[Reported for the Baltimore Clipper.] BALTIMORE CITY COURT. SATURDAY, JUNE 12, 1841.

Present-Judges Brice, Nisbet and Worthington. Cornelius Gibson, who had enlisted in the government service, was discharged upon application to the Court, on the ground of minorship.

A jury was sworn to inquisibinto the fact as to whether Wm. Henry Kiddall was a lunatic or not, and if so, whether he was a pauper, and, as such, entitled to support at the public expense, legislative provision having been made for lunatic paupers. The facts, both of his being a lunatic, and unable to take care of himself, and of his being anable to provide for his own support, were fully proven, and the jury returned a written verdict to that effect. The unfortunate object of the application was directed to be sent to the Hos-
