Snote articles which enter into the general consomption of the world, thereby augmenting mences his message by a reference to the melanthe demand from other quarters, and thus call-ing for additional labor, it were needless to inquire. The highest considerations of public present situation; and, in this connexion, recomhonor, as well as the strongest promptings of mends legislative interposition in behalf of the of Mr. Tyler to be styled President of the Uni-

seem proper to trouble you at an extraordinary session, will be laid before you at a future day. 1 am nappy in committing the important ant affairs of the country into your hands.— shows a deficit for the current year, and for Tyler was bona fide President of the United fires, however created, the hue and cry is immediately ant affairs of the country into your hands.— shows a deficit for the current year, and for Tyler was bona fide President of the United fires, however created, the hue and cry is immediately and affairs of the country into your hands.— The tendency of public sentiment, I am please which provision will have to be made of $11,- States, by election, by the constitution, and by by this course a growing preladice has been awakened by the course and the course a growing preladice has been awakened by the course and the course are course as growing preladice has been awakened by the course and the course are course as growing preladice has been awakened by the course are course as growing preladice has been awakened by the course are course as growing preladice has been awakened by the course are course as growing preladice has been awakened by the course are course as growing preladice has been awakened by the course are course as growing preladice has been awakened by the course are course as growing preladice has been awakened by the course are course as growing preladice has been awakened by the course are course as growing preladice has been awakened by the course as growin abolish all useless -penses.

JOHN TYLER. WASHINGTON, June 1, 1841.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 2, 1841.

OUR EXTRA-THE CLIPPER A-HEAD!

the President's Message were delivered to us at the corner of Gay and Lombard streets, and in vy, and will hereafter communicate the views of they should be turned out of employment. Why two minutes from that time they were distributed the Secretary of the Navy on the subject. from our counter to hundreds of anxious readers. We were the first in the city to furnish the message to the public! A certain bragging establish the recent lettings of mail contracts at reduced ney in timepast. The necessaries of life are ment, who say they are always "wide awake" h (!) was at least ten minutes behind us. The race between our own express and that employed | by the Government was a tight one, at least that | ... portion of it witnessed by us in Lombard street. N. R. Woodward store the extraordinary, and kept the ...eck nobly all the way to the Canton pepet, beating the Government express THREE MINUTES. When they passed through Lombard etreet, the fire flew and the regentle to the "Go it, Woodward" mother, and "Huzza! for the Clipper!" was the general shout, when our bundle was thrown out, kneeking over balf a demain notary publics and custom house meers. Mr. ly—he is he we beat! and did'at care about killing - uozen or two of little pigs.

The express was one hour and five minutes on the road from Washington to this city, and was can has quietly withdrawn his spoon from the the Frederick care yesterday, and took lodgings carried from the Depot through the city to Can- public dish, and revived to abstain from the use at Barnum's Hotel. She is in excellent health ton by Mr. Woodward in the short space of 8 of "government pip." As he appears to have a and spirits and leaves this morning at 9 o'clock minutes.

question at rest.

In the case of the vice-president no action has | Birc. been had, but we presume the subject will be brought up for consideration. Mr. Southard is as president pro-tem.; but we presume that it liet. But we are like the old semale-Courtier understood to have taken his seat in the Senate will be found indispensable to "define his position." We have heretofore expressed our conviction that he is the vice-president, and cannot neighbor's feast, "a contexted mind." hold his seat as a senator; and our reasons for this opinion were given to the reader. The more reflection we bestow upon the subject, the nore are we strengthened in our belief that the position which we have assumed is correct-paper primed weens in New York, entitled "The lest they should be disbelieved, and therefore do Organ of the Wathington Temperance Benevolent Scciety, and its Auxiliaries.21 [Prom its contents it seems appear to have produced an extraordianty effect wherever they be tured; and the countiblement of numer. order. If we cannot, like Joshua, say to the Sun, h ous temperance societies has been the consequence. "stand thou still," we can remain on the field Their zeal in carrying on the work of moral reforms. long after that orb shall have receded from our tion is worthy of all praise, and we have that they will beiew. persevere, for they are engaged in the high and holy lator of implifting consolution to the sufficted—health on by Mr. Russell on Monday night, was, as we will the presented for the last time the grand to the discount. to the diseased—and content and cheerfulpeds to deerthous mutil they shall, if it be possible, have builshed every song received well merited applause. shall not forget frient. Foster. He is a sterling tion at my Auction Rooms. daunkenness from the and. Then may they each be prepared to cay with one of cit, "Lord now lettest cert on to-morrow evening, which we have every ecco thy solitolism.

- - -

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE. The President comhumanity, require a resort to the most vigor- family of the lamented General Harrison. In ted States. In conclusion, I beg to invite your particular respect to our foreign relations there has been no attention to the interest of this District; nor do change—all wears an amicable aspect. In speak- ing offered for waiting on the President, etc., I doubt but that in a liberal spirit of legislation ing of the extensive territory of the United offered an amendment proposing to strike out the you will seek to advance its commercial as well as its local interests. Should Congress deem it to be its duty to repeal the existing Sub-Treasury law, the necessity of providing Sub-Treasury law, the which may be required that all the functionaries of this government be contemplated that the vice rresident under such scription of the wreck of the vertex of the seription of the wreck of the vertex of the seription of the wreck of the vertex of the ver which may be required within the District, that all the functionaries of this government be contemplated that the Vice President under such tempt to fix upon this company the charge of having the apparent to all. the foregoing topics to your consideration and powers, so as to preserve "a just balance between of the United States; but that he should still be in the Clipper and Argus, the following proceedings topics to your consideration and the foregoing topics to your consideration and powers, so as to preserve "a just balance between of the United States; but that he shows all were had:

The powers granted to this government and those considered as Vice President, performing the du-

ed to believe, is towards the adoption, in a spirit of union and barmony, of such measures as rit of union and harmony, of such measures as change in the compromise act, but is in favor of smendment, it was negatived without a count.—

will fortify the public interests. To cherish of an elevated patriotism. That differences of space is occupied in the examination of the subsuch a tendency of public opinion is the task levying discriminating duties. A considerable The resolution was then concurred in. opinion, as to the means of accomplishing these desirable objects, should exist, is reasonably to desirable objects, should exist, is reasonably to destraute objects, anoug exist, is reasonably to be expected. Nor can all be made satisfied employed by government, viz: the national bank, the standing rule which prohibits the reception believing it to be our duty fully to state the facts in relation to these and other false and other false. be expected. Nor can all be made satisfied the state banks, and the sub-treasury, have all of abolition papers. He denounced it as a foul the New Market Fire Company—Therefore, with any system of measures; but I flatter myself with the hope that the great body of the been condemned by the people, and the President blot upon the record, and hoped that no time Resolved, That the anonymous communication in the name of the second will read the upon the record, and hoped that no time Resolved, That the anonymous communication in the name of the second will read the upon the record, and hoped that no time Resolved, That the anonymous communication in the name of the second will read the sec people will readily units in support of those leaves it to the wisdom of Congress to devise would be lest in removing it. After the venera- New Market Co., "after sending their apparatus home whose offerts applied from a disinterested desire." whose efforts spring from a disinterested desire to preserve the promote their happiness—to preserve the to promote their happiness—to preserve the rederal and State Governments within their the native orbits—to cultivate peace with all entrements to cultivate peace with all entrements and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, and entering and other missiles, and even fire arms, an

points out the happy effects which would result rights." from the measure.

mise to develope gross enormities—and a present was laiden the table. appropriation of $200,000 is found necessary.

fect condition those fortifications which are de- as Presient of the United States. After some signed for the protection of our principal cities | legal at constitutional arguments, a motion by and roadsteads"-and is favorable to the policy Mr. Alm, for substituting "Vice President" was OF-Yesterday about 8 minutes after 1 o'clock, of a large military force!" The President thinks in bothbranches, and the usual number of copies according to previous arrangements, our copies of that "a new system of accountability may be ordered to be printed. found to be indispensibly necessary" in the na-beyond its means, are stated at $500,000; but bute their present fear to a misapplication of mo-

of every person whom he may nominate to them ter are those now thrown upon the world in debt, fortunate Office. Tickets only 21—shares 62 cents. for public office. His remarks on this subject are for the fine dothes they have wern or the parties honorable and patriotic.

satisfacto- to a large majority of the people; for or wore a superfine coat years ago. Woodward arranged the mote affair handsome- we believe that on the measures which he re- P. S. In the House, Mr. Graham has given nocommends, in explicit terms, the great body of tice of a bill to repeal the Sub Treasury law. the nation is agreed.

"contented mind" which is "a continual feast," for Philadelphia. We have urgnd her to tarry Tickets only $10-halves 5-quarters 21-eighths 1.25. Hark! Tis his footsteps! No! 'is gone! We retern our thanks to Mr. Woodside, Su- more substantial diet would seem to be unneces- a while with us-but she will not listen to the perintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail sary in his case, but others have not so dainty an perintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail sary in his case, but others have not so dainty an perintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail sary in his case, but others have not so dainty an perintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail sary in his case, but others have not so dainty an perintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail sary in his case, but others have not so dainty an perintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail sary in his case, but others have not so dainty an perintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail sary in his case, but others have not so dainty an perintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail sary in his case, but others have not so dainty an perintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail sary in his case, but others have not so dainty an perintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail sary in his case, but others have not so dainty an perintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail sary in his case, but others have not so dainty an perintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail sary in his case, but others have not so dainty an perintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail sary in his case, but others have not so dainty an perintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail sary in his case, but others have not so dainty an perintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail sary in his case, but others have not so dainty and the sary in his case, but of the sary in Read, for his politic attention in granting us all appetite—and we confess that a taste of Rivesauce ze gentlemens vill make de beast of demselves," the Nos. in the Lottery and may draw over $50,000. Head, for his polite attention in granting us all appetite—any we comes that a tast of the Union of through the formali parts of the Union of through the Baltimore Post Office, meet prompt and confident the Baltimore Post Office, meet prompt and confident Famine and cold their wearying work have done! signed file suck philosophic indifference would though it gratified her vanily, met with her tial attention. For the Grand Capital Prizes purchase My heart must break!—and thou, my child—hush? PRESIDENT TYLER. The question was raised not nesseate our stomach; but access to the dish dissaproval. Fanny has cause to be in good a chance from The all fortunate venders of Prizes, in the house of representatives on Monday last, will be debarred "so long as Isaac the Many sit- spirits, her exquisite grace has had a wonderful it? No. 1 N. Calvert-st., 1st office from Baltimore-st. whether Mr. Tyler is the President of the Unit- tethat the king's gate." If a Roman converse magnetic influence on the purse of the southerned States, or only acting President, and it was, could consume as much food as would suffice for ers. ta our opinion, very properly decided that he is a dozen men, we must not be sufprised to find a the President. This vote, we hope, will put the man in these days who can appallow the whole t "government pap" at a gulp, and still er "give, of Fanny Elseler, who had to elesended to accept

> We are pleased to see our neighbor "back. out" with so much grace; but are sorry that we couldnot step into his thoes, for the sake of vawlo could never "come Pat between too seeard too late," and so we must partake our

In truth we may well be sontented-for flie extraordinary circulation of the Clipper, and the valuable increase of silvertising patronage, leave us little to desire, except to render our paper still more deserving of public support. We do Legt wish to be classed among the fulle basters, THE ORDER. We resterd to received No. 4 of a new | who have to give a fresh assurance every day not keep up a perpetual blast with our trumpetbut our bark is riding triumphantly on the top

MR. RUSSELL'S CONCERT. The Concert girpredicted, a brilliant affair. The room was crowd. spectacle of St. George and the Dragen, together ed in every corner with beauty and fashion, and with a variety of other entertainments. We bery, flowers, and very choice fruit. Persons desirous This celebrated vocalist is to give another con- actor, and must have a bumper. this thy constitute depart in peace, for mine eyes have reason for believing will be as fully attended as has been appointed Cashier of this institution in the first.

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Clipper.] WASHINGTON, June 1, 1841.

In closing my last, I remarked that a discus-grands—to character to the laws—to entrence liberty and proper in full security—and, constaining the most right—and, constaining the most right—and properties and properties sion has hen squeezed into a corner of the Hall Resolved, That the New Market Fire Company have he can search be seen or heard. The line invested the President with the summary power of The President expresses himself very desided- where he can scarcely be seen or heard. The striking from the relationship of the Campany, all disorderly or in favor of a distribution of the proceeds of the resolutionsks that the seats shall be distributed riotous firemen; therefore werespectfully invite all good

Severammendments were offered, one of which It seems, from the message, that the Secretary of was, thathe desks be removed altogether, and from all connections with the New Market fire Com-War has instituted inquiries into abuses connected that we save benches, similar to those in the Reselved, That this Company fully appreciates the

The message recommends the "placing in per- touching the propriety of addressing Mr. Tyler bers whenever the occasion should require it.

Many of the poor clerks are still trembling lest The liabilities of the Post Office Department | wheask themselves this question, will not attri- ny. few, and industry secures them to every man. In regard to appointments to office, the It is the elegancies of life that empty the purse; to the amount of thousands!

President invites, on the part of the Senate, a the gratification of pride, and the indulgence of Lottery—draws in this city at half past two o'clock—

Song—Rockaway"—words by J. H. Sharpe, Russell.

Unitery—draws in this city at half past two o'clock—

Lottery—draws in this city at half past two o'clock—

The state of the gratification of pride, and the indulgence of Lottery—draws in this city at half past two o'clock—

The state of the gratification of pride, and the indulgence of Lottery—draws in this city at half past two o'clock—

The state of the gratification of pride, and the indulgence of Lottery—draws in this city at half past two o'clock—

The state of the gratification of pride, and the indulgence of Lottery—draws in this city at half past two o'clock—

The state of the gratification of pride, and the indulgence of Lottery—draws in this city at half past two o'clock—

The state of the gratification of pride, and the indulgence of Lottery—draws in this city at half past two o'clock—

The state of the gratification of pride, and the indulgence of Lottery—draws in this city at half past two o'clock—

The state of the gratification of pride, and the indulgence of Lottery—draws in this city at half past two o'clock—

The state of the gratification of pride, and the indulgence of Lottery—draws in this city at half past two o'clock—

The state of the gratification of pride, and the gra they have given? Who thinks the better of He thinks that additional legislation may be- them for all such nonsense? Let those who are Columbia, which he respects.

Die consideration of the message will probably prove on the whole the majority of the people; for or wore a superfine coat years ago.

-Gentlemen, don't hurry yourselves. The CONTENTMENT. The editor of the Republi- "divine" Fanny Elssler arrived in this city by > ELAT! Last evening extra handbills were circulated round the city announcing the arrival of a seat in the boxes of the Front street Theatre, med would appear at night, het on "the light, fantastic toe," but asin lady princiess! As much Tas we admire the grace and branky of the dansense, we cannot but express our disapprobation of the "gag" system pursue, by those who con-I dort an establishment styledatie American Thelatre, We hate adulation, it main. ". I who the | idol may be-the sylph-like : : !! the danstuse, we admire, but slet her a mithin her !

proper sphere. AN UNGERTLEMANLY TRICIT. I lady who teaches a school in Paca street, has he i her sign for the season. Apply to pulled down two or three times, and the last time, which was on last Friday week, carried

Ma. Fostac's Dataerir: This indefnigable lactor, it will be sail, a lactings for a menerit at l

BANK'OR BALTIMORE, C. C. Jamison, Esq., the place of James Cox, Esq. resigned.

PATAPACO FIRE COMPANY. 00-The members of the Patapseo Pire Company are requested to attend a Special Meeting, to be held in the Company's Hall THIS EVENING, 2d inst. at 8 By erder, 90-A Special Meeting of the BALTIMORE UNI-TEU PIRE DEPARTMENT will be held at City Hall Mr. McKeon, on the usual joint resolution be- on THURSDAY EVENING, June 34, at 8 o'clock,) are desired to be punctual. JESSE HUNT, Pres't. WM. H. WATSON, Fec'y.

The report from the Treasury department

Mr. Wise replied, and contended that Mr. occasions of disorder or breach of the public peace at tute of truth, and unworthy the character of any indi- The National Air of Yankee Doodle will be introduced.

sales of the public lands among the states; and by lot, a that every man may have "equal fires, to report to the President the name of any members of the public lands among the states; and by lot, a that every man may have "equal fires, to report to the President the name of any members of the public lands among the states; and by lot, a that every man may have "equal fires, to report to the President the name of any members of the public lands among the states; and by lot, a that every man may have "equal fires, to report to the President the name of any members of the public lands among the states; and by lot, a that every man may have "equal fires, to report to the President the name of any members of the public lands among the states; and by lot, a that every man may have "equal fires, to report to the President the name of any members of the public lands among the states; and by lot, a that every man may have "equal fires, to report to the President the name of any members of the public lands among the states; and by lot, a that every man may have "equal fires, to report to the President the name of the public lands among the states; and by lot, a that every man may have "equal fires, to report to the President the name of the public lands among the states; and the public lands among the states; and the public lands among the states are the public lands among the states. the end that he or they may be peremturily dismissed with the Florida war, Indian treaties, irregulari- English louse of Commons; but finally, on mo- truth, that the efficiency of firemen depends almostlenties in the Indian department, &c. which pro- tion of Ir. W. C. Johnson, the whole subject ever prevail among men engaged in the same landable A brid discussion took place in the Senate, dent in the enforcement of the powers with which he

Resolved, That the above statement of facts be published in desence of the New Market Fire Company. Resolved, That the practice adopted by some of the in disturbances of the public peace, at fires and other | Song-"The Maniac"-words partly by Monk members of other fire companies, whom, when engaged places, in making use of this company's name, is larly organized staff sufficient for the command The President's Message, was then received, mean and disreputable in the lowest degree. And in sufficient evidence of the same, the parties so offending will be dealt with according to law.

with similar committees from other companies, for the maniac. The more the poor fellow implored for his purpose of reconciling any difficulties that may exist release, the more forcibly were the keepers convinced between the members of this and any other firecompa-SAMUEL THOMPSON, President,

H. B. Hober, Sec'y. CALL AND RENEW YOUR PRIZES: Alexandria, in which we expect to hand over the cash

just scruting into the character and pretensions luxury, the make a man poor. What the bet- purchase before half past one from HEISLER's all

1,950 DOLLARS! 120 DOLLARS!! 100 DOLLARS!! 270 DOLLARS!!!

The last topic of the meamends to the favora- himself a competence for his old age by a little trial for a nackage. TO-MORROW: TO-MORROW::

100 Prizes of 1,000 DOLLARS! 100 Prizes of 500 DOLLARS!! Capital Prize 35,294 DOLLARS !!! 3G-June 31. The attention of citizens and adventurers generally is respectfully selicited to this splendid scheme. The prizes amount to $108,608 Dollars!

to be drawn To morrow, June 3d, 1811, the splendid Virginia Lottery, class II. GRAND SCHEME: 81363 £35,291 | 1 Prize of 1 Prize of 10,000 5,000

Risk on a package of 26 whole tickets in this splen- Tic! Tic! How wearily the time rolls on! did Lottery only $148; on 26 halves $74, and 26 quar- Why should be leave me thus? He once was kind;

FORTUNE'S HOME. AREAT AND UNPRECEDENTED ATTRAC-TION! One of the most splendid Lotteries ever . officied to the public. Virginia State Lottery, class L to be drawn June 2d, 1841. 78 Nos.—13 Ballots.

RICH SCHEME: CAPITAL $33.291-or $33,000 nett. 1 Prize of $5000 100 Prizes ($1,000; 100 of $500 -besides numer-

Tiblezonir Elv-chares in proportion. For Prize the alove Lottery, be sure to apply to ward in its monotonous march, regardless as the work the truly lucky verilers, GRIDLEY & Co. who have of the issue. sold and cashed nime reizes within the last two months than any other two check in Baltimore, which we can prove by the Managers. 34.

OF Por prizes, apply to the lucky venders, GRIDDLEY & CO., No. 41 Calvertest. Directly opposite Barnum's City Hotel. PASTURE TO RENT.

LOT of about 35 acres, with a grove of wood and a speam of excellent water, will be rented Comic Italian Song-"O, concete gia meglio JOHN J. HARROD, Commission Agent, Exchange Place, near South street.

BY SAMUEL H. GOVER, off, by a young man who visited the n. - him - S. E. cor. Lombard-st. & March Market Space. hood. Now be it understood, that the name of CALE OF PROPERTY ON PENNSYLVA-NIA AVENUE. On Saturday Afternoon, 5th inst. this unprincipled fellow is known, find headhall at 4 o'clock, I will sell on the premises for cash, withback 140 feet to an improved 20 feet alley, fronting on the alley 17 feet, subject to a ground rent of $17 per annum. The improvements consist of a very convenient two s ory Brick DWELLING, capable of accommodating a large family. A part of it i the Front street Theatre to nearow night, when the desired could, at small expense, be converted into a store or other business place. The neighborhood it populous, which would make it a good stand for a Grocery. The lot is handsomely improved with skiub

> " OST, Yesterday, somewhere in Market-st., be-MA tween Charles and Cove, a Lady's MINITURE | ing. one two Horse CARRIAGE, (seeend hand.) \ set in gold, the finder will receive the thanks of the je2-3t I owner by leaving it at this office.

CERT at the Assembly Rooms, Payette street, on THURSDAY EVENING, 3d inst. at 8 o'clock, on which occasion Mr. R. will ring some of his latest compositions, that, have met with great applause in New York, Boston, and Philadelphia.

PROGRAMME.-PART I. Forg COur way across the Mountain, bo!" New Song _ "The Old Night Lamp," (from Scenes of a desolate bed chamber,)

"Many a tale doth the night lamp know. Of secret sorrow and lanely wo."

A warrior lived—a Christian died!-Sorrow should slumber in our pride! Go-bring his battle blade! His belimet and his plume! And be his trophies laid Beside him in the tomb! Where files of time-marked veterans,

With martial tramp and muffled drum. Give to the earth his frame!-Twas born but to decay;-Not so his deathless name: That cannot pass away! In youth, in manhood, and in age, He dignified his country's page. Green be the willow bough Above the swelling mound, Where sleeps the hero now

His monument his fame endears-His epitaph-A NATION'S TRARS. agelf-exited from our place of birth,

To climes more fragrant bright and gay, May chance awhile and fade away; But should some minstrel eche fall, On chords that breathe Columbia's fame, Out souls will burn, our spirits yearn,

True to the land we love and claim. The high—the low—in weal or wo, He sure there's something coldly wrong About the heart that does not glow To hear its own-its Native Song."

| Song-"The Old Sexton,"-Words by P. Ben-"Nigh to a grave that was newly made, Leaned a Sexton old, on his earth worn spade; His work was done and be paused to wait The faneral train through the open gate;

A relic of bye-gone days was he, And his locks were white as the formy sea; And these words came from his lips so thin, I gather them in! I gather them in!" " &c.

The above description of a Scene in a Mad House is l founded on fact. "dome years since, a gentleman of large fortune was taken to a Mad House, and there confined seven feet under ground. The persons that accompanied him took oath to those entrusted with instructed to act as a committee of conference; to meet | the care of the establishment to the fact of his being a thus confined, affected his reason and he became frantic, and shortly died from the effect. The strangers that earried him to the Mad House were supposed to have been hired by some brutal relatives, who, at his death, were to come in possession of his property. PART II.

a passage in every day life, (words by G. P. Morris,) This book is all that's left me now! Tears will unbidden start! With faltering lip and throbbing brow, I press it to my heart! For many generations passed, My mother's hand this bible clasped-

She, dying, gave it me. Ah! well do I remember those Whose names these records bear! Who round the hearth-stone used to close After the evening prayer; And speak of what this volume said, In tones my heart would thrill-Though they are with the silent dead, Here they are living still!

Song Descriptive-The Gambler's Wife-(The words written expressly for Mr. Russell, by Dr. Reynold Coales,) Dark is the night! How dark! No light! No fire! Cold on the hearth the last faint sparks expire!

Shivering the watches by the eradic side, 100,&c. | For him who pledged her love! Last year a Bride.

Rest thee, my babe! rest on!—'tis hunger's cry! The clock strikes one!-&c.

This song is designed to represent the feelings of a young wife and mother, under circumstances suffi ciently commen to warrant the assertion that it is founded on fact, without exaggeration. It represent the Gambler's Wife and Child, deserted by their natu ral protector, in the extreme of roverty and starvation for the PLEASURE of play. The fire expires—the energy gies of life sink from want of food, and the mothe vainty strives to hope in the midst of despair, appealing to the part with the memory of the bride, while vaina endeavoring to sooth her child with the energy of mother's love, until the infant dies in her arms, an her heart is broken. The current of her feelings is in terrupted only by the peal of the clock, and at the third hour the scene closes; while Time strides of Ancient Ballad-"Fine old English Gentleman, all of the olden time,"-Melody by Martin Luth Ballad-Woodman, spare that tree-(Words by G. P. Morris,) Song-The Old Arm Chair-(words by Eliza Cook,)

44 love it, I love it, and who shall date To chide me for leving that old Arm Chair."

Describing a person entering a Cafe, and address a deaf waiter, who brings every dish but the one as 83-The PIANO FORTE used on this occasio from Chickering's Manufactory. 80-TICKETS 10 CENTS each, to be had at principal Music Stores, and at the door on the even of performance.

O-Performance to commence at 8 o'ciock. BY FURLONG & FANAING, CORNER OF CHARLES AND LONBARD STREETS N WEDNESDAY MORNING, June 3d, at 📗 o'clock, at our Sales Rooms, we will sell 10 boxes superior English CHEESE 100 dozen bottles Blue Writing FLUID 20 dozen bottlessuperior MUSTARD

10 krgs 10 kegs Cayene PEPPER I good second hand Counter, pannelled front Furniture; Venitian Blinds, large size; Bedetea Clocks; Rocking Chairs; Washetands Tables, &c. &c .- without reserve. 00- Will be added to our sale on Wednesday M Also, Astral and Branch LAMPS. FURLONG & PANNING, Auct