BALTIMORE CLIPPER.

The following decision lately made in the case of an absconding apprentice, wherein J. H. Bradley; Esq. appeared as counsel for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Brent & Hoban as counsel for the defendant, is deemed by many persons of so much importance that we have been requested to publish it:-Nat. Int.

WILLIAM EASEY US. ARCHIBALD FLETCHER. In this case, it appearing to the Court that the respondent, Archibald Fletcher, was, on the 19th day of February, 1838, lawfully bound out by IVE Mas. WAIRN, No. 6 South Produciek street. his father as an apprentice to the petitioner, William Easby, he the said Archibald being then of the age of 19 years and 11 months; and that, by the terms of the said indenture, the streets, near the Post Office. time which he had to serve expired on the 18th time which he had to serve as aforesaid, he absconded from his said master, and absented himself from the service of his said master from the 26th day of March to the 20th of May, 1839, and from the 27th of August, 1839, to the 18th of January, 1840-making, in all, 170 working days.

The Court, therefere, on this 27th day of April, Spectacies, &c. &c. 1841, upon the petition of the said William Easby, and upon the appearance of the said Archibald Fletcher, and upon full bearing of the parties by their counsel, doth award and order that the said Archibald Fletcher make compensation to the said William Easby for his loss of the services of the said Archibald Fletcher, by serving him, the said William Easby, as an apprentice | for the term of one hundred and fifty working days, commencing on the 3d day of May next.

And in case the said Archibald Fletcher should refuse to obey this order, the same Wm. Easby will have leave to apply to this Court for an attachment of contempt or other process to enforce the same: for which purpose this cause will be continued from term to term, until the further order of the court. By order of the Court. W. BRENT, Clerk. Test:

The jury were dismissed last Saturday from further attendance at this Court during the present term, and the Court was adjourned until Monday, the 17th inst.
