The first business before the Court was an ac tion brought by Alexander Grate against Lover- street, THIS EVENING, at half past 7 o'clock, puncing Ricketts, to recover damages for an assault on | tually him about a year ago. It appears the parties pay him, (Grate,) some money he owed himthe plaintiff had been, refused; when the other it up without using. Grate intimated that he was not afraid of his pistol. Some further angry words passed on both sides, when Ricketts struck hand four or five severe blows, and in consequence the prisoner was disabled for several weeks. The jury found a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $116.

In the case of Joshua Hitch, for an assault on _, a German woman, the Court fined | him $20 and costs. The next case was that of officers Campbell and Potec, for an illegal arrest of the celebrated Dr. F. H. Knapp, President of the Baltimore Savings Fund. Dr. Knapp and his wife, it appears, of our late President, Gen. Wm H. Harrison. had started in the Frederick cars for the West, she taking her seat at the depot in Pratt st., and he had repaired to the outer depot. Officer G. R. Campbell hearing that he was about to leave the city, went to Squire Schæffer's that (Sunday) morning, having in his possession about $200 of Knapp's issues.
