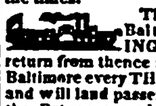
FAIR HAVEN. This elegant establishment will be open for the reception of visiters on and after Monday next, the 21st June. The proprietor having made considerable additions and improvements to the establishment, and having provided the same with everything necessary for the comfort and convenience of visiters, feels the utmost confidence in recommending it as a very desirable summer retreat. Fair Haven is situated on the Western Shore of the Chesapeake Bay, about 20 miles below the city of Annapolis; is remarkable healthy—the scenery beautiful and pleasant. (Strangers have said that the scenery alone was a sufficient inducement to visit the place.) The proprietor, ever anxious to accommodate the public, has determined to make such a reduction from his former rates, as will correspond with the present pressure of the times.



The Steamboat Patuxent will leave Baltimore every TUESDAY MORNING, at 6 o'clock, for Fair Haven, and return from thence in the evening. She will also leave Baltimore every THURSDAY MORNING, at 6 o'clock, and will land passengers at Fair Haven on her route to the Patuxent; and will return thence on SUNDAY, touching at Fair Haven. Persons availing themselves of the conveyance to visit Fair Haven only, will not be subject to any charge returning.

THE POTOMAC PAVILLION, PINEY POINT.

THE SUBSCRIBER respectfully informs his friends and the Public that he has resumed the management of this popular Bathing Place, and that it is now open for the reception of company.

Piney Point, on which the Pavilion is situated, is a clear open cape, (though wooded in the rear on the north and east,) jutting into the Potomac near its mouth, where the river is eight or ten miles wide, in full view of the Chesapeak bay. The bathing is very fine, the water being nearly as salt as that of the ocean, and the air is pure. It possesses the advantage of the greatest abundance of the largest oysters, of soft and hard crabs, and all the varieties of excellent fish with which the waters of the Chesapeake abound.

There are a spacious Ball Room, Billiard Room, Bowling Alley, Quoit Yards, &c., the whole fronting the river to the south, within a hundred yards of the clean white beach. There are provided, also, two beautiful and commodious yachts, under the charge of an experienced and skilful seaman. There are bathing houses for those who prefer them to the open surf; also a substantial wharf for the steamboats to come up to, instead of landing and taking off passengers in the small boats, as heretofore; which, moreover, enables visitors to bring carriages and horses, if they choose.

Besides the salt water luxuries above named, every thing will be supplied for the table which the markets of the District, Baltimore, and Norfolk can afford, to which the steamboat lines furnish regular access; and the house will be amply provided with the best wines and other liquors.

The establishment has been well, though plainly, furnished throughout, including new mattresses and bed furniture. The establishment is sufficiently large to accommodate 200 visiters.

The steamers which ply between the District and Baltimore and Norfolk furnish to the inhabitants of those cities regular opportunities for visiting and departing from the Pavillion.

The subscriber has procured the aid of efficient and attentive assistants for the Bar and other departments of the establishment.

It is determined that moderate charges shall constitute one of the advantages of the establishment; to this shall be added the most zealous efforts to please, and the subscriber trusts that these efforts, united to the experience acquired by him as keeper for several years of a public house, will enable him to give satisfaction to all who may favor him with a visit.

P. J. HEPBURN.

Price of board $1 25 per day, children under twelve years of age and servants half price.

N. B.—Families desirous of spending a considerable portion of the season will be taken on more moderate terms.

☞ The Columbia steamer, Capt. Guyther, leaves Baltimore every Saturday evening at 4 o'clock, arriving at Piney Point early next morning.
