AMERICAN THEATRE & CIRCUS.

FRONT STREET.

A CARD. POSITIVELY THE LAST NIGHT BUT TWO. Mr JOSEPH FOSTER, Arranger and Producer of the Grand Spectacle of St. George and the Dragon, presents his respectful compliments to the ladies, gentlemen, and public generally of Baltimore, and in announcing his Benefit for THURSDAY EVENING, June 3d, ventures to assert that the selections made for the occasion will prove more attractive than any previous entertainment ever placed before the Baltimore public. The performances will commence precisely at half past 7 o'clock, with the magnificent spectacle of St. George and the Dragon—after which, Levi North, the pride of America and the most wonderful Equestrian in the world, will appear in two New Acts. The Grand Fairy Ballet of Cinderella will be performed by the surprizing Juvenile Company, and the whole will conclude with (for this night only) a Comic Pantomime, of a strange and whimsical construction, embracing the introduction of three Harlequins, three Columbines, and three Pantaloons, with all the fun, laughter, and frolic attendant upon such a combination. Notwithstanding the variety of entertainments, they will be so arranged as to conclude about half past 11 o'clock. je1-3t

REPEAL ASSOCIATION.

☞ The June meeting of the Baltimore Repeal Association will be held on THIS (WEDNESDAY) EVENING, June 2d, in the ASSEMBLY ROOMS, first floor, at 8 o'clock. The National Repeal Association of Ireland having accepted in the most grateful manner the encouragement tendered to them by our sister cities, Philadelphia and Boston; and O'Connell having in such eloquent, and complimentary terms acknowledged the patriotic efforts of Americans in behalf of his unfortunate country, it will be proper that the steps we have taken to send similar assurances of sympathy to Ireland should be speedily accomplished. Let there be then a patriotic rally for Old Ireland and Repeal!

The Address printed in pamphlet form, with the Constitution, By-Laws and names of members will be ready for distribution at the meeting.
