To CORRESPONDENTS. A number of communications have been received during the last week. O. P. C. has written us an article upon "Tattling." One who has a theoretical and practical knowledge of this subject, might perhaps spin a useful yarn. The thread before us is not so well spun as it might be. We infer, therefore, that the anthor is not an adept in the practice he repudiates. He must be more careful in puntuation .--] His document needs dressing up a little, which we shall do at our leisure and publish it.

The answer to "Tyro" is not sufficiently explicite to throw any light upon the subject of inquiry. "No Chicaner" is therefore rejected. The "Pirate's Serenade" is on hand, approved
