BALTIMORE CLIPPER.

SPORTING A HANDKERCHIEF. Not many evenings since, an individual having a keen eye, a glib tongue and an independent countenance, stepped into a refreshing establishment, and with much sang froid said to the host:—

"Swa, I want some liqua—I am really, Swa, in a state of unakowntable internal torment."

Mr. R. pleased with the idea of serving so fine a looking customer, set out his very best.

"You keep nothing, of course, Swa," said M. Dandirimbo, "but the real ginawine," at the same time applying the cork of a bottle to his nostrum.

"Nothing, Sir, nothing. Here you will find a variety all of my own importing."

"I disciver, Swa, upon this, a beed very similan to that which I have been in the habit of using at the Astwa House. It pleases moy fancoy. Some sugwa, crackwas and sigwas, if you please Swa."

"Certainly—William, John, Patrick, wait upon this gentleman."

The etceteras were brought, and Monsieur delighted himself amid the curling smoke of his regalia, by sipping, with a fashionable grace, the exhilerating imported first proof stingo. After the cravings of his refined epicurean taste had been fully satisfied, he walked up to the bar with all the airs and independence of a Spanish Count, thus addressing the host:

Swa, I am no common gentleman—dukes and lawds have been my companions; but I, swa, for once, find that the needful of my pocket has, as has been remarked by Shakspeare, taken to itself wings. But, swa, (taking from his pocket a handkerchief,) heaw is an article worth twice the amount I have consumed of yours. Allow me, swa, to say I will pledge it with you, swa, until we have the extreme happiness of meeting again. The commotions of my appetite, swa, have forced me to this extreme. Too much sporting, swa, has caused me, upon this occasion, to sport that handkerchief. Believe me, I am a personage of honor, as you will find upon further acquaintance.

The host not wishing any further honorable civilities from Monsieur Dandirimbo, politely refused the acceptance of his kind offer, at the same time requesting him to use the handkerchief for the support of his nose, and not to sport it again in obedience to demands of his alcoholic appetite.

We learn that this fashionable sporter is yet in our city, and may be seen frequently moving in what the elite call "high life." A night or two ago, having no handkerchief, he offered his neck stock, after he had guzzled down a grog—contrary to his expectations, it was taken, and he was compelled to walk to his staying place without any.

BALTIMORE CITY COURT.

MONDAY, JUNE 14, 1841.

State vs. Mary C. Patterson. This trial was continued to-day. Several witnesses were examined on the part of the State this morning.—The testimony of these witnesses was to the same effect as that of the State's witnesses on Saturday, except that several of the witnesses had been in the house, once or more, but they said they had never seen any thing wrong in the house.

The officer who arrested the traverser, called on the part of the State, testified that he saw nothing improper in the house at the time, except that the traverser used a great deal of profane language in regard to the charge upon which he told her the warrant had been granted.

Upon the part of the traverser evidence was brought that she was a hard working woman, who kept an eating house, supplying the market with coffee, &c.—according to their evidence they had all repeatedly been in the house at different times and never saw any thing about it wrong, nor any person, except the traverser, her daughter and the servant, unless it was some of the market people who went there for their meals.

Miss Patterson, a young lady of about nineteen, was one of the witnesses called by the defence. Was the daughter of traverser, who kept a house for the sale of refreshments, such as coffee, cakes, ice cream, &c. A number of persons were in the habit of coming there to eat. She herself was generally there—always there at night.—Knew nothing of any thing improper in the conduct of her mother's house—no person had ever been permitted to visit there for improper purposes.

The officer who arrested the traverser was recalled by the Court, and asked as to her denial of the charge, when he stated that she said it was untrue—that she had a grown up daughter who was visited by respectable young men; and she supposed had given rise to the report.

It is not a little singular that, in the testimony adduced, sixteen witnesses were examined on one side, and sixteen on the other.

After eloquent addresses from the gentlemen on each side, the case was given to the jury; and, as it was considered after the regular hour of adjournment, his honor Judge Brice, directed them to seal their verdict, and bring it into court tomorrow morning.

P. S. We learn the Jury agreed upon their verdict between five and six o'clock.

UNITED STATES' DISTRICT COURT.

MONDAY, JUNE 14, 1841.

CASE OF THE MALEK ADHEL. The examination of more witnesses in this case, occupied the time of the Court until the hour of adjournment. The witnesses examined were Wm. R. Crocker, the second mate; Benjamin Dill, seaman; and John Gonsalvez, who, it seems, started as a passenger, but was set to work after the vessel sailed. Their evidence not varying in any material point from that of Myers, the first mate, published before, we do think it necessary to report it. Before any further witnesses were examined the Court adjourned.

BALTIMORE COUNTY COURT.

MONDAY, JUNE 14, 1841.

The case of Dr. Jamieson vs. the People's Line of Stages, for damages for an injury received by the upsetting of one of their stages, and which we alluded to some days since, after being argued before the Jury on Saturday and part of to-day, was closed, and the Jury rendered a verdict for the Defendants.

MRS. POWER. The foreign correspondent of the New York Sun, states that a report was current that Mrs. Power, wife of Tyrone Power, had died from over anxiety on account of her husband.

DAVIES' FAMILY PILLS.

[From Captain PARRISH, who commenced to use them when diseased in August, 1839]

PHILADELPHIA, June 2, 1840.

☞ To DR. DAVIES: Dear Sir—I have had experience in the virtue of your Pills, sufficient to recommend them as a superior cathartic and excellent carminative, and also as a family medicine that every one should be in possession of. There is no doubt that if persons and families generally were acquainted with their efficacy, they might save many a dollar now paid for doctor's bills. Yours respectfully,

E. PARRISH.

HARPER'S FERRY, August 11, 1840.

DR. WM. DAVIES: Dear Sir—I am happy to inform you and the public, that I have been cured of that dreadful disease the Rheumatism, by taking your Family Pills. Yours, respectfully, JOHN DYE.

We, the undersigned, are agents at Harper's Ferry for the sale of Dr. Davies' Family Pills, know our neighbour, Mr. Dye, sold him the pills of which he speaks so highly, and believe his statement to be substantially true. Respectfully,

MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS
AND VEGETABLE BITTERS.

THE perfectly safe, unerring and successful treatment of almost every species of disease by the use of MOFFAT'S LIFE MEDICINES, is no longer a matter of doubt, as a reference to the experience of many thousand patients will satisfactorily prove. During the present month alone, nearly one hundred cases have come to the knowledge of Mr. Moffat, where the patient has, to all appearance, effected a permanent cure by the exclusive and judicious use of the Life Medicines—some eight or ten of these had been considered beyond all hope by their medical attendants.—Such happy results are a source of great pleasure to Mr. M. and inspire him with new confidence to recommend the use of his medicines to his fellow citizens.

The Life Medicines are a purely VEGETABLE preparation. They are mild and pleasant in their operation, and at the same time thorough—acting rapidly upon the secretions of the system—carrying off all acrimonious humors, and assimilating with and purifying the blood. For this reason, in aggravated cases of dyspepsia, the Life Medicines will give relief in a shorter space of time than any other prescription; in Fever-and-ague, Inflammation, Fevers of every description, Sick headache, heartburn dizziness in the head, pains in the chest, flatulency, impaired appetite, in every disease arising from an impurity of the blood, or a disordered state of the stomach, the use of these medicines has always proved to be beyond doubt greatly superior to any other mode of treatment.

All that Mr. Moffat asks of his patients is to be particular in taking them strictly according to the directions. It is not by a newspaper notice, or by any thing that he himself may say in their favor, that he hopes to gain credit, it is alone by the results of a fair trial. Is the reader an invalid, and does he wish to know whether the life medicines will suit his own case? If so let him call or send to Mr. Moffat's agent in this place, and procure a copy of the Medical Manual, designed as a domestic guide to health, published gratuitously. He will here find enumerated very many extraordinary cases of cure; and perhaps some exactly similar to his own. Moffat's medical office in New York, 175 Broadway, and for sale by the Agents. JAS. WEBB'S PATENT BURNERS,
AND CAMPHINE OIL.

FOR SALE AT No. 109 E. BALTIMORE STREET, between South and Calvert streets, where Burners of every description can be obtained. Those who are sceptical as to its safety or economy, would, I trust be perfectly satisfied by examining the opinion of Professor Locke, of Ohio, on "WEBB'S CAMPHINE," or by referring to the Journals of the Franklin and American Institutes, of Philadelphia and New York. All these desirous of obtaining a clean, brilliant, and economical light, will find it a ready to their advantage by calling on the subscriber. The public may be assured of one fact, that we require no meters to ascertain the amount of Camphine consumed, as they register correctly and in plain English.

☞ ASTRAL LAMPS ALTERED.

N. B. We have appointed JOSHUA ATKINSON Agent, No. 22 Market street, F. P, where all orders will meet with immediate attention.

P. AUGUSTUS BAILEY, Agent
For the Proprietors.

The following letter to the Agent, exhibits the superiority of the Camphine over Gas or Oil light, in brilliancy and cheapness:

New York, March 23, 1840.

DEAR SIR—I received yours of the 19th instant, and proceed, as you request, to inform you that WEBB'S PATENT LAMP, in my opinion, is much superior to any Lamp now in use—the Camphine produces better light than Gas or Oil. I have burned Oil for five years, Gas for eleven, and Webb's Camphine for 20 months. I have a better light in my bar-room with five of Webb's burners than I had in the same room with eleven gas lights. In fact, I light my whole house at less expense with the Camphine than it cost me to light my bar-room alone with gas. I recommend it as being the cheapest and best light now in use.

Yours respectfully, THOMAS RILEY,
mh10-tf Fifth Ward Hotel.

BALTIMORE LOCK DISPENSARY,

"NO CURE NO PAY."

DR. HUNTER'S RED DROP. This long established and highly valuable medicine is now no novelty. It has been before the public for a long time, and by its merits alone, has it risen to a degree of estimation not enjoyed by any other medicine, for the certain cure of the Syphilitic disease. Prompt and effectual in action, yet harmless to the constitution, is its well established character, having never failed to give entire satisfaction in all the many thousand cases, where it has been used as directed.—These absolute and undeniable facts speak trumpet-tongued to the afflicted, and are the basis of a well founded hope of the philanthropist, that this unequalled medicine may circulate far and wide for the benefit of the human race.

This medicine gives the prodigal a chance to repent. Thousands have been saved and radically cured, after suffering under the hands of impostors, by this medicine, and who with grateful hearts are ready to attest to its value, and have allowed themselves to be referred to.

Persons residing at any distance, can have medicine sent to them, packed secure from observation.

It was out of pure motives of philanthropy, that this medicine was first made public; the price always to remain $1 per Bottle, to be within the reach of the most unfortunate.

☞ Letters addressed, (post paid) describing the case, mode of living, &c. will be promptly attended to. Direct No. 17 Harrison street.

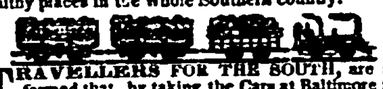
SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.
GREAT SOUTHERN
UNITED STATES' MAIL LINE,
DAILY TO THE SOUTH.

☞ Bear in mind, that Passengers who go by the Chesapeake Bay and Portsmouth and Roanoke Rail Road, have 40 miles of Rail Road travelling through the DISMAL SWAMP at midnight, over one of the worst Rail Roads in America, and then are often compelled to lay over 17 hours at Weldon, one of the most unhealthy places in the whole Southern country.



TRAVELLERS FOR THE SOUTH, are informed that, by taking the Cars at Baltimore for Washington at 9 A. M., they proceed, without one moment's delay, via Washington, Fredericksburg, Richmond, Petersburg, Weldon, and Wilmington, N. C. to CHARLESTON, S. C., reaching Charleston the second morning after leaving Baltimore, and often one day in advance of any other Line—the Companies on the route being bound by the Postmaster General to make the following quick Schedule:

Passengers for Richmond and Petersburg will find this Line far the most expeditious, arriving at Richmond to lodge, (as will be seen from the above Schedule,) on the evening of the day on which they leave Baltimore, being from 16 to 18 hours in advance of those taking the Bay Steam Boats.

☞ This is much the nearest, quickest, and cheapest route to the interior of Virginia, North and South Carolina—at Petersburg, Va. commences the route by way of Raleigh, N. UNITED STATES MAIL LINE,
DAILY TO THE SOUTH, Sunday's excepted.
Via the Chesapeake Bay and Portsmouth and Roanoke Rail Road,

THE BALTIMORE STEAM-PACKET CO. announce to the public that in accordance with the New Mail Arrangement, the Boats composing their line, viz: ALABAMA, Captain Sutton; GEORGIA, Captain Coffey; and JEWESS, Captain Holmes, will, on and after WEDNESDAY, the 26th of May, leave the lower end of Spear's wharf daily, (Sunday's excepted,) at nine o'clock, A.M. for Norfolk and Portsmouth, Va.

Passengers for Charleston will find the cars of the Portsmouth and Roanoke Rail Road Company, on the wharf, on their arrival at Portsmouth, ready to convey them to Weldon, N. C., where they will always arrive in time to take the cars for Wilmington, from which point to Charleston is by the Steamboat, which leaves Wilmington immediately after the Passengers are delivered from the cars.

Passengers for Richmond, Petersburg, or intermediate points on James River, by leaving Baltimore on Monday, Wednesday, or Friday, will sleep on board the Bay Boat and be transferred to the James River Boat next morning.

The Steamboat Fox leaves the Black Water station on the Portsmouth and Roanoke Rail Road, every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, on the arrival of the cars from Portsmouth, for Edenton and Plymouth, N. C., and returns every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, delivering her passengers to the cars as they pass down from Weldon, enabling them to arrive in Baltimore next day, (Sundays excepted.)

RETURNING, one of the above Boats will leave Norfolk every night (Saturday being excepted) at 8 o'clock, and cross over to Portsmouth where she will wait the arrival of the Cars from Weldon, and depart for Baltimore as soon as the passengers and baggage are on board, arriving here in about 14 hours after departing from Portsmouth.

Should the Boat get an early start from Portsmouth, Passengers for Philadelphia and New York will have the opportunity of being placed on board the Philadelphia Steamboat in the Patapsco River, and will arrive in Philadelphia the same night by 11 o'clock, after having travelled 380 miles in 20 hours, without as much fatigue as would be incurred in walking from the Boat to the wharf.

☞ No freight will be forwarded on the day it is to leave unless it is alongside, prior to 8 o'clock, A.M.
