For the Baltimore Clipper. David Hoffman, Esq. deligered before the Ellicotts' Mills' Lyccum on Tuesday evening a lectude on the "Destruction of Jerusalets, at seen by an eye witness." The subject in itself is a thrilling one, and as handled by the leaturer was readered interesting in the highest degree. description of Jerusalem, her walls, her glorious semple, the awful state of anarchy within and Roman discipline and valor without, with all the horrors of war, pestilence and lamine was graphic 27 d. Lineary street, near Louisard of. ... 423-7 beyond description. The affecting story of Mary of Perca drew tears from the eyes of many of the audience. The prophecies foretelling the downfall of the boly city were brought forth with so lemn effect, and their sulfilment painted to the eye of the mind with startling fidelity. The falling of walls and towers, the firing of the immense and splendid temple, the heroism of the priests upon her temple walls, and the final and overwhelming ruin of Jerusalem were depicted in a manner truly sublime and worthy of the subject. A description of the double triumph of Vespasian and Titus, father and son, the like of which Rome before nor the world since never maw, closed the splendid lecture. It lasted the mansual length of two hours, and yet the interest was unabated, and intense to the close. Upon the whole, considering the subject and the manner in which it was handled, this lecture has not been and cannot be surpassed. "AN EYE WITHESS."

I We are informed that the lecture of Mr. Hoffman gave the greatest satisfaction to the members of the Lyccum and the large audience present.]

For the Baltimore Clipper. The weather continues unsettled. In my recent peregrination due east, I was induced by a spirit of respect for the memories of the dead, to visit the celebrated spot called "Holts Cemetry. or city of the dead." On entering this sacred spot where lie the remains of some of our most distinguished public men, I was led to exclaim, "love not the world, neither the things that are in the world, for the day is not far distant when the dead."

The question for discussion is, "Was the Roman Conquest justifiable?" On the last evening, Mr. Allen opened the debate tolerably. If this member would pay more attention to Murray, and use less vehemence, I may safely say that, in these inestimable Pills is worth all the Quack Medicines on any which may have been already delivered, and II Printing PAPER time, he would make a popular orator.
