FAIR HAVEN. This elegant establishment will be open for the reception of visiters on and after Monday next, the 21st June. The proprietor having made considerable additions and improvements to the establishment, and having provided the same with everything necessary for the comfort and convenience of visiters, feels the utmost confidence in recommending it as a very desirable summer retreat. Fair Haven is situated on the Western Shore of the Chesapeake Bay, about 20 miles below the city of Annapolis; is remarkable healthy—the scenery beautiful and pleasant. (Strangers have said that the scenery alone was a sufficient inducement to visit the place.) The proprietor, ever anxious to accommodate the public, has determined to make such a reduction from his former rates, as will correspond with the present pressure of the times.

The Steamboat Patuxent will leave Baltimore every TUESDAY MORNING, at 6 o'clock, for Fair Haven, and return from thence in the evening. She will also leave Baltimore every THURSDAY MORNING, at 6 o'clock, and will land passengers at Fair Haven on her route to the Patuxent; and will return thence on SUNDAY, touching at Fair Haven. Persons availing themselves of the conveyance to visit Fair Haven only, will not be subject to any charge returning.
