TO THE FRIENDS OF TEMPERANCE.

☞ We, the undersigned, have been appointed a Committee by the Washington Temperance Society of Baltimore, to make arrangements to celebrate the First Anniversary of said Society, to take place in Baltimore on MONDAY, the 5th April ensuing.

We expect on that day to give the death blow to Intemperance in the city of Baltimore, and we cordially invite all Temperance Societies and Temperance men throughout the United States, to participate with us on that occasion.

Then we say, come one, come all, and assist us to raise high the Banner of Temperance, and wipe the foul blot of Intemperance from our beloved country.

COMMUNICATION.

☞ How do you do, Miss A? said Miss B to a handsome young lady she met on Baltimore street the other day, as she was returning from visiting Gen. Harrison. La Ma, what a beautiful pair of SHOES Miss A. has on, they fit her delicate foot so nice! Where did you buy them Miss A. they seem to suit your foot so well, and set off its symmetry so finely? I purchased them of WM. H. BANGS—there is his Store, No. 72½ Baltimore street—his charge was only $1. fe10-eo2w

A New Supply of the PICTORIAL BIBLE!

TO BE READ. 200 Pictorial Illustrations of the Bible, and Views in the Holy Land—The Cheapest and best book (for the price) ever published, 400 pp 8vo. fine paper, handsomely bound, in gilt, muslin and lettered. Fourth edition. Price $2. Numerous testimonials, like the following, can be produced:

[From the Rev. W. G. MILLER, formerly of New York city, dated]

Parsonage, Essex, Conn., Feb. 1st, 1841.

Mr. ROBERT SEARS—

Dear Sir—Your "Pictorial Illustration of the Bible," requires no extraneous testimony to its intrinsic worth, and beautiful mechanical execution:—the book speaks for itself. And consequently, it cannot fail, by its ingenious, copious, and beautiful illustrations of Natural History, Ancient Costume, and Antiquities, to prove a guide and help, of essential importance, to Christian families in general, and to Sunday-school scholars, and teachers in particular.

The rapid sale of the work—"of 6000 copies in eight weeks," sufficiently attests its great practical utility, and has earned for it a high reputation; this is the highest and best possible recommendation the work can receive. I am glad to hear that your laudable labors, ingenuity, and views are so extensively encouraged; that you are engaged in compiling "two more volumes, on the important and inexhaustible subject of Biblical Illustrations," and that you deem it important to the interests of religion, and the Church, that the eye of Christians should be directed to primitive times, and primitive Christianity. Yours, in haste,

W. GEO. MILLER.

HANCE'S Compound Syrup of Horehound.

CERTIFICATE. Mrs. WILLIAMS, of Petersburg, Va. caught a very severe cold last fall, and thinking it would wear off in the course of time itself, neglected it to a very great extent. Finding, however, it did not leave her, she then tried various remedies, some of which subdued the cough in a measure, but none effectually cured it.

About a month ago, her husband thought she had better try a change of air, so she came to Baltimore, where she first became acquainted with the COMPOUND SYRUP OF HOREHOUND—the first bottle produced such relief, that before she had finished it she determined to purchase two bottles and return home. Price 56 cents per bottle.

HALLO, YOU CHAP! Where did you buy them BOOTS? I see your feet appear to be dry and comfortable, though the day is snowy and bad—indeed my own Boots leak and are otherwise disagreeable, while yours appear so much to the contrary. Where did you buy them at. I must have a pair like them? I bought them of WILLIAM H. BANGS, on Baltimore street, No. 72½. His Boots are not only well made, but much cheaper than you can get them elsewhere. fe10 eo2w
