In the Senate this morning, Mr. Clay of and in Painting in Oil and Water colors. Kentucky, from the committee on Finance, to whom had been referred a resolution, directing that committee to consider the propriety of repealing the Sub-treasury law, reported a bill to that effect.

The bill repeals the Sub-Treasury law, with the exception of that portion of it which makes it felony to embezzle the public money.

The bill being read a first time was ordered to r second reading.

A debate then arose on the propriety of confining the action of the Senate during the present session, to the business for which Congress was more especially convened.
