

BALTIMORE CLIPPER.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 10, 1841.

OG-We are extremely obliged to our attentive correspondent in Philadelphia, for his favor dated the 7th inst. The conductor having it in charge, however, was kind enough to drop it in the Post Office, after it was too late to be of any service to us. Its Baltimore Postmark is June 9th.

ABOLITION PETITIONS. The House determined) on Monday last to reject the rule of the last session which forbade the reception of abolition petitions, and we presumed that the question was fering severely from erysipilas, is living in the o'clock. The entertainments will be of a choice actiled for the session—but by the proceedings of greatest possible poverty. She beseeches her character—Lots of dancing, lots of pretty girls, and that, when such checks are received in bank, 200 Tuesday it appears, that a motion has been made to reconsider the vote—and, what may seem member her sending any sife then members are sending any significant and to reconsider the vote—and, what may seem somewhat extraordinary, this motion proceeded from Mr. Ingersoll, of Pennsylvania. We have from Mr. Ingersoll, of Pennsylvania. We have ley, No. 7, and she will never cease to ask God to get out of this hot city. always entertained doubts as to the propriety of to grant them eternal glory therefor. excluding these petitions; for, in the first place | THE SHIP WILLIAM BROWN. Extract of a we doubted the right of the House to adopt such letter dated, St. Peters, N. F., May 25: "I ternoon, by T. Rice, Esq. over the body of a man a rule—and secondly, if the right were undenia- have the Captain of the ship Wm. Brown, of named Jas. Lengwell, who died very suddenly in ble, we deemed it inexpedient that it should be Philadelphia, here, and a girl and seven sailors, the neighborhood of the store yard of Mr. exercised—for we were convinced that it would picked up at sea by a French vessel after being Wright. The man it seems was overcome by rather increase than diminish the number of such 6 days in the jolly boat. The sailors are in the heat and the jury decided accordingly. petitions, besides giving rise to much clamor .-- | hospital all frost bitten. The ship struck an ice-Southern members should meet the question of berg, and sank almost immediately, with 33 perabolition boldly; and by a strong report upon the sons, men, women and children on board."subject, silence the fanatics who presume to inter- | Capt. Harris, of the Wm. Brown, is on board | fere with Southern institutions, or shew them schr. Child Harold, and has sailed for Boston. that their efforts would prove useless and abor- Two of the crew have arrived at Castine. of the abolitionists have been highly detrimental Journal of Commerce, has funded more than half the latter Bank, and marked good by the Cashier due, it was the right of the defendants to defend share, at to the colored population; and that the further a million of its circulation—that is, it has with of that Institution. This case was brought to a they could have done if Steinbergen was the prosecution of their schemes will prove further drawn from the market that amount and placed close on Tuesday last by a verdict for the plaininjurious to that class of people. Let the peti- them in deposite in the Bank, giving to the detions be received: it will save time—take away positor a certicate bearing six per cent. interest, close of the argument before the jury, they de- of a cautious and prudent man, that there either the pretext for continuing to present them—and payable in the same funds as deposited, one year liberated about half an hour before rendering never were funds in the Bank to meet it, without the best reference as to character and ability. shew that the Southern people do not fear all hence. Since this arrangement has been entered their verdict, which we refrained from noticing they had afterwards been withdrawn by Steinthe efforts that can be made. The great mass into, but few of them reach the hands of the broof the American people will stand by the South kers. in the maintainance of her rights-and the abolitionists cease from their labors when they discower that they fail to produce excitement. We regret that the motion to reconsider has been the subject will cause an unprofitable consumption pipe, communicating with an engine, had been nopolist,) without having any funds or assets of of time, and may give rise to a state of feeling which should be deplored. Congress should act i promptly on the important measures be submitted, and the

it was friend, v lecturer Trans ments in the mo kind to the influence true that it has greatly contributed to sion of civilization and the dissemination of the season. Christian religion. He illustrates in a very forcible manner, the importance of the merchant as the agent or factor of the producer and consumer, when we were in a comfortable perspiration, a and shows that his agency is productive not sim- | servant stepped into our office, having two splentage to the community at large. The lecturer tity of sweet cakes in the other. We looked, and Steinberger stipulating that he would, before on the 7th of December, when they first got it, solves in business, under the firm of G. II. Mitmacht & bandles with severity the agrarian principle tasted, and then passed judgment. All hands which would array the poor against the rich- | came to the conclusion that they were delicious. | notices the introduction, uses and benefits of spe- If the reader doubts, we refer to the establish- any enquiry of Steinbergen as to the occasion of check was agreed to be held by the Bank as a cie and paper currecey, the proper purposes and ment of Mr. Norfolk, No. 70 Baltimore street, the endorsement of the check, or how it happenmanagement of banks, and the abuses of these who will confirm our decision by furnishing just institutions; from whence he passes to the con- such cooling glasses. sideration of the dangers, temptations and duties | DIELMAN'S CONCERT. To-night our townsof the merchant; which he exhibits in a master- man and distinguished musician, Mr. Dielman, subject which most of them are to make the stu- cal taste in Baltimere, it is hoped the lovers of check until he could afterwards see him and ar- without circumstances of suspicion, it is obligatory dy of their future lives. We understand that music will show how much they are willing to range it. This was done, and afterwards, on the upon the Bank. the pamphlet is on sale at most of the bookstores | do for him in return this evening. in this city-and, as it is well worthy of perusal Mr. Russell, we learn, has consented to sing a by all classes of society, we commend it to their | celebrated negro song, which is said to be the consideration.

THE RAIN KING. Where is Professor Espy? in this country. If he can obtain relief for us now is the time. Man at d beast are gasping for breath, and anx- | S. F. Streeter, Esq., of this city, has been unaniously looking towards the Heavens for water. | imously appointed to deliver a Lecture before the Old ms sids have hardly strength to put on their American Institute of Education, at their annipaints and curls, and young maids can scarcely | versary meeting to be held in Boston during the find bre :ath to say "yes, sir," to a proposal of third week in August next. marriag c. We hope that Professor Espy will | We cannot but congratulate the members of the hasten, here and give us a shower, and we shall above distinguished Institute upon so happy a have no objection if he will add a good breeze. selection. We know Mr. Streeter well. For All nat ure is drooping from the intensity of the talents and crudition he holds an enviable rank, heat, an I cries for "water- water." Our gut- and will, we have no doubt, in discharging the and the other at a somewhat longer date, for the ters-ps b! their green and sickly har, and offen- duties assigned him, fully meet the anticipations i sive cfl usia, are sufficient to turn the stomachs of those to whom he is indebted for the honor respectively, to mature. These notes were then hands of the Jury to-day. the pigs which prowl our streets by conferred. If we have not a shower shortly, we must peti tion his honor the Mayor to turn out all cording cases of intemperance; and, were it not | ced, was enclosed by Sprigg to Steinbergen, with hands to the pumps. terprising follows they are -but it can hardly be Societies. go of othe r people's letters.

geant-Mei mus.

But even these patriotic few should not let the curity, was shortly after released. day pass without some manifestation of respect. If no preparations be made by the younger mem- | colored, were bound over yesterday in security to bers of society to observe the coming anniversary keep the peace. "beauty and booty" of Baltimore in 1814, have give security to keep the peace. What the deuce dine together on that day at some suitable place. ingly cool that they have to get their passion up

The fellowing extraordinary notice is to a white heat to keep their blood warm? translated from a Rio de Janeiro journal. The Cotillion Excusion. Those wishing to enbeen properly responded to by the charitable:

negroes had since died from the fatal effects.

In relation to the accident, published yes-

NEWS ABOUT TOWN.

OH! THAT ICE CREAM. Last evening, just best and most characteristic of the kind ever sung

LECTURE ON EDUCATION. We observe that

More Daunkenness. We are weary of re-Organ, ga ve their readers the same information effects of their intemperance. Shame on them. yesterday morning. What indefatigable and en- Why do they not join some of the Temperance Baltimore Clipper—especially when the crew on Connelly, two white boys, were, on Tuesday and being at the Banking meaning, the trovernment, and Meredith for the claimants. The counselfor who may patients him in the above branches of his 17-3m and Meredith for the claimants. The counselfor who may patients him in the above branches of his 17-3m and Meredith for the claimants. board such a machine have to pause to lay in a car- night, taken to the Western District Watch June by Sprigg, was told by him that he presume the U. States declared themselves ready for profession. go of other repeople's letters.

Office repeople repeated to the less was all right; that there was letters and the less repeated to th The ballot , Mr. E. L. Townsend was elected Ser- another strong illustration of the necessity that he did not understand, and he could not say that tioned by his Honor, the Judge, that it will be appeared another strong illustration of the necessity that he did not understand, and he could not say that tioned by his Honor, the Judge, that it will be appeared another strong illustration of the necessity that he did not understand, and he could not say that tioned by his Honor, the Judge, that it will be appeared another strong illustration of the necessity that he did not understand, and he could not say that exists for a House of Reluge.

ed the hope that some arrangements will be made day arrested and taken before Squire Pennington, ed. It was after this conversation, and on the to celebrate the approaching fourth of July in an | charged with a violation of the peace. As Wilappropriate manner. In former times the milita- liam was somewhat noisy, the Justice committed ry never failed to parade-but that spirit seems him, but the prospect along the Falls had such a Corcoran was informed by Sprigg, or any other to have greatly subsided, and the uniform compa- | cooling effect upon him, that he soon became as | nies to have dwindled down to a small number. | cool as a summer's morning, and upon giving se-

OG-Rachel Hawkins and Ephraim Brown, both wary fair invalid supplicates for aid in the most pa- joy a delightful excursion to Houck's Pavillion, thetic terms; and we hope that her appeal has and thence down the Bay, are referred to the steamer Rappahannock, Capt. Fairbank, which that they would. It was also in proof that the paid out, the gentlemen obtains 850 dollars!! and in Rosaria Maria de Conception, blind and suf- will sail from Light-st. wharf this afternoon, at 4 usage of Banks is to endorse checks when there this same Lottety we sold two other good prizes to Nos.

INQUEST. An inquest was held yesterday af-

[Reported for the Baltimore Clipper.]

BALTIMORE COUNTY COURT. CASE OF THE MERCHANTS' BANK AGAINST THE BANK OF VIRGINIA. We alluded, on Tues- Bank by any such endorsement: day, to the fact that a case had been, for some days, pending in the County Court, upon a suit brought by the Merchants' Bank of this city against the Farmers' Bank of Virginia, to retiffs for the amount of their claim, $10,000, with interest from the 3d January, 1840. After the until we could give a full report. The questions, bergen, and that his failure to demand it, and his as well of law as of fact, which the case involved, stipulation with the plaintiffs that he would rewere many, and accordingly interesting to the deem it, connected with the other circumstances, FATAL CASE OF POISONING. The Baton Rouge | community, and were most elaborately argued Gazette of the 22d ult., says that about thirty necase was briefly this: On the 4th June, 1839, Steinbergen's debt had not been paid by Corcogroes were poisoned a day or two previous, by John B. Steinbergen, (who, as we have before drinking water from a well in which a copper | said, was at one time famous as a great beef moledge or authority, induced the then Cashier of Erday, as having taken place at Hudson, relative named on said Bank for $10 000 each, drawn in Lears running off the track into the river, favor of a man named Miller, the then accredited pretended to be fraudulent, was, in law, a fraud all to be completed within an hour, for a bet of $160 York Sun says, "it is true that four cars checks was afterwards cancelled by the Cashier plaintiffs no right to recover. initated intertage water, but, instead of at the drawer's instance, and another, for like ted, the damage does amount, dated the 27th June, in the same year, ferent forms, better Not a single life was endorsed in its stead, under like circum- the real quest stances, for Steinbergen by the same cashier. About the middle of December following, Miller overdue, in the Moless than seven sudden having, before the 15th of the preceding June, on that ground the preceding June, on the preceding June, or the preceding Jun Philadelphia a sew days since abscouded, and, as it was generally supposed, a endorsement; but that it was for the large defaulter to Steinbergen, the latter, on the cide, from all the evidence, not whether the DAILY & ARN This large detaulter to Steinbergen, the latter, on the cide, from all the evidence, not whether, and with taken by the plaintiffs' cashier fairly and with out fraud; but whether, under such circumstances, 7th December, applied to D. Sprigg, the Cashier taken by the plaintiffs' cashier fairly and withtuemselves or drink cold water during the warm Steinbergen many transactions to near a million a man of prudence and caution ought not to have of dollars had before taken place, to lead him, in suspected that there were no funds in the hands and with him Mr. George Weinhagen. The business leaving with the Cashier, as collateral security also decided that, if Steinbergen's debt was paid All persons indebted to the old firm are requested to for the note the said endorsed check for $10,000, by the discount of Corcoran's notes, and without make payment to G. H. Mittnacht & Co. by whom all of the 4th June, and a Rail Road bond of a chart- an agreement between Corcoran and Sprigg, that debts due by the old firm will be paid. amount, secured by the guarantee of that state— hold the check, with all the rights they had to it to it in the undersigned have this day associated thempurposed borrowing upon it, at interest, instead should have awakened the suspicion that there of eashing the check; or why he desired that it were no funds in the Bank to meet it. should not be sent to the defendants for payment, ly style.

It is an admirable Lecture, well calculated to Rooms. He will be assisted by Mr. Russell. As

Rooms. He will be assisted by Mr. Russell. As Rooms and Rooms and Rooms and Rooms and Rooms and Rooms. Trunks; Suspenders; Snuff; Fancy and Work Hoves; ments of checks by the omeers of Banks, when there were funds standing to the drawer's credit; Gold and Filver Watches; Blacking. Ink, and Inkterior for the unit of the commercial credit altother were funds standing to the drawer's credit; Gold and Filver Watches; Blacking. Ink, and Inkterior funds or not; there were such funds or not; there were enlighten the members of the association upon a Mr. D. has done much for the elevation of musi- Spring that he about sometime to retain the riously insolvent, and proposing to execute a in the form of a letter to Sprigg, authorizing and question stated in this report. directing him, upon Corcoran's liquidating his, Corcoran the said check and bond. The object Messrs. McMahon and Johnson. of this order with both Steinbergen and Corceran t was, to secure the latter, to the extent of the surplus of these securities, after the discharge cl

the claim for which they were pledged to the plaintiffs, a debt of four thousand dollars owed by | Steinbergen to Cercoran. Upon the presentation of this order, at Sprigg's suggestion as the best mode of effecting this purpose, Corcoran gave his two notes, one at 10 days, the debt up to the period when these notes were, it of the account, by which it was balanced. In a i day or two after, a copy of the account, as balanthat the publication of the names of the parties all his, Steinbergen's checks upon the Bank. No Court, which has already excited considerable tlemm and two ladies, $1.59—to be had at the offices Newst Aper Enterprise. On Menday last may have a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should blot out page of the last hand to be a salutary effect, we should be a salutary effect. Sprigg after the 26th December; and none at all Harmony & Co. of New York, which vessel was parture. The Rost will ston mine a at the Casthelic Church, Fell's Point, on the preceding day, and our enterprising neighbors of the ceding day of the ceding of Mr. Sherrard, the present Cashier of the de-fendants, and who was their President during this the high seas. The case was yesterday called transaction, that on the 25th of January, 1841, for trial, when the U.S. District Attorney, Mr. the inhalitants of Baltimore and its vicious, that he having protested the day before the fraudulent Williams and Reverdy Johnson, Esq., retained by transfer Violing, Tenors, Violoncellos, Deuit would be paid by the defendants, but that they [ then tried, unless continued upon legal grounds. | B. Ann Accet, Fell's Point

Bound over. William Patten was yester- would decide upon it when it should be present-29th of January, that the two notes of Corcoran | quested to call and examine the most splendid amont were applied, as before stated, to the credit of the debt of Steinbergen, and it did not appear that on the contrary, Sprigg stated in his evidence that he did not give said information, not having seen Corcoran between the 25th and 25th of Jan-

Mr. Sprigg stated that he had great confidence in Steinbergen, and knowing the endorsement of Orrick to be genuine, he had no suspicion at all in a suitable style, we are pleased to learn that ANOTHER. - McDonald, white, was yes- that the check was not a good one when he rethe veterans, who so gallantly protected the terday taken before Squire King, and required to ecived it on the 9th of December, but that he with Sherrard. Several officers of either Bank | Church, Lexington street. Persons desirous of beit in contemplation to march in procession and do the poeple mean? Is the weather so exceed- and others were examined as witnesses, as to the ing the taking of the check, they would have lent contrary, have thought it prudent to have informed themselves of the actual character of the check. Their testimony was variant, some say. upon it without enquiry, and would not, on the check. Their testimony was variant, some say- all fortunate HEISLER & CO. This is the way we ing they would have suspected nothing, and others | do things at No. 1 Calvert street, for the trifle of $2.50 it had been done by the officers of the defendants', andria Lottery, class 23, drawn June 8th, lowest prize > by the court to state. The questions alluded to are these:

The plaintiffs contended that an endorsed check was always binding upon the Bank endorsing it, whether there were funds in hand or not to meet | the Mayor's office in this city. Capital $14,500, 20 of it, whether endorsed fraudulently or not, provi- $1000, &c. Tickets $5, shares in proportion—the lowded the holder obtains it in good faith for value, est prize $6. Risk on a package of 25 tickets only and without notice of the fraud. The defendants, on their part, insisted:

1st. That the check was absolutely void, it being admitted that it had been fraudulently en- I r's for Prizes. Draws TO-DAY, June 19th, the dorsed, there being no authority given, or capa- relended Alexandria Lottery, class No. 24. ble of being given—under its charter, to bind the

2nd. That, if binding, it was in point of law over due on the 7th Dec., when received by the plaintiffs from the drawer, it having been then unreasonably out of time; and that, being over only $18.50-for sale by the package, single ticket, or

3rd. That, if not over due, it was taken under circumstances calculated to excite the suspicions were facts to awaken such suspicion.

4th. That, whatever might be the cases if ran, the transaction with Corcoran closed that ladies. debt, and the plaintiff's present title in the check was only as a security for his, Corcoran's notes, and, as Sprigg admitted that, after his interview with Sherrard, he would not have taken the check, his taking it afterwards, on the 23th, from

These several questions were

The court his note in favor of Sprigg, as Cashier, for of the desendants to meet it, and, if so, that the will hereafter be conducted under the firm of C. H. $17,000, payable with interest, that amount, he desendants were entitled to a verdict. They MITTNACHT & CO. ered company of North Carolina, for the same the Bank, notwithstanding that payment, was to made, and, as Sprigg stated, without his making January, when the payment was made, and the

They also decided that usage and the conveor why he himself wished to redeem it. Before | nience of the community justified the endorse-

Exceptions were taken to this opinion, and the case has gone to the Court of Appeals, at the indeed of trust of all his property for the payment stance of the defendants, the verdict of the jury of his debts, amounting to near a million of dol- having been, as before stated, against them lars, which he did on the following day, he gave | The decision of that tribunal will finally settle, an order of that date in favor of a Mr. Corcoran, as far as this state is concerned, the interesting

Counsel for the plaintliffs, Messrs. Brown, Steinbergen's, debt to the Bank, to hand over to | Schlev and Meredith. For the defendants,

> SUIT FOR DAMAGES. The County Court were c engaged yesterday in the trial of a suit brought) by Dr. Jamieson against the proprietors of the Une of stages known as "the Peoples Line," for damages on account of an injury alleged to have been received some months ago by the upsetting | Lof a stage belonging to that Company, in which he was a passenger, on his way from Wheeling, we believe, to this place. A portion only of the cvidence was got through yesterday; but the case will, we presume be closed and placed in the

UNITED STATES' DISTRICT COURT.

A CARD. 00-The LADIES of Baltimore are respectfully re ment of Ladies' BOOTS and EHOES ever offered in this city, received this day at the New York Fancy SHOE STORE, 150 Baltimore-st.

June 10th, at 8 o'clock. A monthly meeting of the Standing Committee, will be held at the same time WM. H. WATSON, Bec's JEFFERSONIANS-ATTENTION: 30-The members of the Jefferson Temperance Society, Auxiliary No. 2, are hereby notified to attend the meeting to be held THIS (Thursday) EVENING, at 8 o'clock, in the Basement of the Rev. Mr. Morris' coming members, are respectfully invited to attend. jelo-lt By order, JOHN L. BOOKER, Bec's.

1000 DOLLARS IN A WHOLE TICRETS

20 34 40 27 61 53 23 6 75 7 3 66 92 Now for the old Maryland. 34 33 40, another whole Nos. Md. State Lottery, class 21, drawn June 9th.

lowest prize $1. Town Hall Lottery draws TO DAY, June 8th, at 816. In the last Town Hall Lottery we had the pleasure of selling in one package the beautiful Prizes of 82500 and a prize of $100, and To day we hope to sell the Capital. Be careful, citizens, to purchase at Heis-

SPLENDID CAPITALS: 1 Prize of $20,000 DOLLARS! 5,000 DOLLARS!!

1000 DOLLARS, &c. &c. . Tickets 85-Shares in proportion. Risk on a package of 25 tickets in this good scheme HEISLER & CO'S Court of Fortune,

No. 1 N. Calvert-st., 1st office from Baltimore-st. OG-Orders trom all parts of the Union meet prompt and confidential attention.

TWO Experienced STOCK MAK-ERS-none need apply but those who can give Apply at No. 4 NORTH STREET. HURRICANE LAWNS.

FETHE subscribers have just received a beautiful assortment of HURRICANE LAWNS, an entire new style, and a beautiful article for Ladies' Dresses, with a choice selection of Chine and low priced Lawns, to which they particularly invite the attention of the DORSEY & NELSON, No. 13 Baltimore-st. jelo lw [a] Third door west of Market Space.

A GREAT PEDESTRIAN FEAT WILL take place at the KENDALL COURSE, on THURSDAY 10th Inc. of 2 and o'clock, P. M., of picking up 100 potatoes, that Bank, a Mr. Orrick, since deceased, to en- Corcoran, as collateral to his note, was what a each placed one yard spart, and bring one at a time dorse as good his two checks of the date above cautious and prudent man would not have done, and placing it in a basket. Also, to wheel a wheeland, independent of his purposes, which was not barrow 300 yards, roll a hoop 300 do., and run 300 do.

WILE subscribers offer for sale a large assortment of STOCKTON'S MINERAL TEETII—having just red a fresh supply, including every variety. True, the Composition GRINDING STONE, a new Esuperior article for grinding teeth, never before I for sale in this city.

Dentists and others are invited to call and ex-DAILY & ARNOLD, No. 41 Sharp st. j-10-3t [4] Near Market etreet, Baltimore.

FETHE SUBSCRIBER has just dissolved his connection with his former partner, and associ-

ed to be so long outstanding, or why Steinbergen cumstances which, in prudence and caution, H. MITTNACHT & CO. have on hand and | FANCY GOODS, among which are Cutlery; Clocks: Combs; Pocket Books; Baskets; Brushes; Looking Glasses; German Silver Ware; Buttons; Pins and Needles Whips; Pistols; Persumeries; States; Spectacles; the maturity of the note, the 25th of December, ments of checks by the officers of Banks, when Trunks; Euspenders; Snuff; Fancy and Work Boxes; Violins, Flutes, Accordeuns, Harmonicas, and Toys, together with a general assortment of Pancy & Staple Atticles, all of which they will sell on pleasing terms. FORTUNE'S HOME. DRAWING of the Maryland State Lottery, class 41, drawn June 7th: 51 43 58 65 49 29 4 1 35 7 11 16 TO-DAY, will be drawn Alexandria Lottery. RICH SCHEME: l Prize of $2000 1 Prize of Tickets only $5-shares in proportion. CO- For prizes, apply to the lucky venders,

GRIDLEY & CO., No. 41 Calvert-st. Directly opposite Barnum's City Hotel. COTILLION EXCURSION, UTO HOUCK'S PAVILLION & CHESAPE (KUUAY

THURSDAY (THIS DAY) 10th Inst. The splendid and favorite strumes Rappahannock, Capt. FAIRBANK, Williamske an excursion to Honek's Pavil tion and Chesapeake Bay on THURSDAY, 16th u.s. leaving Light sin et wharf at 4 o'clock, P. M. and proceed to Houck's, remain there a sufficient time to partake of supper of refreshments and view the grounds: after which she will proceed down the Bay, accompanied by MURRAY'S Military and Cotillien BAND,

There is a case at present pending in this considerable of Tickets for tr p 75 cents, a ticket to admit a 200-check of the 27th of Jone, he was in Bultimore, by the U.S. as assistant Counsel, appeared for Mr.G. having served a regular apprenticeship, flatand being at the Banking House of the plaintiffe, the Government, and Messrs. Welson, McMallon rest hiswelf qualified to give catisfaction to any one