their insertion.

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 13, 1841.

[NUMBER 55.

the end of each week. 63- Country subscribers, by mail, Four Dellars per annum, in advance.

Rusiness Cards, of only two lines, five dolls a year. DO-Ten lines or less make a square-if as afterthement exceeds ten lines, the price will be in proportion. All advertisements are payable at the time t

ODE TO NIGHT. Come night! and thou bright evening star, With trembling rays-Thy voiceless hours are lovelier far Than garish days.; Noctiferous hours! thy glorious reign

Doth silence bring-And day-still'd fancy soars again On painted wing. Memory glides gently from her nook, And by the rays

Of Cynthia pores upon her book With earnest gaze. Night! in thy softened lights and shades, Love works his charms;

Thou bring'st the bushful, timid maids To lovers' arms! In thy still hours Hope loves to frame

Her castles airy— Which quickly grow as first they came At wand of fairy.

Music and mirth, with you unbound, In hall and bower, Join hands and gaily dance around; They feel thy power.

Then quickly come star-spangled night On raven wing-To thee and to thy crescent bright, ANNETTE. I'll ever sing!

> From the Knickerhocker for May. RETROSPECTIONS

TALE. [Concluded from our last.]

share of the 'scoffs which patient merit of the un- hoping the best as to the future. worthy takes.' Your pardon, Miss Manton; the Two or three months passed away, and I marriage becoming more apparent; and when I living in my neighborhood a pour old woman who had as those selling elsewhere for $5. Also, line fashionatruth is, I had carelessly started to make the call | thought myself gaining, though slowly, in his found myself really addressed by a wealthy wid. | been sick for a long time and could not get relief; at | ble Bilk Ilate at $2.50, warranted on Russia bodies, on the Misses Higgins in my red study-slippers, estimation, when one day he invited Julia and ower, with an invitation to relinquish my southand in these circumstances, when I was dazzled | myself to a long ride. We were gone the whole | ern possessions and take his instantly, I sat down | by the view of the galaxy within doors, I could day, stopping to dine at a hotel, which was to spread the same of your valuable medicine amongst Arcade some six months ago. So come one and all to not muster impudence enough to enter, and so | be the end of our journey. During the ride this | McLellan, concluding with 'God bless you!" concluded to postpone the call to a more conve- ther, Julia was his idol. She was perfectly hap- The miserable ambition to ride in a gilded as it respects myself, my friend-tell me when I to to for good and cheap Hats. Don't forget now! nient season-much to my sorrow, Miss Julia, I | py; I was equally unhappy. But after dinner he carriage was soon gratified; but my heart pants | town, that they have not seen me look so well for ma-

assure you. ed so sascinatingly into his eyes, that for my life, Icss assiduous in his attention to Julia. She saw dulgent he shand; but I heed not his attentions. look as you now see me. And now, my stiend, I hope for the rest of the evening, I was quite unable to it, and like a little cur, whose jealousy has been I cannot return the love he bears me. Who can that the Lord will continue to be with you, and make attract his attention, and was forced to amuse my- | excited by his master's notice of another, she | bless the immediate cause of one's crimes and the self with the married men of the party. When | redoubled her playfulness and her fawnings. But | utter and eternal ruin of one's peace? the time for separation arrived, he requested the he perseveringly though gently repelled all her | Five years are gone, and the green laurel of cring my displeasure at this ominous circum- asked of me some trifling favor, which Julia of him whose honors might have been mine!stance, I requested him to call and see us often, might have done, and which she expected always Whether he knows what has become of me, I to which he returned a gratified answer, and to do. It was impossible to understand fully the could never learn, and may never know; but O! T. MOORE, No. 74 Market street, General Agent for terials by the quantity much lower than if I bought by bade me good evening. The very next day he meaning of all this, until I saw her black eye could I see him but once again, my soul would Baltimore. Price 25 cents per box, five for $1, or $2 the small; and secondly, I sell for cash, and do not rook tea with the Misses Higgins, and stayed the | flash with rage, her dark face grow ashen, and spura dictation from Duty or Prudence. I would perdozen. myself in the evening, intending to exert all my | heave convulsively, and her foot beat quick upon | ask his prayers; and my trembling lips should was yet in love; it was to gratify my vanity. I thing had occurred. From the suddenness of Tell him I ne erforget, though memory now be crime! talked too much-I was too anxious to please. I this strange yet petty incident, we were all for Tell kim when fades the light upon the earth and sea, was ill, moreover, and did not look surpassingly some time silent, Julia from sheer wrath and sur. I dream of kim by night—he must not dream of me! ed just enough. The rosy glow of health mantled which he found himself placed. I broke at York, has been petitioned to reccommend the sweats, heetic fever, &c. She had taken a violent cold; unsuccessful, and was forced to yield the field at | up; he to order the carriage and horses, and we dison Co., for illegally and corruptly granting diate application to a physician. Under his treatment an early hour. I had been charmed with his wit, | to dress. sentiments. At parting, he professed to have I, as soon as M'Lellan was out of hearing. evenings of his life.

I was now twenty years of age, a date at which of this before night.' presumptuous: the curling lip, the scornful gaze, whom you have so long courted in vain. an age for the exercise of the greatest female I merely gave Julia a Byronic look; and in an cuuning. If we lack this, we are undone. We | instant's reflection drove the really good-hearted must now play with men as with kittens; draw girl to my arms, begging forgiveness. M'Lellan sabbath schools. the gilded tassel gently before their eyes, and be | soon re-entered, offered his arm first to me, and careful lest we frighten or disgust them by hurl- I then to Julia. She had forgotten something, and

ing it into their faces. three years is no trifle, when the game is for a my part, I had recovered the use of my tongue, lover. I am obliged to confess, also, that at times | and was very lively the whole way. In due | she was very beautiful; but that was not the day | time Julia was dropped at her door, and we | ion was the richest lever saw, in conjunction ing evening. So reasonable a request I could not unbecoming recreation on Friday next." with her dress, which she well knew how appro- refuse. I watched at my chamber window long priately to manage. Her black eye was perfectly | after night-fall, feeling constant alarm and anxieenchanting; her manners too were calculated to ty lest something might have happened to pre-the Norfolk Herald of the 11th inst. that yesterplease one who had seen much of the formalities | vent his coming. At length I descried his figure | of the world. She was so frank and forward, | under the window; and a few seconds only elaps. | that in fashienable circles she would have been ed before I met him at the door. At the comconsidered hoydenish; but M'Lellan thought her | mencement of our walk, he began talking in a | the case of Bean and others vs. ship Grace Brown, FETHOSE who are fend of a "GOOD CUP OF an artiers, confiding girl, and tortured me great- very abstracted way about the weather, and con- awarding to the libellants twenty four hundred In by recounting her virtues, to all which I was | tinued so long talking to himself, without noticknowing enough to agree, and to add something | ing my remarks, that I was at length obliged to more. I insisted that she would make an excel- | recall him to this world, by the vulgar inquiry, lent wife—for a man with plenty of means; but 1 'What is the matter?' He answered not a word, the fancy establishment of Miss Eliza A. Evans, informed him of the fact that she was already on- | but I felt his sinewy frame tremble. I then exgaged to a physician in New York.

At this intelligence he reddened with surprise | returning to the house till another evening. He and evident mortification; for Miss Julia, being in | protested that he was perfectly well, and prefact very much of a exquette, however artless she | ferred not to return; and I thought it advisable | suspend operations on Friday, 14th inst., out of might seem, had taken pains to have this studi- to give him all the time he desired to arrange ously concraled, so fur as she was able; but he his ideas, and commence the subject which I replied tomy remark:

If am greatly indebted to you for that informa- by heaving half a dozen very heavy sighs, he tion. I was very near being in love with her, I | seemed to erect and brace himself for the dreadflected that she is too gay, thoughtless, and dash- | ed | felt, his mental agonies had doubtless been | 649 pounds, and valued at 8140,647 60. ing, to make a good wife for a humble minister.' | materially less.

This paper is furnished to subscribers at SIX greatly by my very solemn demeanor, while he ferent to me, nay, deeply attached to Julia, only CENTS per week-payable to the Carriers only, at expatiated at large on his favorite theme. I also that he might have better opportunities to judge observed that he appeared highly gratified at my of my character; that he was fully satisfied, and FETHE perfectly safe, unerring and successful treatreadiness in quoting Scripture, and with the seel- now selt that the time had come to make a deing manner in which I recited a hymn of Dr. | claration of his affection. He concluded his halaquare I time, . 30 50 | 1 square I menth, . 34 00 | Watte. He however continued to manifest much rangue with the usual query whether it were 75 1 do. 2 months, 7 00 partiality for Julia; insomuch that the slander- possible that an angel like myself could reciprodo. . . 10 00 loving villagers whispered about that the match | cate the affection of a mere mortal like him? Acdo. . . 16 66 between her and the doctor was to be broken off. | cording to prescribed rules, I declared it was the | patient has, to all appearance, effected a permanent they were samiliar as brother and sister; and since | ever entered my head; that I really selt so emthey did not care for whispers, scandal did not | barrassed---- I liked Mr. McLellan---must ask stop here, but soon began to speak in louder sather and mother--- In short, it was impossiany thing of the kind:

> 'An auld wife's tongue's a feckless matter To gie ane fash,'

said she to me one day, when I told her what was | The next day we were engaged! said about her connexion with M'Lellan; and tru-Burns himself to public opinion.

and woman, is as great an inducement to con- these, without shuddering at my wickedness and bead, pains in the chest, flatulency, impaired appetite, C. STOTT, corner of 7th street and the avenue; and quest as love steels. You shall notice any belle, folly, and hating and despising myself a thousand, in every disease arising from an imputity of the blood, by H. WADE, on 7th street. who is surrounded by a cloud of suitors; one or thousand times. Those days are gone, as a plea- or a disordered state of the stomach, the use of these In Georgetawn, by JOHN L. KIBWELL. two perhaps are fascinated by her beauty and ac- sant dream when one awaketh.' I have indeed complishments, and really love her; others would awoke to wretchedness and remorse. O, the win her merely because the is sought for by oth- curse, the bitter curse of Memory! It crowds | ticular in taking them strictly according to the directhers: they seek her as they would the purse at | my chamber nightly with the spectres of my fola race. They would win her, because she is a ly and hypocrisy. contested prize; more to enjoy the honor, than McLellan completed his studies, and having for the value of the prize itself. A woman will received an invitation to become pastor of a flourdesire to effect a conquest because the object is ishing church in the south, left me to think on him call or send to Mr. Moffat's arent in this place, and loved by others, or honored for his talents by the | what was past, and sigh alone. Thence he wrote | procure a copy of the Medical Manual, designed as a world at large. I was anxious to captivate me weekly. Such letters! How I worshipped domestic suide to health, published gratultously. He M'Lellan, because I knew he had genius and en- them! How my friends admired! How proud will here find enumerated very many cattaordinary ergy, and I thought it very probable that he was I to show them, as proofs of my own power! would one day become famous. I saw that he But soon the hand of disease laid him prostrate, was more pleased with Julia than myself; and and kept him very feeble through a long, long here, ambition to win what another possessed, season; so that his letters to me became less freurged me to greater effort. In short, I had quent, and in consequence of his enfeebled state thought so much of M'Lellan, and was so firmly of mind and body, less ardent, though still suffidetermined on curing his indifference, for so I ciently affectionate. But a year's separation had i decemed it, that I again found myself absolutely its usual effect on my volatile heart, and I found and unequirocally in love; and now, as ever be- it convenient to pretend jealousy, and discover a done great things for me whereof I am glad. When I fore, I had fixed my affections where contrary | want of due feeling in his letters; and being flat- | naw you in Fredericksburg, I t-lak I said that I had inclinations opposed barriers. But it was ever tered again by attentions from young men of my been afflicted with a very acid (sour) stomach, and my nature to strive against sate. I should have native city and elsewhere, I had already been subject to a violent pain in my head for more than been born a man!

OF A EROKEN-HEARTED BELLE: AN OWER TRUE | was not quite sure that I understood his disposi- | hoping to make him doubt my affection; to become | swelled that I was unable, at times, to attend to my tion. At times he seemed a miracle of frank- disgusted, and propose a dissolution of the con- business. But since you made me a present of a box ness and simplicity; at others, directly the re- tract; for my conscience, seared as it was, hin- of your Pamily Pills I have taken I or 2 of them at verse. I thought him quite indifferent to me, dered me for a time from making this proposal to night in going to bed, and now my acid stomach is rejustifiable in ascribing my retreat to bashfulness. or out of the way, I should stand a good chance I am an exceedingly modest man, and by coase- of success. I could devise no good plan, and felt with perfect coldness, but made no proposal to quence meritorious, and of course must have my obliged to let matters take their own course, dissolve. I continued the same tone of impudent Predericksburg, to administer to my retief. (Blessed prices are well known, and are as follows: Eplendid began all at once, without any cause that I could still for that which it has not, and alas! can never my years, and I say to them, 'I will tell you the secret Julia returned an answer so playful, and look- | discern, to change his tone toward me, and to be | have again! I have a beautiful villa, and an inpleasure of attending Miss Julia home. Smoth- advances, and finally turned away from her, and fame freshens and blossoms daily upon the brow charms to captivate him if possible: not that I | the ottoman; then I was quite satisfied that some- | Tell him I love him yet, as in that joyous time, pretty that evening. Julia was splendidly prise, I from surprise and satisfaction, and he dressed, was full of animation and wit, and talk- probably from embarrassment at the dilemma in NATURALIZATION. Gov. Seward, of New ken with Bleeding from the Lungs, coughing, night her dark brown cheek, and the light of love length the painful silence, by recommending an removal of the Hon. Edward Rogers, Epenetus having previously given symptoms of the approach of sparkled in her eye. Against such odds I was immediate return home, at which we all started Holmes and Joseph Clark. Esq., Judges of Ma. Consumption, I felt much alarmed and made imme-

and my heart throbbed in sympathy with his What does it all mean, dear Julia? inquired persons who had never declared their intentions. passed in our company one of the most delightful | 'I neither know nor care,' replied she, snap- moval, but promises to submit the subject to the pishly; 'some whim, I presume. He will repent Legislature for its action.

women begin to think seriously of their prospects Observing my wicked, incredulous smile, she for life. The clear horizon begins now to be | added sharply, 'I suppose, Miss Mary, you imadarkened by scattered clouds; we are now less | gine that year beauty has at last entrapped him

Julia was but seventeen. An advantage of whole ride back, she opened not her lips: for days and a half. pressed my fears that he was ill, and proposed in Philadelphia.

was now sure was uppermest in his mind. Final-

And here the conversation turned very natu- | He told me he loved me, and had loved me | rally upon religious subjects; and I interested him | since first we met; that he had appeared indif- | York last week.

tones. But Julia was too independent to notice ble to answer such a question so soon; he must mend the use of his medicines to his fellow citizens. wait a few weeks. He declared that a single the very next day. Of the delicious hours I enjoyed while he re-hasty enough to address McLellan in a tone of twenty years, for which I took shubarband soda three I was nucertain how to manage M'Lellan. I great peevishness, nay, almost with insolence, the or no relief, and my legs and ankles were to much compaint, as I fancied the opportunity of speedy be his holy name, I am greatly relieved.) There is Pashionable Russia Hats for $3.20, of the same quality naturalization papers last fall to about forty June, when I heard from an intelligent man of DR. The Governor declines to recommend their re-

Methodist Episcopul Church, closed its session persect cure. Please publish this certificate, with my eity. at Newark on Wednesday last. There are in home in full, that others may know where to find the are not so frequently brought into play. This is I was always too proud to scold or to quarrel; the four districts in the Conference, 23,431 communicants, including 156 local preachers, and 200

> SHORT SESSION. The Legislature of Rhode SHOULDER BRACES-Warren's Patent. bade us go on, and she would follow. During the Island has adjourned, after being in session two

The Governor of Rhode Island has issued a proclamation requesting the inhabitants of the time; for then she appeared almost as black as an rode on. M'Lellan then asked me to grant him State to "abstain from all unnecessary labor, and Othello dahlia; but by candle light, her complex- the pleasure of a promenade with me the ensu-

> LIBEL FOR SALVAGE. We are informed by day, his Honor Judge Mason, after a summary of the law and facts, pronounced an able opinion in dollars and all costs.

Ors-A daring robbery has been committed upon pose-a small piece, thrown into the coffee whilst 63-The Banks of Philadelphia have agreed to respect to the recommendation of the President.

cleared from Mobile a short time since for Liverbelieve: in fact-heigho! But I might have re- ful task. Had he known how perfectly delight. pool with 2750 bales of cotton, weighing 1,315,

93-One hundred and fifty-two deaths in New

MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS AND VEGETABLE BITTERS.

ment of almost every species of disease by the use of MOFPAT'S LIFE MEDICINES, is no longer a matter of doubt, as a teference to the experience of many thousand patients will satisfactorily prove. During the present month alone, nearly one hundred cares have come to the knowledge of Mr. Moffit, where the Medicines-tome eight or ten of there had been con-Mr. M. and inspire him with new confidence to recom-

The Life Medicines are a purely VEGETABLE preweek's suspense would be equivalent to a large | paration. They are mild and pleasant in their operdyspepsis, the Life Medicines will give telief in a streets—with full directions accompanying each bottle ly she manifested the indifference of Rebbie mained in town, I cannot speak in the same tone shorter space of time than any other prescription; in at $1 per bettle. of levity in which I have encountered the propo- Fever-and-ague, Inflammation, Pevers of every des- 07-Forsale in Washington city by ROBERT PAT-I sincerely believe that ambition, both in man sal and acceptance; for I cannot even think of cription, Eick beadache, bearthum dizziness in the TERSON, cor. 9th street and the avenue, and CHAP. ly superior to any other mode of treatment.

All that Mr. Metfat make of his patients is to be partions. It is not by a newspaper no ice, or by any thing that he himself may say in their favor, that he hopes to gain credit, it is alone by the results of a fair trial. I the reader an invalid, and does he wish to know whether the life medicines will suit his own case? If so let cares of cure; and pethaps some exactly similar to his own. Moffat's medical office in New York, 175 Broadway, and for sale by the Agents. JAS. BOOZ, No. 9 Ficet succt.

WM. TAYLOR, No. 18 North street. DAVIES' FAMILY PILLS. [From a very Respectable Parm-r.]

STAFFORD COUNTY, VA. SEPT. 7th, 1840. Dear Sir:- I write to let you know that the Lord has lieved, the swelling in my legs has nearly disappeared, length I purchased a box of your pills and gave them to and generally selling eleewhere for $4 or no sale. And her, after awhite I caw her out and about her business, and she said that the one box had cured her. I have my acquaintances, and many have purchased. Now, 661 Baltimore street, between Gay and Holliday-ts. why; ashort time ago I met with a Dr. Davies in town, and he gave me abox of pills, and they have made me you useful to your fellow creatures, as he has hitherto done. I remain with respect. CHARLES BRUCE.

13-They will carry off the bile from the stomach.

AUNSUMPTION AND BLEEDING OF THE ton street. U LUNGS CURED. Mr. Wm. Sheppard, residing in Beaver county, Pa. near the state line, relates as of all qualities. follows: "In the month of May last my wife was tashe became worse, instead of better, until the first of SWAYNE'S SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY, and from his earnestness in recommending it I was induced to try one bottle. The effect exceeded my utmost expectations—she felt immediate relief. I then mounted I my herse and rode to the office, No. 41 St. Clair street 93-The New Jersey Annual Conference of the Phttsburg, where it is kept for rate, and procured six greatest blessing on earth.

WILLIAM SHEPPARD. 63- For sale by RICHARD NORRIS of William, No. 254 Baltimore street, who is the Bole Agent in this cents at retail. For sale by

THESE ARTICLES. the shoulders erect, are high ly recommended by the FACULTY, for the prevention and assistance of a WEAK BREAST. They can be had of the best H. WARREN, Stock Maker, No. 4 North street,

Next door to the Patriot

THE PATENT COFFEE CLEARER. COFFEE are requested to try the above article, thing Coffee. It is also much cheaper and more hands than any thing else which is used for the same pur boiling, will make it as transparent as amber-price 12}

W. J. VAN NESS, Grocer, Market Space.

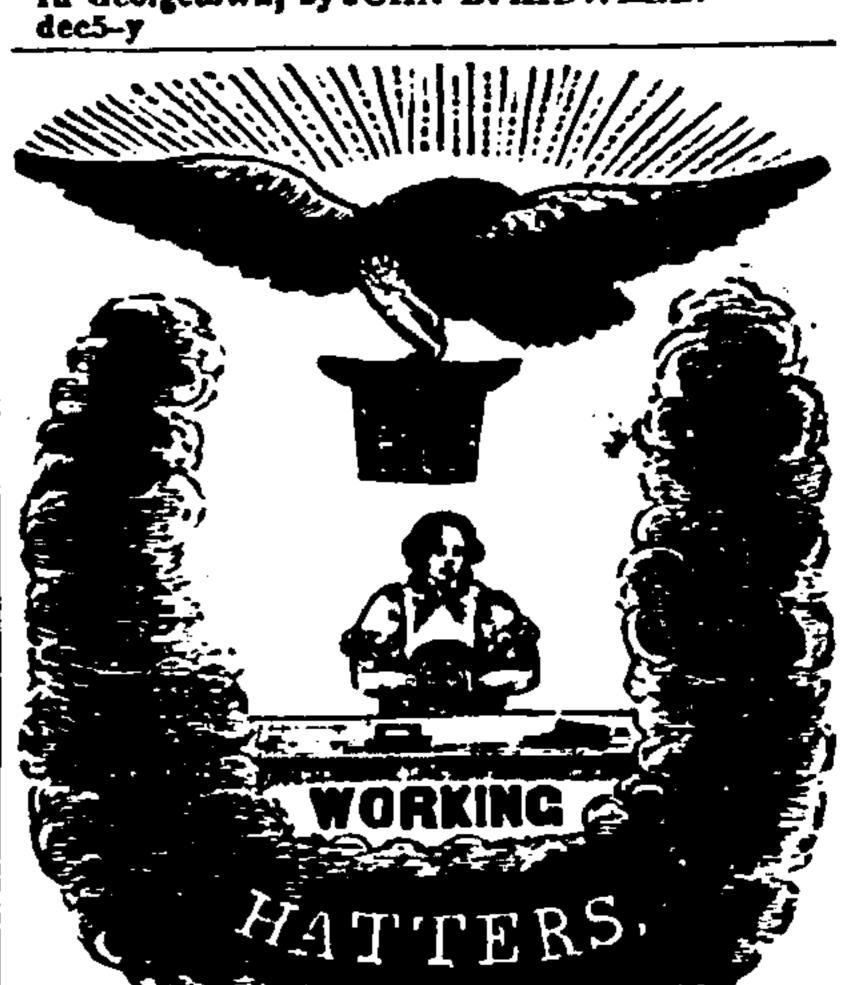

SMITH'S CLOCK ESTABLISHMENT, No. 34 S. CHARLES ST., Baltimore BIRANCH of the New York City Manufactory. A Just received at the above establishment, a large VALUABLE CARGO. The British ship Speed supply of SMITH'S CLOCKS, of the latest patterns Avenue. cash, at wholesale and retail. N.B. All kinds of Eastern CLOCKS repaired by an lexperienced werkman. WEOANE'S MUSTARD. Fine and superant in kegs and canisters. For sale by TURNER, WHEELWEIGHT & MUDGE 28outh Charles street.

100 DOLLARS REWARD. TER. STORM'S SPECIFIC COMPOUND, For the cure of Gonorrhana, Gleets, Strictures,

Diabets or difficulty in making water, and all other upnatural discharges from the uretha of either sex. In no case has this medicine been known to fall, to effect a permanent cure, and too, in the shortest portible time. Should this medicine full to effect a cure where it has been taken according to directions, return the empty vial and get back the money. Why thru He rode and walked with her frequently, and first time that actual, personal matrimony had cure by the exclusive and judicious use of the Life spend both time and money with such quack nostrans sidered beyond all hope by their medical attendants.- | purchase a pleasant, sure, and speedy cure, composed Buch happy results are a source of seext pleasure to solely of vegetable substance. One hundred doilars will be paid to any one who will produce a medicine to equal this compound, or who will prove that it com tains any mineral substance whatever.

N. R. This Medicine can be had of JAMES P. Wildose of pressic acid, and insisted on an answer ation, and at the same time thorough—acting rapidly LIAMSON, corner of High and Green street, (O. T.) uson the secretions of the system—carrying off all of T. J. PITT, Market Space, Pell's Point, and by acrimonious humors, and assimilating with and purify. J. W. W. GORDON, cor. of Prait & Howard-ets. Also, ing the blood. For this reason, in aggravated cases of of L. S. THOMAB, corner of Briton and Forcet

@@1 BALTIMORK-ST. HATS AGAINST DD2 THE WORLD. No! Not all the World our old emitoeners will picase bear in mind that the well known KEEVIL removed from the Maryland

W. H. KEEVIL & CO'S. No. 664 Baltimore-st., opposite Tripolett's alicy, And 4 doors W. of Bool's well known Auction Store.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The price of HATS sgain lowered TOWSON is now selling in Eutaw street, one door north of Lexington street, his superior north of Lexington fow prices—fitte liate at the following low prices—fine short Nap Mole Bkin Hats at $250, fine Brush Hate Sold by G. Savage, General Agent for Washington; $2.50; Fur Hate from $1.50 upwards. It may be asked J. Thomas, and Mrs. Banks Georgetown; W. G. Cole, how such flats can be sold (if as represented) at su, h Hatter, and J. Brunner. Frederick; S. Chunk, Alexan- | very low prices; I answer in the first place, I manudria; J. Demuth, York; No. 34 Fayette etreet; and by | ficture very extensively, and am able to purchase the have to charge those who pay a high price, to make up for those who do not pay, as the natural result of the credit system. I think my Hats the test as now offere ever sold in this market for the price. Persons will please call and look at my hate before purchasing elsewhere. Remember TOWEON, one door from Lexing-

N. B. The trade supplied with HATS in the rough

FASHIONABLE BOOTS. W. L. McCAULEY. Gentlemen's FASHIONABLE BOOT MAKER, No. 6 LOMBARD STREET, cor. of Franklin Lane, near South-st, makes BOOTS at $3.50 per pair, and Poots them for $2.75, of the very best Leather and Workman hip. Being a Practical Bout Maker, and Inventor of the Pegged Cork Sole BOOTS, which have given so much satisfaction to the wearer, gentlemen may relyon getting good and handsome work. Give me a colf, and I will endeavor to please. bottles more, which I am happy to say has effected a for my Boots shall be behind note in this or any other W. L. McCAULEY.

MASH FOR NEGROES. The highest care prices will at all times be given for Negroes of both sexes, that are slaves for life, and good titles. Hy office is in Pratt street, between Sharp and Howard streets, and opposite to the Repository—where I of my agent can be seen at all times. All persons, having Negroes to sell, would do well to see me before they dispose of them, as I am always buying and forwarding for the purpose of keeping to the New Orleans market. I will also receive and keep Negroes at twenty-five cents each, per day, and forward them to any Southern port, at the request of the owner. My establishment is large, comfortable and siry, and all above ground; and kept in complete order, with a large yard for exercise; and is the strongest and most splendid building of the kind in the United States. And as the character of my house and quality and manufacture, of yard is so completely established, for strength, comfortand cleanliness, and it being a place where I keep al. my own, I will not be accountable, for the future. for any escapes of any kind from my establishment. HOPE H. SLATTER

FERRIE GENUINE VEGETABLE PILLS AN EFFECTUAL CURE FOR CONORRHOEA GLEETS, STRICTURES, &c. &c. Of all the remedies yet discovered for the cure of these complaints. which will be found to be of unsurpassed utility in set. the Vegetable Pills have been the most effectuel, as they have never been known to fail to offect a permanent cure. They are mild and pleasant to take, 5rt powerful in their action, and may be taken without the knowledge of the most intimate friend. These Pitts are put up in square hores, with fall directions or companying each box. For sale by SAMPL CARRY, corner of South & Baltimore-en-JAMES O. McCORMICK, N. Gay et., O. T. THOS. J. PITTS, Fell's Point.

Washington City, by W.KIRKWOOD, cor. 12th street and the country CHARLES STOTT, corner of 7th trees and the

In Georgetown, by O. M. LINTHICUM

FOR RENT. A spacious Post, with or without tooms above, in a destrate in a forhouse, Bruggier, Manufactors, or Store of about scription. Apply to L. P. SCOTTI, one does from the corner of St. l'auf street, basement of the Tonteennen