THE POTOMAC PAVILION, PINEY POINT. THE SUBSCRIBER respectfully informs his friends and the Public that he has returned the management of this popular Bathing Place, and that it is now open for the reception of company.

There are a spacious Bath Room, Billiard Room, Bowling Alley, Quoit Yard, &c., the whole fronting the river to the south, within a hundred yards of the "white beach." There are provided, also, two beautiful and commodious rafts, under the charge of an experienced and skillful seaman. There are bathing houses for those who prefer them to the open surf; also a substantial wharf for the steamboats to come up to, instead of landing and taking off passengers in the small boats, as heretofore; which, moreover, enables visitors to bring carriages and horses, if they choose.
