

BALTIMORE CLIPPER

Correspondence of the Baltimore Clipper.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3, 1841.

In the House of Representatives this morning, Mr. Barnard asked that certain resolutions offered by him on yesterday, providing for the appointment of select committees to consider the principal subject embraced in the message, might be taken up and adopted.

The resolution of Mr. Wise in relation to the rules of the House, and which resolution had been laid on the table, was then called up. It requires that the Rules of the last House be observed for the next ten days, and that meanwhile a committee be appointed to revise them.

Mr. Adams had moved to amend by adding "except the 21st (abolition) Rule, which is hereby rescinded;" and the question being on the amendment.

Mr. Wise took the floor against the amendment, and replied to the speech of Mr. Adams on Tuesday. He (Mr. W.) denied that the North was oppressed by the South, as urged by Mr. Adams, and contended that it was just the reverse. The petitions of the North, with the exception of those interfering with the institutions of the South, said Mr. W., are none of them refused; therefore the charge of the gentleman that nine-tenths of the Northern petitions are refused, is true only as far as it relates to that class of petitions. Mr. W. concluded by stating his belief that the present party in power would never consent to the rescinding of the rule in question.

Mr. W. C. Johnson followed against the amendment, and stated that he had received a letter from Mr. Tyler, when the latter was a candidate for the Vice Presidency, in which he expressed his approval of the 21st rule. Therefore, said Mr. J., if this bill be unfortunately rescinded, it cannot be laid to the charge of the Executive.

Mr. J. then most strenuously urged the necessity of postponing all such matters until another time, as the present session had been called for the despatch of other and extraordinary business.

Pending this debate, a communication was received from the Secretary of the Treasury, which among other matters set forth that in his opinion a fiscal agent might be appointed, of such a nature as to be without any constitutional objections.

Mr. Wise offered a resolution calling on the Secretary for his plan, but after taking the question the House adjourned on Monday.

In the Senate a resolution was introduced by Mr. Clay for the repeal of the Independent Treasury law. The learned Senator then gave his views at some length in favor of his proposition, and against the present mode of collecting the public monies.

Mr. Calhoun followed, and defended the present system, and then without taking the question, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, when the debate will be resumed.

TIDE WATER CANAL. The Susquehanna Advocate contains a list of eighty-five arrivals of Canal boats at the Basin at Havre-de-Grace, from the 25th to the 30th ult. inclusive, with the following estimate of the different kinds of produce with which they were freighted:—Flour 3818 bbls; Whiskey 536 do; Wheat 12,743 bushels; Rye 1062 do; Corn 2600 do; Oats 1545 do; Flaxseed 81 do; Tobacco 236,746 lbs; Leather 4956 do; Bacon 46,415 do; Lard 4544 do; Butter 560 do; Cheese 519 do; Live Stock 13,400 do; Sundries 8425 do; Lumber 131,600 feet; Bark 621 cords; Nails 905 kegs; Coal 1186 tons; Pig Iron 603 do; Blooms, Bar Iron and Castings 75 do; Rags 8348 lbs; Hardware 1800 do; and 9000 Staves.

Relative to the increase of business done on the canal the Advocate remarks:—"Thousands and thousands of tons of coal and iron will seek this place the coming season, and be transhipped to the place of consumption. The coal and iron business alone will, in a short time, give this place an importance in these branches of trade, which cannot be excelled by any city or port in the United States. Havre-de-Grace must and will become a city."

THE INVESTIGATION relative to the burning of the National Theatre, New York, is still in progress. Thomas Hurd was brought up, and under partial promise of immunity, offered to make disclosures as to the cause of the fire, the names of the parties who induced the commission of the act, &c. Evidence seems to be very strong against Hurd. He, it seems, was seen to go into the Theatre a short time before the flames broke out, by a female named Olivia Swift, who declares herself almost positive as to his identity. The Tatler remarks that the investigation will be continued from day to day until the mystery is fully solved.

The Montreal Transcript states that the gross number of emigrants that had landed at Quebec, on the 25th instant, was 9,000—and twenty more ships were at that time reported. Of these 5,600, as near as may be, had reached Montreal up to Thursday evening. One male emigrant had died on the passage up, on board of the Canada steamer. They still complain from Quebec, that many of those who plead destitution, refuse work at three shillings per day.

FOUND GUILTY. Madison, alias Blanchard, one of the negroes, charged with the murder of Jesse Baker, of St. Louis, has been tried and found guilty of murder in the first degree. The trial of Brown, another of the murderers, was immediately commenced.

Mr. Barnard, who had his pocket picked while on board the Narragansett, on the 21st inst. in bills of exchange, has had the same restored to him through the post office.
