was put upon trial, charged timore street, and Isaac Candler, Fratt street, near Hanover. Price 25 centr-admitting a gentleman and a lady. Exercises commence at 7 o'clock precisely. O. S. CRAMPTON, Sec'y.

MARION Total Abstinence Society.

WM. T. PENTZ. Financial Sec'y, CHAS. W. PETHEL BRIDGE, Rec. Bec. N.B. The Junior Society will meet at the same place, at the rame bour, on every SATURDAY EVE-

NOTICE. 60-The following named gentlemen comprising the Committee appointed at the meeting of the Priends of Ireland to draft a Constitution and by laws for the Association contemplated, are requested to meet at Bayle's, Libert street, on THIS (Friday) EVENING, 19th instant, at 7 o'clock.

COMMITTEE: Samuel Moore, T. J. Abern, Chartes Boran Eugene II. Lynch, Wm. P. Preston, Richard Bradshaw, Z. Collins Lee. Dr. E. J. Chaisty, Lewis Holter, James Fortune, M. Duval, Dr. J E. Snodgrass.

James Kelly. PUBLIC MEETING. 00-The citizens of Baltimore, who desire the confirmation of an act, passed unanimously at the last General Assembly of Maryland, for the final suppression of the Lettery Bretem in this State, are earnestly requested to attend a meeting to be held THIS DAY, in the last two months, is a "new era" in the annals of the Lottery world-$15,000, $10,800, $6000, $5000, 848874-all sold since December, 1840. We therefore heartily recommend all buyers-all

HIBERNIAN SOCIETY. 00-The members of the Hibernian Society are re-Room, THIS (Friday) AFTER OON, 12th inst. at 2

H. DIFFENDERFFER & CO.

03- French, Italian, and India BILK GOODS, No WASHINGTON CITY, (D. C.)

FOR SATURDAY, Feb. 13, 1841. Fauquier and Alexandria Road Lottery, class No. 7, draws at Alexandria, Va. Capitals of $20,000, $5000

Whole Tickets $5 -- Halves $2.50 -- Quarters $1.25. 60- For which, apply to or address JAS. PHALEN & CO. Managers,

Penn. Avenue, near 41 street. PROCI.AMATION to ALL CREATION ET it be beneeforth known, that my Office, No-361 BALTIMORE STREET, will be the great expect to sell some of the following SPLENDID CAPITALS: 100 Prizes of $250 I Prize of 1,000 100 Prizes of 500

Tickets $5-shares in proportion. Recollect that procrastination is the (thisf) of time, so his all important that both country and city customers call early and select a prize, and thus lay a foundation for a forture, and assist in ruleing a monument to

OG-Don't forget to purchase at the Lucky Office of THOMAS R. ECOTT, Agent, No. 561 Baltimore street, near Gay. 00-The following are the drawn numbers of class 3: 9 7 2 9 4 0 3 8 5 0 5

NEW SPRING GOODS. TI DIFFERDERFFER & CO. have just DIFFEEDERFFER & CO. Mrs just French and English CHINTZES; new style embroidered MOUSELINE DE LAINF; some very superior quality Plain Measeline de Laince; Light Paris Kid GLOVES, best quality, &c. No. 43 Baltimorn street. I four doors above day street.