dence and anection which are the elective stant attention to its preservation. The oans boulds of union between free and confederated ger to all well established free governments may be effected by the means they have placed to the nation; and every man, of whatever party, James H. Carrer to Saran James, daughter of Jas. bouds of union between free and confederated ger to all well established use governments may be encored by the many not of who has a proper regard for the honor and in. Hepburn sq. On the 21st alt. be the Rev. Mr. Schriber, Mr. States. Strong as is the tie of interest, it has arises from the unwillingness of the people to in my hands. It is union that we want, not of who has a proper regard for the honor and in. On the 21st alt. be the Rev. Mr. Schriber, Mr. been often found ineffectual. Men, blinded by their passions, have been known to adopt by their passions are proper regard for the honor and in
The passions are proper regard for the honor and in
The passions are proper regard for the honor and in
The passions are proper regard for the honor and in
The passions are proper regard for the honor and in
The passions are proper regard for the honor and in
The passions are proper regard for the honor and in
The passions are proper regard for the honor and in
The passions are proper regard for the honor and in
The passions are proper regard for the honor and in
The passions are proper regard for the honor and in The passions are passions are proper reg measures for their country in direct opposition from the quarter whence it approaches, to a country—for the defence of its interests and its country—for the defence of its interests an to all the suggestions of policy. The alterna-source from which it can never com. This honor against foreign aggression, for the deto all the suggestions of folicy. The alternative then, is, to destroy or keep down a bad passion by creating and fostering a good one;
and this seems to be the corner stone upon
and this seems to be the corner stone upon
and this seems political architects have which our American political architects have against the influence of wealth and the danger | the influence that I possess, shall be exerted to reared the labric of our Government. The ce- of aristocracy. History, ancient and modern, prevent the formation, at least, of an Execument which was to bind it, and perpetuate its is full of such examples. Casar became the live party in the halisof the Legislative body. terday morning: existence, was the affectionate attachment be- master of the Roman people and the Senate I wish for the support of no member of that tween all its members. To insure the conti- under the pretence of supporting the democrase body to any measure of mine that does not muance of this feeling, produced at first by a tic claims of the former against the aristocracy satisfy his judgment and his sense of duty to gress of the United States expired, by the limicommunity of dangers, of sufferings and of in- of the latter; Cromwell, in the character of those from whom he holds his appointment; tation of the Constitution, last night; and the two terests, the advantages of cach were made ac- protector of the liberties of the people, became nor any confidence in advance from the Houses have adjourned sine die. cessible to all. No participation in any good, the dictator of England; and Bolivar possessed People, but that asked for by Mr. Jefferson, possessed by any member of an extensive con- himself of unlimited power, with the title of "to give firmness and effect to the legal adwithheld from the citizen of any other mem- trary, no single instance on record of an exber. By a process attended with no difficulty, tensive and well established republic being to my fellow citizens a profound reverence for changed into an aristocracy. The tendencies to my fellow citizens a profound reverence for changed into an aristocracy. citizen of one might become the citizen of any of all such governments in their decline is to the Christian Religion, and a thorough conother, and successively of the whole. The monarchy; and the antagonist principle to lilines, too, separating powers to be exercised by berty there is the spirit of faction-a spirit and a just sense of religious responsibility, are In general terms, it may be stated that all the seem to be so distinctly drawn as to leave no ple as the genuine spirit of freedom, and like blessed us by the gifts of civil and religious ple as the genuine spirit of freedom, and like blessed us by the gifts of civil and religious ple as the genuine spirit of freedom, and like blessed us by the gifts of civil and religious ple as the genuine spirit of freedom, and like blessed us by the gifts of civil and religious ple as the genuine spirit of freedom, and like blessed us by the gifts of civil and religious ple as the genuine spirit of freedom, and like blessed us by the gifts of civil and religious ple as the genuine spirit of freedom, and like blessed us by the gifts of civil and religious ple as the genuine spirit of freedom. the citizens of one State from those of another, which assumes the character, and, in times of essentially connected with all true and lasting annual appropriation bills were passed. So that each State unite in their persons all the privi-Leges which that character confers, and all that the Saviour, seeks to, and were it possible labors of our Fathers, and has hitherto prethey may claim as citizens of the United States; would, impose upon the true and most faithbut in no case can the same person, at the same ful disciples of liberty. It is in periods like cellence those of any other people, let us unite

ful disciples of liberty. It is in periods like cellence those of any other people, let us unite

eral welfare. time, act as the citizen of two separate States, this that it behooves the people to be most in fervently commending every interest of our and he is therefore positively mealeded from but that of which he is, for the time being, a citic difficulty in distinguishing the false from the that high office to which the partiality of my upon; and very few of those which laid over from the office to which the partiality of my upon; and very few of those which laid over from the office to which the partiality of my upon; and very few of those which laid over from the office to which the partiality of my upon; and very few of those which laid over from the office to which the partiality of my upon; and very few of those which laid over from the office to which the partiality of my upon; and very few of those which laid over from the office to which the partiality of my upon; and very few of those which laid over from the office to which the partiality of my upon; and very few of those which laid over from the office to which the partiality of my upon; and very few of those which laid over from the office to which the partiality of my upon; and very few of those which laid over from the office to which the partiality of my upon; and very few of those which laid over from the office to which the partiality of my upon; and very few of those which laid over from the office to which the partiality of my upon; and very few of those which laid over from the office to which the partiality of my upon; and very few of those which laid over from the office to which zen. He may indeed oner to the ciuzens of true spirit, a caim and dispassionate investiother States his advice as to their management, gation will detect the counterfeit as well by and the form in which it is tendered is left to the character of its operations, as the results you to your homes the remembrance of the ed into laws.

their alliance. And yet, for ages, neither has sively to matters connected with our domestic been interrupted. Content with the positive concerns. It may be proper, however, that I benefits which their union produced, with the should give some indication to my fellow citi- some excitement. independence and eafery from foreign aggres. | zens of my proposed course of conduct in the

them. The attempt of those of one state to Severcigns, as well as in the mutual in. read with deep solicitude. It is written in a control the domestic institutions of another, terest of our; own and of the Governments neat, plain and intelligible style, containing noousy, the certain harbingers of dismion, violations are increased as lence, civil war, and the ultimate destruction of the relations will be be which the President means to be of order which now prevails in the House, to ens. of our free institutions. Our confederacy is our own citizens, will not be interrupted by as those by which the President means to be of order which now prevails in the House, to enaperfectly illustrated by the same and a size of of our free manufacturions. Our confederacy is our own currens, witt not be interrupted by mark Nater on dare frontal erganisations. Some of the advancement of any claim, or pretension governed in his official duties, are patriotic, pure. The best of the advancement of any claim, or pretension governed in his official duties, are patriotic, pure. ples governing a common copartnership.— upon their part to which our honor would not by American, and unexceptionable. On all the and the bill was lost. the direction of the joint councils of the anneal country's rights in the new and successful Drama of the "BLUE JACKmembers, but that which has been reserved by the low citizens will not see in my earnest desire to the low citizens will not see in my earnest des There a fund of power is to be exercised under permit us to yield. Long the defender of my leading points of policy upon which parties have the direction of the joint councils of the allied country's rights in the field, I trust that my felthe individual members is intangible by the preserve peace with foreign powers any indicommon government or the individual memoration that their rights will ever be sacrificed, he is explicit and satisfactory. Indeed, there is Newport. They were collected by mistake, and common government or the individual members composing it. To attempt it finds no support in the principles of our constitution. It should be one constant and earnest endeavor trate unworthy their former glory. mutually to cultivate a spirit of concord and In our intercourse with our Aboriginal neighborness the major the spirit of concord and have the spirit of co harmony among the various parts of our con- bors the same liberality and justice, which siderations, we think that this message must give ness. federacy. Experience has abundantly taught marked the course prescribed to me by two of ... us that the agitation by citizens of one part of my illustrious predecessors, when acting unthe union of a subject not confided to the general government, but exclusively under the ties of Superintendent and Commissioner, this address. ductive of no other consequences than bitterness, alienation, discord, and injury to the no propinate an impartial and common Creator to propinate an impart ners, alienation, discord, and injury to the very cause which is intended to be advanced. than a rigid adherence to the principles of justons of the formula Of all the great interests which appertain to tice on the part of a powerful nation in its mer to arbitrarily interfere with or control the in the amendment. our country, that of union, cordial, confiding, transactions with a weaker and uncivilized acts of the latter. fraternal union, is by far the most important, people, whom circumstances have placed at its since it is the only true and sure guaranty of disposal.

cerus. However deeply we may regret any of that country requires that me violence thing imprudent or excessive in the engage- this time governed, must be greatly mitigation which states have entered for purity this time governed, must be greatly mitigated. The is for confiding the custody of the public this time governed, must be greatly mitigated. The is for confiding the custody of the public this time governed, must be greatly mitigated. The is for confiding the custody of the public this time governed, must be greatly mitigated. The is for confiding the custody of the public this time governed, must be greatly mitigated. The is for confiding the custody of the public this time governed, must be greatly mitigated. The is for confiding the custody of the public this time governed, must be greatly mitigated. The is for confiding the custody of the public this time governed, must be greatly mitigated. The is for confiding the custody of the public this time governed, must be greatly mitigated. The is for confiding the custody of the public this time governed, must be greatly mitigated. The is for confiding the custody of the public this time governed, must be greatly mitigated. The is for confiding the custody of the public this time governed the public this time governed the custody of the custody of the public this time governed the custody of the may meet with difficulty in their financial concerns. However deeply we may regret any thing imprudent or excessive in the engagething improvement for excessive in the engagethin ments into which states have entered for purtime time governor, many stated, or consequential to the care of congress, and promises never both sides of the question fairly stated, and thus interested opponents.

The hour has been with possess of their own, it does not become us to consequently stated, and thus interested opponents.

The hour has been with the care of congress, and promises never both sides of the question fairly stated, and thus interested opponents.

The hour has been with the care of congress, and promises never both sides of the question fairly stated, and thus interested opponents. courage them from making proper efforts for of. If parties in a Republic are necessary to to remove a secretary of the treasury without astheir own relief; on the contrary, it is our du- secure a degree of vigilance sufficient to keep signing his reasons to congress. ty to encourage them, to the extent of our the public functionaries within the bounds of means, and cheerfully to make all necessary ends. Beyond that, they become destructive impracticable—and, if possible, beneficial alone ascrifices and salumit to all necessary busdons of public victure the necessary of pub sacrifices and submit to all necessary burdens of public virtue, the parents of a spirit antag. to the wealthy and injurious to the poor. to fulfil their engagements and maintain their onist to that of liberty, and, eventually, its inral states form part of the character and credit of the whole country. The resources of the country are abundant, the enterprise and accountry are abundant.

former prosperity. every injury winter our institutions may revinzed man, had sought protection in the winds ceive. On the contrary, no care that can be ceive. On the construction of our government; operation of the same causes and influences, it operation of the same causes are causes and influences. no division of powers, no distribution of checks will fly from our Capitol and our forums. Aca- us to harmony—and promises that, whatever in its several departments, will prove effectual lamity so awful, not only to our country, but other parties may prevail, there shall never be to the world, must be deprecated by every paran an executive party during his administration. to decay; and decay it will without constant triot; and every tendency to a state of things.

On the whole we think it an admirable adhistorians agree in attributing the ruin of all Such a tendency has existed—does exist. Al. dress—and one to which no exception can be nurture. To the neglect of this duty, the best likely to produce it immediately checked. the reputities with whose existence and that resolved to be captions. It breathes the American state of debentures owed by the United States Bank their operations to their care—their operations was their operations to their operations to their operations was their operations to their operations to their operations to their operations was their operations to their operations to their operations to their operations was their operations to their operations was their operations to their operations to their operations was their operations to their operations was their operations to their operations was resolved to be captions. It breathes the American and operations and operations to their operations to their operations was removed by the United States Bank their operations to their operations was removed by the United States Bank their operations to their operations to their operations was removed by the United States Bank their operations to their operati and as long as the love of power is a dominant has exalted me, that there exists in the land a long as the love of power is a dominant has exalted me, that there exists in the land a long as the love of power and as long as the love of power as dominant has exalted me, that there exists in the land a long as the love of power and as long as the love of power as dominant love of power as dominant love of power and as long as the love of power as long as long as the love of power as long as lo parsion of the human bosom, and as long as spirit hostile to their best interests—bostile to vail.

the careful culture of those belings of confi- liberty of a people depend on their own con- of the interest of the whole. The entire rememuch talking and little action. It was a disgrace on Tocsday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Duncan, dence and affection which are the effective stant attention to its preservation. The danhis own discretion and sense of propriety. that are produced. The true spirit of liberty, pledge I have this day given to discharge all associations of citizens; requiring compliance compromising in principle, that secured, is ing to the best of my ability and Isnail enter have passed. Within the last three days, about mild and tolerant and scrupulous as to the upon their performance with entire confidence in the last three days, about my ability the results of many abi commendations of Athens to her allies-support. means it employs; whilst the spirit of party, in the support of a just and generous People. a dozen only, instead of some hundreds, which ed by an armed and powerful flect. It was, assuming to be that of liberty, is harsh, vinindeed, to the ambition of the leading States of | dictive, and intolerant, and totally reckless as Greece to control the domestic concerns of the to the character of the allies which it brings others, that the destruction of that celebrated to the aid of its cause. When the genuine spiconfederacy, and subsequently of all its mem- rit of liberty animates the body of a people to bers, is mainly to be attributed. And it is ow- a thorough examination of their affairs, it ing to the absence of that spirit that the Helve- leads to the excision of every excrescence tic confederacy has for so many years been which may have fastened itself upon any of preserved. Never has there been seen in the the departments of the government, and reinstitutions of the separate members of any stores the system to its pristine health and confederacy more elements of discord. In the | beauty. But the reign of an intolerant spirit principles and forms of g vernment and reli- of party amongst a free people, seldom fails to veral can ons, so marked a discrepance was live power introduced and established aimidst der to another column for the items of foreign to observable, as to promise any thing but har- unusual professions of devotion to democracy. news brought by the steamer President, at New mony in their intercourse or permanency in The foregoing remarks relate almost exclu- York. It appears that the affair of McLeod had ever repugnant to their own principles and use every means in my power to preserve the rison to this city from Washington in one hour The Senate held an executive session at a late Our confederacy, fellow-citizens, can only sists with every foreign nation; and that, albe be preserved by the same forbearance. Our though, of course, not well informed as to the ministration, by the respective governments, remaining in the bosom of any one of its citieach acting within its own sphere, will restore zens. It was the beautiful remark of a distin-Unpleasant and even dangerous as collisions | Senate, Octavius had a party, and Anthony a may sometimes be, between the constituted party, but the Commonwealth had none."—2.

Before concluding fellow citizens, I must say

authorities or the c tizens of our country, in Yet the Senate continued to meet in the Temrelation to the lines which separate their respective jurisdictions, the results can be of no beauty of the Commonwealth, and gaze at the influence. vital injury to our institutions, if that ardent statues of the elder Brutus and of Curtii and To the South his declarations on the subject in patriotism, that devoted attachment to liberty, Decii. And the people assembled in the forum, which they are so peculiarly interested, will be that spirit of moderation and torbeatance for not as in the days of Camillus and the Scipios, highly acceptable. to be the ruling passion of our souls, the weaker feelings of the mistaken enthusiast will be specific parties their share of the second and er feetings of the initiation of the scheming corrected, the Etopian dreams of the scheming to shout for one, or the other, as those collected politician dissipated, and the complicated information of the demandary of the deman trigues of the demagnique rendered narmiess. Turnien the larger dividence. A new particular to the public in general, that the spirit of libirty is the sovereign halm for The spirit of libirty is the sovereign halm for many had sought protection in the wilds. The spirit of the reversign team for the sudjence with his in-

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE- We refer the reabeen brought before parliament, and had caused respected the institutions of each other, how. sure them, therefore, that it is my intention to brought the Inaugural Address of President Hare to reconsider it by a vote of 23 nays to 17 year.

He will require public officers not to interfere with elections, further than to give their votes.

zens of the District of Columbia, and urges the work of an incendiary.

the respective communicies, which for certain the understandings of even can be warped and | liberty itself. It is a spirit contracted in its | Finals. The country should rejoice that the the respective communities, which for certain the understandings of energy and process composes compose one nation, are much more their affections changed by operations upon views, selfish in its object. It looks to the age twenty-sixth congress is defunct. It will be long it., by the Rev. Mr. Drain, Herry Warren, of Baltheir affections changed by operations upon views, selfish in its object. It looks to the age.

The respective communities, which for the understandings of energy and process is defunct. It will be long it., by the Rev. Mr. Drain, Herry Warren, of Baltheir affections changed by operations upon views, selfish in its object. It looks to the age. gent powers compose one nation, are much more their succions enanged by operations upon the second of the interest of the whole. The entire remembered for its disorder and violence; for its more, te miss Saran Ass J. Dassiell, of Bemerset their passions and prejudices, so long will the grandisement of a few, even to the destruction of the entire remembered for its disorder and violence; for its more, te miss Saran Ass J. Dassiell, of Bemerset their passions and prejudices, so long will the grandisement of a few, even to the destruction of the entire remembered for its disorder and violence; for its more, te miss Saran Ass J. Dassiell, of Bemerset the interest of the whole. The entire remembered for its disorder and violence; for its more, te miss Saran Ass J. Dassiell, of Bemerset the interest of the whole. The entire remembered for its disorder and violence; for its more, te miss Saran Ass J. Dassiell, of Bemerset the interest of the whole. The domestic the interest of the whole. The domestic the interest of the whole is a finite state of the second the interest of the whole. The domestic the interest of the whole is a finite state of the interest of the whole is a finite state of the second the interest of the whole is a finite state of the interest of the whole is a finite state of the second the interest of the whole is a finite state of the interest of the whole is a finite state of the interest of the whole is a finite state of the interest of the whole is a finite state of the interest of the whole is a finite state of the interest of the whole is a finite state of the interest of the whole is a finite state of the interest of the whole is a finite state of the interest of the interest of the whole is a finite state of the interest of the whole is a finite state of the interest of the

The end of the session. The twenty-sixth con-

We shall in our next give our readers as full an account as the duties and occupations of this and he is therefore positively precinated from any watering of the reserved powers of any State power. And although there is at times much interference with the reserved powers of any State power. And although there is at times much power. And although there is at times much power. And although there is at times much power.

It may be observed, however, that organized although devoted, persevering, bold, and un- the high duties of my exalted station, accord- for the pay of just claims upon the Government,

In the Senate yesterday, the Vice President hearsal on Monday evening next (Hon. R. M. Johnson) having retired from the Chair on the preceding evening, Hon. Wm. R. King, of Alabama, was elected President pro tempore of the Senate. The votes were, for Mr. of Gen. Ww. H. HARRISON as President of the United King 16; for Mr. Southard 9; for Mr. Huntington March 4th, 1811. Published this day and for sale by 2; and one vote each for three other Senators.

In the course of the day the bill which had passed the House of Representatives for extending for the term of five years the act of 1933 concerning Navy Pensions came up for consideration; and, after debate, was, on motion of Mr. Buchanan, ordered to lie on the table (virtually rejected.) Mr. Walker asterwards moved a re-QUICK TRAVELLING. The express steam car | consideration of this vote; and the Senate refused |

In the House of Representatives, yesterday, an | citizens must be content with the exercise of state of any pending negotiations with any of the powers with which the constitution clothes them, I see in the personal characters of the them, I see in the personal characters of the them, I see in the personal characters of the them, I see in the personal characters of the them, I see in the personal characters of the them, I see in the personal characters of the them, I see in the personal characters of the them, I see in the personal characters of the them, I see in the personal characters of the them.

He is in favor of keeping the executive and so amended as to provide also for paying a similar in another part of our journal, it appears that this success encounters—whatever be the malevolence subject, so interesting to politicians, and espe- in his p-culiar department, if not unquestioned, is becially to Irishmen and their descendants, will be jond doubt unquestionable. In consequence of the embirrassed state of business and the currency, some of the states at this time existing in our country. To me it business and the currency, some of the states at this time existing in our country. To me it cumstances, to become a candidate for a second brought this evening before the Lyceum. As peaked at this time existing in our country. To me it cumstances, to become a candidate for a second brought this evening before the Lyceum. As peaked at this time existing in our country. To me it cumstances, to become a candidate for a second brought this evening before the Lyceum. As peaked at this time existing in our country. To me it cumstances, to become a candidate for a second brought this evening before the Lyceum. As peaked at this time existing in our country. To me it cumstances, to become a candidate for a second brought this evening before the Lyceum. As peaked at this time existing in our country. To me it cumstances, to become a candidate for a second brought this evening before the Lyceum. As peaked at this time existing in our country. To me it countries are constitution should be constitution should be constitution and the constitution are constitution are constitution and the constitution are constitution and the constitution are constitution are constitution and constitution are const specting its merits. Those who have attended He thinks an exclusively metallic currency the various repeal meetings lately held, should avail themselves of the means of freeing them. selves from the charge of being one-sided polititivity of our people proverbial; and we may the continuance of the name and forms of free lation, where their will has been palpably disrewell hope that wise legislation and prudent administration, by the respective governments, He makes a strong appeal in behalf of the citi- stroyed. The fire is believed to have been the HOLLIDAY STREET THEATRE. Mr. Burton, the distinguished and popular comedian, takes a benefit at Holliday-st. Theatre this ezening.

In yesterday's paper we erroneously stated the His general observations on republican systems price of admission to be $1-it should have been politician dissipated, and the complicated in- in Gaut, or Egypt, and the Lesser Asia, would recomplicate in Gaut, or Egypt, and the Lesser Asia, would recomplicate in Gaut, or Egypt, and the Lesser Asia, would recomplicate in Gaut, or Egypt, and the Lesser Asia, would recomplicate in Gaut, or Egypt, and the Lesser Asia, would recomplicate in Gaut, or Egypt, and the Lesser Asia, would recomplicate in Gaut, or Egypt, and the Lesser Asia, would recomplicate in Gaut, or Egypt, and the Lesser Asia, would reco

blt. at Louisville, for the murder of James Gwatkin and John Flinn, and found guilty of murder Their Dental Rooms are very tastefully furnished, and in the first degree.

COMING DUE. On the first of April $5,000,000 1

MARRIED.

MARINE LIST-PORT OF BALTIMORE. CLEARBU.

Barque Col. Howard Prentise, Rio de Janeiro. gebi TR Betton, Travers, Demerara. Bloop Cutter, Emmerson, Philadelphia.

Belit Avalanche, Green from Port an Prince 7th Feb. Versels left before reported. BELOW-A herm brig. MEMORANDA.

Schr Union, Smith, for Bestimore, sailed from Providence, R I. 98th ult. Behr Equator, Card, and Enrotas, Snow, bence at Portsmouth, NH. 231 ult.

BALTIMORE LYCEUM. OF The Exercises THIS EVENING, 5th inst., will

RESOLVED, That all persons, who are regular members of any of the Literary Bocieties of Baltimore, be admitted, free of charge, to the exercises of the Baltimore Lyccum, on presenting to the door-keeper their desirable, as circumstances prevent the regular Re-T. G. PEACHEY, Sec'y.

THE INAUGURAL ADDRESS. RAL ODE, sung on the occasion of the Installation

MARYLAND CADETS. 00-Meet at the Armory on SATURDAY MORN-ING. 6th inst. at 7 o'clock, in winter uniform. mh5 2t [r] By order, E.T. OWERS, O. S.

00-CARHOLL SPENCE WILL Practice Law in Howard District Court, office in St. Paul's Lane, over Grafton Delaney's. OF UNITED. Members of the UNITED FIRE

COMPANY are requested to attend a Special Meeting THIS (Priday) EVENING, at 74 o'clock. m'5-1t By order, E. C. STUART, Sec'y. TEMPERANCE NOTICE.

OF-There will be a meeting of the Marion Total Abstinence Society, held at the Bel-Air Market House on SUNDAY AFTERNOON, at 4 o'clock.

By order of the President, FRONT-ST. THEATRE-SWEEKI'S BENEFIT. ARD. Look bear, White Folks, die ole darkey volunteerd, and will appear in a favorite play, with Mr. Pickens, in the course of the day, made an the new and successful Drama of the "BLUE JACK-

Last evening, the bill from the Senate provid- manship by the action of the whole arm, as also We will briefly notice the principal topics of ing for the payment of the claim of the State of a swift, finished, business style, by the fore arm and Taught with certainty in TEN LESSONS OF ONE

Ladies will be attended to exclusively at their re-* REMEMBER improvement gustanteed, and additional I stone given free of expense, say, ten, twenty, REPEAL OF THE UNION. By an advertisement | Or thirty, it desired. Whatever be the opposition which

Triumphant wish to be: and, whate'er betide, Still to my own true knowledge true, I'll rest My cause upon my merit. CF-SHORT HAND taught perfectly. mb5 d2w?4

ROBINSON'S OFFICE. 80 BALTIMORE STREET, BELOW FRANKLIN BANK.

SPLENDID SCHEME: 1 Prize of 812,000

Whole tickets $4-Halves $2.00-Quarters $1.60. Drawn Nun bers Alexandria Lottery, class 8: 42 27 51 46 8 2 31 17 50 40

Also, the drawing of the Maryland State Lottery, class 1-dowest prize 5, drawn yesterday. 53 45 60 1 51 27 22 39 4 21 35 19 49 65 Orders from the country, invariably meet the most prompt attention, when addressed to E. W. ROBINSON. 80 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md.

BRYSON GILL & SON, Guilty. John White was tried on the 25th either singly or in enturgetts. To such perfection are completely include detection by the closest scruting. They also have a very large and well selected assortment of Dental Instruments, which will enable them to give general ratisfiction to those who may entrust