

PUPLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY BY BULL & TUTTLE, No. 7 NORTH GAY STREET, BALTIMORE, Md.

VOLUME IV.]

SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 5, 1841.

NUMBER 78.

in your paper. CONVERSATION COMPARISONS. Man is the jugged, lofty pine,

For the Baitmore Clipper.

That fromne en many a wave-beat shore, Woman's the stander, graceful vine, Whose curling tendrils round it twine, And decks its rough bark sweetly o'er.

Man is the rock, whose towering crest, Nods o'er the mountain's barren side: Woman's the soft and mossy rest, That loves to clasp its sterile breast, And wreath its brow in verdant pride

Man is the cloud of coming storm, Dark as the raven's murky plume, Save where the sun-beam, light and werr ., Of woman's coul and woman's form, Gleams brightly o'er the gathering gloom.

Yes, lovely sex! to you tis given, To rule our hearts with angel sway, Blend with each woe a blessful leavin, Change earth into an embryo heav'n, And sweetly smile our cares away.

AN EXTRACT FROM MY JOURNAL, No. 3. "Who would not brave the battle fire- the wreck To move the monarch of her people of deck." THE ERITISH QUEEN-A SCENE ON BOARD.

prospects.

was a trying time with all who had trusted them- | ed for the shores of America. selves on the "great deep." Our commander had When the men had sufficiently recovered to three days successively, (interrupted only by the be the captain and four of the crew of the brig relative to the colored population of the state. occasional hour's sleep which nature required,) Margaret, of Leith, bound from New Brunswick applying ever and anon the glass to his watchful to Scotland, and laden with lumber. They had eye, and looking from time to time at the still been lashed to the rigging for fifty-two hours, cloudy horizon. It was about noon of the fourth without food, without raiment, and almost with. land in Liberia," to which all the emigrants from day of storm and head winds, that one of the out hope-exposed to every wave that broke this State have been sent. The geographical posimore seaworthy passengers thought he descried over the lost bulwarks, and raging from the un-tion of this place, it is stated, is considered of at a distance a vessel under "bare poles." The quenched thirst that parched their deeply furcaptain's glass added to the information that she rowed tongues. Four of the crew had been great importance, is laid down as being "at the had a portion of a sail tied to the mast as a "sig. | drowned when the brig was thrown on her beam | southern extremity of the southwest coast," and | nal of distress." This news spread among the ends, by the wave that caused her wrecking. - as "the point made by all vessels passing to and passengers, and the tidings that a wreck was to These unfortunate men added, that two vessels from the Niger, and the shores of the great Bights be seen at some miles to the windward, were had passed very near to them on the day previspeedily conveyed to the state rooms. In a few ous, during the height of the storm—that they of Benin and Biafra." The latest accounts, up to minutes all who could summon up strength suffi- had in vain made their signals of distress, which the 12th of March last, give the most favorable cient were on the upper deck, straining their had been unheeded either from incapacity or an views of the happiness and prosperity of the colo. vision to make out the character of the vessel, unwillingness to risk any thing for their assist nists. Coffee, sugar and cotten have been sucand to determine whether any living being was ance. The captain (poor fellow!) told us that on board the unfortunate wreck. Few remained | they had in consequence given up all hope, until | cessfully cultivated—the two former so fully as to below—the intense interest excited on board they saw, at a great distance, the enormous bulk promise to become staple articles of export. Bedrove away sea sickness, and engrossed every of the large steamer bearing toward them—then sides these, the soil will produce any of the vegeother feeling; the upper deck was crowded. As a ray of hope burst upon him, and he said to his we moved on, the commander thought he per- almost lifeless crew, "My boys, there is a Life tables of the tropics; and cattle, game and fish against the warden of the jail, the circumstances it is beautiful, is from Mr. James' last novel, ceived somebody on board waving-judging from | Boat for you." the appearance of the head dress, through his telescope, he concluded that this being was a fetelescope, he concluded that this being was a remale, and the only living creature on board. For a moment he deliberated with himself whether it would be prudent—indeed, whether it would be safe, with the sea running at that time and a noon, the Coroner was summoned to the cor Several schools are maintained by the missionastrong wind blowing from the quarter in which the wreck lay, to risk the lives of half a dozen of the best sailors and some of the ship's officers Russell, who was lying in articulo mortis from ciety, and one maintained by an association of lain so dangerous an enterprise, as the doubtful experiment of rescuing a single individual. He who has never been at sea, can have but little his arrival Dr. Archer found that the informaconception of the feelings elicited by the appear-and imminent danger to which they are both exposed at every moment, binds them together in sympathy, and they feel as if some safety were of the Coroner. No hopes however were en. D. Evans, Esq. of Baltimore, including forms for self pointed out Brown to Duvall, who proceeded to the ground by a past storm, raises up her derived from their momentary proximity; with tertained of the woman's recovery. the separates from his vessel, and is lost in the from whom her husband rented the house Under these the colonists enjoy the advantages of Worthington came up and took the prisoner out that idea, as we have said, the mind clings distance, and a cast of melancholy shades his which he occupied, had frequently threatened a properly regulated form of government. One of his hands, declaring that he was his captive. with fund affection; and even when the earlier prow, as he turns his back upon the last glimpse to turn them out of doors, and that Russell feature of the charter is given as particularly wor. On the other hand, Brown himself, summoned on fancy takes the place of remembrance, and the impression he can fancy to himself of the law or his wife. About 12 o'clock, Russell orlatense anxiety, the deep and oppressive in dered two of his nephews who lived with him to legislate for the prohibition of the use of ardent | Worthington was the first who arrested him, garland of graces, and beauties, and virtues, erest which every man on board must feel, when to leave the room in which he and his wife spirits; thus embodying in the constitution of the while he was leaning on the rail of the steamboat which we doubt not that she possessed." bashed about at the mercy of wind and wave, diately seized an axe, and without eaying a with every sea breaking over the lost bulwarks, word, with it felled his wife to the ground! washing from the decks every thing valuable His nephews heard the blow, and supposing colonists themselves cherish with especial care been adjourned over until yesterday, when Mr. Washington street, yesterday, and directed the safety of the unfortunate individuals who that he was breaking the windows, rushed in this salutary provision of their constitution. Al. Henry Cliffe, late clerk of the jail, was summon. them to be sent to the Worcester Rail-road hay yet be struggling for life. He sees the poor to the apartment, and found the unfortunate hipwrecked mariner, by the last exertion of his woman weltering in her blood, and apparentemaining strength, still hoping, make an effort by lifeless. The inhuman murderer immedi- ken peace has been maintained with them from disputed point, viz: whether or not any reward eaid to him that the owner of the goods wanten men for the doubtful preservation of one lice office, when he was fully committed. tion. His duty almost forbids it!

Lightenant Roberts, who left New York in com-

As a subscriber to your very valuable paper, I have she was lowered into the water and cleared in enclosed a few exquisite lines, which, if they meet valety. We were about two miles distant from with your approval, I should be pleased to see inserted | the wreck. The wind was still blowing, the sea raging, and the storm but slightly abated. Not a yard of canvass was to be seen, except one double reefed topsail, required to steady the enormous steamer. The steam itself was suffered to escape, from time to time, as we moved round the ward, toward the destined object, by the powerful exertions of the sinewy sailors, plying with might and main at their oars, it was lost ever and the waves rose and fell. It was painful to be- of Managers deemed it advisable, (after perform- the colored race against Colonization, arising ed, from which decision Mr. Disney declared his hold the anxiety with which those on board ing the duty enjoined upon them at the last annual from misrepresentations in regard to the colony, intention to appeal. " atomed the Life Boat struggling on. The whole included seemed to be wrapt up in of appointing a day for the meeting of the present enjoying future social and political equality in the ship and followed with strained eye, Convention then determined on, and publishing this country, must be removed—and that it is neas marked on the countenance of all, a dead siience prevailed, and there was not one amongst ate the facts given at the Autharolis meeting, and should be augmented to enable them to transport that assemblage of passengers, whose seelings to lay before the Convention such other views as more emigrants and make required improveof uncertainty from the lowering of the Life Boat it is stated that this society is entirely uncongrained can be looked for which may be regardthe safe and successful return of our bold mari- zation Society, and that the experience of many and advocates of Colonization. The present and then came, as we afterwards learned, the most difficult part of the duty. The poor, unertion by the returning hope of safety, passed that more good could be effected by the concen- will result in producing such a concert of action towards the side in which the Life Boat was co- tration, within her own limits, of the efforts of throughout the State as will awaken the citizens It was in the month of November, 1840. The ming, and prepared by one desperate and last [British Queen, one of the largest and strongest effort of remaining strength, to jump, in a body the advocates of colonization in the state, than by generally to a conviction of the important charsteam ships, had been laboring for some days on board. To avoid this, which would have in- any aid afforded by a society bound to aid equal- acter of the objects entertained by the Society, against storms and heavy seas. The waves had evitably capsized the Life Boat, the ship's officer by the other states of the union. Further, it was and induce them to contribute to its funds, while, been rolling mountains high; the cross seas were was obliged to pass under the lee-bow and forbid judged better that, when the time should arrive at the same time, it may so operate as to redead shead, and every minute the vessel "ship | such rash movement, under pair of being left to that they would witness that consummation to move the prejudices of the free colored populaped a sea," pouring tons of water even to the their fate. One by one they were received on which the efforts of the colonizationists are di- tion upon this subject. As one of the greatest quarter deck. All that skill and activity could the boat; to us, on the steamer, it was the work of rected, the voluntary emigration of the free peo- aids in removing those prejudices the Board sugeffect upon the part of our generous commander,* | an instant, and we saw her leaving the wreck joined to the tremendous power of our mighty behind nearing the steamer. She approached, steam engines, could scarcely succeed in preservished we began to distinguish the men on board .-ing our course. The torrents of rain that were I'ive minutes more, and the stifled seelings of an borders might resort, without dependence upon We have been thus particular in noticing the thrown down from the lowering sky upon our | nour's most intense anxiety, burst forth in one decks, added to the melancholy gloom of our lead and universal shout of joy, as fire, thin, chactated and strengthless men were safely pla. apportion the right of immigration." Other rea- Board of Managers, because we regard the mat-Flushed with the hope of a short passage, we cod or the ship's deck. One of them, younger sons also existed—the consideration that the sub- ters contained therein as of great and growing price can be fairly obtained. had lest the English shores a sew days before, than the rest, the only one whose strength was not ject was one belonging exclusively to the slave- interest to this community, requiring the earnest of storms, head winds and high seas had brought more gaining comparative safety, climbed up the which was to be deprecated, and that little har own State, but of the whole country. We the barrel. with them. The anxious looks of the passengers, side of the ship. He too was the first to jump on mony of action could be hoped for in a society, subjoin the table shewing the population of the as the noble vessel rode upon the mountain waves board the Life Boat, and the first who left the among the members of which such a difference of white and free colored population in the several and pitched forward, with a tremendous jar, as if steamer at New York. They were carried on for the last time; or as the soaming water broke the backs of some of our sailors into the forward views existed as among the northern and south- counties in this State in 1790 and 1840:

iship jumped on board, and with practised skill

A SHOCKING MURDER OF A WOMAN BY HER ner of 23th street and 3d avenue to an antemortem examination on the body of a Mrs. ries, in addition to the one maintained by the sostruck by her husband, Patrick Russell! On [

The hesitation was but momentary: the rising there seen from the heights of Wilmington a the steamer on the top of the next wave, satis- more imposing or beautiful sight in the way the Captain that there was another human of shipping in the Delaware, than was exhibit serving the present prosperous state of affairs.— the arrest and return of a prisoner who had escap- with him. He finally left them in charge of ing yet alive on board the wreck, and he order- ted opposite this city last evening-52 sail conthe gangway to be cleared, and the life boat sisting of Ships, Barques, Brigs, Schooners vered. With what noble rivalry did the sail- and Shallops, with all their sails set-were Frees towards the weather side of the ship in counted by many of our citizens, which with eir desire to be selected to man the Life Boat. a large brig coming up the Christiann, with and willing to aid the cause. The Society have back. He did not, however, know what concluhe boat was manned; the second officer of the other small craft at the same time and all re-expended in all, up to the first of December last, sion the present warden had come to upon that flected upon by the bright and beautiful rays $127,52507, of which $76,139 91 have be in paid subject, at he was no longer clerk of the institu-

BALTIMORE CLIPPER.

ceedings of the State Colonization Convention, the expenses accruing in Africa. and from the sight of the solicitous passengers, The report sets out the declaration that the Board measure, to be realized—that the prejudices of in favor of the plaintiff for the full amount claimmeeting of the State society, held at Annapolis, or, perchance, with some, from the idle hope of an Address to the people of the State,) to reiter- cessary that the pecuniary means of the Society were not pure and holy, during the dreadful time have arisen in the interval. Among other things, ments in the colony before that voluntary emi- price $4.871. We note sales of Susquehanna at whose prayers were not silently offered up for nected, at this time, with the American Coloni- ed as the full sruition of the hopes of the friends quote at $515.123. Rye Flour, $3.37123.50. ners. By dint of exertion the wreck is made, years has wrought the conviction that an inde- Convention having been called to accomplish We note sales of white corn at 54 a 55 cts. Rye, pendent state society would prove more efficient, these purposes, the Board express their earnest Pa. 59 a 60 cts. as per quality. Oats, Md. 38 a fortunate wretches on the wreck, excited into ex. so far as Maryland is concerned, than the other- hope that the deliberations of the Convention 40 cts.; Virginia, do. 33 a 34 cts. ple of color, Maryland should have an establish- gest the establishment of a regular trade between ed colony of her own, where emigrants from her this State and "Maryland in Liberia." colonies where it might become necessary "to leading points of the communication from the upon her prow, threatening to tear asunder every cabin, and consigned to the care of the ship's doc- ern portions of the general society. These views, Al'egany. In 1790, 1 to 376 wh. in 1840. I to 68 timber in the ship, were living evidences that it tor. We once more took up our course, and steer- | the Board state, have induced the state society to adopt and pursue for the last ten years the pobeen pacing with hurried steps the poop deck for be able to converse, they reported themselves to lier of independent state action upon all matters In February, 1834, the Society purchased the territory of Cape Palmas, since known as "Mary-abound throughout the colony. The population is of which are as follows: A prisoner by the name "The Gipscy;" estimated at rather above five hundred emigrants, of Augustus Brown, who escaped sometime since | "Round the idea of one's mother the mind e sail in sight is the sad remnant of a wreck, were, and on their doing so, the wretch imme- nation, the temperance principle; and it is well prior to her leaving for the other side. So far deserving of remark and commendation that the the case had proceeded some days ago, and had though surrounded by tribes of natives, an unbro. ed on the part of the plaintiff, to settle another When the cartman got near the depot, a lad wave his signal of distress, and prudence, nay ately made his escape, but was shortly after the first founding of the settlement, without any had been offered for the arrest of Brown. From ed them sent to the Providence Railroad depot, manity, forces him to hesitate whether he arrested by some persons who resided in the diminution of that influence enjoyed by the emi- the evidence of Mr. Cliffe, it appeared that he immediately, which was obeyed by the cartght to risk so fearfully the valuable lives of neighborhood, and conveyed to the upper pogrants in consequence of their superior civilizatives for the doubtful preservation of one lice office, when he was fully committed. tion. Much credit is given by the board to the in the case then under consideration; but it had told him he saw him a few moments before, A BEAUTIFUL Stuff. Seldom, if ever, was Missionaries stationed at the colony for the great always been a rule, which was sanctioned by the and a person was soon after pointed out as the aid they have rendered in bringing about and pre- board of visiters of the juil, to pay a reward for owner, whom the cartman knew was not the The funds of the Society consist of the State ap- | ed. The reward, when taken at any distance | the baggage master, who took proper care of propriation of $10,000 per annum, together with from the city, was usually twenty dollars, in ad- them until the real owner called and proved fore propose to examine it more minutely to-day. Colonization in this State are yet, in a great again been captured by Duvall, gave judgment

mediant, in		I record attraction	1 1030,	1 10 00
Washington,	44	1 to 226	46	1 to 15
Frederick,	44	l to 126	1830,	1 to 13
Baltimore,	66	1 to 23	- 66 /	1 to 10
	timor	e and Carroll, the	!
		ween 1830 & 1840		1 to 9
Balt.eity, In			"	1 to 41
Harford,	"	1 to 14	46	1 to 41
Montgomery,	41	I to 39	44	1 to 6 i
P. George's,	£ £	1 to 61	£¢.	1 10 7
Charles,	66	1 to 25	41	1 10 7
St. Mary's,	44	1 to 24	66
Calvert,	66	1 to 30	66	1 to 41 1 to 2 6-1
A. Arundel,	44	1 to 14	66
Carroll,		1 10 11	"	1 to 2 8 i
Cacil	٤.	1 40 61	66	1 to 17
Cecil,	"	1 to 61		1 to 51
Kent.		1 to 19	46	1 to 2X
Caroline,	46	1 to 16	66	1 to 3 1-1
Talbot,		1 to 61	"	l to 2 1-1
Queen Anne's	33	1 to 13	13	1 to 2 6 1
Somereet,	"	I to 30	"	1 to 4 8-1
Dorchester,	46	1 to 19		1 to 2 7-1
Worcester,	44	1 to 43	11
		4 10 13		1 to 3 8-1

REST OF A PRISONER. A suit was yesterday the United States Senate. decided by Thomas Hanson Belt, esq., in reference to a claim made by a constable of the city the contributions of those individuals who are able dition to the actual cost of bringing the party gain of the trade of the colony. The present debt office shortly after. At that time W. said noof the Society is about $8,000 which is inclusive thing to him of reward. Here the examination COMMUNICATION FROM THE BOARD OF MAN- of all probable demands up to the 1st of July, of Witnesses closed; and justice Belt, regarding, AGERS OF THE MARYLAND STATE COLONIZATION 1811, excluding any advantage which may be as we understood him, the apparent discrepancy SOCIETY. In our report yesterday of the pro- derived from the trade of the colony in paying which existed between the testimony of Brown Limself and that of Blagraw, as easily reconciled we were compelled, from want of room and time, The communication proceeds to show that by the supposition that Worthington might first wrecked ressel, keeping at about the same dis- to omit any particular notice of the highly inter- notwithstanding the success of the State Society | have captured Brown and afterwards left him for tance. As the small boat gradually moved on- esting document, the title of which we have in the establishment of the colony of "Maryland a short space to procure necessary assistance, and placed at the head of this article; and we there- in Liberia," the great practical advantages of that, in his absence, the prisoner might have

BALTIMORE MARKET, JUNE 4.

FLOUR.—The market for this article during the past week has been rather dull and subjected to a slight decline on last week. We quote Howard street, standard brands, at $5. Wagon $5-the stock on hand is light. City Mills we GRAIN. We quote Pa. reds at 112 a 114 cts.

BEEF CATTLE We quote $7.50a $8 per 100 lbs. Live Hogs have been selling at $4.50 per 100 lbs. The article is dull.

Provisions.—There is no alteration to note in the prices of Provisions which remain nominally the same as at the close of last week; the market being well stocked, with little or no demand. Sales of assorted Bacon have been made at 6a6!e on time, Sides 6a6!e, Hams 8a9c., Shoulders 5251c.; Mess Pork $12; Mess Beef $121; Baltimore cured Hams have been sold at 10c.; packed Beef $12.50, &c. as to quality; Western Lard in kegs 72a8c. In Butter there is very little doing, and no regular quotation

Whiskey.--Hhds. 24 cents; bbls, 25 cents. mid shouts of joy and with confident anticipa- completely exhausted, unwilling to wait for the holding states, any extraneous interference with consideration and aid of the citizens, not only of The wagon price for barrels is 20c., exclusive of > HEALTH OF NEW ORLEANS. It is stated in the Picayune of the 26th ult. that the city of N. Orleans, thus far in the season, has been remarkably healthy. This may be the case, but we would not advise persons to embark for that region at present. There is policy in all things.

QG-A young Creole accidentally shot himself near New Orleans, a short time since. He had been out hunting, and carelessly rested his head upon the muzzle of his gun, resting the other end on the ground. In the position it went off, and blew his head to atoms. How frequency hear of accidents resulting from this kind of care. lessness, and yet persons will persist.

WEATHY. Bennett of the N. Y. Herald is wrathy because the reporters for his paper were on Monday last excluded from the usual seats and facilities appropriated to such a purpose, by Suit to recover a Reward for the Ar- the hon. Sam. Southard, president protem. of all of whom went from this state. The officers of from the jail in this city, was arrested and brought of a man clings with a fond affection. It is the city constables; for which service the said ceiving the most profound impressions, and Worthington claimed twenty dollars as a reward all the after feelings of the world are more or and five dollars as expenses; and, upon the refu. less light in comparison. I do not know that sal of Mr. Disney, the warden of the jail, to pay scelling as the sweetest we have through life. even in our old age we do not look back to that a blow with an axe with which she had been dies in this city. The laws for the government the claim, this suit was instituted. Upon the Our passions and our wilfulness may lead us of the colony, are stated to consist of "a charter, trial of the case it was contended by the defen- far from the object of our filial love; we learn tion was too true, and the ill-fated woman closely resembling that granted by King Charles dant that Brown was actually arrested first by even to pain her heart, to oppose her wishes, to violate her commands; we may become ance of a sail in sight, after some days absence quite insensible; she was immediately removed to Rhode Island—an ordinance taken mainly from police officer Duvall, who had been despatched wild, headstrong, and angry at her counfrom land, with nothing but the sky and endless to the Bellevue Hospital, and the operation of Nathan Dane's ordinance for the government of after him under an order from the Mayor; and to sels or opposition; but when death has stilled ocean to look upon. A deep sense of the mutual fractured in the region of the temporal hone. the northwest territory—and a remedial code prove this fact, Mr. Magraw, from Havre-de- her monitory voice, and nothing but calm memory remains to recapitulate her virtues fractured in the region of the temporal bone, the northwest territory—and a remedial code was performed by Dr. Hyslop in the presence prepared with great labor and learning by Hugh Grace, was examined, who testified that he him and good deeds, affection, like a flower beaten It appears that the brother of Mrs. Russell, processes and instruments likely to be wanted." to arrest him, but that while in the very act, head and smiles amongst her tears.—Round f her shadow. How much slighter must be had awore that he would kill his brother in thy of notice, that it empowers the government the part of the plaintiff, swore positively that twines the image of our dead parent with a Look our fon Swindlers. A gentleman purchased a lot of valuable goods of a firm in them to be his property. The swindler had told the bargage master of the Providence depot, before the cartman arrived, that there would be some goods sent for him, and named the store where they were purchased. It is at his safe arrival in England, in despite of all proscena of life, business and beauty rarely with billiums.

The following beautiful passage as true as

Delaware Republican.

62 have been contributed to the state Colonization and the state Colonizati