[Reported for the Baltimore Clipper.] BALTIMORE CITY COURT. SATURDAY, MAY 15, 1841.

Present-Judges Brice, Nisbel and Worthington. Wm. Crew, Wm. alias Fox Bosley, and Elijak Remock, were put upon trial, charged with commenting a most outrageous assault on Thomas H. Fulton, on Saturday last. Mr. Fulton testified that Crew and Bosley came into his factory in North Howard street, and commenced meddling and gring very abusive language; that he ordered the to leave the place, as it was a place of works, and he could not be interrupted; that he the the into the yard to give some order, and that these two men followed him, one had a club! with which he struck him (Fulton) several times; that they then gave a whoop when Peastruck at him (F.) with such violence as to break | ROOM, and respectfully solicits their patternage. the stick against the wall which it struck, was N.B. Tome of Gen. Harrison. The following paragraph, which we find in the Shelby (Ky.) News of the 5th ult. seems to settle the question as to where the remains of the late honored hero, now reposing in death's untroubled sleep at the capital, shall be eventually deposited:

"We learn from Col. Todd, that on his way to his residence in this county last week, he, in performance of a sacred duty, called upon the venerable Widow of our lamented deceased President. Whilst there, he was invited by that lady to a consultation with herself and her only remaining son, as to the ultimate depository of the remains of her distinguished and beloved husband,—the Great and Good President. It was determined, at this consultation, to remove the remains immediately to North Bend, to be deposited upon a beautiful and elevated natural mound, | proschable by any other press in the worker; and alwhere the monument may be seen for several miles up and down the Ohio river. New York, March 23, 1810. DEAR SIR-I received yours of the 19th instant, and PATENT LAME, in my epinion, is much superior to any Lamp now in use-the Camphine produces better light than Gas or Oil. I have burned Oil for five years, Gas for eleven, and Webb's Camphine for 20 months. have a better light in my bar-room with five of Webb's burners than I had in the same room with eleven gas lights. In fact, I light my whole bouse at less expense with the Camphine than it cost me to light my bai-room alone with gas. I recommend it as being the cheapest and best light now in use.
