For Sale. † Wanted.

FROM TEXAS. The steam packet New York the day of sa'e. arrived on the 12th inst. at New Orleans, bring. ing Galvesten dates to the 9th.

The principal item of intelligence by this arrival is the total loss of the English bark Sarab, Corner of Charles and Long treats, respectwith a cargo of cotton, inside the bar at Galveston. While being towed out by the New York on the 5th inst. she parted her hawser before reaching the bar, and drifted until she struck.

During a heavy storm which came on afterwards she bilged, and the next day sunk in three fathoms water. She had 900 bales of cotton on board, belonging to Mr. Powers and McKinney & Williams. The sails and rigging were saved. The Sarah was described as an old vessel.

Several vessels were much injured during the same storm, among them the brig Reaper; and sloop, name unknown, was totally lost. General Rusk has publicly declined becoming a candidate for the Presidency. The cultivation of wheat has been undertaken in Travis county with every prospect of success.

FIRE. The alarm yesterday morning, a little before twelve o'clock, was caused by the slight ing interest on arrearages of City Taxes due for 1839 burning of a house on Painter's Court, near the corner of Pitt and Exeter streets.
