/TIWO CHARMING PERIODICALS. 1:1 No. of a New Volume of the Ladies' Companion. Opinions of the Press, viz: New World. The Knickerbocker for this month is out punctually on the first, and it is full to overflowing with good things. That capital story, the Country Doctor-far superior to the majority of the continuations in the English Magazines—goes on more amusingly than be fore. The numb'r is embellished with a curious and appropriate engraving of "a Dutch Cottage in Beaver street, 1679."

The May number of the Ladies' Companion is embellished with a steel engraving that would do no discredit to Finden's Galleries. It is exceedingly beauti ful, and is entitled "The Young Chief's First Ride." Such embellishments alone entitle this various and excellently edited magazine to the bountiful patronage with which it is favored. We notice certain typographical improvements in this number, which are indications of the good taste of the proprietor.

The literary merit of the Ladies' Companion seems to nerease rather than diminish—and, with the editorial labora which are now bestowed upon it, it cannot fail to be pronounced highly creditable to the literature of the country.
