An Address. Whatever be the opposition which success encoun'ers-whatever be the malevolence which merit awakens, the fact of Goodwane's triumph in his peculiar department, if not unquestioned, is besond doubt unquestionable.

Malignant rivals may mirrepresent, and sectional jealousy wrest and pervert the best and purest inten- | U tions, but the professional knowledge and integrity, and consummate ovation of the present system of penmanship, have been too long confessed to require any labored eulogy from friends, or any advocacy against interested opponents.
