A CARD—To the Ladies of Baltimore.

☞ A deep sense of gratitude makes it incumbent upon me at this time to return to the Ladies my most grateful acknowledgments for the very kind and liberal patronage they have extended towards me, commencing business as I did, under the most adverse circumstances, almost without the hope of success, yet through their kindness and support I have been sustained; therefore wherein I have failed to give entire satisfaction either in punctuality or quality of article, let them be assured those failures have resulted from causes entirely uncontrollable by myself, for it has always been my greatest pride to meet their expectation in both particulars. I am still at my old stand, Pearl street, near Franklin, where more experience and better facilies in business will enable me to do ample justice to their future favors. THOS. H STANFORD.
