MARYLAND LEGISLATURE.

Annapolis, April 6, 1541. Mr. Forman submitted a message to the Senate proposing to rescind the message adopted yesterday in relation to the adjournment to-day at noon, and proposing to adjourn sine die on Wednesday morning the 7th instant. It also proposes to invite the Governor to sign the Laws at six o'clock this evening. The message was agreed to, sent to the Senate and the proposition concurred in by that body.

the Legislature in a body may attend the funeral of the President. Both Houses design going to Washington, and an invitation has been given to the Governor, the public officers and all the citizens of Annapolis to accompany them. The Governor, owing to indisposition, cannot go.

The bill from the Senate relating to the Banking Institutions of the State of Maryland was amended by striking out the 2d and 4th sections (which allowed the issue of notes under five dollars) and passed.

Mr. E. A. Lynch reported a bill entitled an | act to redeem the scrip issued by the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, which was rejected by a vote of 22 yeas to 33 nays. SENATE. The bill supplemental to the act to regulate sales by auction, was rejected, yeas 7, The bill to change the name of Bentalict Arnold of Baltimore to Geo. W. Arnold was passed.

The resolutions from the House in relation to the Constitutional rights of slaveholders, was assented to. The committee to whom was referred the pe-ment of an Inspector of Gas was discharged, for | immediately; 45 German and frish laborers to go in the want of time to consider the subject. Mr. : Howard of Baltimore reported a bill to amend the Constitution so as to prohibit the Legislature from making loans which are not redeemable at the pleasure of the State, except by the act of two successive Legislatures. The bill | lease or sale; servants for life or term of years, bought | THAVE JUST RECEIVED, and will this was passed.

FIRST ARRIVAL FROM PITTSBURG. The first freight from Pittburg, via the Pennsylvania Canals and the Baltimore and Susquehanna Rail- moderate. road, arrived last evening, by Messrs. D. LEECH & Co.'s Line. The freight consisted of 52 hhds. | call at tobacco, consigned to Mesers. Waters and Hall, and 7 hhds. to Wesley Starr. The above freight left Pittsburg on the 31st ult. and came directly through without any detention, thus proving be- ette street, the Basement of Barnum's City Hotel, to wond doubt that the Pennsylvania Canals are in successful operation .- Amer.

THE STORM. Several bouses were struck with lightning in the neighborhood of Boston .--The Transcript of the 5th states that the house of Mr. Samuel Blake, in Danvers, was struck by lightning, about 5 o'clock on Friday evening, and considerably damaged. Several of the family tate of SAMUEL YEALDHALL, late of Baltimore were stunned by the shock, but were not seriously injured.

In Taunton, Mr. Hatch informs us, as Mr. Sherman Wood and another person were returning from a temperance meeting, in a wagon, when quested to make immediate payment. near Wittington village, the horse was instantly killed by lightning, and the forward axle of the wagon shivered into splinters. Mr. Wood was stunned, but neither himself nor his companion received serious injury.

The house of Mr. David Webster, in Haverhill, was also struck by lightning the same evening, and much damaged. The family escaped | nor witfully to draw and waste the Water, under the mainjured.

We learn from the Huntingdon Advocate, that an attempt was recently made to destroy the aqueduct on the Pennsylvania Canal, over the Juniatta river, at Jack's Narrows, by fire. FOR SALE-A BARGAIN.
