NUMBER 71.

CENTS per week-payable to the Carriers only, at music could proceed from no other place than the greatest joy. "You have," said he, the moment the end of each week. per annum, in advance.

their inscrtion. For the Baltimore Clipper. SONG.

> Why will you wear that woeful brow, And look so sullen and so sad? I feel no pangs of sorrow now, And when I smile you must be glad. I feel no want of lovers yet, And they who seek me must obey, Else soon some other swains I'll get, And turn the old ones all away.

And still I would not you should go, Yet why, in faith I cannot tell, Though did you but the reason know, They say you never would rebel.

You do not speak-nay then begone, For know I only bade you stay, That while they left me here alone, You might talk the time away. And me you would obey, because My favor won you some applause.

From the Ladies' Companion for June. THE MASKED BRIDE.

BY MRS. CAROLINE ODME.

"Her beauty hangs upon the cheek of night, Like a rich jewel in an Ethiop's ear."-Romeo & Juliet. bosom of the Rhine, which was blue and unruffled as the summer sky which it mirrored, save here | early riser, as nothing but the balmy morning air | their proper weight in turning the scale. Before and there, a long, scintilating line of light was could have produced that soft, rich bloom upon he slept, he despatched a note to Theresa, inmerged in one of those sparkling expanses, where her check." He was not wrong in his conject forming her of his readiness to fulfil the engageit seems as if thousands of diamonds were fluttering with a rapid and ever changeful motion. Car- ted seeing any person at so early an hour, soon af- that his father had suggested, that as the marlos Gonsalvo, a young Spanish gentleman who ter he had steered his boat under the shadow of an riage had already been considerably delayed, the had been refreshing himself at an inn, discernable overhanging cliff, threw open the lattice and ensuing day, if it met the approbation of her and in the distance, stood on the margin of the river, which in that place spread into an area of some an opportunity to obtain a distinct view of her time for it to take place. By the messenger who magnitude, smooth and level, with his eye fixed features, found her even more levely than he had conveyed his note, an answer was returned that ou a castled tower, which rese from the verge of thought ber the night preceding. Though so well the lady and her friends would be in readiness a bold precipice, and which, although on the same screened by the deep shadow of the cliff, an in- to receive him and his retinue at the proposed shore, was by an abrupt bend of the river brought advertent plash of an oar betrayed his proximi- time. nearly opposite to him. The tower, which had been built at a remote period, appeared singularly | not an carnest and imploring gesture induced her picturesque as it shot up against the ruddy wes. to remain, as she imagined that he must have residence of the Marquis de Nevada, which distern sky, and the young traveller felt an unac- something of great importance to communicate. Played a style of magnificence suitable to his countable, yet irrepressible desire to view it more He rowed his boat under her window, where great wealth. They proceeded immediately to nearly. A skiff, moored at a little distance af. | Without raising his voice above its natural tone, | forded him the means of gratifying his inclination, she could distinguish what he said. He then, bride by her mask, who was attired in a traveland in a few minutes he was gliding lightly over | urged on by the impetuosity of the passion, which | ling dress, ready to step into the carriage in wait- | ine our stock before purchasing, as we can assure them the water. On arriving at the rock he found that had already taken such deep root in his heart, it was so high and steep as to be inaccessible. He after informing her of his name and rank, arowspent considerable time in trying, if possible, to ed his love, and entreated hers in return. Her groom. He was agreeably disappointed by perfind some point where he mignt scale the preci- varying complexion evinced considerable agita- ceiving, contrary to the description given by his pice, but without success. The last vestige had lion as she listened to him, which he interpreted friend, that far from being hunchbacked, her form now departed, and he was thinking of returning,] when a light from the tower cast a bright gleam part of the building it proceeded, he found it came young girl so beautiful, as to, at once, put to flight | ter of the Marquis de Nevada." all thoughts of returning to the inn. She had the dark, instrous eyes of the daughters of his own was in her lonely tower, she suffered to fall as young Spaniard, have ripened beneath some sky less fervent. It was only for a moment that he heavily upon that side of the tower. All the intelligence that Gonzalvo was able to [twenty.' gather from the host of the inn concerning the tow-more than half an hour, and then, slowly and re-

he look back to her window, from which, much to his chagrin, the light soon vanished. Once he

hand and arm, or of a white handkerchief waving sion of an excited fancy, as no object could have been discernable through the gloom that rested so right of his wife, a German lady. Gensalvo, impatiently interrupting him, as he less to repeat his many passionate appeals to her commenced relating a ghost story connected with generosity, for although she would not deny that the old tower-"that is, what ladies-what fe- had they met under happier auspices, she might igales inhabit it?"

"Why, there is old Mager, the-" creature I saw there to-night, who is she?" "Oh! you must mean Maggy's daughter, I think,] but I never thought her any thing more than comforty—' "The wrong side of forty? Why the lady I mean, must be on the right side of twenty." eyes must have deceived you, sir, or it must have ment, I could write to her."

And stole moon the ast." Fosturately his apartment was on the first sto- Free he come enced his journey without delay, ors of PRINTING PAPERs—any size or quality can I thoughted and to be agreed his journey without delay, ors of PRINTING PAPERs—any size or quality can I thoughted and to be agreed his journey without delay, ors of PRINTING PAPERs—any size or quality can I thoughted and to be agreed his journey without delay, or or or papers or quality can I thoughted and the first store in the content of the first store in the content of the content o ry, otherwise his limbs might have been custus- I though he felt determined never to foldit his en- | be fornished at short notice was capable ran to the shore of the river. Here, Inquisition, having received a hint that you in o'clock, A. M. on the premises square 1 time, . 90 50 | 1 square 1 month, . 24 00 owing to the sudden bend of the stream, and the tended to clude the engagement with her, has 2 times, . 75 1 do. 2 months, 7 co projecture of the precipice on which the tower already marked you for a victim." Businers Cards, of only two lines, five dolls. a year. a guitar, but could without difficulty distinguish as to marry his niece." 00-Ten lines or less make a square—if an adver- the words. A few strains closed the song that tisement exceeds ten lines, the price will be in propor- she was then singing, but after a short prelude on him to after his mind: tion. All advertisements are payable at the time of the instrument, her voice again came over the | waters, singing the subjoined stanzas-

"The star of Love looks down, And sees its own bright beam, Deeply and softly mirrored In the bosom of the stream! And the stream though bright before With a fuller radiance glows, And sends forth glad, sweet music As onward still it flows.

The star of Love has now, Withdrawn its brilliant light, And its cheering smile no longer Makes the mournful river height; And its voice has now a tone Of sadness in its flow: Ob, star so softly radiant, Why did'st thou cease to glow? And there was one most fair, Who lived in days gone by, How'ring 'tween youth and childhood, When Love's deceiving eye

Met hers-and flowers sprung up

Love turned away—the blossems

And in her young heart bloomed-

To an early death were doomed."

not to brave the vengeance of my vindictive un-It was well that the fair minstrel grew weary, as otherwise Gonsalvo might have spent the night by the river's brink, at the risk of endangering his health. After remaining a long time was written in a very delicate, lady-like hand. returned to the inn.

ty, and she would have instantly withdrawn, had as a favorable emen.

along the waters. On turning to see from what she, when he had ceased speaking, "and I have likewise heard of what you appear to have for. of forty, with a crooked nose, small black eyes, from an open lattice window, at which stood a gotten, that you are betrothed to Theresa, dazgh- and a yellow shrivelled skin. So completely did

The face of Gonsalvo became crimson, as he listened to these words, and it was some time to inquire her name, but was prevented by being sunny land, but the "check of cream," glowing | before he replied. "I confess," he at length said, with a slight rose tint, which gleamed through | "that what you have heard is true, but when I the rich mass of golden curls, that, secladed as she | consented to become thus entangled, in compliance with the earnest wishes of my father and he mentally determined that unless on removing graceful nature willed, must, so imagined the hers, I knew nothing of love except its name." "Have you ever seen the lady?"

had an opportunity to gaze at her, for, probably fancy, she always resided at a distance with an eyes fixed upon him ever since he had been on account of observing his boat, she withdrew aunt, which has given my friends an opportunity in the chapel, that he would not mention a word from the lattice. He lingered in the vain hope to deceive me with respect to her person. For. about her going to the convent. that he should obtain another glance of her, for tunately, about a week since, I fell in with a friend, who told me that which made me deterlactantly commenced propelling his boat towards mine never to fulfil the engagement, even before before him. Gonsalvo, who had been fortifying all of which will be sold at the lowest market prices. the point whence he had started. Often did I beheld you."

thought that he saw the gleam of a snowy white it, he happened to obtain a sight of my betrothed, surprise and joy. When he had recovered himat the lattice—but this must have been the illu- is not only hunchbacked, but her features are hideous, and her skin yellow and shrivelled, which I tention, and inquired who she was. suppose must have been occasioned by disease, as my father has often told me that she is not

The lady could not help laughing at this deer, was, that it belonged to a Spanish nobleman, scription, but almost instantly assuming a scrious of care mathing about old Maggy—the lovely | She bade him adieu with emotion she could not | disguise, and this was the only solace of poor been the apparition of the young lady who was | At length his impatience became insufferable, matica he desired, his next care was to secure an | quiry of the inhabitants respecting her. He was apartment which commanded a view of the tower, informed that she had taken her departure that and to his great delight, the lady's lattice was very morning by break of day, in company with again brilliantly illuminated. The night was a gentleman, bandsome and richly dressed, but calm and beautiful, and so still, that the infloating not a word more could be learn, and he found to whisper," heard only when all sounds of anima. This vexation, that old Maggy, as well as her husted nature, and the lightest breeze even is hushed, beit could keep secret. When he returned to and which fancy might deem the mingled breath. | the inc. a letter was handed him, which he found | ings of the sleeping flowers, filled the air with its to be from his father. It rejuested him to hasten mysterious and dreamy melody. A light slamber home, as the Marquis de Nevada had gone for stele ever him, and the laly of the tower seemed his daughter, and it was thought best by his heyering near, when a strain of delightful music | frier is us well as hers, that the marriage should sepole like a street to of tich distilled perfunct. . The immediately solempized. As there was nothing now to altract him to the spot where he !

"The following letter from Theresa caused

moreover know the cause of your unwillingness ing your interview with her, have undergone a laining nine acres and one half of an acre and thirchange. By breaking the engagement with me, teen square perches of and more or less. you cannot secure her. I understand that you Weigh well what I have written, and resolve ment are taken into consideration.

Theresa." The next morning before sunrise, he was in the lady of the tower, and he caught himself The level beams of the sun were sleeping on the the boat, directing its course towards the tower- wondering whether she might not prove a terma-"For certainly," thought he, "she must be an gant. The threats of the uncle, likewise, had ture, and the lady, who could not have anticipa- ment upon the conditions she had named, and sirable GOODS, which they offer on pleasing terms: scated herself near it. Gonsalvo, who had now her frie is, would, in his opinion, be a proper

> Early the following morning, Gonsalvo, at-I tended by a numerous cavalcade, set out for the the family chapel. Gonsalvo recognized the ing, which was to convey her from the chapel to it will vie with any in the city." the convent, should it be the wish of the bridewas uncommonly fine. As his eyes wandered L she correspond with the description he had re-. | ceived of his intended bride, that he was resolved required to take his station before the altar. He was much agitated himself, but Theresa trembled so excessively, as to awaken his compassion, and ber mask she disclosed a countenance still more repulsive than the little crook-nosed, yellow "Never. Her mother having died in her in- | skinned female, who had kept her small black

The ceremony was concluded, the mask was removed, and the lovely lady of the tower stood his mind, so as to behold without recoiling, a "Is what he told you a secret?" said the lady. | countenance similar to that of the hunchbacked "Ily no means. As good fortune would have lady, with difficulty suppressed a cry of mingled for the last half hour attracted so much of his at-

"Oh, that," said the bride, with an arch smile,

'is Theresa de Nevada, my aunt!"

PALACE BUILT OF ICE. In the year 1740, the whose name he had forgotten, who inherited it in air, she solemnly assured him that she would empress Anne of Russia caused a palace of ice to never consent to be in any way instrumental to be erected upon the banks of Neva. This ex-"But who are the living inhabitants?" said his breaking his engagement. It would be use- traordinary edifice was fifty-two feet in length, tions: Pictorial Bible in 27 parts, illustrated with many dispose of them, as I am always buying and forwarding sixteen in breadth, and twenty feet high, and constructed of large pieces of ice cut in the manit would be in vain to attempt seeing her again. Thick. The several apartments were furnished Gonsalvo the subsequent week, during which he hold furniture of ice. In front of this edifice, be- of became perfectly satisfied by his repeatedly baf- | side pyramids and statues, stood six cannons, mon, and since she has got on the wrong side of shed attempts to obtain another interview, that carrying balls of six penals' weight and two 7 o'clock. P. M. the resolution of the lady was not to be shaken. mortars, entirely made of ice. At a trial from the Union, and delivered free of postage in the city. tained her names, and then should I be so fortu. one of the former, an iron ball, with only a quar-The host shock his head as he replied-"Your | nate as to get released from this hated engage- | ter of a pound of powder was fired off, the ball of which went through a two-inch board, at sixmurdered more than a hundred years ago, by a and he resolved one morning, even at the hazard ty paces from the mouth of the piece, which he Passages in the Life of Ottando Scrub, by Laman crue luncle, for the sake of obtaining her fortune." of incurring the displeasure of the unknown la. remained completely uninjured by the explosion. The World of London, No 2. The Emigrant Lady of Finding that he was unable to obtain the infor- dy, to ride to the old tower and make some in- The illumination in this place at night was as. tonishingly grand.

> TURNER, WHEELWRIGHT & MUDGE, PAPER DEALERS, No 2 FOUTH CHARLES STRELT. ACENTS FOR THE POLLOWING HANDFACTURPRESS

D. & J. Amer. Albert & Ely-John Bath c Creleue & Co. Dickey & Lysle Pranklin Manusac's Co. Gdp'n & Co. R. & A. H. Hubbard Also, Amote for many of the Pencipal Manufactur- []

† Hudson & Co. Kendall & Bons S. C. & E. Mann Owen & Hartbut History Brith & Co. Storges & Co. Son hworth Man'g Co. Weaver & Duelin. [4] Dist

03-This paper is furnished to subscribers at SIX | gered, for, feeling convinced that such entrancing | gagement. His father received him with the | THE RUSTEES SALE of valuable real estate in | the end of each week.

Chamber of the lovely unknown, he sprang from they were alone, "saved yourself from ruin; for the Chancey Court of Maryland, the undersigned as the window, and with all the speed of which he er annum, in advance.

Chamber of the lovely unknown, he sprang from they were alone, "saved yourself from ruin; for Trustee, will expose to sale at auction on WEDNES. Diabets or difficulty in making water, and all other making water.

> feel relative to fulfilling the marriage contract ing on the west side of said fiddle street north forty- tains any mineral substance whatever. ago by our parents, from pecuniary motives, and | perch, then north fifty two and one half degrees, west Russell, then running and bounding on said ground to fulfil it, being intimately acquainted with the south forty four degrees, west forty four perches to lady of the tower, who wishes you to be inform- | Price street, then bounding on said street south easter- | at 31 per bottle. ed that the sentiments she expressed to you dur- I ly thirty four perches to the place of beginning, con-

The above property adjoins the Bose Hill estate and is in the neighborhood of the outer Depet of the Baltihave received an account of my personal defects, more and Susquehana Rail Road; it lies beyond the which I hope, should we meet, you will find was limits of direct taxation and is exempt from the payexaggerated. If you can prevail on yourself to ment of City Taxes; the whole property will be divicomply with the carnest wishes of our friends, I ded into a large number of Lots of such dimensions that your feelings may not receive too great a las will enable those of moderate means to become purshock at the moment of our meeting, I beg that | chasers. Madison street, which forms its Southern you will consent for me to hide those seatures boundary, has been well paved along its entire front beneath a mask, which appeared to hideous to which forms the Eastern Boundary, Morris Alley, Gibyour friend, 'till after the performance of the son street, Jordan Alley, and Gordon street, pars thro' marriage ceremony. Immediately after its con- it from east to west. A better opportunity than the clusion, I give you my word, should it be your present rarely occurs either for investment or speculawish, to retire to a convent, to remain for life. I tion, especially when the very liberal terms of pay-

The terms of sale prescribed by the decree are that | the purchasers shall pay one-sixth cash, one sixth in ninety days, one sixth in six months, one-sixth in nine Gonsalvo read and re-read this epistle, which | months, one-sixth in twelve months, and one-sixth in fifteen months from the day of sale, the credit instaluncheered by a single additional note, he slowly He felt flattered by its tone of submission, which ments to be secured by notes with one or more surehe contrasted with the unbending resolution of ties to be approved by the Trustee and to bear interest from the day of sale. GEO. GORDON BELT, Trustre.

A CARD TO GENTLEMEN. SUMMER IVEAR. TO OBERT HILL & CO. No. 73 BALTIMORE STREET, have just received the sellowing de-

Super plain and Twilled Sommer CLOTHS Crape Faced Plain and Ribbed GAMBROONS and Fancy Cassimeres (single milled) Prince Alberts Blue, Blik Brown and Green CASHMERET S

" Bl'k, BOMBAZINES, for Summer Coats White and Brown Duck DRILLING Prench do White Russia DRILLING (very heavy) White Buff and Co'ored Marzeilles Vesting Real American NANKUEN

" French and German LINENS superfine " Barklie's Soft finished LINENS, for Shirting, at 29 per cout, below a smer prices. ALSO—Birk and Blue Birk CLOTHS and CASSI-MERES of the very best manufacture, and finest quality. Those in want will do well to call and exam

ROBERT HILL & CO., No. 73 Baltimore-st., Nearly opposite Holliday-et.

SUMMER WEAR. FIGHE subscriber has received within the last few , days, a variety of GOODS for Gentlemen's Eum-"I have already heard of you many times," said over the assemblage, they were arrested by a mer Wear, among which are some scarce and desiralittle hunchbacked woman, apparently upwards ble articles, to which he invites their attention before purchasing, as they will be sold at prices to suit the times-consisting of

Surer LAMA CLOTH for Coate, very wide. Black BOMBAZINES GINGHAMS, Buff. Blue, &c. do very fine white DUCK DRILLING do single milled CASSIMERE3 do Plain and Fancy SUMMER CLOTHS do colored CASHMERITIES

do Plain and Ribbed GAMBROONS Pan y TWEEDS Real American NANKEENS Plain and Twilled FRENCH LINEN Super beavy Marseilles VESTING Barklie's IRISH LINEN, soft fielsh Twilled Silk HDKF3. Silk and Cotton Half HOSE

Heavy Unbleached do.

With a var ety of fine CLOTHS & CASSIMERES. EDWARD J. RICHARDSON,

TERUTESTANT BPISCOPAL PERIOD-I 1CALS. Sample Numbers of which have been whom he delares to be absolutely frightful. She self, he pointed to the little personage, who had received from London per steamer Cale louis—the attention of the Clergy, Students of Divinity, and Heads of Families are called, viz:

Christian Observer, $6.69 per annum. Churchman, Church of England Magazine, 5.00 Christian Guardian, Episcopal Magazine, Church Magazine, Church Missionary Record, Cottege Magazine,

Also, the following Illustrated Works, London edihundred wood cuts, representing the historical events to the New Orleans market. I will also receive and after the most celebrated Pictures, 3 vols. royal octavo, keep Negroes at twenty-five cents each, per day, and price 624 certs per part; the illustrated Watt's Hymns, forward them to any Southern port, at the request of have listened to his suit, she teld him that now face of free-stone. The walls were three feet edited by the Rev. Alexander Fletcher, price 371 cents the owner. My establishment is large, comfortable per number. The Penny Magazine, new series, spien- and kiry, and all above ground; and kept in complete did cuts-Terms 83 per year. The above are for ex- order, with a large yard for exercise; and is the strongwith tables, chairs, beds, and all kinds of house. amination at the American and Foreign Agency Office est and most eplended building of the kind in the Uni-WM. N. HARRISON, No. 28 N. Gay street, near Fayette et.

Office hours from I to 3 o'clock, & from 6 until N.B. The above Periodicals mailed to any part of BERUTHER JONATHAN, FOR SATURDAY May 29th, contains—The Three Avengers, an Original Tale, by John M. Moore, with a beautiful engraving. Getting to Windward, original, by N. P. Willis, Passages in the Life of Orlando Scrub, by Laman Blanchard. Charles O'Malley, two new chapters. 1829, a Poem from B. H. Simons. Murder and Mystery, an Incident. NEW MUSIC-The Bridal Morn, composed by Miss Clarkson, first U.S. reprint. Watch Returns. News of the Week. City Intelligence, &c. WM. TAYLOR, 12 North street.

PERMIS IS TO GIVE NOTICE, That the sub sember has obtained from the Orphans' Court of Baltimore county, letters of administration on the estate of PEILR SIGIE, late of the said Baltimore County, d crased. All persons having claims against the raid decrased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same with the vourhers thereof, to the subscriber on or before the 25th day of lime, 1841, or they may otherwise by low be excluded from all benefit of said colors. All persons indebed to the said texate are re-្នៃក្នុង ៩៨ (១ រង្គាង១ មែលមេនិស្សា ២៤) មេ milital and the MARY SCOTTI, Admix.

100 DOLLARS REWARD. L the city of Baltimore. By virtue of a decree of The STORM'S SPECIFIC COMPOUND,

In no case has this medicine been known to fall, to ALL THAT VALUABLE PROPERTY heretofore effect a permanent cure, and too, in the shortest poraiconveyed by William Russell to the unstees for the ble time. Should this medicine fell to effect a cute do 3 do . . 100 1 do. 3 do. . . 10 00 was situated, he was within a comparatively "I am ready to meet his anger," replied the poor of Baltimore City and County, by indenture bear- where it has been taken according to directions, return do. 1 week, . 1 75 | 1 do. 8 do. . . 16 00 short distance of it, and could not only distinctly son. "I had rather suffer torture, and even ingulate on or about the fifteenth day of June seven- the empty vial and get back the money. Why then do. 2 weeks. 2 75 1 do. 1 year. . 30 00 hear a female voice, which was accompanied by death, than to do such violence to my affection the hundred and ninety-two, and recorded amongst spend both time and money with such quack nostrums the land records of Baltimore County Court in liber as cannot be depended upon; when, for $1, you can W. G., No. K. K., folio 4 &c., and which in said deed purchase a pleasant, sure, and speedy cure, composed is described as follows, viz-Begisning for the same at solely of vegetable substance? One hundred dollars the intersection of Biddle and Price sts., and on the will be paid to any one who will produce a medicine "I am aware, Gonsalvo, of the repugnance you | west side of said Biddle street, and running and bound- to equal this compound, or who will prove that it com-

> existing between us, entered into several years four degrees, east forty eight perches and the half of a N.B. This Medicine can be had of JAMES P. WIL-LIAMSON, corner of High and Green street, (O. T.) to which, at that time, we both consented. I thirty four perches to a percel of ground heretofore of T. J. PITT, Market Space, Fell's Point, and by sold to a certain William Gibson by the said William J. W. W. GORDON, cor. of Pratt & Howard-sis. Also, of L. S. THOMAS, corner of Briton and Porces streets—with full directions accompanying each hottle

17-Forsale in Washington city by ROBERT PAT-TERSON, cor. 9th street and the avenue, and CHAS. C. STOTT, corner of 7th street and the avenue; and by II. WADE, on 7th street.

In Georgetown, by JOHN L. KIDWELL.

1 1 BALTINORIE-ST. HATS AGAINST THE WORLD. No! Not all the World but the World of Humburs!! Call at our Store and wes will prove that we sell the cheapest Hats in Baltimore, in point of Beauty, Durability, and Fashion. Our prices are well known, and are as follows: Spleadid Pashionable Russia Hats for $3.50, of the same quality as those selling elsewhere for §5. Also, fine fishiona ble Silk Hats at &2.50, warranted on Russia Lodies, and generally selling clsewhere for $1 or no sale. And our old customers will please war in mind that the well known KEEVIL removed from the Maryland Areade some six months ago. So come one and all to 661 Baltimore street, between Gay and Holliday-ets. for good and cheap Hats. Don't forget now!

W. H. KEEVIL & CO'S. No. 661 Baltimore-st., opposite Tripolett's alicy, And 4 doors W. of Bool's well known Auction Stere.

FASHIONABLE BOOTS. W. L. PICCAULEY. Gentlemen's PASHIONABLE BOOT MAKER, No. O LOMBARD STREET, cor. of Frank. lin Lane, near South-st, makes BOOTS 25 at $3.50 per lair, and Pools them for ica 82.75, of the very best Leather and Workmen hip. Being a Practical Boot Maker, and Inventor of the Perged Cork Sole BOOTS, which have given so much extisfaction to the wearer, gentlemen may rely on getting good and handsome work. Give me a call, and I will endeavor to please. for my Boots shall be belied not c in this or any other [ap&I-t()] W. L. McCAULEY.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The price of HATS again lowered TOWSON Ag now selling in Lutaw street, end-wor Hats at the following low prices—fine north of Lexington street, his superior short Nap Mole Skin Hats at $2.50, fine Brush Hats 82 50; Fur Hats from $1.50 upwards. It may be asked how such lists can be sold (if as represented) at such very low prices; I answer in the first place, I manufacture very extensively, and am able to purchase materials by the quantity much lower than if I bought by the small; and secondly, I sell for eash, and do not have to charge those who pay a high price, to make up No. 39, corner of Baltimore and Gay streets. for those who do not pay, as the natural result of the credit system. I think my Hats the test as now offere ever sold in this market for the price. Persons will please call and look at my hats before purchasing elsowhere. Remember TOW-ON, one door from Lexing.

> N. B. The trade supplied with HATS in the rough of all qualities.

MASH FOR NEGROES. The highest case prices will at all times be given for Negroes of both sexes, that are slaves for life, and good titles. My office is in Pratt street, between Sharp and Howard streets, and opposite to the Repository-where I or my agent can be seen at all times. All persons, having Negroes to sell, would do well to see me before they ted States. And as the character of my house and yard is so completely established, for strength, comfortand cleanliness, and it being a place where I keep all my own, I will not be accountable, for the future, for any escapes of any kind from my establishment. mh3-dif HOPE II. SLATTER.

BRACES-Warren's Patent. SHOULDER THESE ARTICLES.

PACULTY, for the prevention and azsistance of a WEAK BREAST. They can be had of the best quality and manufacture, of H. WARREN, Stock Maker, No. 4 North street,

Next door to the Patriot

CARRIAGE & BUGGY FOR SALE. A new and nest Equare Faltima; eather too and baseage rack, but all talking will be "Gleen or dee my hand the 195th day of May, one sold a great burgain, if immediate constitution be made JOHN R. TOOTHIS. & mill-if B. W. comer of Hand ar S. Canaden and