BALTIMORE CLIPPER.

☞The following from the Philadelphia Daily Chronicle though an acrostic, is certainly entitled to praise.

ACROSTIC.

Weep! weep! for the Chieftain has gone to his home,
Immortal!—the halo that hangs o'er his tomb;
Lo! deep in the warm beating bosoms that glow,
Lives the Patriot's name, unsullied as snow,
In perils he shrunk not, but barred his bold breast,
As a rock that yet stands with its billow lashed crest,
'Mid the heaving of ocean, oh! fearless he stood,
High as that rock o'er the dark surging flood.
E'en the foes that assailed him will honor his name,
No son of the free would tarnish his fame.
Record it, ye lovers of freedom and truth,
Ye silver crown'd fathers, and hope blooming youth.
Hushed is that voice in silence and night;
And quenched is that eye lately beaming and bright;
Rest, warrior, rest, for thy warfare is o'er,
Rest, statesman, rest, on freedom's own shore;
In the loud acclamations of earth thou did'st share;
So may the patriot band greet thee there.
On the plains that are fadeless, where discord & strife
Never darken or redden the pure streams of life.

A SUGGESTION. As frequent and lamentable accidents have happened of late to some of those attached to the fire department, while running to fires, and being run over by the engines, we would suggest the propriety of having some kind of a break or stop attached to the apparatus, so that the "tongue men," as they are called, might, by touching a certain spring or lever, check the progress of the engine instantly, on perceiving any one attached to it accidentally fall in its way.

We throw out the above hint for the consideration of machinists, hoping that they may be able to discover its practicability. It strikes us that some kind of a check or stop might be attached to fire engines as well rail road cars.

HONORS NEGLECTED. If the following from the Boston Transcript be true, we must only say we are truly sorry for it: "In this city we do not learn that any effective measures have been taken by our authorities to notice the melancholy event in a suitable manner. We understand that the inhabitants of several of the Wards are about to make arrangements for paying a proper respect to the memory of the deceased President, in the absence of the action of the city government in the case, they not having, we believe, so far noticed his death as to cause the bells to be tolled." Oh! Boston, is the heart of thy Mayor made of adamant?

WEALTH OF EUROPEAN SOVEREIGNS. The three wealthiest sovereigns in Europe are Louis Phillippe of France, the Elector of Hesse, and the old King of Holland. Louis Phillippe is the richest, though the Elector of Hesse is not far behind him. The latter derived his wealth from the sale of Hessian soldiers to England for her wars in America, Ireland, and on the continent. With part of the proceeds of this unhallowed traffic in the blood of his subjects the Elector built near Hesse a magnificent chateau, which is called by the people in the vicinity "the Castle of Blood." The personal property of the King of Holland, the least wealthy of the three, amounts to nearly fifty millions of dollars.

ROBBERY.—A letter from Mr. Robert McCutcheon, of Pittsburg, says the Patriot, dated Chambersburg, 2 o'clock, Saturday morning, states that his trunk was cut from behind the stage and robbed of its contents, near Chambersburg on Friday night. Among other things taken, were two letters one from Poindexter, Rhey & Co., for James Beatty, and one for James Wilson, of Baltimore. Both letters contained Bank notes and drafts, therefore, the public is cautioned against receiving either that may be presented under suspicious circumstances. Other letters were in the trunk, but their contents are not known.

CONVICTION OF MURDER. The trial of Frederick Fritz, on an indictment charging him with the murder of Eleanor Davis, who resided on the bank of the Canal, in Frederick county, came on before the Carroll County Court, whence it had been removed on Wednesday last. After hearing the testimony in the case and the arguments of counsel, the jury retired, and after an absence of about an hour, returned into Court with a verdict of "guilty of murder in the first degree."

GLOWING DESCRIPTION. The N. York Trumpet speaks of women as the most glorious work of the Almighty, and next to him the proper object of love and worship. With a form of beauty and a heart of tenderness; an eye of light and bosom of rapture; blushing cheeks and rosy lips; winning smile and voice of melody; the model of perfection, the pure embodiment of ideal beauty.

SHIPWRECK. A large British Indiaman, called the Heroine, from China, for London, was totally lost on the 14th ult. near Cape Spartel. Out of sixty persons on board, about thirty-four are believed to have perished, principally Lascars.—The vessel was a total wreck.

The Cincinnati papers announce the death, on the 1st instant, of BENJAMIN DRAKE, Esq., of that city, formerly editor of the Cincinnati Chronicle, and author of the "Life of Black Hawk," and other publications.

☞A public meeting of the citizens of Frederick, Md., without distinction of party, hes been called for the 17th inst., to adopt measures of respect to the memory of the lamented Harrison.

Hon. LEVI WOODBURY, late Secretary of the Treasury, arrived in Boston on the 9th inst. and took lodgings at the Tremont House. He left the following day for Portsmouth.

ONTARIO LAKE OPEN. The Rochester Democrat of the 3d inst. says, that two schooners from Canada arrived at that port the previous week.—The same paper of the 6th, mentions the arrival of the steamboat Gore, Captain Carr, from Toronto.

C. C. JAMESON, Esq. has been appointed Assistant Cashier in the Bank of Baltimore.

MORE PROOFS of the efficacy of Doctor SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

To DR. SWAYNE.

Dear Sir—The time has been, when I would not recommend a medicine advertised in the public prints over my own signature; I now feel different—I feel it my duty to inform the afflicted where they may find relief. I was reduced, by a protracted COUGH for six months, to a mere skeleton; no rest at night; soreness and pain in my breast, side, &c. Suffice it to say, I used your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, which in a few weeks relieved me effectually. I am certain that, had it not been for your medicine, I should now be in the silent grave. Let no person delay, but procure your Syrup and be relieved of their COUGHS and COLDS, as they are dangerous companions, and often lead to dangerous consequences

The following letter to the Agent, exhibits the superiority of the Camphine over Gas or Oil light, in brilliancy and cheapness:

New York, March 23, 1840.

DEAR SIR—I received yours of the 19th instant, and proceed, as you request, to inform you that WEBB'S PATENT LAMP, in my opinion, is much superior to any Lamp now in use—the Camphine produces better light than Gas or Oil. I have burned Oil for five years, Gas for eleven, and Webb's Camphine for 20 months. I have a better light in my bar-room with five of Webb's burners than I had in the same room with eleven gas lights. In fact, I light my whole house at less expense with the Camphine than it cost me to light my bar-room alone with gas. I recommend it as being the cheapest and best light now in use.

Yours respectfully, THOMAS RILEY,
mh10-tf Fifth Ward Hotel.
