THE ST. LOUIS TRAGEDY .- Important Disciosures. By an extra from the St. Louis Gazette office, dated May 1st we learn that disclosures have been made by a colored man named Edward Ennis, who has been for some time in the company of a barber of that city, relative to the murder of Messes. It may be well, however, to remark, as a further confirmation of Ennis' statements, that yesterday Madison's coat was found in the loft of Leali's house besmeared with bleed. From all that we can gather, it does not appear that the scheme had been long concocted, or that they had very well matured their plan of operations.
