

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 12, 1841.

STRAMSHIP PRESIDENT. We copy the following articles in relation to the steamship President,) of the safety of that vessel are not strengthened at form this about the safety of that vessel are not strengthened at form this about the safety of that vessel are not strengthened at form this about the safety of that vessel are not strengthened at form this about the safety of that vessel are not strengthened at form this about the safety of that vessel are not strengthened at form this about the safety of that vessel are not strengthened at form this about the safety of the safety of the safety of that vessel are not strengthened at form this about the safety of the spire confidence. The relation of Mr. Howell man ?? In comment, which they regard pass over in good humor. It was Aristides, we taken into consideration by the jury. During pass over in good humor. It was Aristides, we taken into consideration by the jury. During pass over in good humor. It was Aristides, we taken into consideration by the jury. During taken into consideration by the jury. During pass over in good humor. It was Aristides, we taken into consideration by the jury. During the last twelve years, the writer of this can jury. - resides at Southampton, England, and as he saw the letter to Mrs. Power on the day it was received, she must also have been there. He must have written to Mr. Howell on the same day, the Britannia, which sailed at one o'clock, P. M.— ladies would be shocked at the introduction here ness of the honest Athenian, we can at least go nal of the host of small lawyers, who infest our The distance between Southampton and Liver- of so barbarous a fashion, and yet it might be into our controversies without scelings of exaspepool is too great for this to have been accomplished, except by rail road conveyance. Besides, the figures without destroying life. And then there ous in the cause they espouse, because zeal is an vessel which brought the news of the safe arrival is another fashion, more harmless it is true, but evidence of sincerity—but it is not necessary that, of the President at Madeira, and from which Mrs.

Power's express received the information, would Power's express received the information, would hardly have made it a confidential matter. The shape by those odious bustles, or bags of bran, exist in political as in other concerns. intelligence would have been transmitted from straw or feathers, or whatever they may be. It Extra session. The National Intelligencer the note given was merely a single promissory Telative would have had the opportunity to conwey the gratifying information to this country .--The letter does not even inform us at what time l or place the vessel arrived from Bladeira.

The second account has more plausibility. the President was made a wreck by the ice and bolsters with which they are encumbered, and on imports, for the purpose of securing from that storms, and she may have been seen floating on that she has reached the island of Madeira. But she may work a reformation in the fashions; for the same storms which dismantled her, no doubt we almost hold our breath with anxiety when in swept over other vessels, and left them in the the presence of a tightly-laced lady. condition described; and as the captain and mate, by whom this account is brought, differ in their habit of noticing annonymous opponents either in rency. belief, as to the vessel seen being the President, questions of public impertance or matters of taste, we have slight ground upon which to build hope. | but there is something so supremely ludierous in We pray that she may have made some point the general features of an article that appeared in in safety, though we have little expectation of the Patriot of last evening, signed by one "Sol.

such an event. which leads us to hope that the steamship Pre- of noticing the offspring of three weeks labor. ter has been received by Mr. Howert, of Cum- seems we have been cruizing in troubled waters, berland, Md., whose father was on board the we have raised "a storm in a tea-pot" because President, from a relation of his who resides at we, in our notice of the performances of the Southampton, England, stating the fact of the "Harmonic Society," were candid enough to exarrival of the steamship at Madeira, and detail-those agents she received, by express, a letter, to the learned writer in the Patriot for his treon the 19th ult., in which it was stated that a mendous essay to place them in the right path, wessel had just arrived there from Madeira, which and we regret extremely that our rough and unreported that as she was leaving the latter port polished nature should have entangled us in a dithe President was going in, and spoke her.

the 19th ult. and being read by the relation of nochance of extricating ourselves. To be goaded Mr. Howell, who was present at the moment it thus sorely!—to be scourged by an invisible lash! wrote the letter, referred to above. He des- to be denounced, and our musical judgment and patched it by the post, and it reached the steam- taste called in question by-the Lord knows ship Britannia in time to be brought on by that who! Really, gentle reader, we are pricked all vessel, which left England on the 20th ult.

steamship is safe. - Patriot. Meanship President—A ray of nope. From fondness for what we have termed the music of of May, is set apart by the Chief Executive as pose. are led to believe that the steamship president is nature—that which, while it appeals to the soul, a day to be devoted by the people of this coun-several provision casks floating about, also wine baskets, broken spars, &c. He says that he saw only two stumps of the masts, but nothing more.

Per contra to this, the mate of the Recovery | their melodies." her very large, nor suppose her to be a man of between the hours of three and four o'clock a cates of the practice which prevails in some so improved by good husbandry that the owner post Office, NORTH STREET, and hopes, by his long war. He does not think it was the hull of the President .- New York Herald.

ed in the Republican. The editor of that paper tou, who retreated into the yard and was follow- circumstances, and we hope that the day may has a right to enjoy his partizan predilections, ed by them, they threatening his life. A mes- be devoted in strict accordance with his recomand we are pleased to see him maintain them senger was immediately despatched to the po- mendation.] with zeal-but we submit it to him, whether it lice office, and Mr. Mitchell, high constable, sent BEAUTIES OF LITIGATION. A case was tried is right to sport with the personal calamities of officers Allen, Schuck, Stewart and Kelley out, last week, in the New York Circuit Court, in an opponent, and to attempt to ridicule a man for who arrived in time to save Mr. F. from further which an individual sought to recover heavy the severest misfortune which can befal him? injury, and succeeded in arresting two of the damages of the Harlem Railroad Company, for We confess that our feelings were shocked on ringleaders, Wm. Crew and Wm. alias Fox Bos- the loss of his son, who was killed on the track reading the paragraphs to which we have allu- ley, who were brought in and after a hearing, of the company, in the fall of 1839, through the sion; and we think that they could have been were committed for want of security, by Squire alleged carelessness or negligence of their agents, well omitted. "He jests at scars who never felt Barnard, to answer the charge at the City Court but in fact the unfortunate lad's own stupidity. a wound;" and he who is blessed with the pos- on Saturday next. Some of this gang we under- Before the case was decided the company offered session of all his faculties, may mock at the de- stand, are just out of the Penitentiary. They to compromise the matter by paying $1500 and staining a small slip of editorial paper with the privation in others, but it is illiberal and cruel. are known to the officers, and it is to be hoped costs to the father. The latter was too fond of above superior article, a bottle of which has fe It is inconsistent with the precept which teaches | may be arrested and brought to justice. us "to feel another's woe;" and it should always NATIONAL THEATRE, North street. Last night the suit, and got six cents damages and costs. be recollected, that the misfortune at which we drew together a crowded audience to witness the Tipe Water Canal. Our marine list of the mend it to the public. laugh to-day, may be visited on us to-morrow.— second representation of the "Burning of the 10th, says the Pennsylvania Inquirer, announced Comportable Prospect. In allusion to the We beg the editor to confine himself to the po- Caroline." The managers have made a decided the arrival of nine vessels laden with flour, abundance of ice-bergs, which are voyaging off Itical character of his opponents, and to leave this, and we understand will present the piece wheat, lumber and coal, all brought through the coast: and which are supposed to occasion the wheat, lumber and coal, all brought through the coast: and which are supposed to occasion the wheat, lumber and coal, all brought through the coast: and which are supposed to occasion the wheat, lumber and coal, all brought through the coast: and which are supposed to occasion the wheat, lumber and coal, all brought through the coast: and which are supposed to occasion the wheat, lumber and coal, all brought through the coast: and which are supposed to occasion the whole and of the very best blood in all her crosses. She is a rich sorrel with a cold weather, the Richmond Whis save, that in belonging to the concern.

by this lady on Monday evening last. She is on Monday next, the 17th. So far there has been ed with the late extensive Bank forgeries, has said to have hindled female fashions without little or no stir among the politicians, and the commenced some half a dozen suits for libel and mercy, particularly that destructive habit of tight- time which will intervene between this and the scandal against the publishers and police of the Sim le Lecture 25 cents. lacing; and as she said that she spoke from expe- day of election is so short, as to make it improb- two cities. The Tattler proffers the following rience of the ill-effects of that fashion, her de- able that there will be much excitement. Nor gratuitous advice to Mr. Stevens, which we think m nunciation of it should have more effect. Had is it necessary. A calm is always preferable to sound, and applicable not only to those within mean Pitt, O. T. on THIS (Wednesday) EVENING, we been present we should have applauded her a storm; and we therefore hope that the political the limits of the Empire State, but to the inhabto the skies, for her efforts to release her sex elements will be permitted to remain in tranqui- itants of other regions. from the tortures of the corsets is worthy of all commendation. But so long as fashion requires that the waist shall be screwed within the smallest possible compass, we are hopeless of any tions in our city—that Baltimore may continue to justice and common sense. Do not think because change. If the numerous instances of ruined furnish a bright example to her sister cities. We a petty lawyer tells you that certain painted Saturday in October next. Also, ed from this abominable practice, have failed to head—and, as the election affords not the slightest his authority for what he publishes, are always By order.

By order.

By order.

By order. effect its discontinuance, lectures on the subject ground for quarrelling, we hope that the day will taken into consideration by the jury. During not." In some countries ladies cut a hole in the believe, who, when rejected by the people, exception that other many decorate the defendant or a party interested in the lower lin in which they insert a piece of word by an antification that other was decorated. lower lip in which they insert a piece of wood, pressed his gratification that others were deemed desence. In only one case have we been cast in so as to force the lip to hang down in the most more worthy than himself to serve the public.— damages—and in barely two cases have we been enticing manner, to give a fair view of the beau- We should rejoice to find this noble and patriotic obliged to pay costs. Nineteen times out of tiful stained teeth. This is the fashion, and she feeling prevail in our competitions for public fawhose lip hangs the lowest leads the lon. Our vor. But, if we cannot attain the disinterested- venge, is deluded into litigation by some individthat ladies would reflect that "God never made its attention: his works for man to mend," and they would, 1. The distribution of the proceeds of the perhaps, be content with the "form divine" sales of Public Lands among the several States. slacken the laces of their corsets.

We wish success to Mrs. Gove, and hope that Government.

"CONCERTS AND CRITICS." We are not in the Sleamship President. We have information same as a flat,) that we cannot resist the desire press our aversion to that species of singing or This letter was received by Mrs. Power on lemma which, turn which way we may, we see These facts seem to justify a belief that the over by demmisemmiquavers, and feel as rabid)

We have over and over expressed our peculiar safe at one of the Western Islands-or perhaps finds easy access to the understanding-such, we try to fasting and prayer; and wherever the reto Richard Irvin, agent of the Great Western.

She was sixty-eight days in coming, and took the Southern passage. Bawman reports that on the for years past, but it never can become popular, we owe it to our country, but we owe it to a building, to run to the West Indies. 28th of March, when off Corro, one of the Western Islands, or in lat. about 42, long. about 2, he tern Islands, or in lat. about 42, long. about 2, he masts, bowsprit and all gone, supposed her to be a proper year and Rattinets, suitable a man of war, but now thinks it was the steam- and we would be glad to have our music assume smile upon our chastened country.

A. by her parents, shot the young lady through the lines; Sliver Drab Cloth; Damasks and Rattinets, suitable for give our many transgressions, and once more by her parents, shot the young lady through the lines; Sliver Drab Cloth; Damasks and Rattinets, suitable for give our many transgressions.

A. by her parents, shot the young lady through the lines; Sliver Drab Cloth; Damasks and Rattinets, suitable for give our many transgressions.

A. by her parents, shot the young lady through the lines; Sliver Drab Cloth; Damasks and Rattinets, suitable for give our many transgressions.

A. by her parents, shot the young lady through the lines; Sliver Drab Cloth; Damasks and Rattinets, suitable for give our many transgressions.

A. by her parents, shot the young lady through the lines; Sliver Drab Cloth; Damasks and Rattinets, suitable for give our many transgressions.

A. by her parents, shot the young lady through the lines; Sliver Drab Cloth; Damasks and Rattinets, suitable for give our many transgressions.

A. by her parents, shot the young lady through the lines; Sliver Drab Cloth; Damasks and Rattinets, suitable for give our many transgressions.

A. by her parents, shot the young lady through the lines; Sliver Drab Cloth; Damasks and Rattinets, suitable for give our many transgressions. ship President. He saw on the day previous, the beauty and simplicity of our government, for, as an ancient writer says, "If you would have me know the character of the people, let me hear mob of rowdies went to the cotton fectory of Mr. States, of having annually a day set apart for was last year offered for it $40,000. Thomas II. Fulton, at the Northern extremity of general thanksgiving and prayer. The obser-ILLIBERALITY. We have been surprised at Howard street, and after using very abusive lan- vance of Friday next is recommended by the ... several paragraphs which have recently appear- guage, commenced a violent assault on Mr. Ful- President of the United States under peculiar their personal afflictions to themselves and their again to-night, notwithstanding the threatening Tide Water Canal. This single fact cannot but cold weather, the Richmond Whig says, that in star, walks, trets and canters well, and is equally suitanonymous letter which was received by them show the importance of this trade. ON DIT. There is a report in circulation in yesterday, of which the following is an extract: MR. BIDDLE. The correspondent of the there was frost in every month of the year but __ your concern."

which has been given them, and throw aside the 2. A revision and augmentation of the duties | source a revenue adequate to the wants of the

3. The repeal of the Sub-Treasury law. 4. The establishment of a fiscal agent, central or other, to aid the Government in collecting and disbursing the revenue and equalizing the cur-

the immediate necessities of the Treasury.

Sharp," (which every musician knows is the hung and yet obscure the prospect before us.— ell was taken at Longue Pointe, a few miles from These measures, taken together, would, we feel that city, and was foolish enough to attempt to entirely confident, suffice not only to restore to throw above twenty thousand dollars into the St. will be recoilected, for only $3 invested at our office a the country its wonted vigor, but carry it forward | Lawrence-a circumstance which could not have with a firmer step than it has ever taken."

With the first and second propositions we go cessary to insure the prosperity of the country; the part of the appellee, resumed and closed his and we shall support them regardless whether argument, when, about three o'clock, the Court the actor, who was a passenger, had agents stationed at points where information of the steamship would likely be received, and from one of such general interest, that they would be univer-| sally assented to, if separated from considerations

> This is a measure of doubtful expediency, and to Rochester on Thursday. He was committed should not be hastily adopted. We doubt whe- | for trial. ther there will be sufficient time at the extra session to mature the plan of a national bank with named Laura Newbury, daughter of Mr. Dyer such guards and restrictions as will render a safe, Newbury, of East Windsor, committed suicide useful and harmless "fiscal agent."

For the Baltimore Clipper.

[We entirely concur in the suggestion of our heart, and then blew out his own brains. fair correspondent. We know that there are costs to the father. Inc satter was too some of been handed us by N. Hickman, Esq. who has and punctuality will ever be his object for cash litigation however—he refused the offer, pressed been handed us by N. Hickman, Esq. who has and punctuality will ever be his object for cash been handed us by N. Hickman, Esq. who has and punctuality will ever be his object for cash been handed us by N. Hickman, Esq. who has and punctuality will ever be his object for cash been handed us by N. Hickman, Esq. who has and punctuality will ever be his object for cash been handed us by N. Hickman, Esq. who has and punctuality will ever be his object for cash been handed us by N. Hickman, Esq. who has and punctuality will ever be his object for cash.

ON DIT. There is a report in circulation in Philadelphia that the U.S. Bank is in treaty with a large monied institution in that city, for the sale of the Banking House and real estate, you value your own safety and the prosperity of the sale of the Banking House and real estate, you value your own safety and the prosperity of fearly and the prosperity of the care and fearly and the prosperity and the prosperity and the prosperity an

MRS. GOVE'S LECTURE. We are informed CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION. It may not be BENJAMIN STEVENS. This gentleman, as is

"Never go to law in New York without first

MAGISTRATE'S DECISION. The case reported | yesterday as being tried before Justice Miltenfect shape is disfigured by a hump. We wish gesting the following measures as likely to engage for the benefit of the commercial community generally.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY. A Jamaica paper says that an ingenious physician and naturalist there was a Daily Line via Wilmington city, that never in this island, has discovered the practicability of using mosquitoes as a substitute for the leech, fifty of the large speckled kind being generally tality, as a prize seller, will not now be disputed. We found equivalent to the leech; of the smallest) breed, from sixty-five to seventy being required. may now be said the American Poet, before alluded to, The greater irritation produced by the new ap-Plication has also been found advantageous.

ARREST OF THE EX-HON. CHARLES F. MITCH-5. A temporary loan, if necessary, to supply | ELL. The Montreal Herald of the 6th instant, | states that Mitchell, the American forger and seller, call To-day and get the $1500 in the Maryland "These measures," say the editors, "would member of Congress, has at last been captured by "put money in your own purse" and TO-MORROW at once disperse the clouds that have so long over- Captain Comeau, of the Montreal police. Mitch- he offers you the handsome snm of $10,000. benefitted him.

COUNTY COURT. The Lottery case occupied heart and hand. We look to their adoption as ne- the whole day yesterday. R. Johnson, Esq. on splendid Mari land State Lottery, class 15. Purchase

A MAIL ROBBER CAUGHT. Harrington, who was connected with Holton in robbing the mail We presume that the fourth proposition con- on board the packet boat last fall, was arrested templates the establishment of a national bank. by Fielding, near Presque Isle, U.C. and brought draw almost $30,000. From HEISLBR & CO. pur-

Suicipe. A few evenings since a young lady by throwing herself into the Connecticut River. The family was absent at the time, and she took MESSES. EDITORS: Next Friday, the 14th day advantage of the circumstances to effect her pur-

MORE OCEAN STEAMERS. It is said that Cu-On the 27th of last month, a British bark call- are bold to say, we do not consider the Italian commendation has been received it has met with nard's line of Atlantic steamers is to be increase 85 Ann street, Fell's Point. On the 27th of last month, a British bark call- are bold to say, we do not consider the management of the Recovery, Capt. Bowman, arrived at this port, from Bristol, England, with a cargo of coal, as welld and ranting." It may accord with the

A FRENCH TRAGEDY. A law student in Paris, aw at a distance, a very large ship swept clear, a people yet to require the polish of 'foreign airs,' a people yet to require the polish of 'foreign airs,' destinics of nations at his command, that he will some, supposed her to be masts, howsprit and all gone, supposed her to be tern Islands, or in lat. about 42, long. about 2, he ter is given to our own music. We are too young supplications and prayers to him who holds the aged 20, finding his proposals of marriage to a

> The Newark Advertiser says that fifteen years individuals who think that prayer is unnecessal ago a farm in western New York, of 400 acres, ry-but we have always entertained a different exausted by bad husbandry, was bought by a FETHE Subscriber (late of Washington City) bega OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT. Yesterday evening opinion, and consequently, have been the advo- Scotch farmer for $4,000. This farm has been Baltimore, that he has opened the CELLAR under the in existence nearly fifty years, has advertised m12.31. The New Hampshire Bank, which has been that the charter will expire on the third day of) January next; and that any bill which is not TUST opened at No. 153 Baltimore street, 2 cases presented on or before that day, will not be paid afterwards.

A CHANCE FOR SPECULATION. A Hoosier Candidate for Congress says he is one of twenty- DRILLINGS and SUMMER CLOTHS of every style, nine sons and two daughters by the same father for sale at reduced prices, by and mother, all now living; and that if any one can beat him on that score, he will withdraw RIGHT AND LEFT-STAND AT EASE. from the course. His name, as might be expected, is Smith.

CURTIS' CHEMICAL INK. Our pen is now] it for sale. We like it much, and would recom-

86-Mrs. GOVE'S LECTURE on Spinal Discusses that the andience (particularly the male part,) amiss to apprize our readers that the election for known, has been implicated by the New York AFTERNOON, at 4 o'clock, at the Saloon of the Law was very much amused by the lecture delivered members of congress in this state, will take place and Philadelphia papers as having been connect. Buildings. The succeeding Lectures, on Monday's 00-Tickets for the course $3-10 be had at the door.

> MORUMENTAL LYCEUM. 00-The public are respectfully invited to attend a meeting of this Institution, at their ball, in Exeter-st. agriculture receive government patronage?"

HUGH SISSON, Sec'y.

meeting be extended to the officers of the Society for their unremit-

FOURTH WARD WHIGS. 00- An adjourned meeting of the Whige of the 4th Ward will be held at Coath & Sargeant's, on THURS-DAY EVENING, 13th inst. at half past seven o'clock. Every Whig is requested to be at his post. By order, TENTH WARD.

00-An adjourned meeting of the Whig Voters of the 10th Ward will be held at the Hazaar, corner of Hanover and Camden streets, on THIS EVENING, 19th inst. at half past 7 o'clock. The meeting will be addressed by one or both of the Whig Congressional [m19-11] D. A. PIPER, Sec'y. UNITED FIRE DEPARTMENT.

OG- A Special Meeting of the Stancing Committee of the Baltimore United Fire Department, will be held

3G-TAKE NOTICE-That there was no Steam-

WEDNESDAY, 5th May. SATURDAY, Sib May. But there was one advertised to leave daily. But

COMMUNICATION. 03-Well, surely SCHÆFFER's claim to immorselling to an old enstomer another Prize of $1000.

is not far from a prophet—his words are: "Bure SCHÆFFER Jet may reach the place, To which with anxious eye doth look, The thousands of this anxious race,

A same revered in Fortune's book." If ye would add further laurels to this famous prize

MI-A Ticket, purchased from HEIBLER & CO. THIS DAY, may secure you a spiezdid fortune—it only $2, the day previous, invested with us, we paid a lady $1062.50. This way, citizens! and secure a ticket from HEISLER'S ever fertunate office.

Draws THIS DAY, 28th May, in Baltimore, the GRAND SCHEME:

Capitals-10,000 DOLLARS!

Ten Prizes of 1,000 Tickets $4-Shares in proportion. This is a splendid Scheme for Packages, which will cost only, on certificate, $15 for 25 Tickets, and may

CO-Orders, through the Baltimore Post Office or by mail, meet the same prompt attention as though per-| sonally present, if addressed to

HEISLER & CO., Baltimore, Md. SUPERFINE IRISH LINENS DIFFENDERFFER & CO. have just

| THe received an invoice of superfine IRISH LIN-ENS, suitable for Ladies Collars, at 43 Market st. m12 TARANCIS S. WALTER continues to give inattuction on the PIANO FORTE and in VOCAL MUSIC, to the Single Pupil or in classes of four each. Application to be made at No. 56 N. Howard street, or

WORSTED CORDS AND BINDINGS.

No. 153 Baltimore st. between Light & Charles.

POST OFFICE RESTAURATEUR. ton friends, when here, to give him a call and taste the

MERRIMACK & COCHEIO CHITNZES. Merrimack CALICOES, small patterns, beautiful style; 2 cases Cocheio do. do. do; French and British painted Lawns; 5-4 Hamilton bleached Long Cloth Sheeting; 4-4 brown and bleached Shirtings, together with a large lot of new style GAMBROONS, LINEN

JNO. EASTER, of JNO. & CO. Sign of the Bee Hive. The subscriber takes this method to inform his numerous friends and the public, that he continues to manufa ture Gentlemen's BOOTS at the low price of $3, and all kinds of work in his line, and of the best leather and workmanship. Also, Eastern work, wholesale and retail, very few for cash. Work done at the shortest notice-despatch

THOROUGH-BRED MARE. FOR SALE, a Thorough bred Mare, ola years old this month, of fine form

NOTICE-To Farmers and Gardeners.